MAIN STREET,

YORKVILLE, SOUTH CAROLINA

It is always bound to be the principal business street of this town. Property is more valuable on Main street than any other. That portion of the street between the Liberty and Madison street crossings is worth more than the balance. My five lots, between the Herndon building and the Shandon hotel are the pick of the whole street! These lots are dirt cheap at the price I am asking. In a very few years they will double in value.

Those who would get the benefit of the enhancement should invest now. If I must hold until the enhancement comes, then of course I will take the benefit of that enhancement. LAURA E. PARISH.

Some men are thinkers. The vast majority are not, but allow others to perform this most important runction for them. This statement is eminently true when it comes to the matter of buying life insurance, a transaction that is really one of the most important in a business way, with which any man has to deal. There are in business in the United States today something like 100 legal reserve life insurance companies.

Some of these are better than other traces of south Carolina—York County.

Y virtue of a Deed of Trust, now on record in R. M. C. office, conveyed to me the tract of land hereinafter described, executed by Minnie A. Moss, William E. Smarr, John M. Smarr, Robert R. Smarr, Mary M. Smarr, I will sell at Public Auction, before the Court House Door in York-ville, S. C., on MONDAY, NOVEM-States today something like 100 legal reserve life insurance companies.

Some of these are better than others and of course you know there is ONE best. There is always one best in practically everything. The best one is the one that has the longest, cleanest record for square, upright dealing with every policy holder or member, and the one that guarantees and has always guaranteed the most insurance—and lives up to its guarantees—at the least cost. The history of the Mutual Benefit proves it to be the Best company, and a careful investigation of its record will convince you of the fact. Don't depend on somebody else. There is no mystery about the problem. Don't let me or anybody else do your life insurance thinking. Do it yourself. Look Before You Leap.

Sherer, Lillie C. Smarr and Joseph W. Smarr, I will sell at Public Auction, before the Court House Door in York-ville, S. C., on MONDAY, NOVEM-BER 4TH, 1907 (Salesday), between 11 a. m. and 1 p. m., the following described Real Estate:
