

unequal to more exacting work, and he was unwilling to commit himself to idleness. Recently, however, the Southern began taking about all the water it uses between King's Creek and Rock Hill at Sharon, and finding the work of attending to the pump too heavy, Mr. Thomas resigned. He does not stand in need of such employment for a livelihood. He has been careful and saving all his life, and has managed to provide for his old age with reasonable comfort. Not only that; he enjoys the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances and friends who are always glad of opportunities to contribute to his pleasure.

LOCAL LACONICS.

The Allison Creek School. The new school building in Allison Creek district was completed last week, and the school commenced work on last Monday in charge of Miss Ida Ferguson. The school house is located about eight miles northeast of Yorkville, and is built somewhat after the model recently prepared by Superintendent of Education Carroll.

The K. M. M. A. Ball Team. The K. M. M. A. baseball team was defeated by the Wofford college team in Spartanburg last Friday, the score being 16 to 0. On Saturday the K. M. M. A. played the Furman team in Greenville, and sustained another defeat, the score being 19 to 2. In both instances the college teams proved too much for the K. M. M. A. boys.

Committed From Rock Hill. Adam Steele, colored, was committed to jail on Monday by Magistrate Beckham, of Catawba township, on the charge of assault and battery with intent to kill.

Auction Sales. There were two action sales under decretal orders on last Monday, Saturday for April, one by the clerk and the other by the sheriff. In the case of E. W. Query, plaintiff vs. B. B. Elms, defendant, the clerk sold the Andrew Bailes land, in Fort Mill township. The tract contained 142 acres. It was bought by E. W. Query for $500.

York County Bible Society. The York County Bible society was called to order in annual meeting in the Presbyterian church last Sunday night after the congregation assembled for the occasion had listened to a sermon by Rev. J. L. Stokes. Rev. W. G. Neville, the president, presided over the proceedings, and in the absence of the secretary, J. S. Brice, Esq., kept the records. The report of the depository, Mr. W. M. Kennedy, showed that Bibles to the value of $36.61 were sold during the year. Rev. W. G. Neville was re-elected president, and the pastors of the various churches were elected as vice presidents. Mr. S. M. McNeil was elected secretary and Mr. W. M. Kennedy was re-elected treasurer and depository. A committee was appointed to see that the various penal and charitable institutions of the county are properly supplied with Bibles. The executive committee consists of one member from each of the local churches. Mr. W. M. Kennedy has in the depository an ample selection of plain Bibles in good substantial binding which he is selling at cost to those who are able to buy and giving away to those who are unable to pay for them.

The Annual Re-Union. Columbia correspondence News and Courier: When the Confederate reunion is held here, next month, the Richland delegation will advocate a plan of making the reunions permanent, and that is meant to do away with the yearly doubt as to what city will entertain the veterans. The reunions are growing in interest, and the number of veterans annually attending them is very large. There is no city in the state that would not be glad to entertain the old soldiers, but cost is a serious consideration for many of them. The idea is to have individuals in each county who are interested in the veterans contribute a small amount for the holding of the reunion. Then with the aid of a small appropriation from the state an outfit could be bought, consisting of tents, cots, blankets, etc., which could be used by the veterans every year. As can readily be seen only a small amount would have to be raised from each county and the appropriation from the state would only be a sort of guarantee that the reunion would certainly be held. When it is considered that only three or four thousand dollars is all that is necessary for Columbia to raise to entertain the veterans, it can be seen how easy it is to do so. The amount to be raised from all over the state could be obtained. After all expenses had been accounted for the surplus could be used for paying the expenses of needy veterans to the reunion. The plan further proposes that Columbia be made the place for the reunion every year, and that the consent of the Agricultural and Mechanical society be obtained for the use of the grounds and buildings, which is an ideal place for an event of this kind. The city would willingly give a small amount annually to bring the veterans here, and there seems little doubt but that the plan will receive the serious consideration of the veterans. Should it be adopted men will be named in each county to look after the matter annually, and the matter of holding reunions settled once for all.

PARKHURST ON SLAVERY.—The Rev. Chas. Parkhurst, of New York, in his sermon last Sunday, touched upon a phase of the Negro question. "Compulsory obedience," he said, "is not the ideal form, but ideal obedience has to be reached through a preliminary stage of compulsion." Continuing he said: "It was well for the Negroes in the south that, not being competent to be a law for themselves, they had masters that were a law to them. They ought to be thankful on the whole, that the institution existed, and such of them as are not yet drawn under any other system of government would be better off if that institution still existed. It was slavery to be sure, and as such was irksome and grinding, but slavery in its essence is only another name for subjection to mastery; and that is purely external mastery; and until a man can master himself he is exceedingly unfortunate not to be some sort of a slave master to master him."

CATHOLICS AFTER ROOSEVELT.—The following article appears in the April issue of the Monthly Calendar, a publication issued in connection with the work of the Roman Catholic church at St. Vincent Ferrer, at Lexington avenue and 66th street: "Among the eulogists of John Wesley on the occasion of his recent anniversary, was an irrepressible and strenuous president. We wonder if Mr. Roosevelt is aware of the fact that the founder of Methodism was the lifelong foe of our American independence. While the Irish Catholics in Washington's army—and half his army were Irish—were freely shedding their blood in the cause of American freedom, Wesley was exerting all his power to compass the defeat of that cause. That such a man should receive the laudations of a typical American like Roosevelt almost surpasses belief. But the wonder ceases when we remember that his excellency had previously chosen as his ideal hero the notorious and ever infamous Oliver Cromwell. Verily, our worthy president hath the courage of his convictions. To us it seems that he has fatally handicapped himself in his race to secure a second term by openly antagonizing his Irish-Catholic fellow citizens, for they not only have votes, but long memories as well, and they have not read history through British spectacles."—New York Evening Sun.

Charlotte Observer: There is already a good deal of speculation as to what kind of building will replace the old court house on West Trade street after it has been sold along with the other real estate belonging to the estate of the late Henry Gratton Springs. The site is one of the best in town for any purpose. It would give room for a fine hotel, a mammoth store or a magnificent office building. At any rate the old court house doesn't even half pay taxes, and it is bound to go down and give way to some kind of a new building. And the town will rejoice.

"Invalids Want to INSURE."

The Western Underwriter says: "Invalids want to insure; healthy men hesitate. It is only a step from one to the other—but how different the point of view!" You May Be Healthy And insurable today. Next week you may not be insurable in a company of the Mutual Benefit's class, and should you be brought to realize the fact you would mourn over your procrastination. Nineteen men out of twenty who know anything about the principles of life insurance and who are familiar with the record of the Mutual Benefit and its Policy contracts, will tell you that no company in the world can or will give you more for your money than you can get from the Mutual Benefit, and they will also tell you that it is not necessary to know anything about policies or insurance in order to get anything to which you are entitled to as much as the man who "knows it all." SAM M. GRIST, Special Agent.

PLANTING TIME IS NEAR.

REMEMBER that the season for planting is near at hand, and a crop properly planted will give universal satisfaction, both in dropping corn and distributing fertilizers.

Our Cotton Planters have a revolving feed wheel, also bevel iron wheel which will condense the seed to such a narrow space that the seed will burst almost any crust that may be formed by heavy rains; this is a distinct advantage over other planters.
