

Scraps and Facts.

—Advice were received in Washington Tuesday from Peking, through official channels, to the effect that the merchants of China had decided to abandon the boycott of American products...

along the same line. The Nobel prize in medicine, the value of which was $40,000, was awarded to Professor Behring in 1901 for his method of rendering cattle by inoculation immune from tuberculosis...

The Yorkville Enquirer.

YORKVILLE, S. C.: FRIDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1905.

The word graft is good English but it is not as good as the word stealing to express the same idea.

SECRETARY Taft claims that the Chinese boycott of American goods cost the Celestials about $15,000,000. The boycott has fallen through because it was too expensive.

THE American bankers in convention in Washington have adopted resolutions in favor of the ship subsidy proposition that has been under consideration in congress during several years past.

On the announcement that Dr. Behring of Paris, had discovered a treatment which he thinks will be an infallible cure for consumption, but which he does not desire to make public until next August...

—H. F. Worley, an agent of the Insular bureau, who was sent to Santo Domingo to investigate the revenue customs of the border between the Dominican and Haitian republics, has made a partial report to the war department.

Too Much Stealing. The wholesale stealing, called graft, in connection with the management of the various life insurance companies, that has been made public as the result of various investigations...

MERE-MENTION. Thirty farmers were burned to death, several others were injured, and $75,000 worth of property was destroyed in the fire at Boston, Tuesday.

—Professor Behring, the man who discovered the anti toxin serum used so successfully in the treatment of diphtheria, announces that he is about ready to proclaim a method for the cure of tuberculosis...

—The body of a negro about 40 years of age was found under a shed on Bayway street, Charleston, last Tuesday. The negro had been dead for several days.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. G. H. "Lamb" Chairman—Calls for a meeting of Bedford telephone subscribers at the court house tonight (Friday) at 7 o'clock.

THE thirty-second annual edition of Latham, Alexander & Co's. Cotton Movement and Fluctuation has been published and is now on hand.

Light frosts were reported by different points in different localities yesterday morning. There was also frost this morning.

FARMERS HOLDING COTTON. President Smith Says Paper Contracts Won't Make Yarn.

ABOUT PEOPLE. Miss Kitty Stewart of Rock Hill is visiting Mrs. W. G. White.

CONDEMNATION PROCEEDINGS. Two of the condemnation cases brought by the Catawba Power company pursuant to the establishment of its pole line between the dam on the river and the town of Yorkville...

WITHIN THE TOWN. The ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold their annual flower show during the latter part of this month.

THE MILLIKEN CASE.—Speaking of the rather curious interpretation of the rather curious interpretation of the rather curious interpretation of the rather curious interpretation...

—The state supreme court on Wednesday handed down a decision affirming the action of the circuit court in convicting George Washington Murray of forgery.

—The state supreme court on Wednesday handed down a decision affirming the action of the circuit court in convicting George Washington Murray of forgery.

THE GOTTON MARKET.

The cotton market continues about as it has been—the local buyers unable to pay 10 cents or over and the producers refusing to sell at a less figure.

There has been no appreciable increase in the receipts during the past week. Cotton is still going to the gins in a steady stream and from there back to the farms or into the warehouses.

There has been a few inquiries from mills within the past few days; but buyers are not especially anxious to sell at the price that is being offered.

There is not a great deal going in New York except in futures, which are being bought and sold in large quantities.

There are occasionally revealed some irregularities in the United States postal service, but taking it all in all, the system is a wonderfully perfect and practical one.

THE following citizens of York county have been drawn to serve as grand and petit jurors at the next term of the York county court which convenes at Greenville next Tuesday.

DECISION RESERVED. Messrs. W. B. McCaw and Marion B. Jennings representing the plaintiffs and Y. B. Wilson, Esq., representing the defendants, went before Associate Justice Jones at Lancaster yesterday and argued for and against the order of prohibition that was recently issued.

ARRESTED IN CHARLOTTE. According to the Charlotte Observer of Monday, R. A. Barrett and son, of this place are now in Mecklenburg jail awaiting trial upon the charge of selling whiskey.

THE WATER QUESTION.—Farmers Hold Cotton For 10 and 11 Cents—New Presbyterian Church at Hartwood—Mr. J. L. Moore Quits Ill.

—The state supreme court on Wednesday handed down a decision affirming the action of the circuit court in convicting George Washington Murray of forgery.

ROCK HILL AND VICINITY.

ROCK HILL, October 13.—The Water, Light and Power Co., of this city will begin in a few days the sluicing of their water supply for the winter.

There has been considerable talk recently about the purity of the water being furnished by the Water, Light and Power company.

There is practically no cotton being held to the 10 cent limit. As a matter of fact only a small proportion of the cotton in this section is held at even that figure.

A Presbyterian church was organized Sunday in the new church near here. This was in accordance with the recent order of Bethel presbytery.

THE Synod of South Carolina will meet Monday with a severe chill, following the usual custom of the synod.

EDUCATIONAL BULL'S EYES. Columbia Record: The New York Sun says that the best way to increase the business of the insurance business, would be to put some of the leading men in it in jail.

GREENE AND GAYNOR CASE.—The trial of Greene and Gaynor, charged with conspiracy, in connection with the government in the carrying out of contracts for the improvement of the water harbor, will probably take place during the November term of the United States court for the Southern District of South Carolina.

Captain Cary Seriously Ill. Union special of October 9 to the Charlotte Observer: Captain John C. Cary, president of Lockhart mills, one of the big mills of the famous Milliken group, which has no connection whatever with those reorganized here last week, was suddenly taken desperately ill yesterday at his home at Lockhart, S. C., and was unconscious for nearly ten hours.

—The state supreme court on Wednesday handed down a decision affirming the action of the circuit court in convicting George Washington Murray of forgery.

—The state supreme court on Wednesday handed down a decision affirming the action of the circuit court in convicting George Washington Murray of forgery.

SOUTH CAROLINA NEWS.

—The Greenville county court has called a Elice law election to be held on November 15.

—There was a Elice law election in Darlington county last Tuesday. The election was held at the dispensary went out by a majority of about two to one.

—The body of a negro about 40 years of age was found under a shed on Bayway street, Charleston, last Tuesday. The negro had been dead for several days.

—Mr. L. U. Campbell, mineralogist and mining man of Gaffney, has what he thinks is the largest mineral in this country. The stone was found in a monadnock mine a few miles above the town of Gaffney.

—Says a Columbia special of October 11: There are strong indications that the pro-union executive committee will break out here at the fair week meeting with a state ticket with Jos. A. McCullough for governor and J. E. Estroff for lieutenant governor.

—Lancaster special of October 12, to Columbia State: The court has been engaged the entire day in the trial of the murder of W. Thomas Catoe in the town of Kershaw on the night of August 15th last.

—The state supreme court on Wednesday handed down a decision affirming the action of the circuit court in convicting George Washington Murray of forgery.

—The state supreme court on Wednesday handed down a decision affirming the action of the circuit court in convicting George Washington Murray of forgery.

—The state supreme court on Wednesday handed down a decision affirming the action of the circuit court in convicting George Washington Murray of forgery.

—The state supreme court on Wednesday handed down a decision affirming the action of the circuit court in convicting George Washington Murray of forgery.