-The mayor of Philadelphia signed an order for the suppression of the Clansman in the theatres of the city. The play was put on last week and after a few representations the negroes raised a big row, which came of the most difficult problems in metal near developing into a riot. On Tues- lurgy is to separate day a number of leading negroes asked the mayor to suppress the play, claiming that its continued toleration would result in bloodshed. The mayor complied with the request of the negroes and the management of the play has applied for a writ to restrain the mayor from interfering.

- A commission authorized to buy land in the southern states and experiment with it in raising cotton in behalf of Lancashire spinners who are interested in the plan to raise their own cotton and thus escape having to rely on the middlemen for the supply will sail for New York on the steamer Coronia, says a London dispatch. The report submitted by the first commission which went to the United States to investigate the possibilities of such a plan being carried out was so favorable that it was decided to send a second commission with much wider powers to buy land and begin experiments. - It has now been definitely stated in official circles that the idea which originated with President Roosevelt of placing a tax on accumulated wealth has taken a very practical shape and that at the next session of congress the matter will be introduced. THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION The president on last Tuesday issued a proclamation naming Thurs day, November 29, as a day of thanks-Lewis Malone Ayer Chapter, Barnwel giving. The text of the proclamation is as follows:

constantly increasing load of cotton in the desired was continued. The sack is dragged may be continued. Yet another year of enjoyed more abounding material pros perity than is ours; a prosperity great that it should arouse in us spirit of reckless pride, and least of all spirit of heedless disregard of ou responsibilities; but rather a sobe sense of many blessings and resolute purpose, under Providence, not to for-teit them by any action of our own. "Material well being, indispensable though it is, can never be anything but the foundation of true national greatness and happiness. If we build nothing upon this foundation, then our national life will be as meaningless and empty, as a house where only the foundation has been laid. Upon our material well being must be built a superstructure of individual and national life lived in accordance with the laws of the highest morality, or else our prosperity itself will in the long run turn out a curse instead of a bless ing. We should be reverently thank ful for what we have received, and ful for what we have received, and earnestly bent upon turning it into a means of grace and not of destruction.

"Accordingly, I hereby set apart Thursday, the 29th day of November next, as a day of thanksgiving and supplication on which the people shall meet in their homes or their churches, devoutly acknowledge all that has been given them, and pray that they may in given them, and pray that they may i ddition receive the power to use these

They realize how short supplies are in first hand and beshort supplies are in first hand and be-lieve they are safe in taking stock at present valuations. Many buyers have tried to conceal the urgency of their needs, in the hope of getting some con-cession granted them. But this has ceased to be their policy and they openly admit they want goods and are willing to pay sellers their price. For spot delivery, the cutting-up of trade has been forced to accept special con-structions in lower count cloths than they are accustomed to use. These they are accustomed to use. These specials have brought values far above heir proportionate worth. Discussir the question of delivery, selling agents state that the labor scarcity in the south is acting as a serious impedi-ment to the filling of orders. The high cotton in spinning grades is acting as a check to New England mills, so that both east and south production is be-ing retarded. This operates strongly in keeping values on cotton goods reg-ular throughout the market. Jobbers Eutaw Chapter, Orangeburg.

SOUTH CAROLINA NEWS. — The attendance at the state fair this year has been larger than for years. There were eight thousand people on the grounds Tuesday, and it is estimated that there were fully afteen thousand visitors in the city fifteen thousand visitors in the city Wednesday. The number yesterday was also very large. There were quite a number of politicians in the city as usual from all parts of the state. - Columbia State, Friday: Mr. J. I cannot e-plain to you what this means, becau you are in Columbia and can't unde stand. Old experienced people lo-aghast at it, for they told me it couwell smothered that he did something never heard of in Europe—sent me the text of his decision by telegraph. Getting this without Washington's ald has really been the neatest thing I have accomplished since I got over here. It means much for the future, and that is what I have been fighting people, in families, paying their own way, without regard to the mill help families. I feel a sight better over the families. I feel a sight better over the whole thing than I did when I wrote you last. I was certainly up in the air and down in the mouth. You can easily understand why. Herbert has handled his end of the proposition with conspicuous ability and speedily, and I will never forget him. I hope I may never be in such a sea of uncertainty again, with so much hanging on it. It was positively torture. Now I am working day and night with the thouattend the conference in Yorkville are: Mrs. F. M. Jones, Mrs. J. Allen Miles was positively torture. Dear Sir: If we sell Devoe to paint your town, your road won't have so much freight to handle. It takes 10 gallons to paint a fairdesize house, and that house won't want painting again for 5 or 10 years. That's thoutrue in a way; but people, you know, rather like fresh paint, and they paint

next week. Negotiations for a settlement of the strike by arbitration have been declared off.

That house would take 12 or 13 galment of the strike by arbitration have lons of almost any other paint than Devoe, and would have to be painted again in half that time. Ten years is a very long time for a paint to wear; and five isn't short. Which makes the most freight, a 16
