Scraps and facts.

- Baltimore is this week celebrating its rise from the ashes of the great fire which destroyed so much of the big spectacular street page-ants took place Tuesday and con-sisted of a military and marine pa-rade which was viewed by 200,000. visitors. On Wednesday the feature rifle shots, was 200 magnificent floats, typifying the city's industries and manufactures. The cost of the floats in Wednesday's parade are estimated to have represented an outlay of $250,-000. Yesterday the feature of the day was a fireman's parade including the city's fire department, and thirty outside companies which assisted Baltimore at the time of the great fire. The week's jubilee will wind up tonight with a carnival of fun and follification.

-John D. Rockefeller and the Standard Oil company have failed, after desperate efforts, to evade trial in the Ohio courts on the charge of violation of the Valentine anti-trust laws of that state. Judge Banker jarred the Standard Oil people last June by refusing to agree with them on the proposition that they were immune in so far as his court was concerned. A few days ago he refused to entertain the proposition of favorite son in the primary.-Columthe Standard's attorneys that Mr. Rockefeller was no longer directly connected with the Standard Oil company. Judge Banker overruled the proposition, stating that Mr. Rockefeller was a very important factor in the affairs of the Standard Oil company. 'The trusts' attorneys then made motion after motion to have the cases postponed on technical grounds, but Judge Banker gave the defendants' attorneys to understand very plainly that the days of delays were gone and that the Standard Oil company and John D. Rockefeller would certainly have to stand trial without any more foolishness - William Jennings Bryan received an ovation in St. Louis Tuesday second only to that which he received in Madison Square Garden, New York, on his return from his circuit of the globe. Tuesday morning Mr. dress to the Southwestern Immigration association, the most noticeable a purely commercial basis. feature of which was the gentleness with which he handled his proposed government ownership of railroads proposition. In part he said: "If there is any sentiment in the country today favoring government ownership of railroads, it is because the railroads have created the notion that they own the government. Just in proportion as the railroads regard the rights of the people, just in proportion will we get along together The railroad is the servant of the people. When it seeks to become the master of the people it usurps to be considered lightly. While it is I have no objection to railroads themselves. The only time I criticise them is when they misunderstand their position in society." - John Sharp Williams of Missishouse of representatives, expressing his views on the Bryan plans for government ownership of railroads, said a few days ago: "I am opposed to government ownership of railroads irrevocably, now and forever, in theory and in practice. It is a question concerning which Mr. Bryan and gree to disagree, but I see no good to be attained by rushing into print on the subject. We will simply vote it down if offered as a plank of the Democratic platform. Meanwhile let us not magnify Democratic differences. There are so many things we agreed upon-let us magnify them; push them to the front if we can. many things, eloquently and greatly right, but absolutely and altogether wrong about this one thing, especially from the standpoint of racial peace and quiet in the south." Mr. Williams declared that he was strongly in favor of the government regulating railroad rates, but not of operating railroads.

- The Pennsylvania railroad's tun nel under the North river and connecting New York and Jersey City has at last been completed, and on Wednesday last a party of the Pennsylvania's engineers, contractors and a few outsiders, numbering forty, walked from Jersey City to New York. This tunnel has been under construction for the past two years, the work being pushed with all possible speed from both sides of the river, and is intended to give the Pennsylvania railroad trains The construction of this tunnel is the first successful attempt to tunnel under the North river, although there have been millions of dollars spent in previous attempts to connect the two cities by a tunnel through which trains could be carried into New York city in the state yesterday was a fair and from the Jersey side. Although the square repudiation of the state dispensary. No other interpretation of work of building the tunnel was carried on from both sides of the river inch in their alignment. This is the first of three tubes or tunnels which as his opponent. More than that, he had many friends throughout the the Pennsylvania railroad company will put under the river.

a day passes that Jews are not state dispensary. Yet Mr. Ansel has been elected by an overwhelming slaughtered in greater or less numslaughtered in greater or less num-ber in some portion of the empire. At Siedlee, Russian Poland, a city as regards the dispensary. Surely of 30,000 inhabitants, one-half of whom are Hebrews, during Saturday night, Sunday and Monday morning of each 200 Jews were massacred and 3,000 persons were wounded. The massacre was a direct result of an attack by Terrorists, who fired upon troops and police from the roofs of houses ple occupied by Jews, a policeman being killed by the firing. After the killing of the policeman the Libau regiment broke loose in unrestrained fury and fired into the Jewish quarter with rifles and artillery, sparing no one. The attack on the Jewish den of iniquity was the paramount population was accompanied by pillaging and many of the prominent buildings were put to the torch. During Sunday morning twelve policemen and soldiers were killed. As the result of this the military was excited to fresh excesses of rage, and leaving its barracks in the afternoon. population was accompanied by pilleaving its barracks in the afternoon, proceeded to the Jewish quarter, shooting right and left as it went. All Christians were warned to hang out their ikons, and they were not molested. Over 150 Jewish shops were molested. Over 150 Jewish shops were looted. On Monday morning the sale of the state as you; but the officers. A delegation of citizens requested the governor of the province of the governor of the province of the state as you; but the looted the state as you; but the self to be a man of more than usual discretion. The negro to attend to his own classes, and threatened to have him discretion. The negro to attend to his own classes, and threatened to have him discretion. The negro to attend to his own classes, and threatened to have him discretion. The negro to attend to his own classes, and threatened to have him discretion. The fort the purpose of erecting a monutation to the ment at King's Mountain to have one of the slate dispensary machine. The negro discretion.

The army level the view of the mint at king's Mountain to the wints at the discretion.

The the purpose of recting the me to use his efforts to stop the rioting. ple who supported you at the polls The governor refused to do anything until the citizens would deliver up of a disposition to palter with the the revolutionists, threatening to work you have undertaken to do in bombard the, city unless this demand their behalf. Don't forget that they was complied with. No one is allowed to enter or leave the city un-

The Morkville Enquirer.

YORKVILLE, S. C.: FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1906

"MY DEAR" Appelt, has been re-lected senator from Clarendon on an anti-dispensary platform.

Ir appears that Abbeville has no bia Record But South Carolina had one.

FRASER Lyon stands a good chance of being the next governor of South Carolina. Neils Christensen is also deserving of some signal honor at the hands of 'his fellow citizens.

THERE is no question of the fact

Defeat of the Dispensary.

Senator Tillman on Wednesday gave out the following to the Columbia 'correspondent of the News and Courier: "When all of the people spoke," he said, in discussing the complexion of the legislature, "the state dispensary was sustained in the election of a legislature favorable to the state dispensary.

THE Columbia Record has the hardigood to claim that the election of Ansel and Lyon is not to be taken as ondemnation of the state dispensary system. There seems to be no limit to Bryan made an extemporaneous ad- the gall of some people especially when that gall is being furnished on > SENATOR Tillman claims that the dispensaryites have a majority of the legislature; but the Columbia State insists that the anti-dispensaryites have a majority of at least ten in the house. How this will be will develop later on. We have an idea that a number of senators will hearken to the voice of the people as expressed in members of the house he conceded, the senator gave this: Anderson 5, Alken number of senators will hearken to the the election of Ansel and get right.

THE result of last Tuesday's election in South Carolina is too important a fact that thousands and thousands of people neglected their plain duty and remained away from the polls, still most of the newspapers. a place not rightfully belonging to a fact that thousands and thousands and remained away from the polls, still most of the farmers measured up to the responsibility of the occasion ble, unforgiving Bourbons than there and voted in accordance with the dictates of their judgment and conscience. There is no doubt about the fact that Senator Tillman stood for Messrs. Manning and Ragsdale as against Messrs. Ansel and Lyon. That has peen too plain all along to be disputed. But still the election of Messrs. Ansel and Lyon is not to be taken only as a rebuke to Senator Tillman. Senator Tillman has been defeated, it is true; but to claim that defeat as a rebuke would be to take a very narrow view of the real situation. Thousands of admirers of Senator Tillman voted for Ansel and they did it because they the state dispensary machine. These same voters will continue to give the senator their support in his efforts to pretend to be. He is right about so advance their interests in the United

ECHOES FROM THE ELECTION.

What the Newspapers Think of Will of the People.

nomination of Ansel over Manning is a great disappointment to Mr. Mannings friends, as Ansel's election is a gratification to the friends of the victor, but neither Mr. Manning nor his supporters are sulking over the defeat. A clean, straightforward, decent contest was made rom the first to the last in Mr. Manning's behalf, and neither he nor his riends have anything to regret or to be ashamed of.—Sumter Item.

Mr. Ansel has won this race on his latform, which declares in favor of the county dispensary as against the state institution, and the leaving of he question to each county to decide or itself. His opponent, Senator tichard I. Manning, is a gentleman of the highest type, but he offered the people of South Carolina a "purified state dispensary," a thing they did not believe he could deliver, and upon this issue he met defeat. The campaign has been free from unincidents and as between on the highest lines.-Spartanburg is possible. The dispensary was issue upon which the campaign the work of the engineers was so ac- had been made. Mr. Manning was a curate that when the two tubes met stronger man before the people than Mr. Ansel. He was better known to only a variation of one-sixteenth of an he was generally regarded an abler state who supported him for reasons of personal friendship and otherwise. There were many strong and influ- Wholesale massacres of Jews ential men who were working for continue throughout Russia.

 Hardly Manning who were opposed to the the legislature which meets next January will wipe the state dispensary out of existence and give the people of each county a choice between county dispensaries, if they want them, and straight prohibition.—

Anderson Daily Mail Good morning, Governor Ansel; we wish you mighty well. The peo-ple of South Carolina have elected you by a most flattering majority to the highest office in their gift. They have taken your word for it that you will exercise all your in state dispensary which has brought so much shame and sorrow to South Carolina. The destruction of this and controlling issue in the campaign elected. The work you have under-taken will require the exercise of all your strength of character, of all your ability of mind, of all your conyour ability of mind, of all your con-secration of soul. You will stand or fall by what you do, not by what you have said. We believe that you will make good. We would not have urged your election if we had not thought that you would prove equal to the test to which you will now be subjected. Fortunately, governor, you will have the loyal support in all the efforts you shall make to destroy the whisky machine of the chief law officer of the state—Fraser Lyon, who officer of the state—Fraser Lyon, who has been elected attorney general by an even more flattering vote than you received for the office of governor, and solely because he has fought the dispensary with a courage which could not be daunted by the fiercest opposition and often at the peril of his life. He will give you the best service of which he is capable and working with him the over-whelming sentiment of the people of he state which is your warrant for whatever vigorous policies you may determine upon, you will achieve the object for which you have been chosen.—News and Courier.

TILLMAN AND JONES.

They Disagree on the Question of the Defeat of the Dispensary.

There is no question of the fact that the state dispensary was squarely before the people of the state in the recent primary, and assertions and deciarations to the contrary notwithstanding, it is a fact that this is the first time that it was ever squarely before the people of the state.

Is a fact that this is the first time that it was ever squarely before the people of the state.

Is a fact that this is the first time that it was ever squarely before the people of the state.

Is a fact that this is the first time that it was ever squarely before the people of the state. set it upon its feet, strengthen it,, and then we will see how well Ansel en-forces it," said the senator, winking as if he thought the joke was on An-

"But, senator, don't you agree that the large majorities given Ansel and Lyon is significant evidence of an antistate dispensary sentiment throughout the state?" he was asked. "O, hell, wasn't Ansel one time a dispensary man. He wanted to be governor. Governors and attorney generals don't make laws. We've got the legislature elected when ninety-odd thousand spoke at the polls. Ansel and Lyon were elected with about 77,-

"We will see how well Ansel enforces our new dispensary law and how many grafters Lyon puts in the peni-tentiary."

2. Barnwell 2. Oconee 2. Greenville 5 Spartanburg 6. Cherokee 2. York 1 Chester 2. Lancaster 1. Darlington 2 Charleston 9, Williamsburg 3, Newberry 2, Greenwood 2, Edgefield 2, Saluda 2.

not opened my mouth." again to the race for governor he sai 'Less than forty thousand peop heard the candidates for state offices."
The dispensary won on the intrinsic merits of the system, and Blease's vote evidently stayed at home, indifferent as between Ansel and Manning. I only hope that our new governor will do his have left Steele Brice at home had he run this time."

State Chairman Wille Jones takes the opposite view from Tillman, con-tinues the correspondent. He has no taken the pains to closely analyze the house or the senate, but he thinks yesterday's returns show a decided sentiment against the state dispensary, and he said today that he would ry, and he said today that he would not be surprised to see the state dis-pensary system abolished in favor of county dispensary, and this change would not greatly disturb him. He thinks the counties will make good noney running county dispensary, and that success in a few places will cause other counties to go into the business "If they establish a county dispensary in Richland, this county will clea $100,000 a year from the business if it is conducted properly," said General

"Success here means county dispensaries throughout the state, for you that soon as other counties Richland, Charleston, Sumter and oth r counties making money, they will follow suit."

"I think the Prohibitionists made big mistake voting for local option if they wanted to shut off whisky drinking."

"This morning's returns satisfy me as to the way things are going. The ewspapers print the returns accur-tely. They have such excellent facilties for getting the returns now. official returns and the final returns printed in the News and Courier and the State tally almost exactly. I am glad that the vote is decisive, for contests that would follow narrow major ties would develop much feeling.

J. FRASER LYON.

Something About the Man Who Made Such Splendid Fight Against Graft. J. Fraser Lyon, who has received he nomination as the candidate of the Democratic party for the office of at-torney general, will be thirty-five years youngest men whom the people of the state thus have honored. He is a na-tive of Abbeville county, having been born at Verdery, in what is now Greenwood county. He comes of hon-orable parentage, his father, Mr. J. Fuller Lyon, being a descendant of the most prominent families of Culpepper and Albemarle counties in Virginia the Ambrose, Powell and Hill families being closely related as was Gen. Ambrose P. Hill, General Lee's chevalier. The mother of Fraser Lyon was Miss Peltier of Chapel Hill, N. C., daughter of Anthony Peltier, a captain in the French navy under Napoleon Bonaarte and a kinsman of the scientist who introduced the use of quinine.

Fraser Lyon was prepared for college by Dr. D. B. Johnson, now president of Winthrop college, by Prof. J. W. Thomson of Winthrop, and by other careful teachers. He graduated from Wofford college in 1895 and the loyalty with which his fellow college men have supported him in his fight this summer hows that even in college he made narked impression.

He studied law in the office of De Bruhl & Lyon and in 1898 was admit-ted to the bar. His father, Judge J. Fuller Lyon, is the member of the firm above referred to.

He was referee in bankruptcy in Abbeville and Greenville counties for three years before his election to the

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. W. Dowson-Offers Yorkville real estate for sale and for rent. C. Allen, Superintendent—Gives no-tice that the Graded school will open Monday next, 17th.

Wm. B. McCaw and Dr. R. Andral
Bratton—Offer the G. C. Ormand plantation for sale. It is situated in Bethel township and contains 600

The roads have gotten in a very bad condition as the result of the uncedented rains.

WITHIN THE TOWN. - The building operations on upper Main street make that portion of the town look quite business like. — Mr. L. W. Louthian reports that the army worm has made its appear-ance on his premises on the western outskirts of Yorkville. - The D. A. R's. will have charge of the town during a part of next month, the occasion of their annual state con-vention; but they won't hurt anything. - The Yorkville Banking and Mercantile company handles two turn-plows instead of only one, as indicated in the article on the subject last Tues-day. They are selling the Chattanoo-ga and the Vulcan.

-The Fannie Miller Book club had its annual re-organization at the resi-dence of Mrs. G. H. O'Leary yesterday dence of Mrs. G. H. O'Leary yesterday afternoon. All the old officers were re-elected as follows: Mrs. W. B. Moore, president; Miss Margie Gist, vice president; Miss Mamie Moore, secretary; Mrs. W. H. Fowler, treasurer. Mrs. G. H. O'Leary was re-appointed librarian. The club now has nearly 500 good books of liction, bit ography and travel. The annual dues are $1.50.

THE OFFICIAL CANVASS.

The York County Democratic Executive committee met in the court house yesterday for the purpose of canvassing the returns from Tuesday's mycolic stomatitis. It is not contagued by flux of infectious but is caused by funty is caused by funty in wet seasons, have a luxuriantly in the seaso

Bethel, R. M. Barnett; Clover, J. E. Beamguard; Coates's Tavern, J. R. Gettys; Fort Mill, W. H. Windle; Hickory Grove, J. E. Leech; McConnellsville, P. M. Burris; Newport, J. affected animals should be removed from the pasture in which they have been running. The mellsville, P. M. Burris; Newport, J. affected animals should be fed on soft affected animals should be f ellsville, P. M. Burris; Newport, J Rock Hill No. 1, J. M. Cherry; Rock at all times to clean, cool water and Hill No. 2, W. B. Wilson, Jr.; Smyrna, two heaping tablespoonfuls of borax R. W. Whitesides; Sharon, Dr. J. H. Saye; Tirzah, R. R. Allison; Yorkville No. 1, J. S. Brice; Yorkville No.

2. M. B. Jennings. ancy. Here are the figures as published Tuesday and as ascertained by the executive committee:

Ansel Unofficial
Ansel 1314
Manning 1223
Lyon 1443
Ragsdale 1086
Sullivan 1740
Wharton 792
Ardrey 1204 Glasscock 1332
Glasscock 1332
Massey 1212
Slaughter 1333
Boyd1620
Gordon 914
Leech1102
Lumpkin 1451
Kirkpatrick 1371
Poag1166

Total ..... 2664 2591 Before adjournment the committee recommended the following commissioners of election to be appointed by the governor: State-J. O. Howe, P. M. Burris, R

M. Wallace. Federal-J. R. Gettys, J. E. Leech W. B. Wilson, Jr.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Miss Cora Kuvkendal of Rock Hill Miss Eunice Culbertson has a tion as saleslady with the Foushee Cash Store. Mr. S. L. Steele of the Star Drug Store, is visiting relatives at Wax-haw, N. C. Misses Willie and Lee Williams are visiting Prof. W. H. Hand's family in Columbia.

Miss Anna McCaw left Wednesday for Due West to attend the Due West Female college. Mr. Dolph Boney of the Union Times staff, is visiting his father, Mr. D. E. Boney this week. Mrs. Andrew H. Louthian of Charlotte, is in Yorkville on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Russell.

Misses Mary Scott and Ida Dunlap and Mr. Dan T. Moore left for Due West this week to attend college. Miss Myrtle McKnight of Filbert left for Columbia yesterday come a trained nurse in the state hos pital for the insane. Mrs. W. D. Grist and little daugh-ter, Edith, left this afternoon for a visit to relatives and friends in Balti-Miss Nannie Youngblood, who has been visiting relatives in Yorkville and vicinity, left this morning for Atlanta, where she has accepted a position in the Wesley Memorial Hospital as Mrs. T. J. Copeland and children Master Charles and Miss Hortense who have been spending the summer in Yorkville, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Strauss, left this morning or their home in Newport, Ark.

Mr. John L. Carroll, formerly of Yorkville, now engaged in railroad ouilding in Tenenssee, with headquarventure in Chattanooga recently, resulting in a narrow escape from death at the hands of a vicious negro. A published account puts the matter the railway station in charge of a gang of negro hands, waiting to take a train. The negroes began singing and making a big racket generally. A po-liceman asked Mr. Carroll to quiet them. He spoke to them, suggesting day. He has since written to his parents here, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Carroll, that he is now all right. He says he did not know what hit him and his first impression upon regaining consciousness was that he had been run over by a train. The express company has undertaken the prosecution of the murderous negro who struck the blow.

Of course the dispensary delegates murderous negro who struck the blow.

Capt. J. R. Lindsay returned Wednesday from Seagirt, N. J., where he had been for two weeks attending the

Wm. B. McCaw and Dr. R. Andra Wm. B. McCaw and Dr. R. Andra Bratton—Offer the G. C. Ormand plantation for sale. It is situated in plantation for sale. It is situated in Bethel. township and contains 500 and bethel township and contains 500 and the same and the main between the state of the s

the readers of The Enquirer a detailed account of the whole occasion.

Miss Cornelia Elliott of Lancaster, arrived in Yorkville yesterday on a visit to Misses Mary Ashe and Marion Logan.

SORE MOUTH. Dr Louis Klein, the state veterina- We Will Send The Enquirer

ian, has sent out the following from Cleuson college with regard to sore 1907, for 62 cents. mouth and tender feet in cattle. It is School Tax Wins. published for the benefit of people who nay be interested: Within the last month the state reterinarian has received a number of etters concerning cattle affected with week resulted in favor of the tax by letters concerning cattle affected with sore mouth and, in many cases, sore or tender feet. As the disease seems to be generally prevalent, no doubt as a result of the long continued wet weather, the following information concerning it is supplied for publication.

Death of Rev. I. G. McLaughlin, the oldest minister of the Associate Reformed church, died at his home at Back Creek, Mccklenburg county yesterday.

mycotic stomatitis. It is not conta-gious or infectious but is caused by house yesterday for the purpose of canvassing the returns from Tuesday's primary, declaring the result and transacting other business. The various clubs were represented as follows:

Description:

and a very offensive odor is usually present. Sometimes the skin between the skin hould be dissolved in each of th first two buckets of water given each day. The mouth should be washed out daily with a solution of creolin one tablespoonful of creolin to each quart of water—and following this a Columbia ring too much.

"We beat 'em out in the York prohibition stronghold," said the senator gleefully, "electing three out of four members of the house, and we would have left Steele Brice at home had be ointment. If this treatment is p ly applied and the animals are ully fed the disease will rapidly dis

> THE GAME OF POLITICS. While nominally three members the York county legislative delegation stands for the continuance of the state dispensary and one against it, it is hardly fair to say that York county has endorsed the state machine. The fact of the matter is that the dispensary party put in the most energetic work and played the most successful politics and that is about all there is about it.

dispensary; but later on finding that sisting on the continuance of dispen-

The anti-dispensary candidates stood by their platform from the beginning and made no suggestion of a compro mise. Because, however, of the man-ner in which the dispensary people clung to them, they found it difficult to make the issue clear to voters who have not yet been taught to distin-guish as between issues.

As to just how the candidacy of Mr. McCain came about has never been made exactly clear. It is a fact that about the time of the May convention and afterward, Mr. McCain conferred with leaders of the dispensary side with a view to securing their endorse that they did not want him-not or their side. His subsequent announce ment on the anti-dispensary side, es pecially in view of the fact that he had always been known as a dispensaryite was quite embarrassing to that side. Those who understood a little abou politics saw at once that under circumstances where the anything like equally divided, with four men to be voted for on one side and five on the other, the side that had five was at a disadvantage. The extent of this disadvantage was fully detant of the first private of the first private.

The county is a substance of the first private tent of this disadvantage was fully developed as the result of the first primary. Mr. McCain took enough votes off of the anti-dispensary people to let Mr. Epps in and to defeat the other three anti-dispensary candidates.

There was an effort to make it appear that Mr. Brice was responsible for ble removal of the C. & N.-W. rail-road shops from Chester to Gastonia other town making a good of tion to that effect in a published card. Mr. Brice failed to make any public nothing in these rumors further than denial; but privately told different that Gastonia will be made a divisionpeople that at one time last spring, when Dr. Saye had given it out that he would not be a candidate, and Mr. McCain came to him with a view to being an anti-dispensary candidate, he ing stock that will naturally collect said, "If the present representatives do not run, and you oppose the dispensarv. I will vote for you.' munication in another colum sets forth very clearly that the dispensary candidates were elected not on the dispensary issue but on the 10hour issue, and the story of this supplies another interesting chapter

the "get there" characteristics of practical politics.

It will be remembered that in the dispensary convention held in the court house some time back, the com-mittee on platform reported a plank declaring for a 10-hour law. This This clank was adopted but was afterward plank was adopted but was afterward re-considered. The matter was not emphasized in the campaign that fol-lowed, until after the close of the canvass, and then the dispensary people hard fight Representative Webb aided made the 10-hour issue with the mill by Representative Finley succeeded in people for everything they were worth capturing a large part of the mill vote.

LOCAL LACONICS. From this date until Januar

The disease is known in medicine as aged eighty-six years.

of Columbia to visit that city on next Wednesday, September 19, arrangements are making to give them a still in a critical condition. rousing reception. Invitations have been issued to citizens of each county Invitations have to serve on the general reception committee and it is expected that the entire state will be represente by

Married on the Battleground. King's Mountain Herald: Mr. Bright family in a few days. Williamson and Miss Margaret Jones were happily married yesterday even a few intimate friends, Rev. J. M. Forbis performing the ceremony, Forbis performing the which blended their lives a citizen of Darlington, where he is president of the bank of that city, and a large planter. The bride is a sister of Mrs. J. M. Forbis of this place and is popular among her hosts of friends Returning to town after the marriage ceremony, the bride and groom boarded No. 12 and will visit New York and will make their future home. Drowned at Lockhart. Union special of September 12 to the At the outset the dispensary party took strong grounds as against the Brice law and in favor of the state Brice law and in favor of the state employed by the General Fire Extindispensary; but later on finding that this policy was not popular, shifted its position to such an extent that it was not positive on anything connected with the dispensary issue, even to into the sank and when the body was not positive on anything connected with the dispensary issue, even to into the sank and when the body was not positive on anything connected with the dispensary issue, even to into the sank and when the body was not positive on anything connected with the dispensary issue, even to into the sank and when the body was not positive on anything connected with the dispensary issue, even to into the sank and when the body was not positive on anything connected with the dispensary issue, even to into the sank and when the body was not positive on anything connected with the sank and when the body was not positive on anything connected with the sank and when the body was not positive on anything connected with miss M. Lillian Ryder, for several years vocal teacher in Winthrop college. Miss opportunity to contain the sank and when the body was not positive on anything connected with the dispensary issue, even to into the sank and when the body was not positive on anything connected with miss M. Lillian Ryder, for several years vocal teacher in Winthrop college. Miss opportunity to contain the sank and when the body was recovered it was too late for him to be ledged to the sank and when the body was not positive on anything connected with miss M. Lillian Ryder, for several years vocal teacher in Winthrop college. Miss opportunity to the sank and when the body was not popular, shifted its condition to such an extent that it was the sank and when the body was not popular, shifted its condition to such an extent that it was not popular, shifted its condition to such an extent that it was not popular that it was not tion he sank and when the body was recovered it was too late for him to be revived. He had been working there two weeks in the new mill. Little is known of him except that he was a member of the Red Men. Tribe No 42, at Spartanburg, and Odd Fellows lodge at Gastonia. All efforts to find his family or relatives have up to a late hour proved unsuccessful and he will be buried at Lockhart if they cannot For Better Roads. Mr. W. P. Boyd of the Point neighborhood, was in Yorkville yesterday, and in conversation with the reporter expressed his view of the most important matter now before the people like this: "Now that the dispensary question has been settled, or at least settled so far as the peopl will turn their attention to the matter of better roads. We have been doing a lot of talk about the roads; but very little else. Because of bad roads during the recent wet weather I lost enough fruit and water melons that I would have otherwise been able to Chester special of September 11, to Charlotte Observer: A great deal has been written recently about the probafer. Investigation shows that there is eral crews that have hitherto been lying over in Chester to lie over i Gastonia. To keep in repair the roll around Gastonia or to do emer-gency work at any point above that here will be detailed for service at Gastonia. This, it is learned on reliable authority, is the only change con templated for years to come, so all the talk about the immediate removal of the works with the scramble incider thereto is very ill-timed.

King's Mountain Monument. The following Washington dispatch of last Monday is interesting: Repre-sentative Webb of North Carolina, has written Secretary Taft asking for a date when it will suit him to go over the details for the erection of the monument authorized by the last congress at King's Mountain. After a securing an appropriation of $30,000 for the purpose of erecting a monuANSEL, LYON, SULLIVAN

Tabulated Returns From Last Tuesday's Primary Election.

The following tabulation of the returns from last Tuesday's primary ection is from the Columbia State of this morning:

1				a constant	le sant de la cons		new horse
y						o i		d
8	COUNTIES.	16 1 F	李光生!	anning	1000年	Ragsdale	Sullivan	2
		177	nsel.	3	30	8	200	Table 1
e		23.3		-	10	9	=	4
el		A		M	Ly	2	ő	8
100	F1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	2 4 1 4 1 1	782	914	811	870	507	1.17
	beville	19.77 - 17.75	1,741	1.125	1.929	929	989	1.93
will Investors	ren		2,839	1.090	2,813	1.094	2.868	1.04
Da	derson	400	519	465	642	341	365	61
	mberg	1.5	973		1.100	542	989	65
Bai	rnwell	KM 11.55	458	194	497	161	436	20
77.	keley		511	429	624	316	405	53
	arleston	(11) 1 THE	2,008	334	2,154	179	1,757	57
	erokee		1,799	420	1,740	469	1,625	57
CIL.	ester		639	477	744	371	661	45
CIL	esterfield		700	1,105	1,187	676	1,120	74
Cla	rendon		469	1,062	759	964	. 953	76
	leton		968	957	948		1,562	36
T	rlington		867	709	891		889	68
	rchester		542	277	541		605	22
TO 3	gefield		744	670	812	1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	671	74
	rfield		478	423	471		571	33
Flo	rence		562	588	415		555	57
I Geo	orgetown		571	449	543		429	1,84
Gre	enville		3,375		1,001	1,673	2,737	78
Gre	enwood		1,005	525	667	616	775	51
Ha	mpton		747	1.488	1,096		1,606	59
Ho	rry	BOOK 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2	570	891	666		479	98
Ke	rshaw	SHE HAZING STATE	1,187	925	1.255	Bullion of the American	987	1.11
Lai	neaster	1.5	1.052	1.560	974	MICHIGAN COMPANY	619	1.98
Till and	rens		541	946	766		787	66
1000			1.064	1.645	1.201	1 X T S Print 2 C 2 T S P	1,962	73
3.50		2011-0	1,440	1,527	1,467		1,634	1,18
350	rion		840	956	922		1,208	58
37-	wberry		1,279	757	1,442	MICHIGAN CO. CO.	809	1,23
Occ	onee		1,954	489	1,792		2,104	33
Ore	angeburg	Control of the last	1,193	1,831	1,524	1,478	1,913	1,08
Pic	kens	district the same	2,083	458	1,604	942	1,954	56
Ric	hland		1,456	1,757	1,635	1,551	917	2,28
Ric	uda		773	1,054	1,018	819	827	1,00
Spe	rtanburg		3,757	1,727	3,526	1,972	2,678	2,83
Sur	mter		441	1,218	933	10000000	884	80
Un	lon		1,214	1,181	1,292	1,093	1,499	88
	lliamsburg		1,171	800	1,137	817	877	1,08
You	rk		1,314	1,223	1,443	1,084	1,781	79
	Total		46,444	37,045	49,886	34,525	47,564	36,67
I HE POSTED		A STATE OF THE PARTY OF THE PAR	THE RESERVE AND ADDRESS.	THE REAL PROPERTY.	STATE OF THE PARTY	WITH STREET STREET	ACCORDING TO MANAGED IN	AND PERSONAL PROPERTY.

School Tax Wins.

The election in Hickory Grove school district on the question of levying a special tax for school purposes last week resulted in favor of the tax by a majority of four votes.

Death of Rev. I. G. McLaughlin.

Rev. I. G. McLaughlin, the oldest minister of the Associate Reformed retary Taft at once and push the work of construction with all possible haste. It is understood that the monument association, which has been vigilant in the movement, is anxious to see the work of erection begin. It is also understood that the association has ac-quired the land around the spot where quired the land around the spot where it is proposed to erect the monument, as this was one of the requirements of the act. Mr. Webb believes that as soon as he has an opportunity to go over the matter with Secretary Taft the work of erecting the monument will soon begin.

ROCK HILL AND VICINITY.

Mr. Rufus Sadler Seriously III-The Catawba Military Academy-Personal and Other Notes.

nce of the Yorkville En ROCK HILL, September 13 .- Mr. Ruoting, and by the time he was gotten ten men in that body. In the ho his home was in a complete col- the vote will be closer, so I am

Mr. George A. Cowan, who left here about a year ago to make Lancaster to Rock Hill, a move which he has the city today and will move his

The Catawba Military academy perhaps, might question opened Wednesday with a fair attendmatriculate will come in later, some full head of iron-gray hair rumples were informal opening exercises held there. Rev. W. L. Lingle, D. D., made in which he expressed himself. a short address full of good things for words came thick and fast. other northern cities on a bridal tour, a short address full of good things for returning to Darlington where they the young students. Rev. Mr. Stackhouse read the Scripture and Rev. Mr. Craig made the opening prayer. Mrs. Sallie Frew and little daughter, Margaret, have returned from an extended visit in North Carolina and Virginia.

Miss Edna Hull is home from a visledgeville.

Mr. William Wilson, who has been quite sick here for some time, has recovered entirely and left Tuesday for

Norfolk, Va., are visiting Mr. Rus-lell's relatives here. Mrs. William Lindsay of Chester, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. Roddey

Miss Georgia Witherspoon has returned to Yorkville after a visit to her dister Mrs. Herbert Dunlan. N. Y., are at their father's home here. Mrs. R. Livy Grier and children, have returned to their home in Manning after a visit to Capt. Marshall. Mr. W. Hope Whyte of Columbia spent several days in the city this Mr. Oscar Sadler of Sharon, is isitor in the city. Mr. L. C. Harrison of Lancaster, was the city Thursday.

Misses Lillian Flowers and Christine McIlwaine are visiting in Fort Mill.
Mr. Hugh White of Fort Mill, spent Phursday in the city.
Mr. William Williams of Greenville, one of the students at the C. M. A.

Mr. E. Lad Mobley of Lancaster, is in the city.

officials here. The prime object of the adminisment and the insurgents. by the United States unless the re-general conflagration. The development of the day was he admission that the cruiser Des of America. Moines had gone southward to Key West with the ultimate purpose of for Spartanburg, S. C., from which proceeding to Havana if the devel- point he will go direct to Wisconsin, opments seem to warrant such ac- where he has engagements to speak

TILLMAN IS SATISFIED.

Majority in the Legislature. "If my opponents are satisfied w the result of the primary election held in South Carolina yesterday, declared Senator B. R. Tillman ertainly am. I did not have the opocratic primary, which was held but I voted yesterday. True the gen tlemen for whom I voted were defeated, but that neither surprised nor does it disturb me. The governor does not enact laws, you know, neither can he repeal those which

This thought was a pleasant one for here Senator Tillman stopped glanced sharply at the newspap man and smiled.

"My fight was on the legislature. In the senate we have a safe working majority and many friends tell me that we have control also of the house. With the new senators who us E. Sadler was taken suddenly ill favor a state dispensary and the Puesday morning while at the polls hold-overs, we have a majority of lapse. He has been too ill to attend with the odds in our favor. You to business for some months, but has must remember that I have been out Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bryan having been able to go around until Tuesday. of the state for several weeks past, jority in both branches of the lature. For this reason, I say that I won my fight." As he uttered these last word cer considering for some time. He Senator Tiliman turned sharply and glanced about the room as if it were ance. A number, who are expecting to bered. Coatless and collariess, his of them having been detained by sick- up and the perspiration standing out ness. The city graded schools includ- on his forehead, he looked the man ing the model school at Winthrop col- that he is, one who had risen from lege, opened Thursday morning with the lowest to the highest by the sheer a splendid attendance. At the central might of his own achievements. school the attendance was the largest That he was vitally concerned in the in the history of the school. There outcome of the South Carolina pri-> were sharp and to the point. "I believe that we did well in the primaries considering the odds," continued Senator Tillman. "The prohibitionists, the blind tigers, the local the state dispensary, well knowing that its defeat would give them the opportunity to carry out their ne-

> "This unholy alliance did not accomplish what its promoters had in view. I visited twenty-four counties. my object being to carry them for the anti-dispensary governor was named and so also an anti-dispensary atorney general."

Here Senator Tillman turned aside to take a fall out of Lyon, the nominee of the party for attorney general. "He was elected on the 'antigraft' platform," said Senator Tillman. "A great hurrah was made and much dust stirred in the fight. The friends of the dispensary are as much opposed to grafting as anybody in South Carolina. We desire nothing more than a fair and square deal. And yet, such a vast amount of political capital was made out of this anti-graft platform that Lyon was elected."

After a discussion of several of the details of his dispensary schemes which has been discussed so much of late in the South Carolina papers, Senator Tillman closed with the statement that he was determined to give THE SITUATION IN CUBA .- The crit- his native state, an institution worthy ical situation in Cuba is absorbing of its glorious past and one that the attention of the administration would be a model for others to copy to the exclusion of all other foreign after. "It is a herculean task," he matters, says a Washington dispatch. said, "one that requires incalculable The president at Oyster Bay is work and thought." keeping in close touch with every Here Senator Tillman turned and development of the revolutionary sat down in a chair, which stood in movement in Cuba and is in con- one corner of the room, His grip stant communication by wire with was open on the table and he was making ready to go down to supper in the Central hotel dining hall. He tration is to get at the facts, par- has aged considerably during the past ticularly the strength of the revo- few years. While there are many lutionary sentiment in Cuba and more wrinkles in his face and his the relative power of the govern- hair is a shade grayer than it was several years ago, his step is just as It is stated officially today that elastic and vigorous, his eye as he purpose of the administration is bright and keen, his mind as quick to proceed with great deliberation in and perceptive and his tongue as lealing with the Cuban question and sharp and trenchant as it was a dec that there will be no intervention ade ago when he lifted himself above all heads in South Carolina bellion assumes the proportions of and paved his way for entrance into that most exclusive club in the world, the senate of the United States

Early this morning he will leave