

Scraps and Facts.

No extraordinary session of congress will be held this spring for a revision of the tariff...

The Japanese fleet; but the Japanese consider that they are very well able to take charge of the Baltic fleet...

The Yorkville Enquirer.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1904.

WHEN it comes to dealing with the state dispensary, some of the avowed opponents of that institution are "just as easy."

COTTON growers must organize if they would protect themselves; but they would protect themselves; but they would protect themselves...

SOUTHERN towns that are so anxious for a visit from President Roosevelt would do well to remember Charleston.

A WASHINGTON dispatch says that Senator Latham has given up all hope of the passage of his good roads bill at the present session of congress...

THE PRESIDENT HARVE JORDAN, of the Southern Cotton Growers' Protective Association has issued a call for meetings...

SUPERINTENDENT OF Education Martin has created quite a big stir with his recommendation for the abolition of the Citadel.

THE raising of the southern representation question, it is said, has for its principal object the diversion of northern public attention from the trust question.

WHILE THE ENQUIRER is anxious to see the South Carolina dispensary abolished, it is frank enough to admit that it sees but little promise of success...

THE case of T. B. Lee, Jr., plaintiff in error against H. S. Robinson, defendant in error, was argued before the United States supreme court last Wednesday.

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE Columbia State has been reluctantly forced to admit by indirectness, at least, that THE ENQUIRER is a reputable newspaper, and while we are all puffed up at the compliment that has been wrung from our good friend in Columbia, we shall not forget to make due acknowledgement of the kind offices of the Newberry Observer.

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

Journal and THE ENQUIRER found turned on themselves that washish which their most trusted velleth had formerly been accustomed to employ only against the Enquirer...

Those who are against the dispensary should be in favor of its complete abolition. The way to cut down a tree is to sever it where it comes out of the ground...

On the general proposition looking to the abolition of the state dispensary, THE ENQUIRER finds no ground for difference with the Journal.

There is no question of fact that the cotton production of the south has within the past ten years, learned more about the conditions that affect the value of their great money crop than they ever knew before...

Whether the Journal realizes its full significance or not, we beg to assure it that the dispensary ring, the people who are making immense fortunes out of the dispensary, directly and indirectly, feel the menace that is pointing their way.

Our contemporary understands the proper method of felling a tree. He will do no harm. On the contrary such treatment will only contribute to more vigorous growth; but if we cut the tap roots we will soon have a dead tree.

THE crop report of the department of agriculture, issued Saturday, shows the wheat acreage to be 31,155,000 acres, a decrease of 1.4 per cent from last year.

ANDY HALL, colored, of this city, is said to have the largest hog that has ever been raised in this country. Several responsible citizens who have seen the hog, say they have never seen anything so equal to it.

THE case of T. B. Lee, Jr., plaintiff in error against H. S. Robinson, defendant in error, was argued before the United States supreme court last Wednesday.

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

of the abolition of the dispensary it becomes just much harder to get the people of this county to vote out the dispensary. This shows...

Those who are against the dispensary should be in favor of its complete abolition. The way to cut down a tree is to sever it where it comes out of the ground...

On the general proposition looking to the abolition of the state dispensary, THE ENQUIRER finds no ground for difference with the Journal.

There is no question of fact that the cotton production of the south has within the past ten years, learned more about the conditions that affect the value of their great money crop than they ever knew before...

Whether the Journal realizes its full significance or not, we beg to assure it that the dispensary ring, the people who are making immense fortunes out of the dispensary, directly and indirectly, feel the menace that is pointing their way.

Our contemporary understands the proper method of felling a tree. He will do no harm. On the contrary such treatment will only contribute to more vigorous growth; but if we cut the tap roots we will soon have a dead tree.

THE crop report of the department of agriculture, issued Saturday, shows the wheat acreage to be 31,155,000 acres, a decrease of 1.4 per cent from last year.

ANDY HALL, colored, of this city, is said to have the largest hog that has ever been raised in this country. Several responsible citizens who have seen the hog, say they have never seen anything so equal to it.

THE case of T. B. Lee, Jr., plaintiff in error against H. S. Robinson, defendant in error, was argued before the United States supreme court last Wednesday.

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

ROCK HILL AND VICINITY. The Death Roll—The New Pipe Organ—Slump in Cotton Paralyzes Business—Theo McGraw Arrested—President Johnson at His Post—Again—Southern Resumes Telephone Service.

Rock Hill, S. C., December 12. The death roll of the city for the past few months is as follows: Sunday morning of congestion of the brain, died at 10 o'clock...

The members of the First Presbyterian church made a move some time ago to raise a fund to buy a new pipe organ for the church.

Quite a number of good porkers have been slain recently. Mr. John E. Flexico killed two a few days ago...

Rev. P. W. Ingraham preached his farewell sermon at the church at Rock Hill, S. C., on Sunday last.

SALES in the express office and in the warehouse of the city on Friday night, and $75 secured. The burglars made their escape.

IN the Richmond court of general sessions, Judge L. T. Tribble, Esq., Anderson, seated a verdict of $1,500 against the Western Union Telegraph company.

THE railroad commission has made public its finding in the case of the Southern Railway, seeking a reduction of freight rates.

A Greenville policeman had a funny experience the other night in connection with the arrest of a negro he found loitering around the station.

THE case of T. B. Lee, Jr., plaintiff in error against H. S. Robinson, defendant in error, was argued before the United States supreme court last Wednesday.

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

extending from Marion to Connelly's Springs. Appreciating the value and importance of the river survey, the state has ordered a continuation of the survey next season to cover the important valleys in this district.

Personal Mention—The Slump in Cotton—Good Prices for Corn—Mr. Ingraham's Farewell.

SALES in the express office and in the warehouse of the city on Friday night, and $75 secured. The burglars made their escape.

IN the Richmond court of general sessions, Judge L. T. Tribble, Esq., Anderson, seated a verdict of $1,500 against the Western Union Telegraph company.

THE railroad commission has made public its finding in the case of the Southern Railway, seeking a reduction of freight rates.

A Greenville policeman had a funny experience the other night in connection with the arrest of a negro he found loitering around the station.

THE case of T. B. Lee, Jr., plaintiff in error against H. S. Robinson, defendant in error, was argued before the United States supreme court last Wednesday.

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

THE following from the Spartaburg Journal of Saturday is in reply to the Enquirer's article of last week about the Brice bill in its last issue:

LOCAL AFFAIRS. NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. C. W. Wallace—Wants to buy a few Indian game hens, ducks, turkeys and mallards...

First National Bank—Tells you its rates on bank money orders, and asks why you may not buy one.

YORKVILLE FURNITURE CO.—Announces that it is prepared to answer all calls for the carrying of goods...

YORKVILLE FURNITURE CO.—Announces that it is prepared to answer all calls for the carrying of goods...

YORKVILLE FURNITURE CO.—Announces that it is prepared to answer all calls for the carrying of goods...

YORKVILLE FURNITURE CO.—Announces that it is prepared to answer all calls for the carrying of goods...

YORKVILLE FURNITURE CO.—Announces that it is prepared to answer all calls for the carrying of goods...

YORKVILLE FURNITURE CO.—Announces that it is prepared to answer all calls for the carrying of goods...

YORKVILLE FURNITURE CO.—Announces that it is prepared to answer all calls for the carrying of goods...

YORKVILLE FURNITURE CO.—Announces that it is prepared to answer all calls for the carrying of goods...

YORKVILLE FURNITURE CO.—Announces that it is prepared to answer all calls for the carrying of goods...

YORKVILLE FURNITURE CO.—Announces that it is prepared to answer all calls for the carrying of goods...

YORKVILLE FURNITURE CO.—Announces that it is prepared to answer all calls for the carrying of goods...

YORKVILLE FURNITURE CO.—Announces that it is prepared to answer all calls for the carrying of goods...

YORKVILLE FURNITURE CO.—Announces that it is prepared to answer all calls for the carrying of goods...

YORKVILLE FURNITURE CO.—Announces that it is prepared to answer all calls for the carrying of goods...

YORKVILLE FURNITURE CO.—Announces that it is prepared to answer all calls for the carrying of goods...

YORKVILLE FURNITURE CO.—Announces that it is prepared to answer all calls for the carrying of goods...

YORKVILLE FURNITURE CO.—Announces that it is prepared to answer all calls for the carrying of goods...

HEALTHY GROWTH. As has been stated before, the demand for new houses in Yorkville is fully up with the supply, and the pressure is so great that if they were only available a dozen or more good houses would find desirable renters within a week.

There is no use to try to conceal the fact that building houses for rent has not been a paying investment in the past. There were times at least when householders carried an even bag, and were unable to get even the legal rate of interest on their investment.

There is no use to try to conceal the fact that building houses for rent has not been a paying investment in the past. There were times at least when householders carried an even bag, and were unable to get even the legal rate of interest on their investment.

There is no use to try to conceal the fact that building houses for rent has not been a paying investment in the past. There were times at least when householders carried an even bag, and were unable to get even the legal rate of interest on their investment.

There is no use to try to conceal the fact that building houses for rent has not been a paying investment in the past. There were times at least when householders carried an even bag, and were unable to get even the legal rate of interest on their investment.

There is no use to try to conceal the fact that building houses for rent has not been a paying investment in the past. There were times at least when householders carried an even bag, and were unable to get even the legal rate of interest on their investment.

There is no use to try to conceal the fact that building houses for rent has not been a paying investment in the past. There were times at least when householders carried an even bag, and were unable to get even the legal rate of interest on their investment.

There is no use to try to conceal the fact that building houses for rent has not been a paying investment in the past. There were times at least when householders carried an even bag, and were unable to get even the legal rate of interest on their investment.

There is no use to try to conceal the fact that building houses for rent has not been a paying investment in the past. There were times at least when householders carried an even bag, and were unable to get even the legal rate of interest on their investment.

There is no use to try to conceal the fact that building houses for rent has not been a paying investment in the past. There were times at least when householders carried an even bag, and were unable to get even the legal rate of interest on their investment.

There is no use to try to conceal the fact that building houses for rent has not been a paying investment in the past. There were times at least when householders carried an even bag, and were unable to get even the legal rate of interest on their investment.

There is no use to try to conceal the fact that building houses for rent has not been a paying investment in the past. There were times at least when householders carried an even bag, and were unable to get even the legal rate of interest on their investment.

There is no use to try to conceal the fact that building houses for rent has not been a paying investment in the past. There were times at least when householders carried an even bag, and were unable to get even the legal rate of interest on their investment.

There is no use to try to conceal the fact that building houses for rent has not been a paying investment in the past. There were times at least when householders carried an even bag, and were unable to get even the legal rate of interest on their investment.

There is no use to try to conceal the fact that building houses for rent has not been a paying investment in the past. There were times at least when householders carried an even bag, and were unable to get even the legal rate of interest on their investment.

There is no use to try to conceal the fact that building houses for rent has not been a paying investment in the past. There were times at least when householders carried an even bag, and were unable to get even the legal rate of interest on their investment.

There is no use to try to conceal the fact that building houses for rent has not been a paying investment in the past. There were times at least when householders carried an even bag, and were unable to get even the legal rate of interest on their investment.

There is no use to try to conceal the fact that building houses for rent has not been a paying investment in the past. There were times at least when householders carried an even bag, and were unable to get even the legal rate of interest on their investment.

There is no use to try to conceal the fact that building houses for rent has not been a paying investment in the past. There were times at least when householders carried an even bag, and were unable to get even the legal rate of interest on their investment.