

Humorous Department

The Only Guy.—With all that has been printed about America's plans for winning the war in the air, one man has been found who didn't know that the United States has airplanes.

The Sincerest Flattery.—Everything about Aunt Clara seemed lovely and wholly desirable to Sammy. Even an accident that broke a piece from one of her front teeth produced at last what seemed to her juvenile admirer an attractive result.

The Uplift Movement.—"Are you doing anything to bring about the higher altruism?" inquired Professor Thinkstinks.

Everybody Accommodated.—Tommy (just off the train, with considerable luggage)—"Cabby, how much is it for me to Litchford?"

As Man to Man.—"Your wife says you have her terrorized."

Cure for Sleepiness.—Servant girl—"I'm so awful sleepy in the morning, doctor."

Unmasked at Last.—"Don't talk to me about Methusalem," exclaimed the army man.

Suitcase That Suits Each Case.—Policeman (rounded up draft suspects)—"Have you got a card?"

Compliment to Conscience.—"Here comes that Miss Galdins. I think I'll have Nora say I'm out."

End of the Dream.—"It looks as if Jones is better satisfied with his wife."

Creditors Must Eat, Too.—"Mr. Thursday—Our friend, Dodge, tells me that he is doing settlement work lately."

Landlady No Poetess.—Editor—"I can't use your poem, but you might leave your address."

Did They Tell Him Everything?—"How did Solomon come to be such a wise man?"

Music and Mars.—"They say singing men make great fighters."

You Know Who.—The new version "When the devil was sick he turned to a parliamentary form of government."

Needed Ventilation.—"Why is this cheese so full of holes?"

Strategically Weak.—"Is she able to keep a cook?"

Dry or Buttered?—Hub! Beer is liquid bread, is it? Well, then, how do you toast it?

Camp Sevier, Greenville, S. C., October 24.—All Camp Sevier chaplains have discarded the silver bars of a first lieutenant and have put upon their shoulders the silver cross of their office.

On the occasion of his first visit to the dentist, Sammy bore with more or less patience the work that had to be done, and then made a request.

Tommy—"I don't believe we've got any of that in stock just now," replied Grocer Dicey frankly.

REJOICING AT OSTEND.

Correspondent Finds the People in Great Spirits.

In two days I have traversed fully 400 miles of the battle area of the western front, have visited scores of towns and villages taken from the Germans. Yesterday I was in Roubaix, and found it, like Lille and Ostend, gay with the flags of the Allies, the people ready to greet enthusiastically any one in Allied uniform.

The day was gray and rainy when I was in Ostend, but the city was dressed as for a carnival and the atmosphere of rejoicing offset the leaden skies.

ROOSEVELT CRITICISES WILSON. Former President Says the "Fourteen Principles" Are Mischievous.

President Roosevelt sent duplicate telegrams last Thursday night to United States Senators Lodge, Chandler and Johnson, in which he pointed out as "thoroughly mischievous" the 14 principles enunciated by President Wilson, if they are to be made the basis of peace.

"I also declare against the adoption in their entirety of the 14 points of the president's address of last January as forming a basis for a peace settlement to the United States. Let us dictate peace by the hammering guns and not chat about peace to the accompaniment of clicking typewriters.

"Satisfactory to the Germans."

"The language of the 14 points and the subsequent statements explaining or qualifying them is neither straightforward nor plain, but if construed in its probable sense many and possibly most of these 14 points are thoroughly mischievous and if made the basis of a peace, such peace would represent, not the unconditional surrender of Germany, but the unconditional surrender of the United States.

"The only peace offer which we should consider from Germany at this time is an offer to accept such terms as the Allies, without our aid, have dictated on Bulgaria. We ought to declare war on Turkey without an hour's delay. The failure to do so hitherto has caused the talk making the world safe for democracy to look unrealizable like mere insincere rhetoric.

"More over, we should find out what the president means by continually referring to this country merely as the associate instead of the ally of the nations with whose troops our own troops are actually brigaded in battle. If he means that we are something less than ally of France, England, Italy, Belgium and Serbia, then he means that we are something less than an enemy of Germany and Austria.

"The entire Belgian coast is now controlled by the British, and the British western front, under date of October 21.

Foiled by a Woman.—During the last three days British troops in approaching towns have been careful not to shell them when there was the slightest chance that civilians were in the town, writes a correspondent from the Belgian front.

A YORK WOMAN'S EXPERIENCE

Can you doubt the evidence of this York woman? You can verify York endorsement. Read this: Mrs. R. L. McKnight, Cannon Mill, says: "Kidney trouble came upon me in a pretty firm hold on me. My back began to pain and ache some thing awful and sharp, shooting pains would catch me every time I stooped over. Dizzy and nervous spells would come over me and millions of little colored specks floated before my eyes, blurring my sight. My kidneys didn't act right and caused me a lot of annoyance. I was in pretty bad shape when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. The first box helped me so that I continued using them and another box completely cured me."

NOTICE OF ELECTION

State of South Carolina—County of York. NOTICE is hereby given that the General Election for State and County Officers will be held at the voting precincts prescribed by law in said county, on Tuesday, November 5, 1918, said day being Tuesday following the first Monday in November, as prescribed by the State Constitution. The qualification for suffrage and the manner of election shall be as follows: Managers of election shall require of every elector offering to vote at any election, before allowing him to vote, the production of his registration certificate and proof of the payment of all taxes, including poll tax, assessed against him and collectible during the previous year. The production of a certificate or of the receipt of the official notice of the receipt of such taxes, shall be conclusive proof of the payment thereof. Section 237, Code of 1912, as amended by Act No. 6, special session of 1917. Section 237. There shall be three separate and distinct ballots, as follows: One ballot for United States Senators and Representatives in Congress and Presidential electors; and one ballot for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, State Officers, Circuit Solicitors, members of the House of Representatives, State Senator, County Officers, and one ballot for all Constitutional amendments and special questions, each of three sides to be printed and clearly labeled; which ballots shall be of plain white paper and of such width and length as to contain the names of the elector or other office or question or questions to be voted for or upon, clear and even cut, without ornament, designation, motto, symbol, or mark of any kind whatsoever, except the name or names of the person or persons voted for and the office to which such person or persons are intended to be chosen, and all special questions, which name or names, office or offices, question or questions shall be written, printed or otherwise on the ballot, and such ballot shall be so folded as to conceal the name or names, question or questions of the elector, and when deposited in a box to be constructed, kept and disposed of as herein provided by law, and no ballot of any other description, either of said boxes shall be counted. On all special questions the ballot shall be marked with the words "Yes" and "No" inserted so that the voter may indicate his vote by striking out the words "Yes" and "No" on the ballot. Before the hour fixed for opening the polls, the Managers of election shall take and subscribe the Constitutional oath. The Chairman of the Board of Managers may administer the oath to the other members and to the clerk, a Notary Public must administer the oath to the voting. The Managers elect their Chairman and Clerk.
