

urer of the Cherokee Lime works, and of the Turner Lime works and was a director in numerous other enterprises, including the First National Bank of Yorkville. He was forty-seven years of age and was unmarried.

Chief of Police R. N. Westbrook of Albany, Ga., made a personal attack on Dr. Len G. Broughton of Atlanta, in a barbershop at Albany, Ga. Dr. Broughton is a sensational preacher who is always in a row with somebody. His specialty is to inquire into the private shortcomings and misdemeanors of persons who occupy official positions and to state such information as he can gather along this line from his pulpit. Recently he stated that Westbrook had been removed from a house of ill fame in a drunken condition and said he could support the charge with affidavits. Westbrook claimed that the story was untrue; but nevertheless hunted Broughton up, found him in a barber shop and attacked him with a razor. The preacher defended himself with an iron cuspidor, and it is claimed by bystanders that he had a pistol. Interference of people near prevented any serious harm from being done. There is but little doubt as to the substantial truth of Broughton's charges; but the feeling is somewhat divided. There are those who hold that if Broughton were interested he should have proceeded against Westbrook legally, and these same people hold that if the charges were untrue as Westbrook claims, then there was no need for violence.

THE GOODS AND THE PRICES

These Are Now Bringing Us Our Steady Trade.

WE keep the goods and our prices are right. Everybody finds it so, and this is the cause of the large volume of business that concentrates in our establishment, regardless of the seasons or what others are doing. Our stock covers the whole range of general merchandise, and our purchases are necessarily of such extent as to give us every advantage in the matter of prices. However, by way of making the situation interesting, we have decided to inaugurate a special sale of Straw Hats and Clothing.

40 Cents On the $1.00

We have a big lot of sample Straw Hats that we bought at a bargain. They are worth from $1 to $1.10, and good values. As long as they last we are giving the customer his choice for 50 cents.

33 1-3 Cents On the $1.00

In the same lot there are many Hats that cost from 50 cents to 75 cents each. These we are offering at 25 cents each straight.

All Kinds of Hats

We have hats from 10 cents up to $5.00.

Actual Results.

Sensible business folks measure other folks, companies and corporations not by what they "estimate" that they can do but by what they actually accomplish. The record of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company for the past 55 years, taken together with the unequalled liberality of its Policy Contract and its unsurpassed reputation for fair dealing with its members, proves that it furnishes the best insurance at the lowest cost price. An impartial investigation of the foregoing claim is sure to convince you that it is the whole truth. You will receive the proof by return mail if asked for.
