

If dead, but still bleeding. Dr. C. C. Leach of History and Dr. Miles Walker of Yorkville, were sent for. Examination showed that the young man's forehead had been crushed in, and pieces of the broken skull were removed, and the remaining operation was necessary, and was accomplished by the physicians. At last accounts the injured boy was getting along very nicely; but it is entirely out of danger cannot be definitely stated at this time.

Pet Wild Geese.
Fort Mill Times: Contrary to the assertion that it is impossible to domesticate a wild goose or members of the other wild feathery species, Mr. Bennie Armstrong, whose home is about two miles east of Fort Mill, is about to accomplish just such an undertaking. Some days ago, while out hunting near Sugar creek, Mr. Armstrong shot and broke the wing of a large goose, which, after an exciting chase of several minutes, he succeeded in capturing. After a short stay in a number of domestic geese and he was at once seized with a desire to add this fine specimen of His Goosehood to his flock. The goose was accordingly carried home, and after the flock had been driven into the garden, was turned in. The new member at once mingled with others of the flock and has now become a regular member. It will respond with the others when food is offered.

SIMS-KENNEDY.
Marriage of Popular Young People at Sharon Last Wednesday.

Correspondence of the Yorkville Enquirer.
SHARON, Jan. 19.—The marriage of Miss Mae Belle Sims to Mr. Christopher L. Kennedy, which took place in Woodlawn Presbyterian church on Wednesday evening, was an event of much interest to the friends of the contracting parties and the community generally. The church was elaborately decorated with garlands of evergreen and cedar and ropes of white ribbon, and white candles, carrying out the green and white color scheme. The wedding party entered the church by the stairs of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, effectively rendered by Mrs. E. R. Anderson of Blacksburg, in the following order: Miss Jennie Cain of Memphis, Tenn., and Mr. Edward Ratchford; Miss Belle Plexico and Mr. Arthur Whitesides; Miss Anna Paulkner of King's Creek, and Mr. H. M. Rhyme of Blacksburg; Miss Robinson of Bullock's Creek and Mr. Clarence Ratchford; Miss Hattie Gist of Blacksburg and Dr. Wm. Thompson of Gaffney; Miss Della Rhyme of Blacksburg and Mr. John Rainey; Miss Iola Byers and Dr. Wm. Kennedy of Chester. The bridesmaids came down the right aisle and the groomsmen down the left aisle, and in front of the altar, the bridesmaids forming a line on the left and the groomsmen a line on the right, making an aisle, down which came the maid of honor, Miss Alice Ratchford of Lancaster, followed by the bride on the arm of her brother, Mr. David Sims. The groom with his best man, Mr. Walter A. Kennedy, followed from the rear door and met the bride in front of the altar, where they were united in marriage by Rev. W. W. Ratchford of Lancaster, an uncle of the bride, immediately after the ceremony the wedding party, with numbers of invited guests, repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous supper was served. The decorations of the home carried out the color scheme, as did also the bridesmaid's dresses of white with green satin girdles. The bride's gown was in white tulle with trimmings of chiffon and velvet, and the maid of honor's gown was green silk mull over white. Mrs. Kennedy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe M. Sims of Sharon, and she possesses to a marked degree, the grace of mind and person which has endeared her to all her acquaintances. She was formerly a student at Winthrop college and has been a successful teacher for several years. Mr. Kennedy is the son of Mr. Jas. R. Kennedy and is known as one of the town's most successful and reliable business men, and eminently worthy of the bride he has won.

A handsome portrait of General Micah Jenkins was unveiled in the house of representatives yesterday. The presentation address was made by Colonel A. Coward.
The state board of election canvassers has decided in favor of the regularity of the proposed new county of Calhoun, and the general assembly will now proceed to enact the necessary legislation. The county seat of Calhoun is to be McCormick.

Special Notices.
Watch Contest Coupons.
For the benefit of people who have made inquiry as to the price of single copies of THE ENQUIRER, with a view to securing the coupons for the watch contest, we beg to say that it is not our purpose to allow the coupons from extra papers to enter into this contest if we can help it. Ordinarily we do not print more than from twenty to forty papers over enough for regular subscribers. The extra papers usually go to new subscribers desiring back numbers, and to people who require them in the ordinary course of business. The price of extra papers is strictly 5 cents each. We are inclined to the opinion that this price is prohibitive for the purposes of the watch contest, but in case anybody insists on purchasing at this price we reserve the right to cancel the coupons before delivering the papers. Respectfully, L. M. GRIST, Sons.

AN UNKNOWN SAGE
Is responsible for the adage that "There is no way to judge the future except by the past," and the accuracy of the assertion is so patent that any thinking man will admit its truthfulness without argument. Sixty years ago, in the city of Newark, N. J., a few level headed business men obtained a charter to organize a mutual life insurance company on the "old line" plan. After long deliberation they decided to call the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co., and that it should be conducted for the "mutual benefit" of all who became members. The foundation stone was "conservativeness and economy." No big salaries to officers or commissions to agents. Those principles have never been violated, and today the company enjoys the reputation of being the leading policy holder company in America—one that has always given more in proportion to cost than any other. It is just as great an ambition to be "conservativeness and economy" as it is to maintain its reputation as it was that of 1845 to stand right. Its record is as white as snow and you would be astonished at the liberality of its contracts as compared to others, if you would examine them. It is my business to show them.
SAM M. GRIST, Special Agent.

Low Prices
And
High Prices

Don't be discouraged at low prices but keep driving. Both pleasures and adversities return in due time. The best time to buy to make money is when the market is dull because I have seen oats selling at 13c a bus. in St. Louis, when the stevedemen were charging 75c a head per day for feeding horses, and no account of the farmers talking about burning them. When you have useful things to spare to burn, give them to your neighbor or some charitable institution. Let us handle your REAL ESTATE AND PROPOSITIONS, with written limits and instructions. You sign up when you transact in Banks, and you should likewise do so with all other business houses if you want to avoid disputes and misunderstanding. If your business is in my office, customers are sure to appreciate when they see offerings from the fact I tell the world in printer's ink what I have to offer and it is not necessary for everybody to know who are the interested parties. Talk it over with me, I don't say too much. The time to do business is when you have a proposition that can be accepted. Now is the accepted time in the business world same as in the church. Some folks expect too much for their property, while others expect too much for their money. Act liberal, divide the difference and get together. I want to know what the following properties are worth to you. Don't expect to get rich asking questions. You must do business to get results.

FOR SALE.
No. 224, The Bell house and lot on N. Main St., Yorkville. High, dry and healthy. Your propositions are always in order. $1,500.
No. 222, Two residences on 2nd and 4th, King's Mountain St., Yorkville. Can't understand why this property don't change hands as it is in a desirable locality and cheap at the price. $3,000. Each $300.
No. 225, 4-acre lot with elegant residence, electric lights and water-works, with 9 tenant houses on rear. Fruit, flowers and shrubbery. What's the matter with you Bankers and Lawyers that you are living in such common houses when the fine property is for sale? See something new in this country. Shake them out of their clothes and I don't know whether their clothes would know they were gone.
No. 223, The Dargan lands around Guthrieville. One of the best communities, and some of the finest farming lands in York County. Railroad station and all conveniences necessary, churches & schools. Why not pay a little more and own property that will be proud of after you get it? Convenience and locality should go a long way towards pleasure, profit and happiness.

NOTICE.
Mr. T. M. Whisonant of Hickory, S. C., who has some very fine farming lands listed with me, as well as some town property, has kindly consented to solicit business for my office. He will be glad to talk with you and furnish you blanks for listing your property on our list in a business manner. We want to advertise extensively and judiciously. This will not only help the owners of property, but help communities. Buy must know what you have to offer before they can consider it. There is no better plan for you than to tell them by printer's ink your own property. Remember there are no charges at this office unless the business is done, clients dictating prices and terms which should always be reasonable. We want all the PROPERTY AND PROPOSITIONS POSSIBLE.
