NINE TIMES out of Ten the women are the Money-Savers of the family. Men mean well enough; they know the value of having money in the Bank, but they haven't learned the knack of saving. They have not learned the trick of making one dollar do the work of two in buying, and laying the other dollar away against a rainy day that is sure to come. So it often happens that if the wives and mothers do not save there is no saving done, and when trouble comes, the family is like a rudderless boat in a storm at sea.

> Are no less so this year, and it will be noted that the compensation promised for the smaller Clubmakers, is especially attractive.

A Club consists of TWO or more names, whether Old or New, returned from one or more mail addresses by a single Clubmaker, and the obligation of the Clubmaker in so far as this competition is concerned, ends when all the names he or she is able to return have been duly paid for. The price of a single subscription to THE ENQUIRER, by the year, is $2.00, and for six months, $1.00. In clubs of two or more, returned and paid for before the expiration of this contest, the price is $1.75 for a Year; no reduction for the six months.

NEW SUBSCRIBERS, returned by Clubmakers before January 1, 1914, may have the paper from the date of entry to JANUARY, 1, 1915, for the price of One Year's Subscription.

the amount due on all names returned by him or her. Where it is desired to discontinue a subscription before the close of the contest, the Clubmaker may do so by paying the amount due at the time of such discontinuance. When a ubscription has been paid in full, it cannot be discontinued. The Clubmaker owever may, if he sees proper, transfer the unfulfilled portion of the subscription to another subscriber, provided the person to whom the transfer is to be nade was not a subscriber at the time the original name was entered on our

Each Clubmaker will be held individually responsible for the payment of

No name will be counted in competition for a premium until the subscription price has been paid, nor will any premium be delivered until the Clubmaker has either paid or made satisfactory settlement for all the names on the In cases of contention by two or more Clubmakers over the right to a name, preference will be given to the one who pays for the name FIRST; but where both pay, we shall not attempt to decide the matter except by crediting the name for one year for each such payment. After a name has been entered on our books, no transfer will be permit-This is positive and emphatic, and where Clubmakers attempt to make such transfers, they must concede our right to take such steps as may seem necessary to protect the fairness of this provision. The Clubmaker who returns names must pay for them. Ciubmakers who try to return and pay for names already regularly returned by others will be called down, especially if there is evidence of an understanding between the Clubmakers. This is not for the protection of the publishers; but as a guarantee of the fairness of the Any and all Clubmakers will have the right to Get Subscribers Wherever They Can. It is not necessary that all the names shall go to the same postof-The fact that a name was returned on a certain club last year does not give that Clubmaker a right to return it this year.

All subscriptions must be forwarded to us at the expense of those sending them, and we will be responsible for the safe transmission of money only when it is sent by Draft, Registered Letter, Express or Postoffice Money Order.

In sending the names, Always give correct names or initials, and present postoffice address, and if possible say whether the subscribers are NOW taking the paper. Careful observance of this will be the means of avoiding much rouble and confusion. In case of a tie for either of the competitive premiums, TWO WEEKS will e allowed for the working off of the tie.

the price of a year's subscription will be $2.00, unless New Clubs are formed.
