secrets to foreign powers,

King's Creek, Aug. 14.-The home Mr. Robert Hayes Mitchell, one and a half miles from King's Creek, was the scene of a most delightful gathering on last Tuesday, August 12th. The sons and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell had invited their friends and tion of their father's 67th birthday. From 9 o'clock until 12 they came in from every side until more than a hun-dred guests had assembled. tly after the middle of the day it was announced that all were requested to meet under the oaks on the north side of the yard. A most inviting scene met the eye, but it was only a short time until a considerable part of that scene had silently disappeared. After a blessing had been asked by Rev. G. L. Kerr of King's Mountain, N. C., a former pastor of Mr. Mitchell, the good humored company paid excellent tribute to the culinary art of the good women of the counties of Cherokee and Nark Hory Mr. Robert Mess could pull York. How Mr. Robert Moss could pull himself away from that groaning board, even though he did have an engagement to meet a singing class, was more than a mystery to those who were armed with a whetted appetite. May be he would rather sing than eat. May be ne would rather sing that the many be ne would rather sing that the cheerful dinner over, Revs. G. L. Kerr and H. B. Hardy entertained the company by making some remarks of a humorous nature.

Later in the afternoon the smaller Later in the afternoon the smaller Ancena Mill. groups, in some instances composed of two, were again called together in one large group for religious services, during which time Rev. Mr. Kerr made short address on "Reunions."

At intervals the audience was favored with some good music, both vocal and instrumental. Worthy of mention is the string band vhich was compos-ed of Messrs. H. D. and Otho McDani-el, Jas. N. Strain, Jos. Cobb, Mrs. J. N. Strain, and Misses Wilma and Estelle McDaniel. These excellent musicians added no little to the enjoyment of the and Mrs. Mitchell have three sons and three daughters, also ten grandchildren. All of their childern were present as follows: Mr. Jno. C. Mitchell of Union, Mrs. Nellie Bullington and Mrs. Macie White and hus-band of Gaffney; Mr. S. R. Mitchell and wife, Mr. W. M. Mitchell, and Mrs. Bessie Martin and husband of King's

There are four living brothers: Mr. W. H. Mitchell, Rock Hill, J. R. Mitchell, Hickory Grove, Blair and S. A. Mitchell, Sharon. All were present except the latter.

Between 4 and 5 o'clock the friends took their leave thanking Mr. Mitchell for the pleasures of the day and wishing him many happy returns of August

Aug. 5-8-12. YOU CAN'T BREAK THIS COMB

Have you ever thought that there ever would be made a COMB that is Practically Unbreakable?
Well, we have them.
If you think this is a joke, stop in the next time you are passing and we will be glad to dem-onstrate this Comb to you. This Comb is Guaranteed to yone. If you can break it while mbing your hair, we will cheerfulgive you another.
It is made of Vulcanized Cotton

It is made of Vulcanized Cotton Fiber, and will not break, warp or split. We have only one objection to selling a Comb like this. After everybody gets one, the sale of Combs will end. They range in price about the same as the old horn and guttapucha Combs—25c, 50c, and 75c. Remember hereafter, that if the Comb that yet so to have won't saw Comb that you go to buy won't saw wood, drive nails or go through any other test, let it alone and come to
