CONGRESS ADJOURNS

It Has Been in Continuous Session for Nearly Two Years. The Sixty-third congress, first un-der complete domination of the Dem-ocratic party since 1895, ended yeshad been in almost continuou session since President Wilson's inauguration two years ago. Beginning with an extra session called by the president, April 7, 1913, the congress fleet, he declared, had yet to reach the real line of defenses. has worked actually 637 days.

Much important legislation was ac complished, but much contemplated, some of it hard pressed by the president and party leaders, was left under the contemplated to the contemplated done. It is the present intention of the president and his advisers to give the president and his advisers to give congress a rest. Rather than force an extra session, they would leave the remainder of the administration's constructive aspirations to a new con-gress next winter, which, although under Democratic control, will have a greatly reduced majority in the
