Rock Hill Record, Sept. 29: J. T. Hoke, son of J. J. Hoke of the River Bend section, was brought to the city Saturday very seriously shot. It seems that he and two other young fellows were in a boat and had crossed to the opposite side of the river, when young Hoke jumped out to fasten the boat and as he did so he threw something into the boat that struck the hammer of a gun lying on the seat in the boat and pointed toward him, and the gun being discharged, the lead taking effect in the lower part of his body and wounding him very seriously. He was rushed to the Sumner Hospital in this city and while he is very seriously shot it is thought he will recover.

Gastonia Gazette, Sept. 30: Among the many from Gastonia attending the "Old Hickory" reunion in Greenville today and tomorrow are: Messrs. A. L. Bulwinkle, R. G. Cherry, Ben Douglas, William McArver, Jack Faysoux, Lamar Rankin, Leonard Curry, Carl Loughridge, Bryan Walters, Jim Holland, Raleigh Armstrong, George Wilson and Wilson McArver. Col. C. B. Armstrong and Mr. A. G. Myers, of the Citizens National Bank, have purchased the Trust building in Charlotte, the building which contains the Academy of Music and many offices. The consideration was in the neighborhood of $200,000.

Lancaster News, Sept. 30: Friends throughout the country will learn with regret of the death of James R. Blackmon of the Port Hill section of the county, which occurred Saturday. Mr. Blackmon was about 60 years of age and a member of the Port Hill church whose remains were interred Sunday. C. C. Merrill, of Bloomsburg, Pa., and Miss Nana Perry, daughter of Mrs. Rebecca Perry of this city, were married Saturday morning at the home of the bride's mother, Rev. W. S. Patterson officiating. The groom is a traveling salesman with headquarters in Spartanburg. Herbert A. Chester Reporter, Sept. 29: Marriage licenses as follows were issued Friday, September 26th, from the office of Judge of Probate A. W. Wise: Mr. T. C. Patterson, of Fort Mill, and Miss Mary E. Mobley of Fort Lawn; and Mr. Samuel Ghent and Miss Bonnie McMurray, both of Chester. Mr. James H. Thomas of Edgemore, and Miss Roberta H. Stephenson, of Catawba, were married Tuesday evening, September 23rd, at the Methodist parsonage at Fort Lawn, in the presence of a few friends and relatives, by the groom's pastor, Rev. W. A. Ducworth. Mrs. P. D. White, of Marion is spending a few days here with her sister, Mrs. A. G. Thornton. Mr. J. L. Black has purchased the Jaber Sexton house on the corner of Hinton and Branch streets. The $140,000 of thirty-year serial bonds, bearing interest at five per cent, voted on September 2nd by the city of Chester, for street improvements under the abutting property plan, were sold today to the Trust Company of Georgia, with headquarters at Atlanta, whose bid was par, accrued interest and a premium of $36.11, and who further obligate themselves to furnish blank bonds at their expense for the signature of the city officials. The "Gypsy" Smith, Jr., meeting entered its third week yesterday, and judging by the crowds that hear Mr. Smith at the three services and the display of interest the campaign has reached a most impressive stage. There are two cases of "flu" in a colored family on the plantation of Messrs. J. E. and W. D. Trussell in the Woodward Baptist church neighborhood. Dr. R. H. Gaffney Ledger, Sept. 30: Trustees of school district No. 10 are preparing to ask the citizens of the district to vote a $200,000 bond issue for the purpose of improving and modernizing the local school system. With the money realized from this bond issue it is proposed to build a separate high school building, construct an addition to the Cherokee Avenue school building, erect a teacherage and build a home for the superintendent of the schools. Definite plans for the various projects have not yet been agreed upon, but the above is what is in the minds of the trustees at present. An interesting crowd of more than 200 people Friday afternoon witnessed the first tractor demonstration ever held in Cherokee county. The show was given at J. R. Sparks' farm about three miles from Gaffney, on the Chesnee road. Three machines, the Fordson, Cleveland and Moline, participated. Most of the spectators were real practical and active farmers, and it is most probable that this actual demonstration of power on the farm will result in at least a dozen tractors being purchased in this county in the immediate future. A young lady from Rock Hill was painfully injured Sunday afternoon when the automobile in which she and several relatives were going to Greenville to attend the 30th Division reunion, was struck by another car about three miles north of Gaffney. The Rock Hill machine was knocked against the bank beside the road, the jar causing the young lady to bump her head on the automobile. Jonas Blanton, an elderly farmer who lives about three miles west of Gaffney, had the misfortune to have his right leg broken at the ankle one day last week. Mr. Blanton, who is nearly 80 years old, was working at a sawmill, and in some way his leg was caught in the carrier. Both bones were broken. J. R. Houghes, of Winkinsville, chief game warden for Cherokee county, has appointed a number of assistants in different sections.
