

COTTON PICKERS WANTED

Men. John L. McLaurin Makes Liberal Offer to White Boys.

At the request of W. P. Beard of Abbeville, the Greenville Piedmont last Tuesday prints in following unique proposition to buy cotton pickers:

As an experiment I want one hundred white boys between the ages of fifteen and twenty to go to Marlboro county in this state and pick cotton for the Hon. John L. McLaurin and others. Only boys of good moral character wanted, and prefer that they come from the cotton mill villages.

These are the terms: I will pay fifty cents per one hundred pounds and furnish free transportation from Greenville, or some other nearby town to Marlboro, and also furnish lodging while down there as well as the services of a good cook free. The necessary groceries will be furnished in bulk at cash prices each boy to pay his pro rata share, while medical attention if needed will be given free of charge. There will be two sets of cash prizes given away, first, second and third, in each set of $10, $5 and $3 respectively. The season will last amount picked per day in one set and for the season in the other set, the winner in one set shall be eligible to enter contest in the other set.

PUMP YOUR WATER WITH GASOLINE

EVERY FARM should have a Gasoline Engine Pumping Outfit. Why? First, because of the immense amount of hard labor that would be done by WOMEN.

Statistics gathered by a Mississippi Agricultural College go to show that the average WOMAN on the farm draws and carries ONE TON of water every day. Now, Mr. MAN, don't you think it would be a real good idea to relieve your folks of this immensely burden of labor—labor that can be better done with a Gasoline Engine? And especially when the cost of such an outfit that will meet every requirement of your farm, can be had at a figure considerably less than One Hundred Dollars, and the running expense after installation, is almost nothing. Come and let us tell you about our GASOLINE PUMPING OUTFITS. We are sure that we can interest you if you will only let us tell you about it. Send for literature. A postal card will do.
