Plexico, charged with criminal assault. Salesday For November.

Next Monday is salesday for November. The following real estate will be offered at public auction by the clerk: Two tracts near Tirzah-one of 52 acres and the other of 179 acres-to be sold for partition at the suit of Charles J. Miller against John J. Miller. Tract of 54 acres in Bullock's Creek township, to be sold for partition at the suit of R. Banks Black vs. J. W. Black and others. A tract of 1,320 acres in Bethesda township, to be sold under foreclosure, at the suit of the British and American Mortgage company against J. R. Lindsay. A tract of 319 acres in York township, to be sold for partition at the suit of John I. Barron vs. Anna B. Steele and others.

Death of H. J. Harshaw.

Mr. H. J. Harshaw, a well-known and highly esteemed citizen of the Guthriesville neighborhood, died at his home on last Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Mr. Harshaw was a farmer, about 58 years of age, and was a good, substantial citizen. He enjoyed good health until a few months ago when he was suddenly stricken with a serious malady which did not readily yield to treatment. The disease made steady progress and was finally diagnosed as cancer of the stomach. The funeral took place at Bethesda on yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, being conducted by Rev. W. G. Neville, and was largely attended. The deceased leaves a widow and six childrenthree sons and three daughters. The sons are Messrs. James, W. O. and John A. Harshaw, and the daughters are Mrs. W. J. P. Wylie, and Misses Ida and Marion Harshaw.

Opposition to Finley. Rock Hill special of Thursday to Columbia State: The Republicans of the Fifth congressional district met here today. There were thirty delegates representing the six counties in the district. There was only one white man, John F. Jones, of Blacksburg, in the convention. Much discussion as to the policy of the party in the state was entered into. The unanimous sentiment, however, was that they would fight any man in South Carolina, white or black, who would attempt to eliminate the Negro either as voter, office-holder or adviser. Three nominations were made for congress, John F. Jones, of Cherokee and Joseph C. Clark, of Lancaster, white, and C. P. T. White, colored, of York. Clar c's name was finally withdra n ar. the race was between the others. In the ballot which ensued Jno. F. Jones received one vote and C. P. T. White received the rest. J. F. Atkins, colored, of Lowrysville, was elected district chairman, and Jno. F. Jones, white, of Blacksburg, secretary. C. P. T. White, the nominee for congress, is the editor of the Rock Hill Messenger. Fort Mill Presbyterian Church.

Fort Mill Times: For some time past the congregation of the Fort Mill Presbyterian church has been in a quandary as to what action to take in regard to the condition of the church building. The building is much in need of repairs, and it is said by those familiar with such work, that it will require quite a sum of money to put the church in proper shape. In view of this fact, and the present location of the church, it was claimed by some that it would be better to tear down the building and erect it at a more central point of the town, thus affording a like convenience to all members. A meeting of the congregation was held just after services Sunday for the purpose of deciding what action should be taken in the matter, and after due consideration, it was concluded to allow the building to remain upon its present site, and committees were appointed to solicit funds for the repairs. The roof of the building, besides being leaky, is badly sagged in the center, and it is feared that to repair it it will be necesary to renew the entire frame work. The church was built in 1881 and very little money has thus far been expended for repairs upon the building. Good Detective Work.

Lancaster special of Wednesday to the Columbia State: A nice piece of detective work, requiring almost as much skill as is put forth by Mr. Sherlock Holmes in the ferreting out of crime, has just been completed by Sheriff Jno. P. Hunter. The story commences the 18th of October, instant, and the place is here in our midst On that day the cornerstone of the new Masonic temple and graded school building was laid by Most Worshipful Grand Master Walter M. Whitehead, assisted by Past Grand Masters Jacob T. Barron and Bartlett J. Witherspoon. All the Masons of the county as well as several from abroad were in attendance, and among them Mr. Paul McNeel, of Yorkville. That night, Mr. McNeel was the guest of Capt. Bartlett J. Witherspoon. The next morning Mr. McNeel dressed, and went up street and soon missed his "bill book." He mentioned the fact to Mr. M. S. Witherspoon, a son of the captain, saying that he might have left it in his room. Mr. Witherspoon supposing the "bill book" contained only papers, sent his man-servant, Jno. Mc-Ilwaine, colored, up to the room for the book. The Negro in a short time came back and reported that the book was not there. Mr. McNeil returned home that day, leaving behind $160, the contents of the book. The matter had about passed out of the minds of everybody except our vigilant sheriff, who i ever on the qui vive. Last Saturday night, Sheriff Hunter learned that Tom McKenna had gotten a 20-dollar gold certificate changed at the store of R. Miles. Just here the sheriff took hold with the result that the Negro butler, John McIlwaine and Tom McKenna are now in jail awaiting trial on the charge of grand larceny. The sheriff com-municated so many facts and circumstances to John, which he supposed were only known to himself and Maker that the Negro broke down and confess-ed the whole thing. He admitted to ed the whole thing. He admitted to having found the pocket book on going to the room. So thorough has been the work of the sheriff that he has actually recovered $135.90 of the money which was deposited with various portable Negro banks in the county, extending from the North Carolina line to Kershaw county. One Negro, an uncle of the butler, had $60 which he was about to invest in a mule.
