YORK, S. C., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1915

NO. 80.

ILLUSTRATIONS & CDRHODES CHAPTER XXIX. you owe me something. You probably ness of a good woman. You believe-you have always believed—that I am are to yours, as you shall see if the day ever comes when I shall be convinced that I did wrong. But that is neither here nor there. You sent for me; what is it that you want me to

"I want to give you one more chance to disappoint the Walaska gossips,

she replied, entirely unmoved, as it seemed, by his harsh arraignment

"Do you know why this man Broffin

"I can guess. He is taking a long

"Not altogether. Three days ago, chance on the chapter of accidents."

Mr. Gailbraith had Miss Grierson telegraph to New Orleans for some one of that the man who is coming is the teller who waited on me and who gave you the money. As soon as I heard

Griswold did not tell her that the

"You are no longer safe in Wahas ka," she asserted. "The teller can give him the opportunity. That is train west at ten o'clock. If you need Griswold laughed. It had gone beyond the tragic and was fast lasping

"We are each of us appearing in a

you know, is tied up in Raymer's busi-

"I have thought of that," she returned calmly, "and that is another reason why you shouldn't let them take you. Right or wrong, you have incurred a fresh responsibility in your dealings with Mr. Raymer; and Edward, who is perfectly innocent, must

It was not in human nature to re

"I have told Raymer how he can most successfully underwrite his financial risk," he said, with malice inten-ward Raymer, I shall never forgive you as long as I live! It is your affair to secure Edward against loss in

"Mr. Galbraith?"

Griswold shook his head.

me the poorer by a thing that-"

sist the temptation to strike back.

"By marrying Miss Grierson."

at last.

be protected in some way."

ready money-"

into comedy, farce.

doubtless what he is waiting for."

danger she feared was a danger past.

that, I began to try to find you."

"Go on," he prompted.

is still waiting?"

Dust and Ashes.

A full moon, blood-red from the smoke of forest fires far to the eastward, was rising over the Wahaska hills when Griswold unlatched the gate of the Farnham inclosure and passed quickly up the walk.

Since the summoning note had stressed the urgencies, he was not surprised to find the writer of it awaiting his coming on the vine-shadowed porch. 'In his welcoming there was a curious mingling of constraint and impatience, and he was moved to marvel. Miss Farnham's outlook upon life, the point of view of the ideally well ballanced, was uniformly poiseful and self-contained, and he was wondering if some fresh entanglement were threatening when she motioned him to a seat and placed her own chair so that the light from the sitting room windows would leave her in the shadow.

"You had my note?" she began. "Yes. It came while I was away from the hotel, and the regular trip of the inn brake was the first conveyance I could catch. Am I late?" Her reply was qualified. "That remains to be seen." There was a hesitant pause, and then she went on: "Do you know why I sent for you to come?"

"No. not definitely." "I was hoping you would know; it would make it easier for me. You owe me something, Mr. Griswold."

"I owe you a great deal," he admitted, warmly. "It is hardly putting it too strongly to say that you have made some part of my work possible which would otherwise have been impos-

"I didn't mean that." she dissented with a touch of cold scorn. "I have no especial ambition to figure as a character, however admirable, in a book. Your obligation doesn't lie in the literary field; it is real-and personal. You have done me a great injustice, and it seems to have been carefully premeditated."

"An injustice-to you?" he protest ed; but she would not let him go on "Yes. At first I thought it was only a coincidence-your coming to Wahaska-but now I know better. You came here, in goodness knows what spirit of reckless bravado, because it was my home; and you made the decision apparently without any consideration for me; without any thought of the embarrassments and Truly, the heavens had fallen and the solid earth was reeling! Griswold lay back in the deep lounging chair and fought manfully to retain some little hold upon the anchorings. Could this be his ideal; the woman whom he had set so high above all others in the scale of heroic faultlessness and sublime devotion to principle? And she was so much a slave of the concoldly that she had recognized him again, and that her chief concern was the embarrassment it was causing her? Before he could gather the words for could to make the involvement com-You have made friends of my ward Raymer into the entanglement and helped him with the stolen money In every way you have sought to make it more and more impossible for me to have succeeded. I can't do it now, without facing a scandal that would never die in a small place like this, and without bringing trouble and ruin upon a family of our nearest friends. And that is why I sent for you today; and why I say you owe me something."

any adequate rejoinder, she was going

Griswold was sitting up again, and he had recovered some small measure feet rather unsteadily. "I certainly owe you many apologies at least," he said, ironically. "I have really been doing you a great injustice. Miss Farnham-a very grave in justice, though not exactly of the kind you mention. I think I have been misapprehending you from the beginning. How long have you known me as the man who is wanted in New Orleans?" ible that the man I had spoken to on the Belle Julie would come here and

"Good heavens!" he broke out: "is your position all you have been thinking of? Is that the only reason why put me in such a false position."

tried in every way to warn you, even to pointing out the man who is shadowing you. To do it, I have had to deceive my father. I have been hoping that you would understand and go

"Let me get it straight! you still beinal thing?"

placid impatience. "Once I thought you had justifled yourself to yourself. but now-"

"That isn't the point," he interrupted lived up to it. Since you haven't, you text for endless denunciation of the roughly. "What I want to know is have wronged yourself and have made people of Charleston, much of which

"Stop!" she cried, standing up to grand jury should do something toface him. "Do you mean to tell me ward counteracting these outpourings, Again he sat back and took time to that you are ungrateful enough to-" but, far more important, it should gather up a few of the scattered shreads and fragments. When he spoke word. I'm just sorry; with the sor- of respect for the law for its own sake arywhere else. Boston, you know, is it was to say: "I think the debt is on row you have when you look for some- among the people the other side, Miss Charlotte; I think thing that you have a right to expect, Charleston Post.

and find that it isn't there; that it has never been there; that it isn't anywhere. You have hurt me, and you have hurt yourself; but there is still a chance for you. When I am gone, go to the telephone and call Broffin at the Winnebago house. You can tell him that he will find me at my rooms. Good-by."

He was half way to the foot of Lakeview avenue, striding along moodily with his head down and his hands benind him, when he collided violently with Raymer going in the opposite direction. The shock was so unexpected that Griswold would have been knocked down if the muscular young ron founder had not caught him promptly. At this saving instant came mutual recognition.

won't understand when I say that you "Hello, there!" said Raymer, "You have robbed me of a very precious are the very man I've been looking for, house Commissioner John L. McLau thing-my faith in the ultimate good-Charlotte wants to see you." "Not now she doesn't," was the rather grim contradiction. "I have just criminal; and yet you have been weak enough to let expediency seal your left her." lips. I am truer to my code than you There was a pause, and then Griswold cut in morosely:

"So you did take my way out of the labor trouble, after all, didn't you?" Raymer looked away. "I don't know just how you'd like to have me answer that, Kenneth. How much or how little do you know of what happened?" "Nothing at all," shortly. "Well, it was Margery who wrought the miracle of course. I don't know, yet, just how she did it, but it was done, and done right." "And you have asked her to marry

"Suffering Scott! how you do come the bank officials. Yesterday I learned at a man! Yes, I asked her, if you've got to know.'

> "Well?" snapped Griswold. "She-she turned me down, Kenneth; got up and walked all over me. That's a horrible thing to make me say, but it's the truth." "I don't understand it, Raymer. Was it the No that means No?' "I don't understand it, either," returned the iron founder, with gra-e identify you, and the detective will "And you would suggest that I make I was looking for you and she gave a run for it? Is that why you sent for me a note—let me see, I've got it here omewhere; oh, yes, here it is-gilt monogram and all." "It is. You are tempting fate by Griswold took the note and pocketed staying; and, notwithstanding what you have said, I still insist that you it without comment and without lookowe me something. There is a fast ing at it. "Were you going to Doctor Ber> tie's?" he asked. "I was. Have you any objection?" "Not the least in the world. It's a good place for you to go just now, and I guess you are the right man new role tonight, Miss Farnham," he for the place. Good-night." said, with sardonic humor; "I as the At the next corner where there was calmly driven home that Griswold hunted criminal, and you as the equally culpable accessory after the fact. the—the 'swag,' the bulk of which, as perfumed note paper upon which, without date, address or signature was written the line:

"Mr. Galbraith is better-and he is grateful."

(To be Continued.) EDITORIAL VIEWPOINT

What Various South Carolina News-Papers Think of Various Things. Some of the Greek reservists in America are so reserved that they don't care to thrust themselves forward for an enlistment in the army of the home land.-Greenville Piedmont.

Owe Debt of Gratituce. He had touched the springs of anger Russians a lasting debt of gratitude for keeping the Germans off 'em for then: "If you have said that to Ed-

A Prophecy.

Again Griswold gave place to the caustic humor and finished for her. -"And, though it is stolen money. it must be taken away from him. Once, when I was even more foolish Better Use a Little Fertilizer. Some of the farmers of the township than I am now, I said of you that you would be a fighting heroine in a story in which the hero should be a man who might need to borrow a conscience. It's quite the other way around." man who next year attempts to raise s "We needn't quarrel," she said, re treating again behind the barrier of cotton without any fertilizer is going er had not been raised, that as a matcold reserve. "I suppose I have given to come out "the little end of the horn." -Fort Mill Times. you the right to say disagreeable things to me, if you choose to assert Buy American Securities. it. But we are wasting time which may be very precious. Will you go away, as I have suggested?"

Why the money lenders of this country should fall over themselves to in a few years it would be gradually He found his hat and got upon his will yield at most or.ly five and a half "I don't know; possibly I shall. But in any event, you needn't borrow any there are almost unlimited opportunities for safe investment of money at higher rates. The war bonds may be chance, I met Johnson, the teller you speak of, a few minutes ago at the Winnebago house and was introduced to him. He didn't know me, then, or when money is put into municipal, later, when Broffin was telling him county or state bonds or in real estate was governor. loans, and the half billion of American that he ought to know me. Hence, money that will go into the war bonds the matter rests as it did before-between you and Mr. Galbraith." invested in American securities.- lieved to be untrue. Sumter Item. "Yes. That was a danger past, too, a short time ago. I met him, socially, Called to Trial. and he didn't recognize me. After The grand jury of Charleston has ward, Broffin pointed me out to him. ade a good beginning of the assertion and again he failed to identify me. But the other day, after I had pulled him Twenty-three true bills brought in out of the lake, he remembered. I've yesterday are the first indictments been waiting to see what he will do." that have held against alleged blind "He will do nothing. You saved his anding evidences let us hope the heinning of a better sense of responsi-"I am still man enough to hope tha he won't let the bit of personal serowever unpopular it may be esteemed vice make him compound a felony." "Why do you call it that?" she dehas been not so much as an attempt to bring supposed violators of the liagain," she returned, with a sort of and it is what you are doing, Miss deavor to make trial of alleged illegal Farnham. I, the criminal, say this to sellers resulted in a wholesale rejection that there might be some way in which you. You should have given me up of indictments made by the solicitor. the moment you recognized me. That The attitude of the county authorities is your creed, and you should have toward this situation has furnished has been merited. This action of the POLITICS AT GREENVILLE Great Gathering at Barbecue and Picnic.

FORMER GOV. BLEASE THE SPEAKER.

Announces His Candidacy for Next Year, on Local Option Platform-Denounces Tax Commission, Defends His Pardon Record and Reiterates His Views as to the Lynching Question.

There was a big political rally in Greenville last Saturday, gotten up through the efforts of Sheriff Rector and others, with the promise of a pic-nic and barbecue, and speeches by Governor Cole L. Blease and Ware house Commissioner John L. McLau-rin as attractions. The crowd in at-tendance is variously estimated at from 1,500 to 3,000. Mr. McLaurin was unable to be present and sent a letter explaining the press of busi-ness that could not be deferred. Governor Blease, however, was on hand, and he made a spirited speech that aroused the enthusiasm of the audience to high pitches, evidenced by audience to high pitches, evidenced by frequent applause. Sheriff Rector presided Juring the day. In calling the crowd to order he said he was not a "Bleasite," but was a citizen of Greenville county who was entitled to vote as he pleased, for Blease or anybody else. He wanted it distinctly understood that while the gathering had been advertised as a barbecue and picnic, no one connected with the promotion of the occasion had ever thought of it as other than a political barbecue and picnic, so there need be no misunderstanding along that line. Sheriff Rector said: "There is no need for me to tell you anything about the man who is going to address you for you know him better than I do." The following report of Governor

Blease's speech is from the Greenville News of Sunday: When the sheriff ceased speaking, Governor Blease came forward and vas greeted with hearty applause. howing that the crowd was purely Blease" gathering. In his opening remarks the speak-er referred to the fact that Sheriff Rector is the candidate for sheriff of Greenville county. He referred to Sheriff Rector as the "most persecuted public official I ever heard of in South Carolina." He said that while naivete. "And, yes, I guess she meant he was governor he was attacked it. But that reminds me. She knew enough, but that he was never attacked from behind and his life put in danger, like the sheriff. He thought that the only thing that would defeat Rector for sheriff would be "Rector

> Governor Blease spoke for almost an hour, giving his platform, or rather views, upon a number of the leading issues, stating that he never dodged n issue and never would.

> "I desire to announce right now," said the speaker, after concluding his remarks regarding the sheriff, "that if I live, I expect to be in the race for governor of South Carolina in the next I am-a-goin' to run!" he ampaign. concluded and there was considerable heering.

He stated that he didn't particularly care about being governor but that so many of his friends throughout the opened the monogrammed envelope, state had been so insistent in their deagain for two years."

the only man "among our folks," upon whom all factions can center. price of cotton and told his hearers not to believe that any one man was responsible for the high price of cotton, but that it was merely the law of supply and demand and that cotton vas going still higher. He spoke for warehouse bill, stating that he had called the legislature together for the purpose and that he was responsible for this bill, which he declared the opto. He called attention to the low price of money and stated that this was true because Senator McLaurin had gone north and the big banks

The English and French owe the money on cotton. They advised him they would supply, upon cotton waret last.

"That woman!" she broke out. And the past six months.—Edgefield Ad- Mr. McLaurin had decided to let the local banks loan the money, if they would do it cheap enough, otherwise he would follow their suggestions. We predict that the European war or would have saved, or rather which the money matter-your own individ- well end next May. Not that we have was going to be saved, as a result of ual responsibility, Mr. Griswold. He any special reason for selecting this message to the legislature regardual responsibility, Mr. Griswold. He any special reason for selecting this accepted the money in good faith, time, but just think if it should happen was nothing but a theft of the people's to stop in that month, wouldn't we money, in that the printer charged the have a dandy rep for being some swell state for printing the various acts of the legislature three times when as a News and matter of fact the type was kept standing and was not reset, as the charges would indicate.

the matter of taxation the speaker declared that the present tax com-Some of the farmers of the township mission was not treating the corpora-have this year grown fairly good crops tions right. "I am not any champion to $1,500, effective October 1st, forced without the use of fertilizer, doubtless of the corporations," said the speaker but they are entitled to a due to the fact that last year the amount put to the acre was heavier hands of the tax commission." He than usual. It is our opinion that the spoke of the "old soldiers" assessment, ter of fact the tax was one mill higher, automobile contained ten children remade to take care of the old soldiers last time in the regular assessment. been placed upon the corporations that buy Anglo-French war bonds that taken off and "Mr. Farmer" will have more to pay. In the matter of paying taxes per cent is inexplicable to people in stated that the corporation does not this section of the country, where pay a cent of tax as a matter of fact, but that the laboring class paid all the cut wages, was his statement, and the same he charged holds good with other corporations. He ended the tax discussion by saying that the tax comnission was the "greatest curse South Carolina has had since Frank Moses

> The speaker stated that he had an pology to make to Lewis W. Parker, f whom he made a statement in the "I think it's the duty of every man to make amends when he finds he has made a mistake," said the speaker, and while at that time I believed that what I was saying was true, I now pelieve this to be untrue for the senate. I do not now think so though I do think that he contributed in 1912 against me. I was honestly mistaken and I made the statement in tigers in a very long time, and their a public way; hence I am going to

Parker, and not make a private one, bility for the enforcement of the law, public and not private, for as a mat-He spoke of the ' had been charged to his administranow than when he was governor though as a matter of fact no adminawlessness.

> went into office, 14 white women have een assaulted, when there was but 2 vhile I was governor. One of criminals was electrocuted, the other "That's the cure, and I say to you be sure he is the right man, and then hang him as quick as you can.

"Oh! They told you that I wouldn't speak in Roston about this matter like says a man who does this must die—well, if you hang him to a limb he dies, don't he? You are obeying the law, not violating it, therefore."

He spoke of the pardons he issued while governor, some 1,700 in number and quoted the fact that his method was a success by the fact that not a one of them had been caught and sent back to the penigentiary.

TOLD BY LOCAL EXCHANGES taught by Miss Mae Morris of the India Hook section of the county.....

B. F. Massey, Jr., a former Fort Mill druggist, left Tuesday evening for Tampa, Fla., where he is to again engage in the drug business. Mrs. Massey and little daughter will join Mr. Massey in the Florida section within back to the penitentiary.

"What's the use of sending a youth to the penitentiary for life, he said when, while tanked up on mean whis ky, he does some act of which he is not conscious. The man who sold him the whisky ought to go along to the state of South Carolina, that one is to He charged that whisky is drunk the fashionable clubs of Columbia. He quoted a number of newspape articles of papers of this state, re garding the cheapness of human life in the mind of the average person of by the state. He did not lay any of the stating that no one man could be held responsible; however that "when any one was lynched while I was governor Blease lynched him; now its different they didn't lynch that fellow at Elloree, they 'merely shot him to death.'

He took up the prohibition question stating that he was forever opposed to the open saloon, with the "pool room attachment and the indecent pictures, the music boxes and the social drink, which ruined the young men of the He declared that he favored local > to but make the rules stringent. In referring to his resignation as ever would.

>
> He spoke of his various work in the time he took up the dispensary ques-"Somebody has been making money and the same thing would have occurout of the dispensaries," he said, "somebody has been getting rebates. Anyone who would make a statement the remark.' He charged that the whisky was adulterated and that this was where one of the dispensaries.

He referred with pride, he said, to the fact that in the recent prohibition election, counties that went for him in other years were the counties voting for prohibition. He mentioned the names of Aiken and Anderson coun-

He stated that he believed in loca option and stated that the people of Greenville county should have voted pon the road bond issue. He declared that if Charleston wanted a dispensary they ought to be allowed to have it, that laws could not change the sentiment of people.

"You can't legislate morality into people," he declared. At this time he paid his respects to the ministers, stating:

clared the speaker. In closing, the former governor stead's departure.....While practic-promised his hearers that in 1917, ing with the other boys of the high month, he would be glad to welcome school football team Wednesday afhis old friends back to the governor mansion and "eat some more of that old ple."

was heartily applauded, time after time during the speech and at Medical aid was summoned, and the the conclusion. He promised to return when the campaign opened and talk more upon his platform, outlining the issues as he saw them that as usual next day Rev. and Mrs might be uppermost at that time.

The day proved a great succession. The day proved a great success, there being but little disorder and those who attended seemed to have nesday, they stopped in Columbia enjoyed the entire day to the fullest. GENERAL NEWS NOTES

Items of Interest Gathered from All Around the World. Sir Charles C. Wakefield has been elected lord mayor of London. A slight earthquake shook the coast section of California Friday. More than 30 persons were killed Muembswyl, Switzerland, Thursday. Four hundred others narrowly escaped fire following the dust explosion. The widow of the late Senator Nelson W. Aldrich of Rhode Island, has rented a furnished home in New York for the winter and is to pay a rental of $330 per day.

The increase of the retail liquor license in New York state from $1,200 nearly 600 saloons in New York and Brooklyn to retire from business. One man and four children were killed and two fatally injured when a train struck an automobile at a grade crossing near Leola, Pa., Friday. The turning from school. Two New York gunmen broke the Baltimore and New York On plate glass show window of a Philadelphia jeweler Friday, and gathering of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reece was the a tray of diamonds valued at $5,000, made away with it. One of the thieves Mr. Reece's niece, Miss Alice Lorena McKennen, became the bride of Mr. was captured and the diamonds recov-

By a decision of the Federal district court in Philadelphia, the "Motion Picture Trust" is to be dissolved. Twelve motion picture corporations are affected by the decision and some the decision. A Stockholm, Sweden, dispatch says that a terrific explosion occurred over the remains of Mr. D. L. John would do this country more good if 1914 campaign and which he now be- in a German munitions factory at Witterberg, Prussia, on August 23, in which 242 workmen were killed and many injured. The Keystone Watch Case company of Philadelphia, has been given a contract to furnish brass parts of the tributed $10,000 in 1914 to defeat me fuse mechanism of shrapnel shells for England. The contract totals about

> Sir. A. Conan Doyle, the English author, says, in an article in the current issue of Collier's Weekly, that he hears the roar of the guns in Flanders while at his home in southern England, a distance of 120 m'les.

$4,000,000.

been returned to the state of Virginia by J. P. Morgan. The will was owned by the elder Morgan and the state of Virginia had begun suit to recover the ted I haven't a doubt but that it will paper, alleging that it has been stolen. Fairfax Harrison, president of the Southern railway was the mediator between Mr. Morgan and Governor Stuart of Virginia. Six middles have been expelled from the Annapolis Naval academy, following the charges of cribbing. Fifteen men were put back a year. Include in the latter number were F. W. Ben

CONDENSED FOR QUICK READING Dealing Mainly With Local Affairs of Cherokee, Cleveland, Gaston, Lancaster and Chester.

Chester Reporter, Sept. 30: Mr.

death of her brother, Mr. J. R. Alex- and Mrs. J. H. McMurray, from which ander, returned to Greenwood yester- the funeral services will be conducted day morning to resume her duties as this morning. The burial will be made teacher in Lander college Judge in New Unity cemetery, this city. of Probate A. W. Wise issued a marriage license this morning to Mr. B F. Singleton of Horry county, and Miss learn of the most cordial welcome ex-Florida Brakefield, of the Armenia tended him last week when he assumcommunity.....Mr. R. T. Sandifer, in- ed his duties as professor of Hebrew tendant of Lowryville, who was in the and Old Testament exegesis at the city yesterday, said in reference to Union Theological seminary in Richthe injuries received a few days ago by Mr. R. L. Kitchens that as Mr. option; that if any county wanted pro-nibition, or vice versa, let them have ferent men Mr. Sandifer being one of governor, some few days before his the two), to dismount, but seemed to last term expired, he stated that no be in a hurry, and instead of dis-one but himself knew and no one else mounting plunged into the ditch with the results already stated. Mr. Sandianti-prohibition fight when he was fer said that others had approached senator from Newberry county in 1905 the ditch during the afternoon while and after talking along this line for a work was in progress but had headed work was in progress, but had heeded the warning and met with no accident red in Mr. Kitchens' case, if he had heeded the signals. Mr. Sandifer said like that and not be in a position to that the ditch in question is one hun-prove it would be a fool," continued the dred yards from any bend in the road and Mr. Kitchens had a clear and unobstructed view of the ditch and the working force.....Mr. J. B. R. Carter, the "graft" came in, in the shape of rebates. He spoke of purchasing a highly esteemed citizen of the bottle of standard-brand whisky in Baltimore and then comparing it to the whisky of the same brand sold in several months, though his condition had been critical only a few weeks Funeral services will be held at Liberty Baptist church this afternoon at 4 o'clock by Rev. Mr. Trogden, followed by interment in Liberty graveyard. Mr. Carter was a native of the Sealy's Creek section and was 45 years of age. He was an industrious and successful farmer, and a consis-tant Christian. Lancaster News, Oct. 1: Dr. J. A. Winstead and family are leaving Lancaster within the next few days for his old home in Nashville, N. C. Dr "It would become them better to Winstead is a capable young physioccupy their pulpits and preach the religion of Jesus Christ than try to dabble in politics. They'd have a hear more success improving the morality of the people and saving coult." de- their residence of only a year in Lancaster will regret Dr. and Mrs. Win ternoon. Walter McManus. a sturdy nember of the team, suffered the misfortune of breaking his left arm H. R. Murchison motored to Batesburg this week. On their return Wed where Mr. Murchison sold the whole output of his tomato farm, which consists of 300 cases, to a single distributor. Mr. Murchison had little more than three acres planted in tomatoes and installed on the farm a cannery which he kept busy for several weeks What this energetic minister has done 'as a side line" and in another sec tion of the state, the man who lives al the year round on the farm could cern an explosion in a bomb factory at tainly do. It seems to us that tomatoes might be raised more generally on such a scale with profit to the producer......Mrs. S. T. Blackmon presented us this week with a curiosity in the form of a sweet potato vine in full bloom. The leaves on the vin closely resembled cotton foliage and the blossom is similar to the morning glory. Trumpet-like flower shade from a deep purple to a pale shade of lilac and is very pretty. Mrs. Blackmon tells us she has seen a potato vine with similar blossoms before butMrs. Emma Small of this place and Mr. W. R. McCampbell of Charlotte, were married Wednesday at the home of the bride. After the cere mony, performed by Rev. W. S. Patterson, the couple left for a trip to Wednesday evening at 6.30, the home scene of a quiet home marriage, when

Edgar Ray Sloan. Gaffney Ledger, Oct. 1: Friends o little Miss Nannie Williams Dobson, daughter of Hon. and Mrs. R. A. Dobson, will be glad to learn that she Marlboro of these will be put out of business by is much improved after suffering for the past ten days with a severe case of blood poison.....Funeral services Humphries were held Wednesday at Beulah church, being conducted by the Rev. C. M. Teal. Mr. Humphries died Union age, and is survived by several chil- York dren.....Mrs. Mira Jane Ross, wife of Wm. F. Ross, of the Buffalo section of the county, died at her home Tuesday at the age of 64 years of age. She is survived by her husband, five sons and three daughters..... "Farmers are marketing their cotton too fast," said Mr. B. Harris, representative of the state department of agriculture, who spent Wednesday in the > reach 15 cents and possibly go even higher," said Mr. Harris. and Mrs. J. R. McKittrick and children of Dyson, are visiting relative Olive Brock of Honea Path, who was illness, arrived in Fort Mill Saturday speculator has been accustomed to get-better, and if the market is not glut-

B. F. Massey, Jr., a former Fort Mill Current Happenings and Events Massey in the Florida section within short time..... The friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wylie deeply sympathize with them in the loss of their little son, James Wylie, Jr., whose death ccurred at Greensboro, N. C., Tues day night. The child was about two Frank Winchester has accepted a poyears of age and had been ill but a few days. The remains, accompanied sition as deputy under Sheriff D. E. Colvin, vice, Mr. S. F. Hardin, re- by the parents, were brought to Fort signed......Miss Bessie Alexander, Mill Wednesday afternoon and taken who was called here last week by the to the home of the grandparents, Mr.

>The Fort Mill friends of Rev. Dr. Edward Mack will be interested to mond, Va., Dr. Mack is a graduate of Davidson college and was formerly pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Charlotte. Rock Hill Herald, Oct. 1: The storm which on Wednesday night swept the gulf states, appeared to have reached Rock Hill. Rain fell gently all of yesterday and last night it came in torrents for some time. The wind attained a velocity of thirty to forty miles an hour during the night, reminding one of regular March weath-The ground was thoroughly dry n this section and the rain did a vast amount of good, both to the crops and in aiding the seeding of alfalfa and cover crops.....Interest in the election for a mayor of Fort Mill is increasing, and while conditions are entirely harmonious, the two candidates W. M. Carothers and B. E. Patterson and their friends are doing a great deal of earnest work. The candidates have arranged for the county board of registration to be here on Saturday next, to enable those of the citizens who are not registered or have lost their certificates, to secure one. It is probable that 15 voters will appear on the local registration books when they are night at his home in the Arcade village, following an illness of some 10 to 13. Each delegate who attends weeks. He was 55 years of age and will have to pay his own expenses. is survived by his wife and several The list is as follows: Rev. J. D. Crane,

4. Hord and was driven by Otto Hord machine. They had been to Shelby been in a serious condition ever since. The automobile was badly wrecked. The car was a two-passenger machine but the four were taking pasenormity of the accident.

The Referendum Vote.—Complete Heath Springs; W. J. Ardis, Pineand certified returns from all coun- wood; J. W. Player, Shiloh; Spann ties in South Carolina, as filed with Vinson, Remberts; H. L. Tilghem, the secretary of state, give for prohibition 41,735 votes and against prohibition 16,809. The election was held B. Moore Yorkville; W. J. Roddey, September 14. The state board of Rock Hill; W. B. Meacham, Fort Mill; canvassers has been called to meet Dr. C. E. Burts, Dr. LeGrand Guerry, October 5. Following is the vote by H. N. Edinunds, Rev. T. J. Hegarty,

Aiken 1,126 Bamberg Barnwell Beaufort Calhoun Charleston Chester Chesterfield larendon olleton Plorence reenville Greenwood 1,172 Hampton Horry Jasper Kershaw Lancaster Laurens 1,416 Marion Newberry Oconee 1,108 Orangeburg 1,415 Saluda Sumter Total 1857,11 IstoT

Helfin Wants to Buy Cotton Now. Representative Helfin of Alabama, a member of the house committee on agriculture, called on Secretary Garison and Secretary Daniels yesterday to discuss the administration's fense programme, and particularly the use of cetton and linters in the manufacture of gun cotton and other ex city. "If they will market it slowly government purchase 450,000 bales of gration of all Armenians who actualcotton and 250,000 bales of linters to ly will become naturalized American meet the munitions requirements of citizens on their arrival in this the army and navy, and that on accountry, says a Washington dispatch they will realize the profits which the creasing demand both for cotton and at Constantinople has arran purchase be made early in Decem-The secretaries promised to iels told Mr. Helfin that more cotton than usual would be required by the government powder mills at Indian the plant there was being enlarged and soon would be able to increase its output of manufactured held by the Russians, and the Turks

A German dispatch says that private advices from Ceylon are to the effect that the island has been in a state of that you are ungrateful enough to—"
"No; ingratitude isn't quite the word. I'm just sorry; with the sorrow you have when you look for something that you have a right to expect, the law for iright and for criminal assault. The law that you have a right to expect, the law for criminal assault. The law that you have a right to expect, the law for criminal assault. The law that you have a right to expect, the law for criminal assault. The law that you have a right to expect, the law for criminal assault. The law that you have a right to expect, the law for criminal assault. The law that you have a right to expect, the law for its should nourish and support a better sentiment of North Richard as for the law for its should nourish and support a better sentiment of South Carolina, each of South Carolina, son of South Carolina, or North as or of Governor Craig of North as son of South Carolina. Secretary of the Navy teacher of the third grade in the that the island has been in a state of I do down here and in Richmond; as or, of Governor Craig of North as or, of Governor Craig of North as or, of Carolina. Secretary of the Navy teacher of the third grade in the that the island has been in a state of I do down here and in Richmond; as or, of Governor Craig of North as or, of Governor Craig of N

PALMETTO GLEANINGS

TERMS $2.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

Throughout South Carolina. The Southern Textile exposition will be held in Greenville, November 2-6. The Thornwell orphanize celebrated the 40th anniversary of its founding on Friday. The Observer, a weekly newspaper, s being published in the little town of Olanta, in Florence county.

Chas. C. Langston, former editor of the Anderson Intelligencer, died in Anderson, Tuesday, aged 56 years. Iredell Hilliard has been appointed by Governor Manning a magistrate in Georgetown county, to succeed J. W. Wingate, resigned.

Rev. C. M. Gray of Charleston, anded a fish at the Isle of Palms last week that weighed 40 pounds. The fish was caught with hook and line. The shortage of T. J. Southall, former dispenser at the dispensary in Aiken, which shortage amounts to about $2,000, has been paid by his

The publication of the Citizen, a weekly newspaper has been begun at Denmark in Bamberg county. F. Earl Bradham is editor of the new publi-bonding company.

Mason Shular, colored, was shot to pieces by a posse of citizens at Elloree, Orangeburg county, Tuesday, while he was attempting to enter the home of a citizen of that town.

The city of Augusta, Ga., is seeking an injunction against Edgefield county to prevent the foreclosure by public sale for taxes of a dam across the Savannah river. The amount of taxes which Edgefield county claims is $774.35. The injunction is sought on the ground that the dam is a public

Governor Harris of Georgia, has withdrawn his requisition on Governor Manning for the arrest of J. A. McNeill wanted in Georgia for kidnapping his daughter. McNeill ho'ds an important position in Charleston. He had been estranged from his wife for some time but now has made up his differences and his wife requested the with rawal of the arrest warrant. Gov. Manning last week appointed more than 100 delegates to the Interclosed.....D. M. Ferguson died last national Peace congress which is to be held 'n San Francisco, Cal., October

Greer; John Laird, Aiken; J. C. Houston, Aiken; M. M. Mewborne, Charles-King's Mountain Herald, Sept. 30: ton; Chief Louis Behrens, Charleston; F. Ware has been in what is con- Rev. J. B. Budds, Charleston; Joseph sidered by some as a critical condition Lindsay, C. C. Edwards, Chester; E. since Sunday as the result of an auto- E. Kirven, Dovesville; A. W. Welling; mobile wreck Sunday afternoon. The Darlington; H. A. Bethea, Latta; J. automobile was the property of Dr. J. D. Manning, J. M. Sprunt, Dr. Wade Besides Otto, Mr. Ware, Burgon Falls J. D. Evans, M. D. Lucas, Florence and. Will Berry, colored, were in the W. H. Keith, Timmonsville; Rev. Chas. Wood, Florence; G. J. Hollday, Galand were returning. After descending ivant's Ferry; Dr. H. N. Snyder, Sparthe long hall this side of Shelby, the tanburg; E. C. Goesett, Maj. Wm. excessive speed of the machine made Roberts, Greenville; Richmond Stacy, it impossible to make the curve and J. C. Wright, N. H. Littlejohn, Gaffthe car went headway against the em- ney; Capt. L. B. Steele, B. P. Fraser, bankment. All the occupants were Gen. S. M. Ward, Georgetown; R. V. thrown out and all more or less injur- Bray, Rockton; W. B. Wright, Shelton; ed but Mr. Ware was the only one to T. G. Patrick, White Oak; C. M. Gavin, receive serious injuries. He had one St. George; J. F. Prettyman, Sumor more ribs broken and is bruised and merville; W. B. Browning, Ridgeville; cut and stove up a good deal. He has Rev. B. H. DeMont, Rev. J. B. Greene Rev. L. P. McGee, Greenwood; H. W. C. Folk, Brunson; W. C. Patrick, Varnville; M. M. Chisolm, Estell; Dr. D. C. Scotto, Kingstree; W. C. Wilsage on it, which fact accounts for the son, Cades; T. W. Boyle, Greelyville; Col. T. Y. Williams, Lancaster; O. W. Potts, Fort Mill; Dr. W. S. Moore, Sellers, J. P. Cooper, Mullins; F. F.

Covington, D. McIntyre, Marion; W. Columbia; M. T. Pitts, Saluda; Alvin Etheredge, H. C. Smith, Saluda; J. F. 246 Mewborne, Orangeburg; E. N. Chisolm, Rowesville, T. L. Connor, Estaw-232 viile; T. B. Bryant, Orangeburg; Dr. T. H. Dreher, Dr. B. F. Brunce, J. E. Wannamaker, St. Matthews; Rev. J. 185 F. Mattheson, Union; Dr. F. M. Ellebre, 2,607 J. W. Cunningham, Jonesville; C. R. Doyle, Calhoun; A. D. Mann, Pickens; J. F. Banister, Liberty; J. E. Todd, 157 Due West; Patrick Roache, Abbeville; 226 S. D. Bowles, Lowndesville; D. M. 149 162 Barrentine, Chesterfield; F. E. Kerr, McBee; J. I. Long. Cheraw; J. W. 70 Jenny, Sycamore; J. A. Myers, Myers Mill; Angus Ali, Allendale; M. M. Houston, Yelassee; J. M. Rhett, Beau-1,928 fort; W. P. (Hbbes, Port Royal; C. M. Barnwell, Beaufort; S. M. Johnston, Sandy Springs; J. F. Evans, Anderson; J. B. Watkins, Belton, F. V. 335 James, Denmark; Maj. C. F. Bamberg, Bamberg; Capt. J. M. Donnelly, Ernhardt; Dr. W. B. Ryan, Ridgeland; J. 572 M. Langford, Gillisonville; J. S. Berg, Ridgeland; J. K. Breedin, Manning; J. H. DuBose, New Zion; J. E. Davis, Davis Station; B. G. Price, Walterboro; Ben Thompson, Lodge; J. G. Varn, Ruffin; W. A. Edwards, Kalb; J. T. Mackey, Camden; W. J. Burdell, M. D., Lugof; J. M. Moss, Walhalla; 244 Dr. E. C. Doyle, Seneca; M. S. Stribling, Westmins er; W. P. Baskins, Providence; W. R. Scarborough, W. A. Gardener, Bishopville; Dr. J. H. Self, Pleasant Lane; J. B. McKie, Clark's Hill; P. N. Lott, Johnston; Dr. J. H. Miller, Cross Hill; J. W. Drummond, Landford; W. L. Gray, Laurens; Dr. J. H. Harms, Newberry; Wm.

- Turkey has consented to the emipurposes, the the Turkish government for their de foreign missions, for money to make possible the transportation and change of allegiance of such Armenians. large number of former Turkish citizens are now under arms in the strip of Armenian Turkey near Van, now fear that if other Armenians are al-The only restriction that the United couragement of Armenian emigration

Coleman, Waitmire; W. W. Wheeler,

Prosperity; Rev. J. A. Brunson, St.

Matthews.