NO. 47.

ESTABLISHED 1855.

YORKVILLE, S. C., FRIDAY, JUNE 11, 1915.

When Billy Sunday Came to Town

By ALEXANDER CORKEY

extra copies struck off tomorrow."

increased at once 10,000 a day."

Mr. Graham listened impatiently until Reginald had ceased and responded quickly, "We don't want you as our editor a day longer if the circulation

In a moment the whole situation became plain to Reginald. The Courier people to the fact that henceforth the Reginald Nelson felt his strength

"Let me show you something," then went on Mr. Graham sneeringly. He

"Give Mr. Nelson a proof of that ar-

The workman hastened to obey, the lawyer being recognized as the owner

dampened "proof" was placed in Reginald's hands. "Read that," said the

In astonishment the editor began to read a bitter attack on the veracity of

"The owners of the Courier regret exceedingly," the article declared, that Independence day in Bronson was marred with the publication of some vile slanders against the honor of our fair city. The youthful editor to whom we intrusted the paper has betrayed his trust, but he has been summarily removed from his place as editor and his past life is now being investigated, as there are some rumors against him at once in our courts.

Reginald Nelson looked at him for yould sweep this floor with you. In Two burley policemen appeared a him to jail for destruction of property!

The two policemen dashed at Regi nald, one seizing each arm. The powerful Englishman struggled with his captors. With terrific force he threw one of them against the wall and turned to attack the other, but the officer reached for him he struck him a crushing blow on the head. The young man fell senseless on the floor shouted Mr. Graham. The two police the wall, 1 sing his shoulder. "It is or he wou have downed us both."

The policeman telephoned for the police ambulance, and in a little while

It was an hour before the injured

"Where am I?" he asked in amaze

"In jail," said an attendant shortly as he advanced to the cot. He was under the impression that Reginald why he had been brought to the city memory began to return. He remembered his fight with the policemen in

"Telephone to the Rev. Allan Rutthink that this has been done in Bronson on Independence day!" exclaimed Allan Rutledge when Regi-

Allan Rutledge at once went to the office of the jail and arranged that

Reginald should be immediately removed to the Cameron home. "I will

When Reginald Nelson staggered in to the Cameron home, assisted by Allan Rutledge, the good Scotchman and

"What's the matter with our boy

"Not very much," replied Allan.

"He will soon be all right. Let us

All that night the minister remained

A doctor was called, and he examin

The next day the issue of the Cou-

Mr. Graham had a signed article in son and giving his version of the rier astounded the people of Bronson.

take him upstairs to bed at once."

by the bedside of the ex-editor.

his wife were greatly frightened.

asked Mr. Cameron anxiously.

nald had told him his story.

"Jail!" exclaimed Reginald.

the printing room of the Courier.

ex-editor recovered. He opened hi eyes and gazed around him.

ou hit him with the billy trate form of their antagonist.

"Take him to jail, take him to jail!

"Take the madman out! Take a dangerous adventurer."

We'll drive you out of Bron teeth in a rage.

famous rascal!"

I will file a complaint!"

cried:

a good this

Bronson jail.

of former breaches of trust before he returning. He met the look of the lawyer fearlessly.

for the next day.

lawyer snappingly.

Copywright, 1913, by the H. K. Fly Co.

เลกเลกเลกเลกเลกเลกเลกเลกเลกเลกเลกเล CHAPTER XVI. Swift Punishment.

It was after 5 o'clock before Reginald Nelson arrived at the Courier office on the evening of the eventful July 4. He was surprised to see his own private office open when he entered and to hear some one manipulating his typewriter. He passed had been purchased by the enemies of quickly inside and was amazed to see reform. His position as editor had Ned Rowlands working diligintly at been given him in order to blind the the writing machine. "What's the matter, Ned?" he ex-Courier was to be in the hands of claimed. "Is your own typewriter

"Have you not heard the news?" asked the other in response.

"What news?" "The directors had a meeting this morning and gave me the position of led the way out of the office into the editor of the Courier. I am sorry for printing room. Two or three men were you, Nelson, but that edition of yours already at work, and one of them was today was a bad break, and I am fixing one of the forms of the paper afraid it has ruined your life." "Ruined my life?" said Reginald Nelson in a dazed way. Then he arous- ticle I wrete," ordered Mr. Graham. ed himself. "Get out of here, Rowland," he ordered. "I am the editor of of the plant. In a few minutes a the Courier." The Englishman's eyes were shining as he spoke. "Sorry, old man," said the other familiarly, "but you'll have to take your medicine. Here is my introductory editorial," and Ned Rowlands handed Reginald a sheet of typerwriting. The his Independence day exposure. Englishman glanced at the headline and saw that the article was entitled, "Greetings From the Courier's New Editor." He tore the sheet of paper into fragments and threw them on the

"Get out of here!" he thundered to his former city reporter.

Ned Rowlands laughed sarcastically in his face and sneered: "You forgot, Nelson, that you were not working for the public, but that you were working for the Courier Publishing company. They have no more use for you."

"And I have no more use for you!" exclaimed Reginald, seizing the other by the coat collar. "I have wanted to discharge you for a months, and I do it now. Your place is vacant."

As he was speaking these words ed him into the outer room. The ousted city reporter made no resistance, being alarmed at the excitement of th other, and he was hastening away when he ran square into a gentleman who was approaching the editoria

"Excuse me, sir." said Rowlands. glancing up and seeing the face of sanctum.

Mr. Graham. "Come back with me, you coward," said the lawyer in a low tone. After the expulsion of his city reporter Reginald had slammed the door and had just seated himself at his desk to collect his thoughts when he heard the voice of Mr. Graham saying: "You are discharged as editor of the Courier, Mr. Nelson. We have no further use for your service, and you will oblige us by leaving the office at once. We have appointed Ned Rowlands in your

"Come, come," said the lawyer sharply. "Get out of here." "Who has discharged me?" asked

"The directors of the Courier Pub lishing company." "Who are these directors?" asked "I am a part owner of this paper, and I claim to have some voice men stood silent, gazing at the prosin the management." Reginald Nelson had paid no attention to the business management of the newspaper, leaving that entirely to Mr. Gra-"I control a majority of the stock of this concern," said Mr. Graham loftily, "and I have directed that such a person as you is not fit to be editor of the Courier. You will oblige me by leaving this office at once or I shall be forced to have you expelled by the officers of the law."

Reginald Nelson slowly began to see his hopeless position. He had looked on himself as part owner and manager of his paper. He believed that his course as an editor would be judged snccessful if he could keep his subscription list growing, as a newspaper is saved or damned by this standard in the commercial world. ber of readers was due to the incompetency of his city reporter, and the consequent loss of confidence in the Courier by large numbers of the working people. He had been assured by the events of the day that his bold attack on the city administration and his exposure of the evils which were tolerated by the Bronson officials had re-established the credit of the paper had had an extra large edition of that day's paper printed, but after Allan Rutledge's speech at Bronson park the demand for the Courier was so great gratulated on every hand. "I thought the Courier had deserted us," an enthusiastic advocate of re afternoon, "but your issue of today will make the Courier the most popu-

that the edition was soon exhausted and the young editor had been con-

lar paper in all Michigan." Encouraged by the marks of popular approval on every hand, and deeming that his position as editor had been assured by his Independence day edi tion. Reginald Nelson had returned to the Courier office in high spirits. His interview with Ned Rowlands and the words of Mr. Graham had almost unmanned him. He could not as yet quite understand the situation past few weeks," said Reginald in a perplexed tone, "but that was the re- serious. sult of a lack of confidence in us as genuine friends of reform. The edition of today has convinced the most skeptical that the Courier will repre- the paper denouncing Reginald Nelsent the people, and I look for an imnediate rise in the number of papers fight in the printing room. He char- teeth than any other animal, having your devotion to the duties of your try, and I have no doubt that these printed. I was going to order 1,000 acterized the Independence day edi- 92.

CONCONCIONAL DE SECONO DE the people that the owners of the paper would be more careful in their supervision of the newspaper. "The Courier has always borne the reputation of being a conservative and safe paper, and we regret very much that this adventurer, who wormed himself into the confidence of so many of our citizens, has brought such a disgrace upon us." These were the closing words of Mr. Graham's statement. The citizens were at once divided into two camps, some asserting that they > first greatly in the majority, protested that the ex-editor had been misjudged In the issue of the day following notice was given of the suit against Reginald by the Courier Publishing company, and dark hints were made here and there in the paper in regard to stories which had become current always knew that Reginald Nelson was an impostor, and the others, at regarding the immigrant's career in It was even reported that he had deserted a wife in the old country, that he was a fugitive from justice and that he was an ex-criminal.

These stories were also circulated on the streets of Bronson, and the popular sentiment began to turn against the unfortunate Reginald.

(To Be Continued.)

GENERAL NEWS NOTES

Items of Interest Gathered from All

Col. and Mrs. Roosevelt are spending few days in Mississippi.

By order of the Austrian government, telegraphic and telephone communication with Switzerland has been Seventeen persons, including three vomen, have been shot at Liege, acording to a Rotterdam dispatch of Monday.

Capt. John J. Knapp has been appointed commandant of the League Island navy yard at Philadelphia, succeeding Rear Admiral Wm. S. Benson, now chief of naval operations, The nine deputy sheriffs convicted t New Brunswick, N. J., of manslaughter, the result of strike riots at Roosevelt in January, have been sentenced to terms of two to ten years in A railroad train arrived at Atlantic came to Bronson. He owes the Courier Publishing company a large sum City, N. J., from Philadelphia last of money and action will be brought Sunday night, having on board a dozen or more newly wedded couples. The public is warned against him as The train was dubbed the "Honeymoon Express." When Reginald Nelson had read these words he stopped and looked up Reginald marched Ned Rowlands to at the lawyer with blazing eyes. "Are an interview a few days ago, predict- President Wilson over the governthe door of his private office and push- you going to publish these calumnies ed that Pennsylvania would have a ment's policy toward Germany.

week." Mr. Graham was grinding his Treasury department officials are ooking for Knox Booth, internal moment astounded, and then his own Alabama district, who has disappearanger overcame him. He seized the Booth is wanted for revenue "form" in which the offensive article funds estimated to total $200,000. against himself was and swept it to The export trade of the United the floor, scattering the type in every States for the ten months ending April direction. "If you were a younger 30, totaled $2,225,823,986, as against man," he shouted to Mr. Graham, "I $2,045,774,285 for the same period of 1914, an increase of $180,049,501. Most of the gain is in foodstuffs.

Independent oil dealers in the wes once on the scene, and the lawyer are urging action against the Standard Oil company of Indiana, to require the alleged trust to raise the wholesale price of gasolene in western states above 81 cents a gallon wholesale.

The superdreadnaught Arizona, sister ship to the Pennsylvania, will be launched at the New York navy yard, Brooklyn, on June 19. The Arizona Reginald, restraining himself with drew his baton and as Reginald is the fourth of the modern battle ships built by the government in its own yards.

A Philadelphia report is to the ef fect that a large shipbuilding company is negotiating for the lease for a long period of the Cramp Shipyards "He of that city. It is understood that has the strength of an ox," said the Chas. M. Schwab is behind the moveone whom Reginald had flung against

The government's June 1st crop re port estimates the 1915 wheat yield in the United States at 950,000,000 bushels, which is about 59,000,000 oushels greater than the crop of

Spanish newspapers have been re juested by the government to refrain from discussions of military and naval affairs, as it was feared that controversies might arise which would inter

The new Cummins law went into was in a drunken stupor, as he did effect on June 2. This limits the value not know who the prisoner was nor of baggage to be checked by railroads for free transportation at 100 pounds Travelers will be required to pay 10 cents for each $100 in excess of the first $100 in value. A Marietta, Pa., correspondent sugand Gerza factions of Mexico get to- find ourselves differing irreconcilably gether and invite Col. Roosevelt to as to the methods which should be ledge to come to me at once," he rect as dictator of that republic until employed. order is restored and a president who In less than fifteen minutes Allan is strong enough to keep things going. Rutledge was sitting on the edge of the cot speaking soothingly to the in-

One hundred tons of leaves used in he manufacture of absinthe, the famous intoxicating liquor of France was publicly destroyed by the govern ment at Potarlier, France, Monday, in accordance with French legislation suppressing the manufacture of ab-cheese for export, many northern and western dairymen are turning their milk into cheese instead of butter, because they find the profits on cheese at present prices is two and a half times as great per gallon as it is when the milk is turned into butter.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels has appointed a naval court of inquiry to investigate charges of irregulations i onnection with examinations at the Annapolis academy just previous to the commencement exercises of last ed the wound on his head and shook week. Practically every cadet in the his head gravely. Reginald Nelson academy got "dope" on the examinagradually sank into a stupor, and in tion work and used his information in the final work before the close of the school year. Seven cadets are or trial charged with having secured advanced information. Three others have been dismissed.

The great armadillo possesses more

MR. BRYAN STEPS OUT. Secretary of State Unable to Agree

SPLIT ON PRESERVATION OF PEACE.

With President.

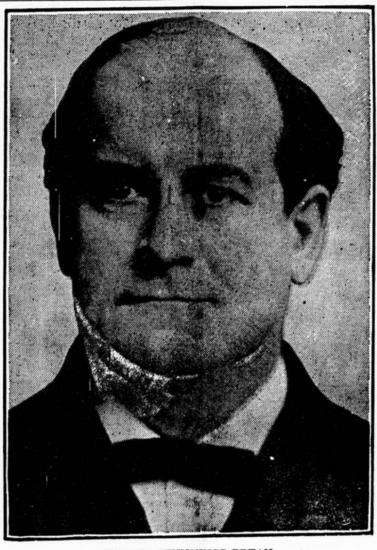

Dramatic Development in Cabinet last Tuesday-Note to Germany the Cause of Disagreement-Both President and Secretary Seek Peace, but yield to your desire only because President Insists on Protection of American Rights.

nings Bryan, three times Democratic we do not work in the same way. candidate for the presidency of the United States and author of nearly thirty peace treaties with the principal nations of the world, resigned today as secretary of state as a dram-advantage of every great opportunity ample to the rest of us; you have broke out there, and President Wilson and friendship. Even now we are not in my judgment, was eminently wise, separated in the object we seek, but and I think the same course should be only in the method by which we seek it. followed in regard to warning Ameri-

"It is for these reasons my feeling about your retirement from the secretaryship of state goes so much deeper than regret. I sincerely deplore it Our objects are the same, and we ought to pursue them together. must and wish to bid you Godspeed in the parting. We shall continue to Washington, June 8.- William Jen- work for the same cause even when "With affectionate regard,

> "Sincerely yours, "Woodrew Wilson." Mr. Bryan Makes Statement. Mr. Bryan on Wednesday gave out

WILLIAM JENNNINGS BRYAN.

"Yes, and a good deal more, sir. within two years and in a few years the president. The cabinet then ap- vate citizen, the means which the presprepared to the German reply to the ploy. I honor him for doing what he Lusitania note. Acting Secretary Rol revenue agent for the Tennessee and ert Lansing will sign the document, he desires, as I do, to find a peaceful and temorrow it will be cabled to solution of the problem which has

> Secretary Bryan will return to pri- marines. vate life tomorrow, when his resignation takes effect. It was learned that fer, each conscientious in conviction, support of the president.

Rather than sign the document which he believed might possibly volved is of such moment that to rebe as unfair to you as it would be to treaty to apply to disputes between the cause which is nearest my heart, the United States and the thirty counnamely the prevention of war.'

The president accepted the resignation in a letter of regret, tinged disputes of every character and nawith deep personal feeling of affecture. These treaties, negotiated under tion. The letter constituting the this administration, make war practiofficial announcement of Mr. Bryan's departure from the cabinet to private and these thirty governments reprelife, were made public at the White senting nearly three-fourths of all the House at 6 o'clock tonight. Secretary Bryan's letter of resignation was as follows: "My dear Mr. President:

"It is with sincere regret that honored me at the beginning of your administration. "Obedient to your sense of duty and actuated by the highest motives, you for investigation and report. nave prepared for transmission to the German government a note in which cannot join without violating what I deem to be an obligation to my coun-as it would be to the cause which is nearest my heart, namely, the preven tion of war. "I, therefore, respectfully tender my esignation, to take effect when the in my judgment, make the offer. ote is sent, unless you prefer an earlier hour. Alike desirous of reaching a peaceful solution of the problems arising out of the use of subgests that the Carranza, Villa, Zapata marines against merchantmen, we

"It falls to your lot to speak officially for the nation; I consider it to be none the less my duty to endeavor as a private citizen to promote the end which you have in view by means belligerent ships or with cargoes of which you do not feel at liberty to ammunition. "In severing the intimate and pleas permit me to acknowledge the profound satisfaction which it has given me to be associated with you in the important work which has come before the state department, and thank you for the courtesies extended. "With the heartiest good wishes for your personal welfare and for the suc- ger when avoidance is possible.

cess of your administration, I am, my "Very truly yours,

"W. J. Bryan." The president's letter to Mr. Bryan was as follows: 'My dear Mr. Bryan:

"I accept your resignation only be cause you insist upon its acceptance: and I accept it with much more than deep regret with a feeling of person- that in case of doubt it should give al sorrow. Our two years of close association have been very delightful to ment. practically every matter of official not legally prevent citizens from travposes of the administration has been generous and loyal beyond praise; themselves or the peace of their coungreat office and your eagerness to take warnings should be heeded.

Ex-Governor Hanley of Indiana, in atic sequel to his disagreement with the following statement to the public "My reason for resigning is clearly stated in my letter of resignation. in the Courier?" he demanded fiercely. state-wide local option liquor law The resignation was accepted by namely, that I may employ as a priroved the response which had been ident does not feel at liberty to embelieves to be right and I am sure that been created by the action of the sub-

> "Two of the points on which we difhe intends to continue his political are, first, as to the suggestion of investigation by an international commission, and, second, as to warning at $48,087 and his assets at $50. draw the United States into war, Mr. erent vessels or with cargoes of am-Bryan submitted his resignation in a munition. I believe that this nation letter declaring that "the issue in- should frankly state to Germany that main a member of the cabinet would the principle which we are bound by tries with which we have made treaties providing for investigation of all cally impossible between this country people of the world.

"Among the nations with which we have these treaties, are Great Britain, France and Russia. No matter what I disputes may arise between us and have reached the conclusion that I these treaty nations, we agree that should return to you the commission there shall be no declaration of war of secretary of state with which you and no commencement of hostilities until the matter in dispute has been investigated by an international commission and a year's time is allowed

"This plan was offered to all the nations without any exceptions whatever, and Germany was one of the nations that accepted the principle, betry and the issue involved is of such ing the twelfth, I think, to accept. No noment that to remain a member of treaty was actually entered into with the cabinet would be as unfair to you Germany, but I cannot see that that should stand in the way when both nations endorsed the principle. I do not know whether Germany would ac-

"Such an offer, if accepted, would at once relieve the tension and silence all the jingoes who are demanding war. Germany has always been a our people are of German ancestry. Why should we not deal with Germany according to the plan to which day to consider the matter of amendthe nation has pledged its support?

"The second point of difference is as o the course which should be pursued in regard to Americans traveling on

"Why should an American citizen be permitted to involve his country in war by traveling upon a belligerent ship when he knows that the ship will pass through a danger zone? The question is not whether an American the question is whether he ought not. out of consideration for his country, if not for his own safety, avoid dan-

"It is a very one-sided citizenship that compels a government to go to war over a citizen's rights and yet relieve the citizen of all obligations to consider his nation's welfare. I do not know just how far the president can legally go in actually preventing Americans from traveling on belliglocated in South Carolina." erent ships, but I believe the government should go as far as it can and the benefit of the doubt to the govern-"But even if the government could eling on belligerent ships, it could, and in my judgment should, earnestly advise American citizens not to risk $15,000, with no insurance.

Harry Mims, aged 17, and Evelina employed.

"President Taft advised Americans | Mims, aged 15, were drowned in a mill for service it offered has been an ex- to leave Mexico when insurrection pond on the outskirts of Saluda Tuesearned our affectionate admiration has repeated the advice. This advice, they were rowing capsized. The youth News Happenings in Neighboring cans to keep off vessels subject to at-"I think, too, that American passen-> carrying ammunition. The lives of passengers ought not to be endangered by cargoes of ammunition whether that danger comes from possible explosions or from possible attacks from without. Passengers and ammunition should not travel together. The at- Jr., D. A. Brockinton, W. L. Cary, W. tempt to prevent American citizens K. Charles, H. R. Darby, J. G. Dink- He will be missed in his community, from incurring these risks is entirely ins, O. H. Doyle, J. B. Duffle, R. W. for he was a man of sterling qualities, consistent with the effort which our Fant, J. D. Griffith, W. G. Hartz, W. upright, honest and generous to a government is making to prevent at- H. Johnson, P. F. LaBorde, T. E. La- fault. He was one of the founders of acks from submarines. "The use of one remedy does not M. R. McCown, J. S. McInness, R. R. Methodist church in his early manhood exclude the use of the other. The McCleod, J. D. E. Myer, Jr., S. N. Nich- and had been a steward for the past most familiar illustration is to be olson, E. P. Passailaigue, M. R. Reese, forty years. He celebrated his last found in the action taken by municipal R. Schwartz, W. E. Shuler, John E. birthday on the 19th of the past April. authorities during a riot. It is the Steadman, Jr., T. M. Stevenson, A. B. He was a son of the late Joseph duty of the mayor to suppress the mob Stoney, W. R. Symmes, L. C. Wan- Starnes of Union county, N. C., where and to prevent violence, but he does namaker, G. W. Waring, C. M. Web- he was born, but had lived the greater > not hesitate to warn citizens to keep ster, D. B. Wood. off the streets during the riots. He does not question their right to use says a Vienna, Italy dispatch of Mon- Plyler was the scene of a quiet but the streets, but for their own protection and in the interest of order, he of espoinage. They were well known evening, when their youngest daughwarns them not to incur the risks in- in America where the duke often lec- ter, Miss Pearl Plyler, was married to volved in going upon the streets when tured. The duchess was Miss Perry, Mr. J. Wesley Evans.....R. S. Stewmen are shooting at each other. "The president does not feel justi- one of the aerial bombardments of est Moore under habeas corpus and fied in taking the action above sug- Venice the duke and duchess had re- made application for bail for Jake gested: That is, he does not feel justified, first, in suggesting the submission of the controversy to investigation or second, in warning the people not the duke or duchess or a servant for- 31, ultimo. Bail was granted in the to incur the extra hazards in travel- got to close the shutters. The light sum of $1,500....Mr. R. B. Mackey, ing on belligerent ships or on ships was taken by the police as a signal to who has been undergoing treatment at carrying ammunition. And he may be the Austrians. Up went half a dozen the Johns Hopskins hospital for sevright in the position he has taken, but policemen to arrest the duchess and eral months past, has returned to Lanas a private citizen, I am free to urge duke. The policemen would not al- caster.

HAPPENINGS IN THE STATE

favor them."

tems of Interest From All Sections of The city of Columbia on Tuesday, by a vote of 75 to 1, adopted the compulsory education law. The school district in which city of Florence is located has adopted the compulsory education law.

Miss Lillian Snelgrove of Anderson, has been elected professor of domestic science at Winthrop college. Governor Manning has appointed J W. McCormick of Columbia, a member of the state board of embalmers. C. L. Wilson and John Marshall have been appointed members of the Charleston county dispensary board. Trustees of the South Carolina University have elected Prof. James B. Coleman to the chair of mathematics to succeed F. H. Colcock, resigned.

G. V. Peyton, a railroad employe of Columbia, has entered a petition in bankruptcy. His liabilities are listed By a vote of 78 to 3, the citizens of Sumter on Tuesday decided to issue tution of the United States "to pro-$50,000 bonds for the purpose of vide for the calling forth of the militia building a modern girls' school build-

W. P. G. Harding, chairman of the Federal reserve board, has declined an invitation to address the South Carolina Press association when it meets at Chick Springs, June 28, 29 and 30. The University of South Carolina has conferred the degree of doctor of laws upon Chief Justice E. B. Gary of the supreme court, and Prof. A. G. Rembert of Wofford college.

Former women students at the University of South Carolina have organized an alumnae association, with Mrs. Lueco Gunter of Columbia, Thirty-eight young men have received certificates certifying that they have successfully completed the oneyear agricultural course at Clemson college during the year 1914-15.

Negro ministers of Columbia have issued a call to negro ministers all over the state to meet in Columbia next Tuesday, when a movement in the interest of prohibition will be

The 110th year of the University of South Carolina came to a close Wednesday with commencement exercises, including an address by Governor Manning. Many visitors attended the commencement.

A coroner's jury in Spartanburg Tuesday, held George Lawter of Chesnee, responsible for the death of E. C. Malone, a young farmer, who died from the effects of a blow on the friendly nation and a great many of head, administered by Lawter on the previous Saturday.

At an election held in Gaffney Tuesing the law so as to put the board of public works under the control of the town council, the proposed amendment was defeated by a vote of 420 to 52. T. W. Little was re-elected a member of the board of public works.

C. K. Chrietzeberg of Rock Hill, has been appointed fiscal agent for the state board of charities and corrections. The duties of the fiscal agent will be to examine the financial status of patients who are undergoing treatment in the state hospital for the insane and to require patients who are able to do so, to pay for their treatment at the hospital.

There were no bidders when the property of the Enoree Manufacturing company was offered for sale in Spartanburg Monday under the terms of the court's recent order. The terms were "No bid for less than $350,000 will be considered and each bidder must first deposit $5,000 in cash or in a check properly certified by a bank J F Jackson, white, and John

Pringle, a negro, have been arrested at Coosahatchie, Jasper county, charged with burning the store of R. W. Robert & Son. The men entered the and when they discovered that there was only $2 in the cash drawer, became so enraged that they fired the building. The loss is estimated at about day afternoon, when a boat in which had already saved one girl who was in the boat with his sister and himself, and it was while swimming back for his sister that his strength became exhausted and he sank together with his sister. The accident occurred at a ger ships should be prohibited from mill pond in about ten feet of water. The following young men, graduates of the law school of the University of South Carolina, were admitted to the bar by the supreme court of Starnes of the Zion section of the the state on Tuesday: G. A. Alderman, E. C. Barnard, L. C. Braddy, both of these propositions and to call low the maid in the room but helped public attention to these remedies in the ducial pair to put on their clothes. the hope of securing such an expression of public sentiment as will support the president in employing these remedies if, in the future, he finds it consistent with his sense of duty to taken away without her hair. A po- 36 years. She is survived by one sislowed to go on bail.

by the Federal government for foreign question has been asked many times military strength of the state i now about 2,000 men and officers of all rank. J. S. Caldwell, assistant adjutant general, has been studying the question of the right of the president to call the National Guard for service in a foreign country. Maj. furtherance of its provisions. Congress has the power under the constito execute the laws of the Union, suppress insurrections and rebel invasion." A former attorney general of the United States and the judge advocate general of the United States army have already decided that under the constitution the militia cannot be sent out of the territorial limits of the United States.

ODDS AND ENDS

Come Things You now and Some Y Don't Know. Russia exports 430,000,000 eggs a nually. The giraffe has a tongue about 18 inches long. In Spain the sovereign comes of age at sixteen.

Napoleon called Constantinople "th key of the world."

Bachelors were taxed in England the seventeenth century.

Diamonds have been discovered fallen meteors.

letters "U. S." in monogram. The cabmen of Paris are forbidden

The dollar sign was derived from th

to smoke pipes while driving a "fare made waterproof by coating both sides very delicately with gutta-percha solu

The Pennsylvania Railroad company employes over 225,000 men, and carries annually over 185,000,000 pas-

The longest railway tunnel in Eng-and is the Severn, on the Great Wesards in length. The Ginelle lock on the Seine is so shut it by simply touching an electric button as he sits in his office. Almanacs are in existence that vere compiled in the fourteenth century, but they are only in manuscript; the first printed almanac was issued constructed that one man can open or about the year 1475. A French doctor, who has investi rated the matter, states that men employed in the Paris sewers are as healthy as the average person, and no Thirty negroes were arrested populations are, in the order named China, India, Russia, the United Kingdom, France, Italy and Austria. The lands most free from earth

The ten countries with the largest quake convulsions are Africa, Ausand Canada. The number of workmen killed in the quarries and metal and coal mines of this country in 1912 was 3.237.

TERMS----$2.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

SINGLE COPY, FIVE CENTS.

Communities.

CONDENSED FOR QUICK READING

Dealing Mainly With Local Affairs of Cherokee, Cleveland, Gaston, Lancaster and Chester.

Lancaster News, June 8: Mr. C. S.

county, died at his home after a short illness, yesterday morning at 10.30 o'clock, in the 88th year of his age. Grone, M. M. Levy, M. C. Lumpkin, Zion church. He united with the part of his life in Lancaster county.... The duke and duchess of Litta, The home of Capt. and Mrs. W. B. day, have been arrested on a charge interesting wedding last Wednesday of Charleston, S. C. On the night of art, Esq., appeared before Judge Erntired. It is a strict rule in Venice that Gregory, colored, who shot and killed one must not burn lights with the Stanley Collins, also colored, on Mr. windows or shutters open and either M. A. Blackmon's place, Monday, May Gastonia Gazette, June 8: Mrs. Ola They were carried off to the central Victoria Taylor died at the home of police station, where they had to her brother, Mr. Henry Childers, on spend the rest of the night. The Columbia street, yesterday after a linduchess complained she had been gering illness of nearly a year, aged iceman was sent to fetch it and it was ter, Mrs. Henry Hellman of Gastonia, used as evidence against her as extra and three brothers, Mr. Henry Chilproof that she was an Austrian spy ders of Gastonia, Messrs. Luther and in disguise. When the ducial pair Will Childers of Kannapolis. Funeral had sent for influential Venetians, who services were held at the home this swore to their identity, they were al- morning at 11 o'clock by Rev. W. C. Barrett, pastor of the First Baptist "Could the National Guard be called church, of which deceased had been a member since childhood, and the body service in the event of war?" This was taken through the country to Mountain Island for burial..... Gasby citizens since the beginning of the tonia is getting what few towns in this strained relations between the United section can boast of—the daily scores States and Germany, says a Columbia of the big ball games in the National, dispatch. Military experts have fig- American and Federal leagues by ured that in the event President Wil- wireless every evening from the Arson called for a voluntary army of lington station at Washington. Mr. 400,000 men, South Carolina's allot- Kenneth Babington and his wireless ment would be approximately 6,000. outfit are responsible for this up-tosport lovers Jasper Ratchford of Dallas, and Miss Ida Clemmer of Gastonia, route four, were united in marriage by Rev. J. H. Henderlite at his residence in Gastonia on Wednesday, June 2. at 7.50 p. m...... Mrs. Nan-Caldwell says that the president's au- cy E. Rudicill, wife of Mr. A. P. Rudithority over the National Guard was sill, died last Friday afternoon in derived from the constitution and Charlotte at the Presbyterian hospital, from the legislation of congress in the following an operation for appendicitis performed on the Wednesday prerecently accepted the pastorate of a group of Presbyterian churches in the orthern part of Gaston county, including Unity, Castanea and Macpelah congregations, was a visitor in the city Saturday and paid the Gazette office a pleasant call. Mr. Ray's family is living at Spartanburg, S. C., at the present, but he expects to move to his new work in the near future.

> Gaffney Ledger, une 8: Mr. D. Smyth of Anniston, Ala., spent Saturday in the city visiting his brotner, Mr. Maynard Smith. He was en route to his home from Richmond, Va., where he had attended the reunion of ty chaingang is now camped on Provwhere it will be engaged this month in erecting a steel bridge over the stream. This has been a very uncommaterial improvement. When this is bridges erected within the past few months in Cherokee county.....Mr. Smith Lipscomb of Bonham, Texas, has been spending a few days in the city visiting relatives and friends. He was en route to his home from Richmond, Va., where he attended the reunion of Confederate veterans

Mr. Lipscomb was born and Texas some twenty-five or thirty years here by his many friends and relativesThe six-months-old baby girl of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Turner died Fri-The remains were buried afternoon at Oakland cemetery.... her home in this city Saturday. She was 75 years of age and is survived by the following children: Rev. W. E., J. E. and W. W. Crocker, Mrs. F. E. Shuford, Mrs. R. L. Humphries and Miss Ida Crocker.....Virginia, the 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Waters, of this city, died betes was the cause of her death. The funeral services were conducted at the Limestone Street Methodist church on tern railway, which is four miles, 636 Saturday afternoon by Rev. J. W.

Chester Reporter, June 7: Mrs. Su-san Crosby Estes, widow of the late L. A. C. Estes, died at her home at Halyear of her age. She was born August 1. 1829. Reared in a Christian home character and intelligence matured into a womanhood that all delighted has been a student at Clemson college during the past session, will leave in a few days for Kansas City, Mo., to work in the western wheat fields.... Mrs. M. E. W. McAfee, of R. F. D. 2, a party from that city who will visit the California expositions and other oints of interest in the west. other eight hundred men in that city police Saturday and yesterday on the charge of selling or storing whisky and gambling, and the scene around the city hall this morning when the colored picnic or some other kind of gathering, except that the expression on the faces of most of the crowd was a little more lugubrious than is generrospect of watermelon and fried ralia, Siberia, Scandanavia, Russia a colored detective were enlisted in the work and this detective it seems set up a restaurant and became very tion that is supposed to indulge in the marks not complimentary by a whole which averaged 3.22 for each 1,000 lot when they learned that this new-