SINGLE COPY, FIVE CENTS.

ESTABLISHED 1855.

YORKVILLE, S. C., TUESDAY, MARCH 30, 1915.

SCENES IN THE PLAY STREET, BELEVITY All journeys end, and as Samso threw open an old closet where, from Misery. He threw them over his arm only a short distance rose the cupola and dropped them at Adrienne's feet, of the brick courthouse and the scatafter my things, and make the neces- bank lay the white spread of a tented sary excuses to my sitters? He'll find company street, and, as he looked out, a list of posing appointments in the he saw uniformed figures moving to desk."

"Saddlebags, Drennie," he said, "and can't lead his 'fluttered folk and wild' in a cutaway coat."

said, smiling. "Just auf Wiedershen." She nodded and smiled too, but as main subservient to local civil authorishe smiled she shivered, and turned ties, and the local civil authorities

Samson had caught the fastest westbound express on the schedule. In to the town proper he passed two thirty-six hours he would be at Hixon. brown-shirted militiamen, lounging on There were many things which his the rail of the middle span. They brain must attack and digest in these grinned at him, and recognizing the hours. He must arrange his plan of outsider from his clothes, one of them action to its minutest detail, because he would have as little time for reflection, once he had reached his own country, as a wildcat flung into a pack

From the railroad station to his at the livery stable, and for two hours home he must make his way-most rode in silence, save for the easy probably fight his way-through thirty creaking of his stirrup leathers and miles of hostile territory, where all the soft thud of hoofs. the trails were watched. And yet, for the time, all that seemed too remotely ing hills lulled his spirit as a crooning unreal to hold his thoughts. He was song lulls a fretful child. Mile after seeing the cooly waving curtains of mile unrolled forgotten vistas. Someflowered chintz that stirred in the win- thing deep in himself murmured: dows of his room at the Lescott house and the crimson ramblers that nodded against the sky. He was hear- ahead of him the orchard of Purvy's to the tragedy, rose on his haunches, ing a knock on the door, and seeing, place, and read on the store wall, a flirted the brush, and then, in a sudas it opened, the figure of Adrienne little more weather stained, but other Lescott and the look that had been in wise unchanged:

He took out Sally's letter, and rea it once more. He read it mechanically and as a piece of news that had saddle there was no one to greet him. brought evil tidings. Then, suddenly, This was surprising, since, ordinarily, another aspect of it struck him-an two or three of Purvy's personal aspect to which the shock of its reception had until this tardy moment the road. Just now the guard should blinded him. The letter was perfect logically be doubled. Samson still grammatically and penned in a hand of wore his eastern clothes—for he wantcopybook roundness and evenness The address, the body of the missive and the signature were all in one chirography. She would not have intrusted the writing of this letter to anyone words, "with love." It was all plain these things, the young man stood for wild fire along Misery and Crippleshin now, Sally had never repudiated him. She was declaring herself true to her noon place before he announced himmission and her love. All that heartbreak through which he had gone had been due to his own misconception, and in that misconception he had pose of assassination. There had been drawn into himself and had stopped letters had for two years ceased to brighten her heart-strangling isolation-and she was still waiting. . She had sent no word of appeal until like some inquisitive "furriner." He the moment had come of which she would ask questions which by their had promised to inform him. Sally, very impertinence might be forgiven abandoned and alone, had been fight- upon the score of a stranger's folly. But half-stripped of his faith in himself. by remaining where he was he might If he were to realize the constructive gain more information than by hurdreams of which he had last night so rying in. blighting shadows of the feud.

longed to some tomorrow. Today held with soldiers all round me. There the need of such work as that of the hain't no other damn fool in these first Samson-to slay.

men as much as possible the boy who They're a-goin' ter git me, an' I wants spring campaign, in all its grimness had left them-not the fop with new- ter leave, an' you won't come clean fangled affections. His eyes fell with the price of a railroad ticket to upon the saddlebags upon the floor of Oklahoma. Now, damn your stingy the Pullman and he smiled satirically. soul, I gits that ticket or I gits you!" He would like to step from the train "Aaron, you can't scare me into doin" at Hixon and walk brazenly through nothin' I ain't aimin' to do." The old the town in those old clothes, chal- baron of the vendetta spoke in a cold lenging every hostile glance. If they stocial voice. "I tell ye I ain't quite shot him down on the streets, as they through with ye yet. In due an' proper certainly would do, it would end his time I'll see that ye get yer ticket." ma. He would welcome that, but it ness: "We've been friends a long

He must get out of Hixon and into fore we fall out." his own country unrecognized. The clan boy of four years ago was the stormed Aron. "Ye're jest tryin' ter concession that he had made to Paris then I reckon ye lows ter have me kilt life was the wearing of a closely like yer've had me kill them others. cropped mustache. That he still wore Hit ain't no use. I've done sent 'em to hear Adrienne's humorous denuncia- either you'll be in hell or I'll be on my after leaving Hixon; there was a mis- off. Why should he wait? Cataracts a grim glint came to his pupils.

writhing in the life-and-death grapple of two codes. Then, before decision came, he heard a sharp report inside, and the heavy fall of a body to the floor. A wildly excited figure came plunging through the door, and Samson's left hand swept out and seized its noulder in a sudden vise grip. "Do you know me?" he inquired, as the mountaineer pulled away and crouched back with startled surprise

"No, damn ye! Git outen my road!" Aaron thrust his cocked rifle clos against the stranger's face. From its muzzle came the acrid stench of freshly burned powder. "Git outen my road afore I kills ye!"

and fro and caught the ring of a bugle call. So the militia was on deck; would inevitably and logically be at-"What are those?" she asked, gaz- things must be bad, he reflected. He tributed to his agency. But, strangely stood on the platform and looked enough, no clamor arose. The shot intrestle. There were two gatling guns. side, broken by the intervening store, One pointed its muzzle toward the did not arouse the house. Purvy's in them are homespun jeans. One town, and the other scowled up at the bodyguard had been sent away by Holface of the mountain. Sentries paced lis on a false alarm. Only the "women their beats. Men in undershirts lay folks" and children remained indoors, dozing outside tent flaps. It was all and they were drowning with a plane and the man, standing at the side of a picture of disciplined readiness, and any sounds that might have come from without. The piano was the chief yet Samson knew that soldiers made emblem of Purvy's wealth. It repreof painted tin would be equally effectsented the acme of "having things hung up:" that ancient and expressive phrase, which had come down from the car slowly. There was no need to obeyed the nod of Judge Hollman and days when the pioneers' worldly con-

> against the rafters. Now Samson South stood looking down, uninterrupted, on what had been Aaron Hollis as it lay motionles at his feet. There was a powder burned hole in the butternut shirt, and only a slender thread of blood trickled into the dirt-grimed cracks between the planks. The body was twisted sidewise, in one of those grotesque attitudes with which a sudden summons so frequently robs the greates phenomenon of all its rightful dignity The sun was gilding the roadside clods and burnishing the greens of the treetops. The breeze was harping sleepily among the branches, and sev eral geese stalked pompously along the creek's edge. On the top of the stockade a gray squirrel, sole witness

Samson turned to the darkened doorway. Inside was emptiness, except for the other body, which had crumpland as Samson flung himself from his ed forward and face down across the The porch of the store was empty, counter. A glance showed that Jesse Purvy would no more fight back the armed. Behind his spent body ranged guardsmen loafed at the front to watch shelves of general merchandise. Boxes of sardines and cans of peaches were lined in homely array above him. His lifeless hand rested as though ed to go through that door unknown. flung out in an oratorical gesture on a As Samson South he could not cross bolt of blue calico. its threshold either way. But when he stepped up on to the rough porch flooring no one challenged his advance. The yard and orchard were quiet from their front fence to the grissly stock-Moreover, at the end were the ade at the rear, and, wondering at Tomorrow the word would spread like moment looking about at the after-Yet Samson had not come to the stronghold of his enemy for the puranother object in his mind-an utterly writing to her. Even his occasional mad idea, it is true, yet so bold of vy and that Hollis had fallen in his conception that it held a ghost of master's defense at the threshold. promise. He had meant to go into Samson went out, still meeting no one Jesse Purvy's store and chat artlessly, and continued his journey.

Already 300 Officers' Names on

The British public is not deceived by the lact of definite reports as to the British losses in the recent fighting at Neuve Chappelle. Official announcement that the British had taken 1,800 prisoners, that the Germans must have lost in all 18,000 men, says an Associated Press dispatch of Saturday, prepared the public for the heavy loss on the Britih side. Rumors

"I've done been your executioner for which Samson at once recognized as Waterloo, the British public is aware Yet, if he was to lead them at all, that of Aaron Hollis, the most trusted the cost will be stupendous before the he must first regain their shaken con- of Purvy's personal guards. "I hain't invaders are driven from France and

Meanwhile recruiting advertisements point out that the Germans, being at Ostend, already are nearer London than Manchester is, and some daily mountings would 'a'took such a long es and hospital facilities. In short London feels that the anticipated has begun.

> School buildings, work houses, asy lums and buildings of all kinds are being commandeered in all the larger cities to provide hospital accomodations. About fifty work houses and asylums now are being fitted for wounded men, who are expected when the promised "big move" comes. Recent appeals for nurses brought hundreds of replies, but many were from women without training.

"It is clear, however," says Viscount Knutsford, in charge of this branch of war office activity, "that we must abandon the idea of nursing soldier "that we must only with full trained nurses, at least require only trained nurses as long a call for more doctors. Arrangements for the transport of wounded from the front to the London hospitals have now been so perfected that many wounded men are in their beds here within forty hours.

Art Canada's total debt is $483,232,555. ## Greece is a heavy lumber export-coat pocket, clutching the grip of a from the sap of palm trees.

As Traced In Early Files of The Yorkville Enquirer.

NEWS AND VIEWS OF YESTERDAY

Bringing Up Records of the Past and Giving the Younger Readers of Today a Pretty Comprehensive Knowledge of the Things that Most Con-

The first installment of the notes appearing under this heading was pub-lished in our issue of November 14 1913. The notes are being prepared by the editor as time and opportunity permit. Their purpose is to bring into review the events of the past for the pleasure and satisfaction of the older people and for the entertainment and instruction of the present generation. nstruction of the present generation.

120TH INETALLMENT.

(Wednesday Evening, Sept. 9, 1863.) Evacuation of Morris' Island. Charleston, Sept. 7.-The bombard ment was kept up without intermission all day yesterday and far into the night. About 150 of our men were killed and wounded at batteries Wagner and Gregg. The attempt to assault battery Gregg was repulsed before the enemy had completed their landing. Great havoc is supposed to have been played in the enemy's boats by our grape and cannister. At dark resterday afternoon, the enemy having advanced their sap up to the very moat of Wagner, and it being impossible to hold the island longer, Gen. Beauregard ordered its evacuation, which was executed between 8 p. m. and 1 o'clock p. m., with success. We spiked the guns of Wagner and Gregg, and withdrew noiselessly in forty barges, only one barge containing twelve men, was captured. The enemy now holds Comming's Point in full view of the city. All quiet this morning.

Charleston, Sept. 7, 12 m .- A dispatch from Maj. Stephen Elliott, commanding Fort Sumter, announces that a flag of truce demanding the immediate surrender of that fort has just been received from Admiral Dahlgren by Lieut. Brown of the Palmetto State. Beauregard telegraphed Elliott to reply to Dahlgren that he can have Fort Sumter when he takes it and holds it, and that in the meantime such demands are puerile and

Charleston, Sept. 7, 8 p. m.-At 6 p. m., the Ironsides and Monitors approached Fort Sumter closer than usual and opened fire against it. Our (Wednesday Evening, Sept. 23, 1863.) Our Advertisements.

We often call attention to these matters, but now we do so particularly, govern themselves accordingly." For instance: The assessor gives notice that he has filled his appointments throughout the district and that he tunity is afforded to fund them; and you had better do it.

50 cents for a thimble full of apple jack, don't blae the "anxious Enquirer" for it.

Unless we get something by Tuesday of interest to report from Charleston The enemy continues to work on their fortifications as opportunity offers, our batteries playing on them in the meansuspension of operations during the

and we learn in good health and spir-

The Wayside Home in Charleston every accommodation is cheerfuly afforded them-the enterprise is the theme of praise on their part and dewith money and provisions. A home.

"We invite the attention of all of ficers visiting the city on honorable leave to the Wayside Home, in the American hotel building, corner of King and George Street. "They should acquaint themselves

Stragglers, loiters, deserters or im posters are not wanted at the Wayside Home, but all soldiers passing through the city will be received there with cordial welcome and good wholesome may intelligently commend it to the Wednesday Evening, Sept. 18, 1863.) The news from all quarters in excellent condition and ready for about his girl:

At last dates from Tennessee, the kee loss, killed, wounded and capmand of Hood's division, and at latest ing two gunboats and driving off the have.

ing line between Louisiana and Texas, two hundred and eighty miles west of the mouth of the Mississippi river Our troops in the trans-Mississippi department are in fine condition, and confident of success whenever meet the enemy. At Charleston, there has been no ex citement during the past week. The Yankees or Morris' Island are working like beavers trying to make Gregg and Wagner impregnable. Shells corned Generations that Have Gone from our batteries blew up two ammunition chests at Wagner on Friday,

> (To be continued.) GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

Items of Interest Gathered From All Around the World. After December 31, 1915, prison contract labor will be abolished in the tate of Missouri. A strike of 100,000 workers of thirty-four trades is threatened in Chicato, to begin May 1st.

The Dutchess of Brunswick, daugher of Emperor William of Germany, on Thursday, gave birth to a son. known as spotted fever, is epidemic in certain of the camps of recruits in Charles Kimbrough, a negro, has been convicted at Saginaw, Mich., of to this one store room and the other murdering an 8-year-old girl, and sen- store room will be given up by them. been convicted at Saginaw, Mich., of senced to life imprisonment. The New York conference of the Sunday to conduct a revival campaign in that city.

Caesar Ancinas, a Filipino, was in New York last week in charge of a detective, on his way from Genoa, Italy, to Manila, where he is wanted for forgery and embezzlement to the Richard S. Darling, on trial last graveyard at Richburg Tuesday after week at White Plains, N. Y., on the funeral services by Rev. J. V. Davis. charge of "stealing" Mrs. Katherine Mr. McFadden was a native of this Shaw, from her husband, Robert M. Shaw, a New York banker, was acquitted of the charge.

lief that the German submarine, U-29, Capt. Weddigen, which recently Young, charged with murder, Mr. R. torpedoed nine ships in 24 hours, has been sunk in the English channel with all hands. A dispatch by way of Copenhagen is to the effect that a general prohibition has been issued in Germany hit anybody, and the jury decided that having of cakes in baker- the homicide was accidental and the against the baking of cakes in bakeries, hotels or private homes. A punishment of six months in prison is pro-

Following a legal opinion by the attorney general of the United States, D. Wells. Mr. Reighley was about 56 General Goethals, governor of the years of age and leaves a widow and Panama canal zone, has ordered a reduction of 20 per cent in canal tolls. Under the new ruling the maximum requiring all "to take due notice and rate will be $1.25 per ton of net registered tonnage.

value," at Yorkville, on the 7th of the New Jersey board of pardons for nounced his former I. W. W. views. and Mrs. Levy expect to return to Chester in August or September. of Theodore Roosevelt.

Dispatches received in New York by little value are receivable by the tax the Presbyterian foreign mission Persia, had been murdered by Kurds, the women violated and an American missionary beaten, and 65 refugees taken from the French and American in Charlotte early Wednesday mornmissions had been hanged to gibbets erected in the mission yards.

Jacob B. Miller, a burglar, arrested and being escorted to the police station in Philadelphia, Thursday night, by two detectives, suddenly drew an automatic pistol, shot one three times through the heart, killing him instantly, and mortally wounded the other officer. He made his escape but was arrested next day and confessed the crime. He was a "dope" fiend.

A Fable.-Once upon a time a certain man in South Carolina forgot to pay any portion of his preacher's sal-

Near the end of the year an officer of the church waited upon him and made remarks to the effect that the Lord loves a cheerful giver.

When the matter was reported, as preachers will, felt that he had fallen short of the whole schedule of his duty, and took the blame upon himself. But he determined that should he be spared for another year's work, he would call often upon the offended

Accordingly, he made it convenient to call four times during the following year. Still the man paid nothing, fair to be held the week following the and at the close of the year the officer of the church waited upon him again. "Not a cent," he declared. "Not a cent. I've boarded that preacher and lege, where the body was entertained

And the moral is, of course, that it's a long, long way to Tipperary, and Mrs. Lizzie Revelle died at her home the conductor can't collect fare unless your heart's right.-Fountain Inn old and was a devoted member of the

How Small Boys Make Love.-In the April American Magazine, Ellis Parker Brock and the Rev. W. Butler writes another small boy story Mrs. Revelle is survived by the fol in his new series. This month's story is entitled, "Teacher's Pet," and in the velle, Tillman Revelle and John Recheering. Our troops in Virginia are following extract, the small boy talks velle of Lancaster, and Mrs. Addie "Her name is Milly. I haven't said

Yankees were in Chattanooga, close- to her or anybody-but I've carried Monday, granted a temporary injunc-Yankees were in Chattanooga, close- to her or anybody—but I've carried in the lection for township besieged by our forces. Our losses her books three or four times and I commissioner in Cherokee township, in the battles of last week, do not ex- hit her in the back of the head with which had been ordered for Tuesday ceed 12,000, of which a large portion a soft snowball, and I guess she likes This made null and void the act of are only slightly wounded. The Yan- me too. She threw a snowball back the general assembly, by virtue of the at me when I hit her and then, when tured, it is said, number 28,000. Our I washed her face for her with snow, townsman, Gen. Jenkins, is in com- she just said, "Oh, George! You mean Smith's action was given the commisthing!" as if she might be willing to sioners of election late Monday night, marry me sometime if I got nerve managers who had been appointed to phia Public Ledger. On the 8th, inst., Gen. Magruder de- enough to ask her when we're grown conduct the election.... Before Sep-More than ninety per cent of the feated a Yankee division, commanded up. I wonder how a fellow gets nerve tember 1st, of this year, three handalcohol and alcoholic drinks that are made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Weitzel, sink-made in the Philappines are derived by Gens. Franklin and Gens. Franklin an

News Happenings In Neighboring Communities.

CONDENSED FOR OUICK

Dealing Mainly With Local Affairs of caster and Chester.

Staley of Lynchburg, Va., who has lers section of the county, on a charge Staley of Lynchburg, Va.. who has been living at Due West for some time, will probably make his home in Rock Hill. He represents the milling concern of D. A. Stickel & Son of Hagerstown, Md. He is here now, accompanied by his wife......Mrs. W. T. Carter died Tuesday night of pneu-feries went to Union, where he was monia at her home on Wilson street. monia at her home on Wilson street. ty officers. Deputy Sheriff J. E. Wat-She was 35 years old and leaves a kins brought him back from Union. husband and several children. The It is said that considerable chicken husband and several children. The funeral was held from the home on Wednesday afternoon by Rev. F. T. Cox and the remains were taken to Fort Mill for interment.....The pupils of the high school were given a holiday yesterday afternoon, lasting through Monday, on account of the teachers going to Florence to attend the annual meeting of the State Tagchers' association, now in session thievery has been worrying the people of the Macedonia section of the depredant was rendered by Magistrate T. C. Bridges Tuesday, in the case of R. L. Elmore versus the town of Gaffney. The prosecution was represented by Captain J. B. Bell and Hon. W. S.

teet long to the store room next to the Peoples Bank building, occupied by the Rock Hill Supply company. As soon as it is completed, the Supply company will move their stock all incircuit court; he put up a bond of circuit court; he put up a bond of the court is the put up a bond of the circuit court; he put up a bond of the circuit court; he put up a bond of the circuit court; he put up a bond of the circuit court; he put up a bond of the circuit court; he put up a bond of the circuit court; he put up a bond of the circuit court; he put up a bond of the circuit court; he put up a bond of the circuit court.

Chester Reporter, March 25: Mrs Desha Breckenridge of Lexington Methodist Episcopal church, has Ky., the noted woman suffrage advo-passed resolutions inviting Rev. Billy cate, addressed a crowd of about 200 at the opera house last night, the meeting being held under the auspices meeting being held under the auspices of the local Equal Suffrage league. Mrs. Robert C. Love, president of the local league, presided, and Mrs. F. M. Hicklin said a few words at the conclusion of Mrs. Breckenridge's address......Mr. Martin E. McFadden died at his home in the Mt. Prospect neighborhood Monday afternoon, after an illness of three weeks from M. I. Babington, mother of Mr. R. B. er an illness of three weeks from pneumonia, and was buried in Union

He was an active and devoted member of the Methodist church, and Chester county contained no better citizen. The British admiralty has issued a Mr. McFadden is survived by his widow, who was Miss Sallie McWaters, statement in which it expresses a beand several children....The jury in the case of William, alias "Man" dict of "Not guilty," this morning. Young shot and killed Tillman Cun-ningham at Fort Lawn during the holidays, by firing a pistol promiscu-ously in celebration of Christmas There was no evidence of intention to one step-daughter, Miss Fanny Lip ford: also several brothers and sisters two of whom, Mr. T. B. Reighley and Mrs. Kate R. McNinch, live in this the Baptist church and was highly ered tonnage.

Frederick S. Boyd, former Industrial Mr. and Mrs. Louis Levy expect to Frederick S. Boyd, former industrial leave tomorrow evening for Balti-Worker of the World, convicted of more, where Mrs. Levy will remain sabotage and incendiary utterances for several months with relatives. Mr will close the returns on "the tax in and refused a new trial, has petitioned Levy, after spending about ten day in Baltimore, will go to Philadelphia clemency, declaring that he has re- of the leading optical colleges. Mr

Lancaster News, March 26: Mrs

Alethia T. Clyburn, widow of the late the Presbyterian foreign mission Capt. William Clyburn, died at her home in Atlanta Saturday. Her rethe men of the village of Gulpashan, mains were brought to Kershaw Monhusband.....The Lancaster friends o Dr. Robert S. Cauthen were shocked to learn of his death, which occurred ing, after a brief illness with heart trouble. He was stricken Tuesday afternoon in his office in the Realty building. He was soon taken to his home on Park Drive and physicians and nurses did everything possible to restore him, but in vain. Dr. Cauhen was a native of Kershaw. He ticing medicine in Charlotte as a spe-cialist in diseases of the eye, ear and throat. Dr. Cauthen was a physician this country he studied for sometime in Vienna. Dr. Cauthen is survived by his widow, who was Miss Cartied was then, went to Gastonia to took of recognized ability. After com-pleting a full course of medicine in by his widow, who was Miss Cynthia Sessions, a former teacher in Eliza-beth college; by two sisters, Mrs. D. M. Kirkley of Kershaw, and Mrs Daisy Hasseltine of Rock Hill, and by

Rock Hill, and Mr. W. V. Cauthen of Orlando, Fla......Mrs. Mary Manes, widow of the late James Manes, died Tuesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. H. Steele, at the advanced age ed stoutly. "Not a cent. That preacher hasn't been to see me this year."

Miss Mary Neven, of York week.....An attempt was made Sunday night to burglarize the Mauney drug store. An effort was mode to was born in 1829. For forty was born in 1829. For forty years gain entrance by the back door. This Mrs. Manes was a member of the falling the man went on top of the Methodist church at this place. Her building and was working at the skysuch matters are, the preacher, as pastor, Rev. E. T. Hodges, assisted by preachers will felt that he had fallen Rev. W. S. Patterson and Dr. J. H. Thayer, conducted the funeral services, after which the remains were interred in the Presbyterian cemetery. brother, who thus yearned for his so- tion of Fairs held at Rock Hill Tuesday. Mr. Ellison is secretary and treasurer of the state organization. The dates for the several county fairs were arranged, the Lancaster county neeting adjourned to Winthrop colhis horse enough to make up my at dinner. President Johnson after ing the organization upon in the mill village Wednesday, March 24. She was 50 years and 7 months Baptist church. The interment was made in Westside cemetery yesterday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock after funeral services conducted by the Rev. S. R.

Robertson of Lancaster. "Her name is Milly. I haven't said anything about marrying her yet—not Mendel L. Smith, in Spartanburg, on sioners of election acted when notice ready if it should be necessary for the and they sent word to the various of international interests.-Philadelbuildings hotel property on North Limestone pen.—Toledo Blade.

magazine pistol. Samson South the old, and Samson South the new were FOOTSTEPS OF THE FATHERS others, at Sabine city, which is at the mouth of the Sabine river, the dividtwo stories. The lots, which were re-cently sold at auction, are owned by Dr. V. H. Lipscomb, Dr. J. N. Nesbit and Mr. T. H. Westrope, respectively As yet no contract has been let, but plans are being considered, and one of the men interested states that work will begin within the next six weeks or two months......Mr. George H. Edwards of Yorkville, was among the visitors in the city Wednesday......Mr. O. E. Wilkins of Yorkville, spent a few hours in the city Wednesday....

Cherokee, Cleveland, Gaston, Lan-Wilbur Jefferies, a negro, was tried in the office of Magistrate William Phil-Rock Hill Record, March 25: J. L. lips at the courthouse Tuesday, by Magistrate J. M. Gardener, of the Butref of Emperor William of Germany, in Thursday, gave birth to a son.

Cerebro-spinal fever, popularly cnown as spotted fever, is epidemic company to build an extension 30 company to build an extension and a company to build an extension and a company to build an extension and a company to build a which had been forfeited to the town. A summary of the facts in the case circuit court; he put up a bond of $100. Later Elmore signed a $200 bond for a negro named Douglas Osborne. It is alleged that before the trial Elmore took Osborne into North Carolina and told him to stay there. Before Elmore's appeal to the circuit court could be heard, he was pardon-ed by the governor of the state. The city authorities retained his $100 for the bond he had signed for the ne-Gastonia Gazette, March 26: Mrs. M. I. Babington, mother of Mr. R. B. Babington, general manager of the Piedmont Telephone and Telegraph company, is quite ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Herbert B. Hunter, in Charlotte.....Mr. R. A. Denny, a brother of Mrs. J. Q. Hall and Mrs. Annie Hall, of Belmont, died yesterday at his home in Wannette, Okla. ed of arson in connection with the Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Hall and Mrs. An-nie Hall left yesterday for Plymouth, Ill., by way of Chicago, to attend the funeral and burial of their brother....

A telegram received by Mr. A. F. When the wholes conveyed the sad intelligible. gence of the death in Athens, Texas, yesterday morning of little Ada Agnes, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Whitesides. She had been ill for eight weeks with catarrhal which later developed into fever, which later developed into pleurisy.....The following from the Charlottesville, Va., Progress of Mon-to return to Augusta without proper day afternoon, March 22, will be of requisition. interest to many of our readers, not only because of the unusual circum-stances therein related, but because al and opened fire against it. Our batteries on Sullivan's island, including Fort Moultrie replied heavily and ing Fort Moultrie replied heavily and including Fort Moultrie replied hea Sallie Sparks of Orange, were married Greenville, has been set for trial on by the Rev. Dr. Staples at the home of the bride in Orange, last Thursday morning. March 18th, and came to Charlottesville on the train which arrives here at 11.45 a. m. They regis-tered at the Hotel Gleason and decidmother of the happy bridegroom. However, Frank Stockton must have changed his mind between Thursday noon and the evening of the next day as he disappeared Friday night and, day as he has not been heard of since As soon as the anxious wife realized her position she notified her family in Orange and sent an inquiry to her of the whereabouts of the recalcitrant groom. Dr. Geo. H. Sparks of Mitch-ell, Va., came at once to Charlottesville, but he could do nothing and returned to his practice after consolin his sister as best he could. Mrs. Stockton, Senior, the groom's mother, in response to her newly acquired daughter-in-law's inquiry as to her husband's whereabouts, telegraphed Mrs. Frank Stockton to come to her mother, would find the missing husband. Mrs. Frank Stockton decided to accept her mother-in-law's invitation and left on No. 9, on the Southern railway on Saturday. No news has yet been had from the missing groom. Frank Stockton gave his age when applying for the marriage Orange as 21, but it is said that he is only 18 years old. Mrs. Stockton is in Bennettsville. During the past few > school. It is not known whether ville. Frank Stockton was one of her pupils. King's Mountain Herald, March 25: Rev. C. L. Bragaw is having a serious time with pneumonia. His condition doesn't seem to improve. His father is here from Washington, D. C....... J. M. Patterson has been elected secretary of the King's Mountain Pro-gressive association. This action was taken by the executive committee last falling the man went on top of the building and was working at the skylight when discovered by Dr. Hood There is no clue....Miss Sallie Coop er, aged 65, a maiden lady who mad her home at Long Shoals, died last Tuesday. The remains were buried on Wednesday afternoon at the Harrill burying ground near Long Shoals.... On March 7th Mrs. J. H. Green pass ed into the great beyond. woman was a native of Cleveland county and always lived in this county. She was a devout Christian, and member of Trinity Baptist church, Mrs. George Brooks and children left for their home at Marion, Ga., at the first of the week after spending two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McLaughen, here.

The Road to Mexico .- President Wilson has made a genuine move of effective diplomacy in demanding that the railroad between Mexico City and Vera Cruz shall be kept open. One ounce of specific and concrete statesmenship is worth a ton of general and idealistic representations. Carranza knows now that there is at least one thing he must do; if he cannot do it he is entirely too puerile to warrant any further recognition from the Unit-There are three reasons why the ed States. ailroad should be kept open: American citizens and the subjects of other nations must have a quick means of egress from Mexico City in case of need; a food route must be maintained for those who still remain there and are apparently threatened with starvation; a clear and free road must be United States to occupy Mexico City with an armed force for the protection

A phenomenon is something a

NO. 26. HAPPENINGS IN THE STATE tems of Interest From All Sections of TERMS --- $2.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

South Carolina. There are several cases of smallpox n Charleston.

Fire in Greenville Friday, destroyed wo homes at the Brandon mill and wo at the Carolina mills. The contract for the erection of a new school building in Spartanburg, was let last week. The building will cost $30,183.86. W. W. Johnson, judge of probate of Union county, has announced his candidacy for congress from the 4th congressional district. Miss Pauline Brown of Easley, won first prize in the annual declamation contest among Pickens county schools, which was held Friday. Fire destroyed a dozen small resilences in Prosperity, Newberry county. Friday afternoon. The buildings were valued at about $25,000 Sixty-one deaths occurred at the state hospital for the insane during January and February. Forty-one eaths were attributed to pellagra. In the first regular game played by the two teams this season, Clemson college defeated Furman University at baseball in Anderson, Friday, 3

Prof. W. B. Benson has decliend reelection as superintendent of the Easley schools, to accept a position on the faculty of the Bulley Milita- institute, Greenwood.

John B. Sample, one of the oldest citizens of Greenwood county, died last week, aged 84 years. He was a veteran of the war between the sec-

The Greenville fire department has dready broken all records for fire calls in that city for March. Twentytwo fire calls were answered from March 1 to March 26.

of the gallon a month law to each sheriff in the state, with a request that the sheriffs see to it that all magistrates are made familiar with the provisions of the law. Greenwood Rogers, colored, convict-

murder of George W Younge in Laurens county, several months ago, has been taken to the state penitentiary where he will be electrocuted on April

The suit of W. D. Metts of Greenville vs. J. W. Norwood, alleging dam-

Metts's appointment as postmaster at

April 22. Capt. J. L. Wardlaw of Columbia has been elected superintendent of the Confederate home, Columbia, to suced to continue their wedding trip to ceed H. W. Richardson. Mrs. Wardlaw Gastonia, N. C., and pay a visit to the was elected matron of the home and ceed H. W. Richardson, Mrs. Wardlaw E. J. Derrick, M. D., was elected physician, succeeding Dr. F. W. P. But-

> W. F. Kay was held up by highwaymen near Anderson last week. A terrific fight ensued in which his clothes were cut in numerous places. Realizing that their would-be victim was an unusually hard proposition. the would-be robbers at andoned their attempt. There has been no arrests.

The town of Bennettsville has been considerably stirred up during the past few days over the appearance of a suposed "wild man" who has shown himself at the homes of several citizens, greatly frightening the inmates. So far the strange fellow has not been identified.

M. W. Swann of Bennettsville, has collected 41,000 beer bottles during the past few weeks. He proposes to sell them to liquor dealers. All save twenty-five barrels of the bottles which days Mr. Swann has also gathered was then, went to Gastonia to teach about 4,000 liquor bottles in Bennetts-

> Rev. J. Ross Stevenson, D. D., president of Princeton Theological seminary, is to preach the baccalaureate sermon at the Presbyterian college of South Carolina, at Clinton, on May 28. Rev. S. J. Cartledge of Atlanta, Ga., is to deliver the annual sermon to the Y. M. C. A., and W. W. Lewis, Esq., of Yorkville, is to deliver the commencement address on Wednesday, June 2.

> Governor Manning has appointed Robert M. Burts sheriff of Abbeville county, to succeed C. J. Lyon, resigned. The appointee has never held political office before and the appointment came as a great surprise, since Burts had not been mentioned in connection with the office. Sheriff Burts is a brother of Rev. C. E. Burts of Columbia.

> Governor Manning has received a communication from the executive committee in charge of the arrangements for the state Confederate reunion, which meets in Columbia, April 22 and 23, in which there ns inserted a resolution, adopted by the committee, equesting the chief executive to close the dispensaries in Columbia the two days of the reunion.

> Claude N. Sapp of Lancaster, has been appointed a trustee of the Cedar Springs institute for the deaf and dumb and blind. Mr. Sapp who was formerly a member of the house of representatives from Lancaster county, was regarded as one of the leaders during the administration of former Governor Blease. Governor Manning is quoted as saving that the appointment of Mr. Sapp is in line with his policy of not regarding factions in selecting men for office, but to appoint solely on efficiency and merit.

> before a court martial, on charges of stealing army supplies, were declared guilty. Desclaux was sentenced to serve seven years and the woman two vears in prison.

A Chicago grain dealer reports that he has on the way to England a cargo of 350,000 bushels of wheat, but up to this time he has had no bids for the passed through the tawdry cars of the stopped at his studio and local train near Hixon he saw several a littered pile of discarded background faces which he recognized, but they draperies, canvases and stretchers, he either eyed him in inexpressive silence fished out a buried and dust-covered or gave him the greeting of the "furpair of saddlebags. They had long riner." lain there forgotten, but they held the Then the whistle shrieked from the rusty clothes in which he had left trestle over the Middle fork, and at

ive. These military forces must re-

"Ain't this the hell of a town?"

enigmatically, as he went on.

"It's going to be," replied Samson

Still unrecognized, he hired a horse

The silence soothed him. The brood-

It was late afternoon when he saw

"Jesse Purvy, General Merchandise."

But as he stood on the outside, wip-

"Thar hain't nothin' to talk

Jesse Purvy.

tered roofs of the town. Scattered as he handed her the studio keys. "Will you please have George look over the green slopes by the river

some relic unearthed from Pompelian down as the engine roared along the side had been muffled, and those outing at the great leather pockets as at

Shortly they were at the station, the machine, took her hand. "It's not good-by, you know," he hurry now.

of hounds.

her eyes.

Sally had learned to write.

self.

ing her way up-that she might stand most of all, he wanted to drop the casual information, which he should as-"Good God!" groaned the man, in sume to have heard on the train, that abject bitter self-contempt. His hand Samson South was returning, and to went involuntarily to his cropped head, mark, on the assassin leader, the effect and dropped with a gesture of self- of the news. In his new code it was doubting. He looked down at his tan necessary to give at least the rattler's shoes and silk socks. He rolled back warning before he struck, and he his shirtsleeves and contemplated the meant to strike. If he were recognized, forearm that had once been as brown well-he shrugged his shoulders. and tough as leather. It was now the arm of a city man, except for the burn- ing the perspiration from his forehead, ing of one outdoor week. He was for the ride had been warm, he heard returning at the eleventh hour-voices within. They were loud and stripped of his faith in kinsmen, angry voices. It occurred to him that confidently prattled to Adrienne, he must lead his people from under the twenty years," complained a voice, fidence, and to do that he must go, at never laid down on ye yet. Me an' Jir , Belgium. their head, through this mire of war Asberry killed old Henry South. We to vindication. Only a fighting South laid fer his boy an' would 'a' got him could hope to be heard in behalf of ef you'd only said ther word. I went peace. His eventual regeneration be- inter Hixon an' killed Tam'rack Spicer, chance es thet. I'm tired of it. He must re-appear before his kinsquestioning and his anguish of dilem- Then he added, wih a conciliating softwould, after all, be shirking the issue. while. Let's talk this thing over be somewhat filled-out man now. The one kill time till the boys gits hyar, and -had worn it chiefly because he liked away. When they gits back hyar, tion of it. He knew that, in his pres- way outen the mountings." ent guise and dress, he had an excellent chance of walking through the confession of one murderer, with no streets of Hixon as a stranger. And, denial from the other. The truce was sion to be performed at Jesse Purvy's seemed to thunder in his brain, and store. As he thought of the mission yet he stood there, his hand in his

and vicious frenzy.

"My name is Samson South." Before the astounded finger on the trigger could be cocked, Samson's pistol spoke from the pocket, and, as though an echo, the rifle blazed, a little head, as the dead man's arms went up. Except for those two reports there ticipating an uproar of alarm. Now he should doubtless have to pay with his life for both the deaths. which

As Samson crossed the toll bridge ing in the smoakhouse and the peppers, tobacco and herbs strung high

Samson paused only for a moment would not again have to agonize over that Samson South was back and that his coming had been signalized by these two deaths. The fact that he was responsible for only one-and that in self-defense-would not matter They would prefer to believe that he had invaded the store and killed Pur-

(To Be Continued.)

NEUVE CHAPPELLE LOSSES

Casualty List.

the neighborhood of 13,000. Already there are about 300 officers' names on the casualty lists as the result of the battle, which are being added to daily. Since it takes so many men to win a mile of French soil from the Germans, more than the losses at

The war office has also sent out

October, next, after which the defaulters will have 25 per cent taxed on The issue of Confederate notes of 1861 and '62 by some considered of collector, and so a favorable oppor-

After this, if you have anything to eat and want the material to spread it on, you will have an opportunity on sales day next, to buy crockery ware at your own prices, for the public will then be offered a chance to place their own value on a stock that will be of-

Now, if you have 25 per cent tacked on your tax account—if you have any bad money past redemption, and no crockery to smash up when your wives make you mad, or been paying

From the Coast. evening's mail there will be nothing time. One of our shots dismounted a gun of battery Gregg, causing a

Evan's brigade is at Mount Pleasan is daily visited by our soldiers where serves the public encouragement both indeed. Of it the Courier says:

with the claims of this place that they entertainment, and lodging if needed.

a fight which is daily expected. dates, held Lookout mountain.