THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

More Interesting Developments

House and Senate. The general assembly is now winding up the third week of the present session without having completed any business of especial, general interest beyond the election of Associate Jus-Jones to succeed Chief Justice Pope and the election of Mr. E. D. Smith to the United States senate.

The balloting for an associate jus-tice to fill the vacancy caused by the elevation of Mr. Associate Justice for the sale was made in Greensboro Jones was commenced on Wednesday, 'ast December. The Southern mill runs and has been proceeding since with every indication of a prolonged dead-

Upon the convening of the two houses in joint assembly, the calling for nominations by Lleutenant Gov-ernor McLeod, the fight was commenced as follows:

Senator Carnsle of Spartanburg, placed in nomination the Hon. D. E. Hydrick, a son of Orangeburg county, Wycne of Newberry. Senator Rainsford of Edgefield, placed in nomination the Hon. J. C. Shep-pard. Seconded by the Richland delegation through the Hon. J. C. McMa-han of the house, and by Representative Garrison of Bamberg.

Pickens. in nomination the Hon. George W. Gage, and this nomination was second-ed by Representative Hines of Lancaster, and by Senator Stewart of York. Senator Laney placed the Hon. R. C. Watts's name before the joint assembly, the same being seconded by Senator Wharton of Laurens, and Senator Lelly of Lee. The first ballot resulted: Cothran 38: Hydrick, 33: Gage 22: Sheppard

:: Watts, 35. The second ballot resulted: Cothran : Hydrick 35: Sheppard 37:: Watts 3: Gage 21. The third ballot resulted: Cothran 8: Gage 18: Hydrick 28; Sheppard 7: Watts 32.

The joint assembly was then ad-journed until yesterday, and six bal-lots were taken during the day with esults as follows: First Ballot-Watts 32;: Cothran 37; First Ballot—Watts 32;: Cothran 37; Sheppard 38:: Gage 20:: Hydrick 37. Second—Cothran 37: Hydrick 37: Gage 21: Sheppard 37: Watts 31. Third—Cothran 39: Hydrick 37; Gage 19: Sheppard 38: Watts 31. Fourth—Cothran 40: Hydrick 38; Gage 18: Sheppard 37: Watts 24. Fifth—Cothran 40: Hydrick 40; Gage 20: Sheppard 36: Watts 23. Sixth —Cothran 37; Hydrick 38; Gage 18: Sheppard 36: Watts 24.

Sixtn — Confran 34; Hydrick 35; Gage 18; Sheppard 39; Watts 24. The York delegation voted solidly for Gage on the first few ballots. On the third ballot Mr. Glasscock voted for Hydrick: but afterward went back to Gage. On the 6th ballot Mr. Sanders changed from Gage to Hydrick. After the second ballot yesterday there was a flutter over a proposition to run in Governor Ansel as a dark horse in the hope of drawing from the lead of Cothran, his fellow townsman. Governor Ansel was circulating through the lobbies today and during the voting occupied a seat in the gal-lery. The friends of Mr. Cothran were much incensed over this turn and got busy, stiffening their friends to stick.

The movement to run in Governor Ansel was not only unauthorized by him, but most deciderly against his wishes. He sent Mr. Cothran a mes-noon from 4.30 to 6.30 o'clock. sage to this effect this afternoon. He is Mr. Cothran's former law partner and regards this move as mean politics, which is unfair to both him and Mr. othran Last night efforts to break the deadfrom the beginning. Balloting will be resumed again tomorrow at noon. An attempt on the last ballot was made to rush in Speaker R. S. Whaley as a dark horse, but he had it scotched by the announcement through one of his friends that this was emphatically against his wishes. This was before the vote was tabulated.

- Charlotte, N. C., January 27: The Southern and Bessemer City cotton nills were sold under the hammer at Bessemer City today by Caesar Cone, receiver. The Southern mill was ought in by George Stephens of Charlotte, representing a syndicate of creditors, for $110,500. The Bessemer City mill was sold to Gen. John Gill of Baltimore, for $40,000. The mills were placed in the hands of Receiver Cone about a year ago, and the order ast December. The Southern mill runs 15,000 spindles and 400 looms, and the Bessemer City mill is equipped with 15,216 spindles and 401 looms. The receivership was the result of a proceeding in equity brought by the Cone Export and Commission company of Greensboro, and the indebtedness was estimated at $330,000, so that by the sale today the creditors will receive but now of Spartanburg. This nomi-nation was seconded by Senator Lide of Orangeburg, and Representative lar.

- Columbia, January 28: Senator Weston has a bill which was intro-duced in the senate yesterday giving to city councils and boards of aldermen the right to regulate the rates Senator Mauldin of Greenville, plac-ed in nomination the Hon. Thomas P. Cothran, whose nomination was bill provides that the charges shall be seconded by Representative Cary of fixed by the councils or boards of aldermen and pertains to electric lights, Senator Hardin of Chester, placed street railway and telephone utilities.

A REFORMED STATESMAN.

As He Grows Older Senator Tillman Sees Things By New Lights.

The sounding of a "clarion note" by Senator 'Liuman for the freedom of the American press is another incident snowing his steady improvement in 9.61; June 9.54; July 9.53; Aug. 9.43; understanding of political principles. Sept. 9.36; Oct. 9.33; Nov. 9.29; Dec The senator's public career has been 9.29. one of notable progress from habits of uncoutn speech and violent action towards that sweetness and placidity of behavior that marks the statesman. If the senator is still given to occasional utterances which shock the sensitive people of the north and east, they are hopeful in contrast with the explosions of his salad days. Moreover, the senator has without doubt acquired some knowledge of the real doctrines of Democracy and his de-fense of the freedom of the press illustrates his advance in education. These sentiments are creditable to the mind and heart of the senator-"A prices.

A little less than fifteen years ago the author of the exalted periods quoted was governor of South Carolina and commander-in-chief of its militia forces. From the executive mansion in Columbia he proclaimed the counties of Darlington and Florence in a state of "insurrection," and some five hundred or more armed troops were summoned to Columbia. One of the governor's first acts in dealing with the emergency was to establish a militar; press censorship and correspondents of newspapers were compelled to submit their dispatches to soldiers in uniform stationed in the Western Union and Postal Telegraph offices in Columbia. That the "freedom of the press," which Senator Tillman so eloquently defends might be preserved these correspond ents were forced to send messenger with their telegraphic stories to Au-gusta in Georgia and to Charlotte in North Carolina where they could be iled for transmission in the telegraph office without being subjected to the and the Court House.
