My Bulletin.

I N attempting to publish a BULLE-TIN it will be my purpose to show the public at home and abroad what clients desire to buy or sell. Where parties have attractive property to sell it would facilitate sales if they furnish a good picture and cut which would show property off to much better ad-vantage. People are not seedy all over the world as they seem to be in places where they imagine buyer, seller, and property must all be in sight to effect a deal. Our famous Rock Hill Buggy Company sold to parties in Africa, as well as New Zealand, recently and Company sold to parties in Africa, as well as New Zealand, recently and as well as new Zealand, lecently and I sold a farm to a man at Princeton, Ills., who has neither seen me nor the farm. All brought about by advertisills., who has neither seen me nor the farm. All brought about by advertising. Business people with money don't want to waste their time and means going to see people and property on uncertainties. They want property described and represented strictly as it is, therefore we should not only tell foreign buyers with printer's ink what we have to offer, but should show it by pictures as well. This kind of inducements will encourage thrifty inhabitants to invest and help to build up our country. Thrifty people don't care to settle where the inhabitants show lack of progress, snap and go. Our country is extra fine if it was developed. Such farmers as R. L. Sturgis, J. H. Miller, F. C. Whitner, the Barrons, Sam Friedheim, O. S. Poe, F. H. Barber & Son, Alex Williford, J. S. Stultz, Jno. Frazer of Chester, N. A. Simrill, of Yorkville, and scores of others I could name, who are farming with improved methods are the boys to put life and value in farming lands. ers I could name, who are farming with improved methods are the boys to put life and value in farming lands. There should be more ready market for real-estate than there is for cotton, because it is more substantial. What we need are traders who are ready to say something, whenever property is offered. By this, owners would take more interest in enhancing and beautifying the earth, which is the foundation to all other business. Assist this office and it will help you, both directly and indirectly. To have a pleasant life and world, we must be and act friendly toward everything good around us. Care for the land and it will support you. Neglect and abuse it, and both owner and land soon look as if they had no friends. Notice the attraction of paint and whitewash. Even pigeons flock to it, partly because it is rare. Civic Societies are great because they induce people to think about and make improvements. Let us not fuss and jangle with our neighbor, but strive for peace and pleasure. Our lawyers should be paid to study peace-making, instead of going to courts, often never to get out, with all sorts of unfair means to win and make enemies for life. I hope our Rock Hill attorneys will soon lead the band by having their signs read, "Counsellor-of-Peace," instead of "Attorney-at-Law." In my opinion they would carry more money and bring about more happiness. So

Not a Matter of Sentiment.

Life insurance is not a Life insurance is not a matter of sentiment, but simply a practical investment for the protection of the family, and at the same time providing for one's old age; and the same business principles which would govern the purchase of bank or cotton mill stock, are needed in the selection of the proper company in which to insure. You should examine what the CHARANTEES in the contract are GUARANTEES in the contract are and not consider any estimate of fu-GUARANTEES in the contract are and not consider any estimate of future earnings, except as they are warranted by the past record of the company; remembering that these ESTI-MATES are not a part of the contract, and are not included in it. Always keep the contract in view. Agents often present various side issues, which they press as reasons why the customer should buy their goods, and they naturally present that which will apparently show their company in the best light possible. Sometimes it is one thing and sometimes another. You should always bear in mind that the contract is what governs between you and the company, while statements made by the Agents, if not embodied in the contract, are of no value and are no part of it. The policies of all reputable companies have good features, but there are no features that are of practical value to the policy holder offered by any company, that are notembraced in the contracts of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company of Newark, N. J., and its policies embrace and GUARANTEE a number of valuable features that are to be found in the contracts of no other company. I am prepared to show you a specimen the contracts of no other company. I am prepared to show you a specimen policy and demonstrate every assertion I have made. The Spring Trade.

LTHOUGH we probably have the largest and most Complete stock that we have ever had at this season, we are still adding to it daily, and the attractions we will open during the entire spring will be unexcelled as to quality, style and price. It has often been said that it is impossible to please everybody; but we have reason to believe that we can come very near doing that very thing, and we intend to prove that we are correct in our belief.

Clothing That Fits

We have already sought to give some detailed information as to our tremendous stock of readymade clothing for men and boys; but this has been next to impossible. People who will undertake to come and see will readily appreciate the reason. There is too much of the stock to admit of a description. We are undertaking to fit almost anybody in almost any kind of a suit, and we are coming pretty nearly up to the scratch.

Dress Goods

Dress goods in all the newest weaves and styles have recently been put on exhibition and our stock is receiving daily addi-
