schools opened last Thursday with the the largest enrollment in the history of the schools. There were 505 of the schools. There were 525 pupils present at the Central school, and the total enrollment at the two mill schools which are run under the general su-pervision of the superintendent of the Central school, was 150, making a grand total of 675. Others have ap-plied for admission since the opening, and the schools will all be over-crowd-and the schools will all be over-crowded this term.

A citizens' meeting has been called to meet at 5 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of discussing the High school controversy and devising some means, if possible, to break the deadlock in the board and relieving the situation in some way.

— Judge Aldrich, presiding at the general sessions court, said last Saturday: "It appears to the court that J. P. Goodwin, supervisor of Greenville county has failed to comply with the recommendation of the grand jury at a former term with reference to a bridge on the Spartanburg road known as the Rock Hill bridge. Sufficient time having passed for such compliance, now, therefore, it is ordered that J. P. Goodwin show cause why prosecution should not be instituted against him for neglect of duty." The statement fell like a bombshell in court, as Supervisor Goodwin is one of the most popular officers of the county. He most popular officers of the county. He most popular officers of the county. He says he can show reason why he has not followed the recommendation of the grand jury.

The Cotton Market.

Yorkville, Sept. 14,-Cotton 121. New York Cotton.

New York, Sept. 13.—Futures opened easy and closed firm as follows: Sept. 12.18; Oct. 12.18; Nov. 12.18; Dec. 12.19; Jan. 12.16; Feb. 12.17; March 12.24; April 12.25; May 12.29.

New York, Sept. 13 .- An early decline of $1.00 per bale in the cotton market was partly recovered in the late trading, the close being firm at a net loss of 7 to 11 points.

The market opened easy at a decline of 9 to 16 points, and after some little iregularity, sold off to a net loss of 20 points with January touching 12.05, or over $3.50 per bale under the high figures of last Wednesday. This decline was the result of heavy liquidation and stop loss orders fol-lowing weak Liverpool cables; the showing of the English market being attributed to liquidation and hedge selling; and suggesting that foreign spinners were less nervous over future supplies owing to the failure of the market to hold its advance since the publication of the September condi-tion figures, and the increasing move-ment. It was rumored that a big southwestern bull was liquidating his long line, and one broker was credit-ed with selling fully 50,000 bales during the morning. Offerings became lighter after midday. The undertone of the market continued very nervous and unsettled but there was some one. and unsettled but there was some support from covering by shorts, and in the last half hour prices rallied some 10 or 11 points from the lowest. There was nothing in the southern news to modify bullish crop ideas, as tempercontinued very high in the western belt on Sunday, and while the reports of a walkout as a result of helped the early decline, the general on the installment plan—A Section or opinion was that these difficulties would be of short duration.

Receipts at the ports today 41,392 bales against 20,421 last week and 35,669 last year. For the week 180,000 against 151,822 last week and 213,882 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 1,729 against 1,948 last year and at Houston 22,681 against 10,230 last year.

Spot closed quiet, 25 points lower; middling uplands 12.40; Gulf 12.65; sales 500 bales.

While It Is True

That I may never have looked you in the eye and stated to you that I would be pleased to write your application for a policy for any amount of life insurance in the Mutual Benefit from $1,000 to $50,000, still it is a fact that I am anxious to have your business. The Mutual Benefit's age limits are from 14 to 70 years. I am not a mind reader and have no means of knowing whether or not you desire information relative to life insurance, and there will be no impropriety in your speaking to or writing me in case you are interested now or become so later. If you have not already done so, I suggest that you read and ponder my advertisement in The Enquirer of August 31 and September 3.

EVERYTHING In MILLINERY

... Old Stand ...

It gives me pleasure to announce to my friends of Yorkville and vicinity, that I have yielded to the expressed desire of many of them and to my own preference and inclination, in a determination to establish a Millinery business in Yorkville.

I will occupy the store room formerly occupied by Mrs. T. M. Dobson, and will be ready with a select stock of Pattern Hats and a complete assortment of Millinery goods not later, I ber; but as much earlier as possible.
