Scraps and facts.

- Mexican bandits who beat Mrs. C. A. Auld, a British subject, on the soles of her feet in order to make her divulge the hiding place of her jewels last Thursday night, while she was a passenger on a train near Silao, have seemingly cooked up a large measure of trouble for the Madero govern-ment. When the incident became known the foreign colony held an indignation meeting and petitioned the British minister to investigate and if facts are found as reported, t make vigorous protest to the Mexican government. The minister has made no statement. According to the story of one of the passengers, Mrs. Auld hid her jewels and refused to give them up. The bandits threw her on the floor, seized her feet and beat a painful tattooo on the soles. The ban-dits stopped the train by removing a couple of rails and then fired into the coaches, wounding a number of persons, reports say six, one of whom, an American named Kane, afterwards, died. The bandits, it is stated, demanded a large sum of money from Kane and when he declared his inability to produce it, shot him in the

-The cabled announcement from Bremen that North German Lloyd has given orders for the building of new liner, larger than any now the service, is explained at the steam-ship offices in New York to mean that a liner of 54, 000 tons, 8,000 tons big-ger than the Olympic and Titanic, is to be launched to put Germany again in the first place in the trans-Atlantic service. Moreover, it is said that the new liner to be named after one of the great leaders in American history will be the first of a fleet of similar boats designed to take the place of liners of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse type. These latter boats prob-ably will be utilized for a service from New York to San Francisco via the Panama canal. The new ships which will cost about $10,000,000 each will be the last work in ocean luxury There will not be an ordinary berth i the entire ship, and there will be a bed for everyone from the millionaire who pays a small fortune for a suite on the promenade deck to the humblest steerager. The Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse ten years ago, was one of the fastest and largest liners afloat. The new ships will be almost four times as large. They will be more than three times as large as the battleship Connecticut, the flagship of the Uni-ted States Atlantic fleet.

- Hillsboro, N. C., April 12: One of the boldest bank robberies that has occurred in North Carolina in many a day was enacted here sometime last night or early this morning when yeggmen slipped into town, forced an entrance to the Bank of Orange and with nitroglycerine blew up the vault and inner doors and took from the institution between $4,000 and $5,000 in gold and currency. The bank vault was swept practically clean, the robbers leaving behind only a few $20 bills and some small silver. Bank papers were not disturbed. The first intimation that Hillsboro had been visited during the night by yeggmen came when the janitor of the building went to the bank at 6.30 o'clock this morning to clean up. He found the door blown from its hinges. There is said to be no clue to the robbers. It is believed that the yeggmen came into town this morning about 1.30 o'clock from the direction of Greensboro. At least three strangers are reported to have been seen here shortly after the arrival of No. 112 from Greensboro to Goldsboro. One of the men, it is said, carried a satchel. A consider-able noise was heard in the direction of the bank about two o'clock this morning. No attention was given the ound at the time but it is believed that the noise is due to the explosion that blew the vault door.

Pennsylvania appears to be sor what progressive also.

The preferential primaries seem be playing havoc with the control of the party bosses.

Whether Col. Roosevelt gets the nomination or not, what he will do with his party will be a plenty.

That proposition that Governo Blease makes as to Mr. Felder strikes us as being very liberal and it does look that if Mr. Felder could be induced to specify, it would simplify matters wonderfully.

Both Governor Blease and Judge Jones are opposed to restricting the right to vote in the primary to those who can exhibit registration certificates; but it is hardly to be claimed that this settles the soundness of the proposition. It only means that there will be no change in the party rules at the present time.

Duncan, in his paper, the Co lumbia Reporter, begs to be allowed to go before the dispensary winding up commission. He promises that he can give information that will lead to much important testimony. Surely it would do no harm to give Mr. Duncan an opportunity to testify.

be no intervention in Mexico, the probability seems to be growing stronger and stronger every day. The proper ime to have intervened was last spring when the Mexicans were killing Americans across the border: but the political necessity or intervention did not seem so apparent at that time.

The York county pension list is published elsewhere in today's issue of The Enquirer. The list is official; but as many people will discover, it is not absolutely correct. Many of the names are incorrectly spelled and in some cases it would be impossible to identify them without personal acquaintance with the individuals for whom they are intended to stand. Because we are unable to correct the list in a manner that would warrant us certifying to its accuracy, we prefer to reproduce the official copy.

'It is not up to The Enquirer to decide the issue raised between Governor Blease and Mr. Cary at Anderson. We do not remember to have seen anything in the Columbia State quotleged to have said he was quoted; but not having the files of the State before us, we are not prepared to say that Mr. Cary was quoted as alleged. Then again Governor Blease may have director of John A. something to say as to what was said company, is credited with a fortune between himself and Mr. Cary face to of $25,000,000. face. The issue may be one of veracity and it may be one of only understanding. At any rate, the facts so far developed are hardly sufficient to complete the record.

We have noted the suggestion that andidates for Senator Tillman's place in the senate are counting on the old nan's dropping out because of his health. Horrible Marine Disaster Off the Coast of New Foundland. The information this morning is that the White Star liner Titanic was sunk with her not less than 1,500 persons. The news is not absolutely definite; which is to the interest but there is enough corroborative detail to lead to the fear that further information will not make the situation any better.

Practically all that has been received has come by wireless telegraph. The first information came at a late hour Sunday night. It was to the effect that the Titanic had struck an iceberg and while it did not conceal the fact that the vessel was badly injured, it left the impression that the danger was slight, not only because it vas claimed that the Titanic was uninkable; but also because it was rewould easily arrive in time to take off he passengers. The information this morning is that the Titanic went to the bottom four hours after she struck the ice-berg, and of the 2,200 persons on board only 675 are known to have been saved. When the Carpathia reached the scene the Titanic had already gone to the bottom, and the people who were picked up, mostly we and children, it is believed were from the lifeboats.

Among the notable passengers on the unfortunate vessel, about whose fate there is nothing definite, were Mr. and Mrs. John Jacob Astor, Major Archibald Butt, aide to President Taft, Charles M. Hays, president of the Grand Trunk Pacific of Canada, his wife and daughter; W. T. Stead, Benjamin Guggenheim, F. D. Millet, the artist, and J. G. Widener of Philaelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Isidor Straus J. B. Thayer, vice president of the Pennsylvania railroad; J. Bruce Ismay, Henry B. Harris, the theatrical manager, and Mrs. Harris, and Colonel Washington Roebling, builder of the Brooklyn bridge. The Titanic was the largest vesse affoat. She was built at a cost of $10, 200,000. She was 882 feet long, 92 feet wide and 94 feet deep. The gross tonnage was 46,000 tons, and her total capacity 3,200 people. She had on board 1,300 passengers and a crew of

From the figures so far reported it appears that the disaster is greatest in the marine history of the world. Nearest approaching it in magnitude were the disasters to the steamer Atlantic in 1873, when 574 lives were lost and to La Bourgoyne in 1898, with a fatality list of 571. There is no other idea up to this time than that Captain Smith, in command, went down with his vessel, giving his place in accordance with noole marine tradition, to the women und children.
