YORKVILLE, S. C.: FRIDAY, AUGUST 8, 1913

Capt. William E. Gonzales, American minister to Cuba, arrived in Havanna on Wednesday, and it was expected that he would probably present his credentials to President Menocal today.

Yes, the people can still be led all right; but it is a good idea to go mong them and see what they are thinking about before pulling on the rope too hard. It is surprising to see how much more the average man knows about things in general as compared with formerly.

The large number of people regis tered last Monday is but an indication of what can be done if the people will only make it their business to agitate the matter among unregistered people, and remind them that the first Monday in September is the next day upon which certificates may be had. There is no provision in the statutes for nvited to attend the conferences at properly advertising registration days in the newspapers, it being assumed that everybody should know the law. and it therefore becomes especially important that those who do know should tell the people who do not.

Senator Lippitt, of Rhode Island, Senator Hoke Smith denied the charge. B. Daskam, chief of the division of public moneys, will be present. If this be better for the southern people to be their object it is a fact that they pay interest to northern banks, than to southern banks, there was an inadvertent mixture. We meant that if we had to pay 8 per cent interest in the south for any part of that proposed $50,000,000 deposit, we had better pay it all to our southern banks than to divide. it with northern banks as has been the case heretofore. We cannot, for the life of us, see why the northern banks should have a rake-off under the circumstances; but we can see how if the south had a system of state operated warehouses, there would not be much of a rake-off for anybody.

> At the conference for the Common Good yesterday, Col. Robert Aldrich, offered a resolution commending Senator Smith for his alleged share in inducing Secretary McAdoc to propose the $50,000,000 deposit in southern banks. President Tate said that he did case. You will notice that this demand not want to vote down the resciution; but thought that if the conference should go to endorsing public men, it self of the facts therein, and that would get itself into very serious trouble. Col. Aldrich finally withdrew his resolution. Secretary Snell, of the made serious objections to resolutions introduced by E. W. Dabbs, president of the South Carolina Farmers' Union, because he thought they reflected on a certain feature of the administration ture in this state. When the objectionable feature was stricken out, Mr. Snell withdrew a resolution he had offered to table.

It is be- give free tuition only in cases where LOCAL AFFAIRS, ence. 1 only wish the farmers of the parents are unable to pay, is common and looking at conditions as they exist rather than as we would like to have them, we do not see how the situation could be well straightened out. The man who pays the most taxes for educational purposes naturally feels that he is entitled to most of the benefits. At least that is the case with the average man. He is wrong, of course; but of convincing him, and when it comes to a matter of getting free tuition or anything else free from the state, too many people forget all about the mora! obligation involved. The best way around it, we think, is that suggested by the Herald and News. It might be just a little heavier on the taxpayers; but for all that is lost there, the gain in general self-respect would be more than sufficient to make it up.

It is exceedingly difficult to make some people understand some very simple things, and although there are thousands who cannot conceive that anybody could fail to understand Mr. McAdoo's $50,000,000 deposit proposition there are other thousands who have no idea what it means. The government has constantly on hand a big entitled to register should be stirred up sum of money. The money is coming in all the time and going out at regular intervals. Sometimes expenditures over all they could place, at home, let out more banks. The extension came about no time for much discussion of details as a concession to the demands of ordinary right and justice, backed by political pressure. But still the New share, and they are continuing to get it, even under the arrangement that requires interest. This, it must be remembered, is a new wrinkle, instituted only a few months ago. Well, it has been a common thing to move the crops with government money-money deposited in New York banks without interest, and which the New York banks would hire out to other banks at whatever interest rates could be se cured. They had to charge interest, of course, on account of the labor, expense and responsibility involved in distribution and collection, and of course, that is all right. But the great point about the McAdoo proposition is charged yesterday that the new tariff that the money comes to southern 1 bill favors southern cotton mills, and banks direct. Of course, it is proposed to put it out to a few larger banks in Senator Smith recalled that before his the south, and they will distribute it election to the senate, Senator Lippitt among their correspondents, charging 19 had come before tariff committees in interest just as the New York banks 20 his capacity of cotton manufacturer, did, and would if they had control of onnection with existing conditions. In from New England that the south is the first place it is being openly chargtrying to discriminate is equal to an ed that the New York and other northeastern banks now have on hand millions of money on which they are acclaim that they have given the south tually losing interest, rather than lend and on all matter mailed at a ctly carit with perfect safety. The reason As would probably have been inferred stringency because they think they can from the context, when we said in a see where by that means they can would be able to accomplish the sam except for the friendly relief that Sec retary McAdoo is contemplating. If i is really the purpose of the banks to bring about stringency, as is charge and their scheme is checkmated, by Secretary McAdoo's move, then the fight may be prolonged into deeper lines; but there is reason to hope and

By reason of this comparatively small investment the daily output of the plant will be about doubled, and with little, if any increase n the expense account for labor. Mr J. Meek Smith, the secretary and treasurer, and Mr. W. N. Jackson, the superintendent, have been busy for sometime getting the plant in shape for ousiness when the next season opens. The ginnery is now equipped with twelve 70-saw gins and the management hopes to gin more cotton this fall and winter than during any season since the plant commenced opera

In the United States district court Judge Smith has rendered an opinion remanding the case of Edward B. noon will be witnessed by a larger Price, administrator, against the Southern Power company and the Catawba company back to York county for trial. The case grows out of the killing of a boy by a live wire for to the Federal court and the plaintiff has now had it remanded back, since the plaintiff and one of the defendant are residents of South Carolina. The udge finds no evidence to sustain the claim that the Catawba' company is fraudulently joined with the Southern Power company, in order to have one of the defendants an alien concern and afford cause for the transfer of the case to the Federal court. The suit is for $50,000. Farmers Mutual in Lancaster.

Lancaster News: A meeting of the ancaster county policyholders of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance company, of Yorkville, was held in the court house Saturday morning. Mr. D. E. Boney, agent and treasurer, was explained. The following were recommended to serve as directors: Buford township, A. C. Rowell; Cane Creek, W. H. Drafin; Cedar Creek, J. A. Cauthen, Gills Creek, J. Clark Robinson; Pleasant Hill, W. R. Porter; Waxhaw, T. W. Secrest. As the company has been working in this county for only a short time, it was not convenient to secure directors for lat Creek and Indian Land townships at this time, but this will be done later. In York and Lancaster counties this company has ,101 policles in force, representing $1,-009,690 insurance on buildings. Mr. Boney, the agent, is very much gratified at the reception he has received in Lancaster county, and expects to do a good volume of business. Proposed Fair at Rock Hill. Rock Hill, August 6: The dates of the York county fair which will be held ternoon and it is known that many in connection with the Winthrop Home nstitute this year have been fixed for October 16 and 17 and preparations are well under way. The committee in charge states that considerable interest is being taken in all sections of the county, and the outlook is that York's first fair will be very good indeed. The premium list has been completed, giving the rules and regulations and full information will be distributed to all interested at an early date. Despite jars on the landlady, Mrs. Lula Adams the fact that this is York's first effort at a fair, and is being conducted by a committee from the local chamber of een doing, he will be able to return commerce and not by an organization. around $500 in prizes will be offered, and the premium list covering practically everything that can be grown on the soil, also live stock, poultry, hogs, dogs, babies, etc. The committee has already signed a contract for an aeroplane to give exhibitions twice a day during the fair and several other clean the southern part of Union, and he at attractions will be secured. The selection of attractions, however, will be done with the greatest care, and only the highest class concerns will be allowed to place their outfits inside of the grounds. The first day of the fair will be known as industrial day. The manufacturing concerns and business men, etc., have been invited to participate in a parade and to have exhibits at the fair grounds. It is the intention of the committee to have on disp'ay samples of every article manufactured inside the county. The second day will be known as educational day, and it is hoped to have every white school in the county participate in the exer-cises. A monster parade will be held in the morning in which every school will be urged to take part, and various prizes will be offered the paraders for hest floats, best showing of school on foot, and largest proportion of
