BANKING AND MERCANTILE COMPANY

Decide to Throw Their Entire Stock of New Fall and Winter Merchandise on the Market at Whatever It Will Bring.

Begins Saturday, November 13th and Ends December 24th,

..... And Every Dollar's Worth Must Be Sold by Christmas. ....

COLD TYPE IS INADEQUATE TO DESCRIBE THE MAGNITUDE and extent of the Bargain-giving, which is the remarkable and sensational feature of this Bona Fide CLOSING OUT SALE. Only a hint can be conveyed to the public mind by this description on paper. Just imagine, a magnificent $25,000 stock of America's Newest and Best Merchandise, sacrificed in a manner to upset and overthrow all previous records; and then you have a slight idea of the daring and relentless Price-Slashing which every article in this House has undergone. This Sale overshadows and eclipses all previous selling events, and can no more be compared to the ordinary kind of sales periodically indulged in than the electric light can be compared to the candle.
