The judge had had his patience sore ly tried by lawyers who wished to talk and by men who tried to evade jury service. Between hypothetical questions and excuses it seemed as if they never would get to the actual trial of the case. So when the puzzled little German who had been accepted by both sides jumped up, the judge was exasperated.

Too Poor to be a Bankrupt.

Bankruptcy is a word that means the limit of financial misfortune to most business men, but it isn't the limit by any means. This truth was the office of Henry F. Cassin, United The funeral took place at Union Pres States commissioner:

Mr. Cassin was approached by a man whose tailor-made garments had grown slippery in some spots and frazzled in others. He wore a careworn expression and the need of a haircut on his face.

Where Peggy hid to escape is a profound mystery. It is certain that she was locked in the office on Saturday night and that the room was not open-ed on Sunday. Peggy can give a splen-did imitation of how a singed cat looks, and appears to have lost some of her spirit.

More than a thousand steel safes went down in the ruins, and now that they are being opened, many surprises are discovered.

Felix R. Sullivan of 25 South Water street was overjoyed to see his big strongbox come up out of the ruins apstrongook come up out of the ruins apparently unhurt save for the paint. The combination lock yielded to his manipulation as easily as ever. When he swung the door back, however, he found every scrap of paper within it reduced to ashes. Even the bit of brussels carpet on the floor of the safe was but charred wool.

A big safe belonging to the largest firm of pawnbrokers in Baltimore appeared intact when brought out of the ruins. It contained 324 gold and silver watches, 200 diamond and other rings and a lot of miscellaneous gold and silver ornaments.

Except for less than a score of pieces, the watches, rings and ornawas but charred wool.

pieces, the watches, rings and orna-ments had all melted and run togeth-er in one big lump on the floor of the safe. The inside of the heavy doors was not even scorched, and yet every wooden drawer in the safe was in ashes.

Several safes which were opened before they had cooled exploded the moment air reached the interior, and set everything within on fire.

G. E. Leary of Rock Hall, Md., 25 miles from Baltimore, has sent here a bill of lading picked up on his farm and made out by the Old Bay Line the day before the fire. Its edges were slightly burned. This indicates the velocity of the wind during the fire.

L. G. Mathews, of the insurance firm of H. L. Spear & Co., remembered dur-ing the fire that in the firm's safe along with valuable papers were with valuable papers were several boxes of parlor matches. He made a desperate effort to reach the strong box, but failed. When the safe was opened not a match had been ignited by the tremendous heat, and everything was intact.

Thomas R. Jenifer who lives at Tow-son seven miles from the city, found in son seven miles from the city, found in his front yard on the Tuesday after the fire a charred portion of a Tes-tament, and carefully enclosed there-in, and uninjured, a portion of Inger-soll's lecture on Voltaire.

A scorched postal card of the Thir National bank was found by N. N. Keune at Bear Creek, Md., about thirty miles from the city in a straight line.

That some men are marked for ill luck is shown by the misfortune of S. T. Rodberg, a Baltimore street jeweller. Some years ago he was robbed of diamonds valued at several thousand dollars. His safe has just been opened, and the $40,000 worth of diamonds and temptry it contained are found to and jewelry it contained are found to

The gold had all melted and run to gether. The stones are, he says, of lit-tle if any value now. In the same safe a white silk handherchief was found whole and unsoiled.
