Trouble Among the Negroes-Work of the Mayor-Personal and Other

Notes. Correspondence of the Yorkville Enquirer. ROCH HILL, July 23 .- There was an exceedingly live session of Esquire court Monday morning The trouble was a free for all, catchas-catch-can, every man for himself and the devil take the hindmost fight indulged in by the attendants at a re-ligious meeting at Mt. Hebron colored church near Lesslie Sunday. The court room was jammed full of colored cit-izens and the overflow extended all the way through the narrow hall, down the stairway into the street The situation was one better to imagine than to breathe. There were two charges against Charley Young, Isaac Wilson and John Davie, to wit: "assault with intent to kill." the respective targets being "Judge" Blair, Charley Young and Ben Fewell. The other charge against them was: "disturbing religious worship and carry-ing concealed weapons. Each of them was fined $25 in the first and $35 on the second charge. On the charge of assault they were bound over to the circuit court in the over to the circuit amount of $200 each. Mayor Roddey's strenuous meth-ods have caused a dearth of applica-

- Charleston special of July 21, to Columbia State: The annual statement of the business of the last year at the Charleston postoffice has been made and it makes a very satisfactory and encouraging showing, speaking well for the business and prosperity of the city. The figures of the past year are in marked contrast with those of four years ago, when Postmaster Harris first took the office. The receipts of the office for the past year are $128,810, against $108,414 for 1902-3, an increase of 20 per cent. The registry business shows 98,737 letters and parcels handled, against 63,842 of four years ago; money orders sold, 27,223, of the value of $238,690, against 14,994, of the value of $143 503; money orders paid, 41.974. of the value of $285,248, against 30,561 special delivery letters was 13,600 for the past year against 16542 600 for the past year, against 10,542 for four

- Columbia Record: Associate Justice Woods rendered yesterday afternoon a decision in the injunction proceedings brought by Mr. W. H. Duncan, a taxpayer of Barnwell, against the state board of education, to prevent the Galvanized Ware board from creating a central depository for school books. The arguments were made before Justice Woods at Marion several days ago. Yesterday's decision dissolves the temporary restraining order and sustains the con-tention of the board that it had the right under the law to create the pro-posed depository, Mr. Duncan sought to show that by creating this depository wooden tub o and allowing a commission of ten per cent, the cost of books were raised by cent, the cost of books were raised by that amount and the bids therefore Suppose you try a Galvanized Tub. were not as low as they appeared. The state board contended in reply that Well Buckets, Slops Jars, Oil Cans, state board contended in Fep; that there would be no increase in cost.
