LETTER FROM CHEROKEE.

Facts of More or Less Neighborhood Interest, and Some Comments About the Proposed Cession of a Slice of York.

ondance The Yorkville Enquirer Wilkinsville, February 13.-It is ru mored that Thomas A. McKeown, for merly of Hickory Grove, who moved with his family to Lamar county, Texas, about twenty years ago, is dead. We haven't been able to find out the certainty of the report. Geo. B. Estes, formerly of this county, who moved to Texas about the same time and settled at Brookston, has moved with his family to Paris, Tex., and gone into the hardware business.

Miss Minnie Palmer, who is teaching school at this place, spent last Saturday and Sabbath with her parents at Sharon. This day one year ago, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Estes celebrated their gold-Mrs. S. F. Estes celebrated their golden wedding.

With the exception of what we see in The Enquirer in reference to the cutting off of a strip of York county to annex to this (Cherokee) county, we know nothing whatever. We heard a rumor some time last year that such a move was on hand, but didn't know that the work had actually begun, though it is in a rather remote part of the county from where we live, and we don't by any means, we live, and we don't by any means, know all that is going on. Anyway, we haven't any objection to having as many of those good "Seceders" as possible added to the citizenship of Cherokee county. They are, generally speaking, a good people—a people who recognize no law as equal to the Ten Commandments, and in this particular they are exactly right, not simulated by the people when the same ticular they are exactly right, not simulated by the people in the country of ticular they are exactly right, not simply because we say so, but because it is so. But we can't believe that such an annexation will ever be completed; particularly in the face of the fact that it may eventually result in the removal of the York county court house to Rock Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Beyce Whisonant of Wilkinsville. have some right sick workers been Wilkinsville, have some right sick children, especially their oldest child, Clyde.

Two of our neighbor boys, Walter and Jesse Kirby, have gone into the mercantile business at Hickory Grove and we wish for them a fair divide of the male property.

and we wish for them a fair divide of the public patronage.

Mr. C. Wash McKeown who is now in the hospital at Gaffney, we are sorry to learn is not getting along so well with his broken thigh or hip. We learn that in his sleep he made a sudden move that injured the fracture. He is one of our very best men—an old Confederate soldier—the orderly sergeant of Co. F. 15th S. C. regiment, Kershaw's brigade, McLaw's division, Longstreet's corps. He was in all or Longstreet's corps. He was in all or most of the principal battles in which most of the principal battles in which the Army of Northern Virginia was engaged. Besides he was wounded and left for dead at Chickamauga. Nothing cheers him so much in the confines of his sick room as a word of cheer and the hearty handshake of his old comrades or their children. Mr. McKeown is and has been commander of Company Lewiser I. C. veterans since of Camp Jefferies U. C. veterans since its organization, fifteen years ago. Mr. John L. Strain, who has been under treatment at the city hospital at Gaffney for nearly two weeks, was able to return to his home yesterday morning, much improved in health. Owing to the continued bad weathowing to the country people have done but little outdoor work. They can do lit-tle more than make fires and sit by
