NO. 89.

ESTABLISHED 1855.

YORKVILLE, S. C., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1913.

be saved.

ed by the people in 1890.

Good citizenship is not measured by lovalty to a man but to a principal Tillmanism split on that rock. It is tearing ragged holes in the ship that carries the high hopes of the many good people who are Bleaseites. I will always defend Tillmanism as distinc

Our people must get together.

creed for the human race.

"In the days of Armageddon:

In the last great fight of all;

May our houses stand together

That the pillars do not fall."

DESTROYING MONEY

500,000,000 to Be Torn Up.

the committee are Messrs, U. L.

Adams, chairman; J. N. Fite and Wil-

Accompanying the truck is a car-the bills being cut in halves.

liam M. Meredith

Jno. Lowndes McLaurin.

884 884 484 484 846 846 846 846 846 846 846 484 846 484 846 484

WITHIN THE LAW

BY MARVIN DANA

FROM THE PLAY OF BAYARD VEILLER

norrow night."

greatly pleased.

'I'll get my own men. Chicago Red is get them and we'll turn the trick to-

"That's the stuff," Griggs agreed,

But a sudden shadow fell on the face of Garson. He bent closer to his companion and spoke with a fierce in-

Mary had gone to her bedroom for a nap. She was not in the least surprised that Dick had not yet returned.

though he had mentioned half an hour. At the best there were many things that might detain him-his father's absence from the office, diffi-

his projected honeymoon trip abroad

-which would never occur-or the like. At the worst there was a chance of finding his father promptly, and of to prevent the son from ever again seeing the woman who had so indis-

Yet somehow Mary could not believe that her husband would yield to such paternal coercion. Rather, she was sure that he would prove loyal to her whom he loved through every trouble.

At the thought a certain wistfulness pervaded her and a poignant regre that this particular man should have been the one chosen of fate to be entangled within her mesh of revenge.

There throbbed in her a heart tor-life possibilities infinitely more splendid than the joy of vengeance. She would not confess the truth even to

She had slept, perhaps, a half hou

"It's a man named Burke," she ex plained as her mistress lay blinking

"And there's another man with him

By this time Mary was wide awake for the name of Burke, the police inspector, was enough to startle her out

She got up, slipped into a teagown, drawing room, where the two men had been waiting for something more than

"Yes, inspector," Mary replied pleas intly, as she advanced into the room visitor, who was of a slenderer form with a thin, keen face, and recognized taken part against her as the lawyer for the store at the time of her trial,

She went to the chair at the desk and seated herself in a leisurely fashion that increased the indignation of th fuming inspector. She did not ask he

"To whom do I owe the pleasure of this visit, inspector?" she remarked coolly. It was noticeable that she said whom and not what, as if she understood perfectly that the influence o

"I have come to have a few quie words with you," the inspector de clared. Mary disregarded him, and "How do you do, Mr. Demarest?

she said evenly. "It's four years since attorney since then. Allow me to Demarest's keen face took on an ex

"I'm puzzled," he confessed, "There s something familiar, somehow, about

"Can't you guess?" Mary question-

The face of the district attorne

"Why!" he exclaimed, "you are-the Mary Turner whom I-oh, I know

"I'm the girl you mean, Mr. Demar est, but for the rest, you don't know

"Young woman," Burke said per emptorily, "the Twentieth Century imited leaves Grand Central station at 3.55 tomorrow morning." He pulled a massive gold watch from this waistoat pocket, glanced at it, thrust it ack, and concluded ponderously:

You will just about have time to catch

"You'd better be packing your

"On the Twentieth Century limited this afternoon," the inspector declar-

"I say yes!" The answer was

"If you can convict me. Pray, no

"But you can't do it again," Mary declared with an assurance that excited the astonishment of the police of

"Because if he could he would hav

"Huh!" Burke exclaimed gruffly

"The poor ones; not those that have money. I have money, plenty of mon-

"Money you stole!" the inspector re-

"How do you know he can't?"

had me in prison some time ago."

T've seen them go up pretty easy."

low?" Mary asked blandly.

runk," the inspector rumbled.

ed in a voice of growing wrath.

"I did once, I remember.

"Oh, dear, no!"

"But why? I'm not going away."

"Search your memory, Mr. De self invited guests to sit.

some person brought him.

turned to the other man.

congratulate you."

marest."

lightened.

ne-not at all!"

that train."

pression of perplexity.

quarter of an hour-to the violent when Fannie awakened her.

They said they must see you."

of drowsiness.

ndignation of both.

nenting realization that there were in reetly married him.

ensity that brooked no denial.

Griggs nodded understandingly.

"She must never know."

Copyright, 1912, by the H. K. Fly company.

CHAPTER X. in town. So is Dacey, with perhaps a couple of others of the right sort, I'll Garson's Noiseless Gun. Something of what was in his mind was revealed in Garson's first speech after Griggs' going. "That's a mighty big stake he's playing for."

"And a big chance he's taking! Mary retorted. "No, Joe, we don't want any of that. We'll play a game that's safe and sure."

The words recalled to the forger weird forebodings that had been troubling him throughout the day. "It's sure enough," he stated, "but is it safe?" "What do you mean?"

Garson walked to and fro nervously as he answered. "S'pose the bulls get tired of yo putting it over on 'em and try som rough work?"

"Don't worry, Joe. I know a way to stop it." the forger said, with significant em phasis. "Just what do you mean by that" Mary demanded, suspiciously,

"For rough work," he said, "I have this." He took a magazine pistol from his pocket. It was of an odd shape, with a barrel longer than usual and a bellshaped contrivance attached to the muzzle.

"No, no, Joe," Mary cried. of that-ever!"

The forger exclaimed "Pooh!" "Even if I used it, they would never get on to me. See this?" He pointed at the strange contrivance on the muz-

"What is it? I have never seen anything like that before."

"Of course you haven't. I'm the first man in the business to get one, and I'll bet on it. I keep up with the times.' He was revealing that fundamental egotism which is the characteristic of all his kind. "That's one of the new Maxim silencers. With smokeless powder in the cartridges, and the silencer on. I can make a shot from my coat pocket, and you wouldn't even know it had been done. And I'm some shot, believe me."

"Impossible!" Mary ejaculated. "No, it ain't. Here, wait, I'll show

"Good gracious, not here!" Mary ex claimed in alarm. "We would have the whole place down on us."

Garson chuckled. "You just watch that dinky little vase at the table across the room there, 'Tain't very valuable, is it?"

"No," Mary answered.

In the same instant, while still her eyes were on the vase, it fell in a cascade of shivered glass to the table and floor. She heard no sound, she saw no smoke. Perhaps, there had been a faint clicking noise. She stared dumfounded for a few seconds, then turned her bewildered face toward Garson who was grinning in high enjoyment. "Neat little thing, ain't it?" the man asked, exultantly. "Where did you get it?" Mary asked "In Boston, last week. And between you and me, Mary, it's the only model and it sure is a corker."

That night in the back room of Blinbellow. "I'm giving you your orders. You will either go to Chicago or you'll key's, English Eddie and Garson sat with their heads close together over a go up the river."

"A chance like this," Griggs was tice that little word 'if.'" The district attorney interposed very saying, "a chance that will make a fortune for all of us." uavely:

"It sounds good," Garson admitted wistfully. "Well," urged Griggs, "what do you

"How would we split it?" "Three ways would be right," Griggs blustered. answered. "One to me, one to you and one to be divided up among the oth-Garson brought his fist down on the table with a force that made the glasses jingle. "You're on." he said, strongly. "Fine!" Griggs declared, and the wo men shook hands. "Now, I'll "Get nothing!" Garson interrupted.

ficial.

fine show of virtuous indignation. "What about the $30,000 you got or that partnership swindle? I s'pose you didn't steal that!" "Certainly not," was the ready re-"The man advertised for a partner in a business sure to bring big and safe returns. We formed a partnership with a capital of $60,000. We paid the money into the bank, and then at once I drew it out. It was legal for me to draw that money-wasn't it Mr. Demarest?"

The district attorney admitted truth of her contention. "Well, anyhow," Burke shouted 'you may stay inside the law, but you've got to get outside the city. On the level, now, do you think you could get away with that young Gilder scheme you've been planning?" "What young Gilder scheme?" "Oh, I'm wise-I'm wise!" the inspector cried roughly. "The answer is, once for all, leave town this afternoon or you'll be in the Tombs in the morning." "It can't be done, inspector."

Mary opened a drawer of the desk and took out the document obtained that morning from Harris and held it forth.

"What's this?" Burke stormed, but e took the paper. Demarest looked over the inspector's shoulder, and his eyes grew larger as he read. When he was at an end of he feels, we'd be fighting in a pair of culties in making arrangements for the reading he regarded the passive woman at the desk with a new respect. "What's this?" Burke repeated help-Mary was kind enough to that father as promptly taking steps make the document clear to him.

"It's a temporary restraining order from the supreme court instructing like to hear other people say one word you to let me alone until you have legal proof that I have broken the law." Burke.

"You might ask Mr. Demarest," Mary suggested pleasantly, "as to papa. Papa is sorry, but come here shouldn't I get one, too? You see I Lord." have money. I can buy all the law I want. And there's nothing you can't get on with Tillman, why Latimet do with the law if you have money her inmost soul, but the truth was enough. Ask Mr. Demarest. there and set her atremble with vague knows."

"Can you beat that?" Burke rumof almost reverential wonder. "A say however that, God never made crook appealing to the law!" "Well, gentlemen, what are you going to do about it?" "Miss Turner," the district attorney said, with an appearance of sincerity, too far ahead of his time. I have suf-fair play." "That was killed four years ago." But Demarest persisted. Influence her hair a little and went into the was for her own sake now that urged her.

"Let young Gilder alone." Mary laughed again.

vears-three years for something I didn't do. Well, he's got to pay for it." By this time, Burke, a man of superior intelligence, as one must be to reach such a position of authority, had South Carolina," he made a personal come to realize that here was a case friend that will last him after the misnot to be carried through by blustering, by intimidation, by the rough him instantly as Demarest, who had ruses familiar to the force.

"Don't fool yourself, my girl." said in his huge voice, which was now go through with this. There's always a weak link in the chain somewhere It's up to me to find it, and I will." "Now," she said, and there was re spect in the glance she gave the stalwart man, "now you really sound dano'clock. It arrives in Chicago at gerous."

> "Mr. Edward Gilder wishes to see "Oh, certainly," Mary answered.

with an admirable pretense of indif-"Working for the New York Central ference, while Burke glared at Demarest, and the district attorney apneared ill at ease.

(To Be Continued).

A Good Sheriff .- Sheriff Joe M. Ashley of Anderson county is making good in an office wherein is required tact, wisdom and courage. It was feit last year that Anderson had made a bad trade when Mr. Ashley was chosen sheriff; but such apprehension has been dissipated by the conduct of

When it came to his attention that certain social clubs were violating the law in the matter of intoxicating li quors, Sheriff Ashley firmly but fairly notified them all that such conduct would not be tolerated. Last week when the circus was to visit Anderson knowing the history of drunkenness and crime attending the usual circus, Sheriff Ashley put a deputy on duty at the express office, to prohibit indisducing drunkenness to a minimum Marlhoro Man is True to His Lifetime Colors.

WILL NOT PLAY DOG IN MANGER. from Tillman. I place both Tillman ly a Message to Tillman; but no failed, and when it does the state will Less a Message to South Carolina.

Wednesday afternoon gave out to the ress the following in reply to Senator 'illman's recent spiteful broadside; Bennettsville, Nov. 4th 1913

Senator Tillman's letter is so "Till manesque" that when I read it yester day, I hardly knew whether to laugh or cry; cuss or pray. I expect a little of all is in order. He hits Blease with a meat axe pitchforks me, ignores Smith and spits

I am not going to let myself loose (if I can help it). The situation is too serious, for from the way I feel and minutes and let South Carolina go to whether or not it can be done. The Johnny, hand me the brush, now get gambling houses can do it and so keep across my knee, papa is going to on breaking the law. The race track spank you, but if Johnny is good the men can do it and laugh at the law. balance of the week, he can go to the The railroad can do it to restrain its 'movies' Saturday." I feel like sayemployees from striking. So why ing "damn," but I'll say "Bless the That letter discloses why I couldn' couldn't, and why he and Smith can't He agree. An imperious will that brooks no opposition. I could get on with him now, I'd laugh at him. I used to take Upon arriving at the bureau, the man big enough to talk down to me. mascerating machines. The mutilated My record in the senate needs no defense. I have done the "penance" of other members of the committee into the "very nearly great man," who was four large iron funnels, which convey "I'm going to appeal to your sense of fered the bitter fate that comes to all it into the mascerating machines beadvanced thinkers. After "pitchforks" are forgotten and "dung heaps" plowed tear the bills to pieces. under, the state warehouse idea with With the completion of the ultural products as a bankabl process bucketfuls of soda, ash and unslaked lime are poured in. This takes the color out. Then the ma-asset will give me a place in history where foul slanders and my ow God has weaknesse are forgotten. chines are set in motion and grind away for twenty-four hours. The my name to live. When Cole L. Blease stood up before 8,000 people and said he is a "good man, he would make a good governor, he has been badly erable bootlicks and sycophants hav turned on him, like those who used to lick Tillman's hand and at his bidding now ready to arive it into Tillman's for the favor of another. Tillman has served a great purpose he does not need an office to perpetu ate his fame, but he is a man, poor weak clay, same as I. In us both is that unperishable spark, that after death has washed the dross away, will shine clear and bright. Why should he still seek to dim the luster of my star I envy him not the faintest ray of his

I rejoice in all true greatness, God must judge between us and th balance he strikes shall be for all eter nity. I long ago forgave him, his let ter shows he has never been able t

God does not expect repentence ex cept from the "near" great. Life is a pose to 99 per cent. The world is a stage. My sense of humor saves me It made me laugh, to see how utter! the public misconstrues the true character of both myself and Tillman. is the joke of the century.

has been bluff, brutal honesty, "Pitch fork Ben." "Give 'em hell and rub in." He overplayed his hand a little Down underneath lives the most as roughness, exquisite literary tastes. assimilated the wisdom of all the ages and applied it to practical politics. Be neath bluster is the subtle genius of a Tallyrand, he has made every man i South Carolina vote for him one time last summer. I am no politician. I haven't fooled anybody and Tillman has fooled ev erybody except himself. I was the seeker of abstract truth, careless of personal fortunes. Tillman was th adroit political acrobat that could change from a radical to a conservative. I tried to reason it out and was crucified for the reasons, not the result. Woodrow Wilson and Underwood are just where I stood fifteen years

His letter is so full of Tillmanisr

I am not going to be swayed way or the other by self. I am going to act for the best good of the state as I see it, not as directed by anybody, Be for peace, then I am ready to fight. will not be a "dog in the manger" no be a servile tool to gratify any man's Miscellaneous Reading.

Bomb for System.

ism and Bleaseism as higher and greater than the personality of any I have regretted the evil dispensary graft, that prevented Tillman from leading the movement to its full fruition, and I would like to see Bleaseism accomplish that in which Tillmanism total cost of the edition was $12,000. It is full to the brim of explosives have canvassed this entire state, and they will get together. Self seeking pretenders cannot juggle Almighty God, out of the progress he has de--vivid, pyrotechnic, forceful.

suitably inscribed, sent to each mem-Washington Woman Has Caused $1,country.

After having destroyed something like $1,500,000,000 in real money series of parables and epigrams which the author calls muckrakings, from the goat. And it came to pass that since May, 1912, Miss Louise Lester, of the treasury department, still likes which the following are excerpted: "Oh, the Muck that the Muckraker her job, although it is a "messy" one,

Is the Muck that the Muckraker to come, says a Washington letter to makes. Muckraker Miss Lester is a member of the com-And the Muck that the ted Money. Her fellow members of Is the Muck that the rakes. "The Wall street map of America extractors. The committee organized, s divided into three sections: Wall Every day shortly after 9 o'clock in street, Suckerville and the territory nity hall until community hall became the morning a big automobile truck embraced by Bloomingdale, Mattewan the rendezvous of the community's backs up to the treasury and takes and Washington. "A Zanzibar galley slave, passing dreamers. And as the committee aboard six or eight trunks. Every through Homestead in those good old were about to recommend to the one of the trunks contains half a million or more dollars in real money, 000,000 of human broilers and heartand-soul friers into a $1,500,000,000 caramelling the gobblecraw into a riage from the bureau of engraving license-to-tax-the-American people, was so terrorized at the sight of My no-moreness, a grizzled professional and printing. Into this climb Mr. Adams and Miss Lester. At least two Lord of Skibo's subjects, that he faint- gobblecraw hunter offered the folmembers of the committee must keep ed. Coming to, he begged to be embalmed until he could get back - to God's own country and ways, and 'tis wale with the ozone and microbic low. The latter are huge revolving antly supplied atmosphere, sitting on cylinders lined with angle parts which the steamship landing contemplating munity as mementoes of a thing-thatpasteboard, the government receiving hurling through the box and door to me it is inconceivable that they do not understand the necessity for de-Dublin bar-tending crony. As the hot, red blood flew to Pat's hungry face, a bystander heard him mutter: "Thank God, Ireland is oppressed! If I'd come over to the land of free dom and equality when Mike did, company's president. The 27 American Dollar Kings, those of a quarter billion apiece, re cently held a meeting and voted to petition the author of Burke Peerage o establish an American branch of real royalty. After a few meetings it looked like a go. They agreed on the dollar sign for a crest, the mushroom for a crown, and that none should qualify but quarter-billionaires; but when they heard the Burke taboo on ombination plug hats, sackcoats and ten-cart-headlight-full-dress shirt fronts, they refused to merge unless the English code was revised. "And as the System leered, the Peo ple raised their imploring hands and their clenched fists, and in a wild wail and hoarse howl, which resounded from ocean to ocean and from the frozen fields to the torrid gulf, shriek-

"And there was incubated from Liberty and Prosperity a Leering Thing-the System. And out of it's eering came Crime and Misery. And Virtue cringed and Honor shriveled and Class-hatred reared its beast form. And where had been Liberty and Prosperity there was Desolation and in the financial habitats another, and he cannot get his claws on. In the tainted coin is that which the rural ities hanker to get their claws on. In get their claws on. During a former administration der king? How old is his title? What pneumonia. Put a couple of quarts of After being told that King Dolla the grain in sacks of thin material and heat in the oven until very hot; or they can be heated in a steamer, then vessels of any kind, mortars, etc., by in the affirmative, he ejaculated:

men are very amusing."

LAWSON'S $12,000 BOOK

'High Cost of Living" Sent to Congressmen is Financier's Latest

The latest bomb from the Boston camp of Thomas W. Lawson is a portly folio encased in red ooze calf, faced with crimson silk, printed on with fine colored illustrations of devils shadow darkened the community's -quite the most exquisite setting ever playground, blackened its church devised for verbal shrapnel. The spire, yellowed its legislative halls not seem to) act like ordinary light at contains his latest magazine articles arrived at maturity the community's slightly out of its straight-line course exposing "The System's" responsibil- cost of living was so high-pedestaled living-done in the best Lawsonese and their wise men cried: "Death to and hopes to keep at it for some time mittee on the Destruction of Mutilamakes days before Andy swapped his $150,- much-harassed community the ex-trunks full of money are taken to the said that in far-off Zanzibar the poor forthwith to shoot holes into our devil even yet nightmares at the vision money is dumped by Miss Lester and of America's freedom." "A son of Erin, loaded to the gun-> good things of God's free and abundthe possibilities of getting a lubricant was-but-never-can-be-again." d innards, or, as And today travelers through ancient to the fishes on the way over, had his the spot where the mastodonic gobbleattention tweaked by the arrival of craw fell when his carcass was bullet-riddled to a peekaboo-waist holethe crested broughan of one of the kings of New York. As the beautiful steeds were being thrown to their haunches, the bedazzling footman, space to his "me ludship," knocked the babe from the arms of a ragged mother, whose palsied outstretched for-heaven's-sake-give-me alms hand was already in through the brough an's window. As to-the-mannerborn retainer boot-toed the babe clear of "me ludship's" path with a gently whispered "Get to hell out of here with your brat." Pat recognized in the plug-hatted statesman millionaire king of the western metropolis, his old probably by this time I'd been royal

Just then the ship's band struck up he national air, "God Save the Trusts," in honor of the arrival of the ed: 'Justice!' Where is Justice?'" Hell."

In the rural districts of the United States tainted money means one thing six feet under ground." in Washington quite another. When Wall street man says "tainted mone," he means only such money as country the much-harangued-against Washington tainted money is that had risen in 20 years from bartender he grew meditative. Later, while ob- and study.-Roanoke Times. serving the hundreds of thousands of pasty-faced, hollow-eyed, slunk-chest-Dollars' subjects?" Being answered turn to my own great country; I two heads!"-Exchange.

New York, impressed with our superb dollar royalty, asked: "Who is yonis his income?"

have been told that your actor states-Once upon a time in ancient land A New Weapon in the Search Into th there was a community where the cost of living dovetailed the ability of the community to pay. There every- ed the mysterious "rays" which bear thing was peace and plenty. There his name it has been a puzzle as to every one was happy and hopeful. And it came to pass that a self-chosen like a form of light-they give out few of the community crossed a giant light under proper conditions. Or rathvulture with an enormous centipede, er they cause plates and screens prepared with certain chemicals to beand there was birthed a mastodonic gobblecraw. And as time passed this hand-made deckle-edged paper and gobblecraw grew and grew, until its physicists say, when they are bom ity for the advancing charges for that the daily wage of the people, the color-that is, with the wave length food, housing, raiment and transpor- save that of the self-chosen few, own- of light. So, when a compound light tation, besides other arguments provers of the mastodonic gobblecraw, like sunlight is put through the prism ing the relation between Stock Ex- sufficed only for one half day's ex- it is split up into all the colors of the change quotations and high cost of penses. And the people waxed sullen, rainbow, the horse, the cow, the dog, the cat, Of this expensive work, only 1,000 kitten and goat, for they require so volumes were printed and a copy, much of the community's store that only those vibrations which lie in the price of the balance rises and particular plane get through. And ber of the United States senate and rises until it is beyond the people's again, it is possible to measure the house of representatives, and to cer- ability to get one day's sustenance for "wave length" of ordinary light, even tain other lawmakers throughout the one days' efforts." And the communi- of those waves which lie far above ty wrangled the pros and cons of the Sandwiched among the serious policy of exporting the horse, killing But all this was impossible with the arguments, printed in red, appear a the cow, vivisecting the dog, skinning X-rays. the cat and the kitten and crucifying when the pro-and-connings were pitched unto a frenzy, an agileminded gazabo pointed to the community's vision to the bursting-with-good-things barn wherein the mastodonic gobblecraw abode, whereupon the now frenzied community appointed a committee to invite practical mastodonic gobblecraw wing clippers and claw proclaimed and held forth at commuthe puzzle remained sun-gilding and moon-burnishing Very recently, however, so periment of pink-teaing and chocolate state of voluntary give-back-and-take-"Be it resolved, that this committee cease its flapdoodling and proceed enemy, the mastodonic gobblecraw until his carcass shall resemble a "Be it further resolved, that his teeth and wings and claws be distributed among the children of the com tion upon the giant shaft which marks

"Here lies the creature of the self-Probably they are not a tho chosen few. It came like a toadstool stayed like a beggar a-horseback, and traviolet. went like the celluloid shroud of hell-bent corpse." And returning travelers tell that in the humble cottage of this ancient community hearts are still dusted with gobblecraw wings; that their "God Bless Our Homes" are framed in gobblecraw's teeth, and that May Day feasts and Fourth of July clambakes the favorite toothpick is still that which is fashioned from gob craw claws,-New York World.

PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY Mistakes are Corrected; But

lowing resolution:

peekaboo, waist, and,

Others are Not. In a communication a reader of the Roanoke Times inquires whether lient who has bought real estate on the favorable report of his lawyer on the title and subsequently learns that his title is hopelessly bad has a remedy. It seems that by justice he should have; but probably in practical test food, or fuel, or building material, or he would have none. No professional man is supposed to be, and few pretend to be infalible. When it is a question of brains and knowledge, law, custom and necessity allow wide latitude for mistakes. Reasonable diligence is all that is required. In every lawsuit view, there is a near danger-within one side or the other is badly advised about a century or so-that there will or suffers from the mistakes of some lawyer, on or off the bench. Lawyers, doctors, clergymen, civil engineer fall into errors and clients, patients people and patrons suffer, but recovery of damages for such losses is rare. A blunt old contractor and builder once put the case clearly. A house he they were a century ago, and there is had put up for an eminent physician was a botch in some respects and the belief that foods will always be in amold man was derided and rebuked with

"Yes, doctor," he said quietly, "that's the way of the world. When I do a are of an extent to nearly double the bad job everybody sees it and says present yield of bread cereals. Barely that old fool ought to be run out of a start has been made in the United town.' When you do a bad job they States in intensive methods of wheat take it up with flowers and the news- growing. The Malthusian doctrine papers say you exhausted in vain all about population tending to out-grow the resources of medical science."

doctor on the stand, "Your mistakes go such danger.—Baltimore American.

"And your's swing six feet up in the air," retorted the doctor, who retired with the honors of war.

obvious and detected instantly. Sometimes a lawyer is made to pay damwhich the country's saviors hope to for negligence and a physician is held the celebrated "Jumping Frog" sportin damages for malpractice. Of what pecomes of preacher's mistakes we are Russian nobleman, passing through not advised and no suit for the promulgation of misleading doctrine or for putting false sign boards on the old handless flatirons he had picked straight and narrow path ever has been from a refuse heap down the gullet of prought. It is mighty hard to prove one before taking it to his customer negligence or incompetence against who, having weighed it carefully and, any of those many who are supposed to after much haggling, paid him a fracto an income of a million a minute, earn their livings with their thought tion less per pound for it than he

"Pat," said the doctor, "your cas ed men and women rushing to their is a very peculiar and baffling one, slavery and crawling back to their and if you'll agree, I'd like to call in hovels, he asked: "Are these King another physician. Two heads are better than one, you know."

"Ol agree," returned the willing pa-

WHAT ARE X-RAYS?

Mysteries of Nature. Ever since Prof. Roentgen discover what these rays could be. They seem

TERMS---$2.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

SINGLE COPY, FIVE CENTS.

But otherwise they do not (or did and gangrened its courts of justice. | all. For example, when ordinary light When this mastodonic gobblecraw is passed through a prism it is bent and the degree of bending varies with

> Again, ordinary light rays when passed through certain substances turmaline are "poplarized"-that is and far below the limits of visibility knows, the X-rays are generated when a metal plate in a vacuum tube is bombarded by an electrical stream. It is one of the greatest discoveries of recent years that this electrical stream. this beautiful glow which is seen in side the vacuum tubes, is due to myrlads of electric "atoms" or particle which act for all the world like the particles of a gas-air, for example But while the weight and "charge" of these electrical atoms can actually be measured, no such measurement coul be made with the "X-rays." And so lish and German physicians have found substances which react in a very pe culiar way to the X-rays. Certain crystals, and the rough edges of mica plates and the like, it has been discovered, will act like a glass prism to the rays, so that the later can now be manipulated much like the rays of ordinary light. And in this way it has been established that the rays are actually little pulses of light. But they are incredibly thin and small, Ordinary light waves are measured in fractions of a meter-very small fractions to be exact, in millionths of a thousandth of meter. A millionth of a sandth part of this is called a micromicron. The longest visible rays are 700 or 800 of these units in length, and devised which can give any accurate idea of the waves in the X-ray pulses part the size of the smallest of the un-

But now that their nature has been etermined, now that they can be "refracted" and "polarized" just like ordinary light, it is only a matter of time when marvelous instrument makers and ingenious experimenters will find a way to determine their actual di-upon the structure of atoms and molecules-that is, the structure of that 'matter" amid which we live and a part of which we are.-Collier's Week-

World's Bread Supply.-At short in feels it to be his solemn duty to lift something else upon which hi istence is more or less dep time it is a British scientist sounding warning about the bread supply. The not be enough bread to go around. Perhaps before another century passes the scientists will tell us how to make bread from a combination of elements to be found in the earth, air and water. But anyhow, the food requirements of the world are better supplied now than good reason upon which to found the ple supply for the world's population. As to growing wheat, the untilled lands of Siberia, Canada and Argentina subsistence sounds all right in theory In a famous sensational murder trial but the experience of more than 4,000 in Maryland a lawyer snapped at a years demonstrates that there is no man makes a specialty of pike, for Mistakes we make with our hands He had one customer who was in the are visible and subject us to action for habit of so beating him down in price damages. A newspaper's mistakes are that he felt justified in resorting to somewhat questionable means to increase the weight of his fish. In the age for a defective report on a title or manner of the winner of the stakes in ing event, he would introduce some weighty substance into their interiorstones, bits of iron railing, etc. Once he went so far as to stuff two > might have perhaps obtained elsewhere. Meeting him next day, Pat instantly aware there was trouble in the wind by the opening remark, 'What do pike feed on, Paddy!" "Och and indade, your honor, but there's mighty little that comes amiss to thim lads," answered Pa. "Frogs "Take me to Washington. I must see tient. "Sure, th' fellow must be worth and fish, sticks and stones they like your naticial playhouse before I re- seein'. Bring in th' doctor with th' well, but they would give their two eyes for flatirons."

Fannie appeared at the door.

should have been. When a sheriff deturned brutally.
"Oh, dear, no!" Mary cried with a sires to see laws entorced, ne can enforce them. It is all in the man.—Abbeville Medium.

MCLAURIN ON TILLMAN.

Would Have Peace in South Carolina but Even for Peace Would not Sacrifice the Splendid Principles for Which He has Been Fighting Since His Entry Into Political Life-Real-

Senator John L. McLaurin on last in Simm's face.

the devil as we did before. I will honestly acknowledge that I have never been able to get entirely over an early affection for Senator Tillman. I have said hard things myself, but I don't against him. If I had conquered and the New York Telegram. had him down, I would never have "But it can't be done," shouted rubbed sand in his eyes. His letter is distinctly offensive: "Johnny is smart but he is a bad little boy, he sassed bled. He regarded Mary with a stare him and myself too seriously. I will the money in sight at all times.

not all MEN.

do that.

Tillman's pose from the beginning tute player of the political game that ever dealt a card. The only man without college training that I ever knew with a classical education. Under that or another. I laughed with him when you. Miss Turner," she said. "Shall I the Gonzales solemnly voted for him > his arrogance and dominant power over men, that I almost love him for being just what he is. It brings back centle brave Hugh Farley, the polished Tindal, dear old "Wash Shell," and "Curly headed Johnny," gathered around the fierce old "Lion," that dom applied to the spot desired. Oats have the power of retaining heat longer wrote a paper to my friends in vari- than most applications and are easily in any manner curtail the rights gain- stand aside for a while.

gray pulp matter then goes into another machine and is made into sheets. Most of the pulp is converted into $40 a ton from a New York contractor for the pulp. "There is only one drawwback to my job," said Miss Lester today. "I receive ever so many letters from persons who seem to think it is my own money I am destroying and that I am loing so for the fun of the thing. But stroying the mutilated money and that for every dollar destroyed a new one is put into circulation. "While my work is somewhat 'messy,' it is interesting and does not grow monotonous. It is really fun!",

Helpful Household Hints. Aluminum ware may be cleaned by vashing in hot water with plenty of soap suds. It may be polished with a paste of jewelers' whiting which has been sifted to remove hard particles Paste may be made with soapy water or water and alcohol, or water and ammonia added to the whiting; spread paste smoothly on surface and polish with soft cloth or chamois skin. Nickel and silver are polished in the same way. Any good metal polish may be used. If the stain is very bad, polish with sapolio. If this fails, discolorations may be removed with a very dilute solution of nitric acid. Never use alkalis such as washing soda or potash in cleaning aluminum. Never try to clean yokes, collars or cuffs while sewed on the gown. Such things should always be made detach-Add a sliced banana to the white of one egg and beat until stiff. The banana will entirely dissolve, and you will have a delicious substitute for whipped cream.

disappear.

If starched clothes become wet with rain while on the line, do not take them down. Allow to remain till dry and they will retain their original Fresh chalk will clean a soiled white at, either felt or beaver. Dust the chalk well into the nap and then shale and beat it out carefully. Repeat the process several times if it seems necfluffy pile down beyond repair. Shake and beat it with a light rod or whisk and the fluff continues erect. When anything boils over on the stove cover the spot with salt and see how quickly the unpleasant odor will

When potatoes begin to essary. Remember that you must never brush a beaver hat; it mats the sprinkling with lime. Put a few drops of water with the whites of eggs and see how much nic er and quicker they beat. Gold may be brightened by rubbin with cigar ashes. Very few know the value of hot oats for a bad cold on the lungs, or for reheated as often as desired. The disagreeable odor of creosote, cod liver oil, petroleum and other substances can easily be removed from boiling black mustard, meal and water in the vessel and allowing it to