

Humorous Department

But What's in a Name?—Now that the nation is dry, an enterprising dogeologist has compiled the following for the benefit of summer vacationists: Rye, N. Y.; Bourbon, Ill.; Green River, Ky.; Cluquot, Mo.; Champaign, Ill.; Brandy Keg, Ky.; Brandy Camp, Pa.; Brandy City, Cal.; Port, Okla.; Sherry, Texas; Brandywine, W. Va.; Glnn, Miss.; Wine, Va.; Tank, Pa.; Boore, Tenn.; Drinker, Pa.; Aqua, Va.; Vlohy, Mo.; and Lithia, Fla. Take your choice.—The Wheeling Register.

Keeping It Dark—Master of the house—"Why did you tell the mistress what time I came in this morning, after I expressly paid you and told you not to?"

The Cook—"Sure, sir, an' Oi didn't tell her. She asked me what time you got in, an' Oi tould her Oi was so busy getting the breakfast that Oi didn't look at the clock."—London Blyghty.

The Bark Test—Two sailors at a dogshow were gazing at a valuable Skye terrier, which had so much hair that it looked more like a woolen mat than a dog.

"Which end is 'is 'ead, Tom?" asked one.

"Blowed if I know," was the reply, "but, 'ere, I'll stick a pin in him, and you look which end barks!"—London Blyghty.

He Raised 'Em—"How did you get the turkeys the officer found in your possession?" sternly asked the police magistrate.

"I—I raised 'em, your honor," stammered the prisonee.

"Tell me the truth."

"That's the truth, y ar honor," persisted the crime-stained creature. "I reached down through a hole in the roof."—The Continent.

A Grand Plan—"What's the idea of sitting in the barn here all by yourself?"

"Well," answered Farmer Corn-tosel, "if the summer boarders aren't playin' jazz on the phonograph they're quarrellin' over the League of Nations, so I'm lingerin' out here with the cattle and restin' my mind."—Washington Star.

Newlywed Style—A young famer's bride who recently undertook the management of the horticultural department of the farm, writes the agricultural editor, as follows: "What can I do to make my potatoes grow? I peeled them ever so carefully before planting them, but they haven't even come up yet."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Fido Was Undecided—"Oh, Mr. Smith," cried the young lady, as she greeted her caller, "so you have been making friends with Fido! And do you think he likes you?"

"Well," said Mr. Smith grimly, "I don't believe he's quite decided yet—he's only had one bite of me, and he seems to want another."

Interesting Bed—Little Roy had returned from a week's visit to his aunt, and was trying to describe the folding bed he had been sleeping in. "It lays down at night, mamma, and stands on its hind legs in the daytime." Boston Transcript.

Pointed Question—Some medical fiend claims to have discovered that bee-stings are a great cure for rheumatism. Pity the hesitating rheumatic patient, timorously muttering: "To 'bee' or not to 'bee'—that is the question!"—The Passing Show (London).

Literature Wins—"Oh, we called about the fat advertised?"

"Well, I did mean to let it, but since I've read the house-agent's description of it, I really feel I can't part with it."—London Opinion.

Naturally—"I suppose when Hungary settles its government it will change its form of national assembly."

"Why should it?"

"Because its Diet might not agree with its new constitution."—Baltimore American.

New Variety—"Mama, I want a dark breakfast."

"Dark breakfast? What do you mean, child?"

"Why, last night you told Mary to give me a light supper, and I didn't like it."—London Blyghty.

Something to Look Forward To—Dubh Golfer—"The day I get round these links in less than a hundred, I'll give you a dollar."

Caddie—"Thank ye, sir. It'll come in handy in me 'old age."—Boston Transcript.

When Insomnia Sets In—"Do the trolley-cars keep you awake?"

"Never," said Mr. Crosslots. "It's when there's a threat to stop 'em that I get nervous and can't sleep."—Washington Star.

The Reason—She—"George, you looked awfully foolish when you proposed to me."

He—"Well, very likely I was."—London Opinion.

An Early Start—"And we'll grow old together, dearest."

Her father's voice from up-stairs—"Well, you needn't start doing it down there, need you?"—London Tit-Bits.

The Latest Excuse—Farmer—"Hey, there, how came you to be up in my apple-tree?"

Boy—"Please, mister, I just fell out of an airplane."—London Opinion.

KIDNEYS WEAKENING?

LOOK OUT!

Kidney troubles don't disappear of themselves. They grow slowly but steadily, undermining health with deadly certainty, until you fall a victim to incurable disease. Stop your troubles while there is time. Don't wait until little pains become big aches. Don't trifle with disease. To avoid future suffering begin treatment with GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules now. Take three or four every day until you are entirely free from pain.

This well-known preparation has been one of the national remedies of Holland for centuries. In 1638 the government of the Netherlands granted a special charter authorizing its preparation and sale.

The housewife of Holland would almost as soon be without food as without her "Real Dutch Drops," as she quaintly calls GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. They restore strength and are responsible in a great measure for the sturdy, robust health of the Hollanders.

Do not delay. Go to your druggist and insist on his supplying you with GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Take them as directed, and if you are not satisfied with results your druggist will gladly refund your money. Look for the name GOLD MEDAL on the box and accept no other. In sealed boxes, three sizes.
