What Is a Dollar?

ONE SAYS IT IS A PIECE OF PAPER; CIRCULATING MEDIUM, SAYS ANOTHER: A PROMISE TO PAY, SAYS THE THIRD; SOMETHING YOU MAY BORROW FROM YOUR FRIEND, SAYS THE "HARD UP." - - -

Yes, a dollar is more than these. That dollar is a part of your life. You worked hard yesterday and earned a dollar. You can spend it in a minute and be none the richer; but you did not. It is the only tangible thing you have for the whole day's existence. the only tangible thing you have for the whole day's existence.

The joy, the privilege, the worry have all gone in the great, silent past. The dollar is yours today; you spend it and tomorrow start anew. Keep it and tomorrow you may play, for the reason of your care of yesterday; or you may work tomorrow for another dollar and the next day and the next, until you have long years of yesterdays—strong, capable, willing to toil for and keep you in comfort, when your body is too weak to toil.

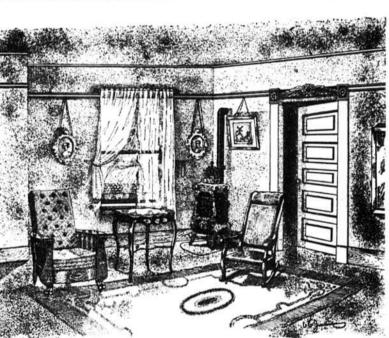

The dollar being a part of your life and as you guard your health to take care of your future; so should you guard your dollars, in order to secure full service for the past.

TT doesn't take many pieces of Furniture to make a room look comfortable and home-like, and even if there is a piece or so less and the furniture is good, the room won't look bare, but no matter how much trash you put into a room you don't get the true home effect. Trash in furniture is conspicuous, maybe it doesn't look that way in the catalogue, but you will always find it that way when you get it home and in the room where you intend putting it. Now the difference between trash and good furniture is apparent to us before it goes into any home. We know the difference and buy
