You Can Start Right-- A few days ago a young man who desired to insure his life, called on a prominent business man of Yorkville, who carries a large amount of insurance on his own life, but not in the Mutual Benefit and its policies, and without an instant's delay received this reply: "I think so much of your company that I wish I had every dollar of my insurance with it. There is not any doubt that the gentleman meant exactly what he said, because he is recognized as being a person who says what he means and means what he says. Six years ago when he insured his life he expressed himself as believing that all the old line companies were 'about the same,' but since that time and especially during the present year, he has become convinced that there is only one company, and that the Mutual Benefit is it. You have the benefit of this gentleman's experience as well as others, therefore you have the opportunity of starting right. Other people are coming to my office to get information and you will always be first if you come too. SAM M. GRIST, Special Agent.

Adickes' Emporium. GIVING AWAY PRESENTS For One Week. We are pleased with results from our scheme of presents and hereby extend time for another week from today—except Circus Day, Nov. 1. Something for nothing is hard to get, and yet so many people are always on the lookout for such. We will try our hand. We insist that we mean no fraud. We don't think that the public had a more complete and attractive stock of goods. We have recently opened about 25 packages of pretty, cheap and medium priced Glass, China, Crockery, etc.—more than we want to look at. So here is a scheme for giving some away to our customers: We will arrange sample lots of various useful and ornamental wares in 5, 10, 15 and 25 cent lots and will give customers their choice free on the purchase of $1.00, $2.00, $3.00 and $5.00 cash, of anything and everything in stock at guaranteed prices.

FOR INSTANCE: Hundred weight of our best flour at $2.75 and 25 cents of something else gives the purchaser choice from the scores of 15 cent articles free. A dollars' worth of sugar, lard or anything else—solid or mixed—20 cents articles, if you like, gives your choice on first lot. A hundred pounds of sugar at $3.00 gives you choice of 25 cent articles, and while on this particular sale we will barely get out—she goes all the same. We mean business—don't practice side tricks. So come and see us. WITHERS ADICKES.
