Make the Licks Count

With the rapid advance of General Green across the cotton and corn fields every lick of the farmer's pocket is a enemy should count to the limit. A good hoe will help some, but the best hoe is the one to use for results that count. Every farmer should equip his army with a Reilly Hoe—it does business going and coming. We only have a few left.

International Stock Food Preparations

Everybody posted on a matter of this kind will admit that the INTERNATIONAL stands at the head of the list of goods of this class. Their Guarantee of what they claim for it will give every package, or Money Will Be Refunded.

NOW being the best time for a general use I bring them to your notice. Beside the regular Stock Food for Horses, Cattle, Hogs, etc., I also have a few extra preparations put up by them and sometimes needed, such as Dan Patch White Liniment Silver Pine Healing Oil Lice Killer Gail Care for Cats, etc.
