

Humorous Department.

Where It Would Do Most Good.—In the younger days of Mr. Bodkin, K. C., a man was charged with murder at Clare assizes.

At the end of the assizes the barrister ran against his would be client, whose face was wreathed in happy smiles.

Not a Case of Sentiment.—At a recent tea the guests were speaking of how lacking in sentiment some people are.

Going Cheap.—Some time ago a man was awakened in the night to find his wife weeping uncontrollably.

Imagination.—"Imagination," says a doctor, "must always be reckoned with in medicine—sometimes as a friend, sometimes as a foe."

Easily Found.—It is often said that a Yorkshireman is so keen after money that he will grab it at dead or alive.

Ananias Not so Many.—Senator Claude A. Swanson of Virginia told this:

In the corner grocery one day a young farmer said that his colt had beaten the local train from Five Points to town.

"Easy to account for that," put in a doubtful one, "maybe the storm wasn't close to you."

"Wasn't close to me!" exclaimed the other. "Well, I should say it was! Only twenty yards behind me was my dog, and he had to swim all the way."

Next.—Little Bertha was invited out to dinner with her father and mother. Before she went, however, it was firmly impressed upon her mind that she must not speak unless spoken to.

Finally the hostess, seeing something was wrong, asked her what she would like next.

"I should like to have you begin to ask me questions," was the polite reply.—Lippincott's.

YORKVILLE PROOF

Should Convince Every Yorkville Reader. The frank statements of a neighbor, telling the merits of a remedy, bids you pause and believe.

Mr. Herndon is only one of many Yorkville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mr. Herndon, merchant, Main St., Yorkville, S. C., says: "I was subject to attacks of backache and I was also troubled by irregular passages of the kidney secretions."

After a few days of using Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at the York Drug Store, restored me to good health."

WE have them—a bunch of nice animals and can suit almost any horse buyer. If you want a Fancy Driver or an all round Family animal see us before you buy.

MOVING PICTURE

ORDER OF PROBATE JUDGE of Cherokee County, I will sell for cash to the highest bidder, where now located, in the Town of Yorkville, S. C., the Idle Hour Moving Picture outfit, consisting of Machine, Chairs, etc.

ADDDIE C. LAVENDER, 2t Administratrix.

Going Cheap.—Some time ago a man was awakened in the night to find his wife weeping uncontrollably.

"My darling!" he exclaimed, "what is the matter?"

"A dream!" she gasped, "I have had such a horrible dream!"

Her husband begged her to tell it to him, in order that he might comfort her.

"I thought I was walking down the street, and I came to a warehouse where there was a large placard. 'Husbands for sale.' You could get beautiful ones for fifteen hundred pounds, or even for twelve hundred, and very nice-looking ones for as low as a hundred."

"Did you see any that looked like me?"

"The husband asked innocently: 'The sob became strangling. 'Dozens of them,' gasped the wife, done up in bunches like asparagus, and sold for ten shillings a bunch."

"Doctor," she said, "why didn't you give me the jagger under me tongue today? That always done me more good than all the rest of your trash."

Easily Found.—It is often said that a Yorkshireman is so keen after money that he will grab it at dead or alive.
