

Scraps and Facts.

The Latimer good roads bill will be reported favorably by the senate committee by agreement early in the next session of congress.

—Daniel Keegan, a Confederate veteran, found dead in his room in New Orleans last Wednesday, was famed as the man who blew the last bugle call at the battle of Appomattox.

—There has been so much trouble at the war department over the enlistment of minors in the army that it has been found necessary to issue supplemental instructions to all recruiting officers to take every precaution possible to verify the statement as to age which may be given by an applicant.

It seems that when the Russians lose a warship they have an invariable custom of attributing the trouble to their own mines.

EX-GOVERNOR HOGG of Texas, wants to know whether or not Judge Parker supported Bryan four years ago.

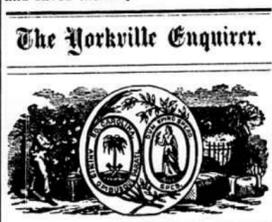

It has been charged that the Hearst boom has been manufactured out of the whole cloth by means of newspapers and otherwise.

The military and naval experts calculate that as a result of the battle a few days ago, the Japanese now have complete control of the sea and they can do as they please.

Both included in Russian losses at Port Arthur Wednesday. The Russian battleship Petropavlovsk went down in the harbor of Port Arthur last Wednesday.

—There was a terrible accident on board the United States battleship Missouri, off Pensacola, Fla., last Wednesday, as the result of which twenty-nine men were instantly killed and five were injured.

The men to leave the turret. While they were going, two charges of powder in the ammunition room below blew up, and this last explosion completed the havoc.

YORKVILLE, S. C. FRIDAY, APRIL 15, 1904.

SENATOR Tillman resumed his seat in the senate last Tuesday after an absence of six weeks on account of a serious throat affection.

LIEUTENANT Gridley, a son of Capt. Gridley, one of the heroes of the battle of Manila bay, was among the killed in the turret accident on the Missouri at Pensacola last Wednesday.

It develops that the race between Hobson and Bankhead in the Sixth Alabama district was very close.

It seems that when the Russians lose a warship they have an invariable custom of attributing the trouble to their own mines.

EX-GOVERNOR HOGG of Texas, wants to know whether or not Judge Parker supported Bryan four years ago.

It has been charged that the Hearst boom has been manufactured out of the whole cloth by means of newspapers and otherwise.

The military and naval experts calculate that as a result of the battle a few days ago, the Japanese now have complete control of the sea and they can do as they please.

Both included in Russian losses at Port Arthur Wednesday. The Russian battleship Petropavlovsk went down in the harbor of Port Arthur last Wednesday.

Both included in Russian losses at Port Arthur Wednesday. The Russian battleship Petropavlovsk went down in the harbor of Port Arthur last Wednesday.

—There was a terrible accident on board the United States battleship Missouri, off Pensacola, Fla., last Wednesday, as the result of which twenty-nine men were instantly killed and five were injured.

The incident has been officially reported at St. Petersburg, and there are numerous conflicting details as to the same general result.

There are also reports of serious fighting on the Yalu river, and the consensus of these reports seems to indicate that the Japanese are getting the best of the situation.

HE'S ON THE FENCE.

Senator Tillman has placed a temporary injunction upon the claim the Hearst managers are making to the South Carolina delegation to the National Convention.

How does South Carolina regard Judge Parker as an available candidate for president at the senate?

My views regarding our party's nominee have not changed during my forced absence from the senate.

The managers of Mr. Hearst insist on placing South Carolina in the Hearst column," remarked the reporter.

While in Yorkville the other day the writer heard the statement made that our chief of police, Mr. C. B. Mendenhall, had been arrested.

Devil No Longer Concerned About Bothsomes Details. A story is told to the effect that a certain prominent church member and dispensary advocate in this state.

Both included in Russian losses at Port Arthur Wednesday. The Russian battleship Petropavlovsk went down in the harbor of Port Arthur last Wednesday.

Both included in Russian losses at Port Arthur Wednesday. The Russian battleship Petropavlovsk went down in the harbor of Port Arthur last Wednesday.

CLOVER CULLINGS.

The Work of the Farmers—Mill Closes Down For Repairs—Beans Come Up Blacked.

The cotton mill closed down last night with the expectation of resuming operations on next Monday.

Mr. W. B. Stroup was elected mayor of Clover last week to succeed Mr. F. J. Smith, who recently resigned to accept the appointment as magistrate for King's Mountain township.

Some Cloverites feel considerable interest in the hot project at Yorkville about which THE ENQUIRER has had something to say on several occasions recently.

Although all the people who have been sick with pneumonia here during the past six weeks are not entirely well, the majority are either well or convalescing.

While in Yorkville the other day the writer heard the statement made that our chief of police, Mr. C. B. Mendenhall, had been arrested.

While in Yorkville the other day the writer heard the statement made that our chief of police, Mr. C. B. Mendenhall, had been arrested.

While in Yorkville the other day the writer heard the statement made that our chief of police, Mr. C. B. Mendenhall, had been arrested.

While in Yorkville the other day the writer heard the statement made that our chief of police, Mr. C. B. Mendenhall, had been arrested.

While in Yorkville the other day the writer heard the statement made that our chief of police, Mr. C. B. Mendenhall, had been arrested.

While in Yorkville the other day the writer heard the statement made that our chief of police, Mr. C. B. Mendenhall, had been arrested.

While in Yorkville the other day the writer heard the statement made that our chief of police, Mr. C. B. Mendenhall, had been arrested.

While in Yorkville the other day the writer heard the statement made that our chief of police, Mr. C. B. Mendenhall, had been arrested.

Jones is determined that the present insurance law shall have the widest possible publicity as there are so many complaints filed from farmers and others who have been swindled.

There was a fierce street fight in Greenville last Wednesday night as the result of which Policeman J. P. Tucker was shot to death by a white man named Ellis Sanders.

Columbia Record, Wednesday: It is possible that about a thousand of the state troops will go to Manassas in September for several days encampment, all expenses to be paid by the government.

Washington special to Columbia Record: Representative Lever called on Prof. Spillman, agronomist of the department of Agriculture, yesterday.

As has already been suggested, some farmers have seen proper to take the risk and commence seeding regardless of weather conditions and others are very much tempted to do so.

Columbia special of April 12, to Charleston Post: When Gov. Heyward heard of Mr. S. G. Mayfield's declaration that dispensary constables are aiding Mr. L. J. Williams in the congressional campaign.

Columbia Record, Tuesday: According to the cotton oil mill men the crop this year in cotton seed is very short and most of the mills in this state have closed down.

Columbia Record, Tuesday: According to the cotton oil mill men the crop this year in cotton seed is very short and most of the mills in this state have closed down.

Columbia Record, Tuesday: According to the cotton oil mill men the crop this year in cotton seed is very short and most of the mills in this state have closed down.

Columbia Record, Tuesday: According to the cotton oil mill men the crop this year in cotton seed is very short and most of the mills in this state have closed down.

Columbia Record, Tuesday: According to the cotton oil mill men the crop this year in cotton seed is very short and most of the mills in this state have closed down.

Columbia Record, Tuesday: According to the cotton oil mill men the crop this year in cotton seed is very short and most of the mills in this state have closed down.

Columbia Record, Tuesday: According to the cotton oil mill men the crop this year in cotton seed is very short and most of the mills in this state have closed down.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

J. Q. Wray—Says there is no question about the superb quality of "Sun-bet" clothes, quotes some prices and makes a free offer to buyers of $1 worth of goods tomorrow.

Miss Rosa Lindsay—Invites you to come to Lindsay's studio for photographs. Open 9 a. m., to 5 p. m.

Mr. M. M. Dobson spent several days in Charleston this week.

Miss Mary Jackson of Newport, S. C. is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. S. A. Weber.

Mr. Ross Clinton returned home Wednesday after a stay of several weeks in Baltimore.

Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Neville left for Abbeville yesterday to attend the funeral of Mrs. D. Wyatt Aiken, who died in Washington on Thursday.

As has already been suggested, some farmers have seen proper to take the risk and commence seeding regardless of weather conditions and others are very much tempted to do so.

Columbia Record, Tuesday: According to the cotton oil mill men the crop this year in cotton seed is very short and most of the mills in this state have closed down.

Columbia Record, Tuesday: According to the cotton oil mill men the crop this year in cotton seed is very short and most of the mills in this state have closed down.

Columbia Record, Tuesday: According to the cotton oil mill men the crop this year in cotton seed is very short and most of the mills in this state have closed down.

Columbia Record, Tuesday: According to the cotton oil mill men the crop this year in cotton seed is very short and most of the mills in this state have closed down.

Columbia Record, Tuesday: According to the cotton oil mill men the crop this year in cotton seed is very short and most of the mills in this state have closed down.

Columbia Record, Tuesday: According to the cotton oil mill men the crop this year in cotton seed is very short and most of the mills in this state have closed down.

advised a day or two ago of a prosperous farmer in the northwestern part of the county who is now selling this commodity at $1.25 per hundred.

On the close of the plaintiff's evidence the defendant moved for a nonsuit, and thereafter the plaintiff applied for leave to conform her pleading to the proof by striking out the word "flying" wherever the phrase "flying switch" occurs.

Chief Justice Pope: As the amendment moved by the plaintiff did not materially change the cause of action and as such amendment could not have been made without the consent of the defendant, the amendment was allowed.

There should be a new trial. Mr. Justice Gary and Mr. Justice Jones concur.

Mr. W. L. Moore has installed an acetylene gas plant in his residence. The lights are very satisfactory and economical.

Spring trade seems to be progressing very nicely. There have been no large crowds in town recently; but nevertheless trade continues to develop in gratifying volume.

Mr. R. E. Montgomery has just procured a tire shrinker that does perfect work without requiring the heating or cutting of tires.

Some new streets might be opened in Yorkville with very considerable advantage to the town.

The committee recently appointed by the Commercial club to get subscriptions to the proposed 6 per cent bond issue for the erection of a handsome hotel building is getting along nicely.

While there are numerous candidates for public office, there are not many indications that the people are going to get very much excited over the situation.

There is a farmer in the Beersheba neighborhood who has been giving considerable attention to fruit within the past few years, and who now has over 300 trees.

Mr. Littlejohn was asked a number of questions as to details, and gave comprehensive and satisfactory answers in all cases.

Mr. Littlejohn was asked a number of questions as to details, and gave comprehensive and satisfactory answers in all cases.