A Farm Well Equipped

As the average small farmer wishes to buy, has been placed in my hands to sell. The buildings on the place are comparatively new and could not be replaced today for much less than the price asked. Plenty of fresh land that has only been worked a few years, and wood and water sufficient to supply all necessary demands. Can make from 20 to 25 bales of cotton, and plenty of corn, wheat and oats. Call and let me give you full description if you mean business, and let me show you a chance seldom equalled. No information given to other than those who mean business. Now or never if you want a farm.
