

BONE DRY THE OUTLOOK

New Law in Hands of The President

NO HINT OF PROBABLE VETO

Most Draconic Piece of Legislation that Has Ever Been Put Through Congress—It Will be Unlawful for One Man to Sell Another Where He Can Get a Drink.

The prohibition law, deemed one of the most sweeping acts ever passed by congress, has been sent to the White House by Attorney-General Palmer, who has been investigating its constitutionality.

The plan, it was learned, is to have the bill remain in the White House until Oct. 28, when it becomes effective even without President Wilson's signature.

In no responsible quarters has there been a hint of a veto. Under this law, on Oct. 28 at the latest it would become illegal to manufacture or sell liquor containing more than half 1 per cent alcohol or any patent medicines or other compounds fit for beverage purposes containing more than that amount of alcohol.

Violations are to be investigated by Commissioners of Internal Revenue and reported to local United States attorneys. Commissioners are authorized to swear out warrants giving them a right to search for liquor and arrest the offenders.

Alcoholic Liquids Not Illegal. The alcoholic liquids not deemed illegal are denatured alcohol; medicinal preparations if unfit for beverage purposes, which must have the quantity of alcohol contained printed on each package; flavoring extracts unfit for beverage use, vinegar and preserved sweet cider.

Liquor manufactured before the bill goes into effect may remain in United States bonded warehouses, and the alcohol content reduced to bring it within the law, or withdrawn to be denatured.

Beer containing less than half of one per cent alcohol may be sold, but not under the name of beer, ale or port.

Places where intoxicating drinks are sold are to be declared common nuisances and the fines imposed shall rest as liens against the property if the owner had guilty knowledge of what was going on in his building.

When such a place is discovered, the law provides that an injunction may be issued to stop the illicit sale and prevent the removal of liquor.

Liquor which is seized may be destroyed or delivered to any governmental agency for medicinal, mechanical or scientific uses, or sold to persons having permits to purchase it for such purposes.

Distilleries and bonded warehouses may, under the law, upon the filing of a bond and the obtaining of a permit, be used as industrial alcohol plants.

The commissioner of internal revenue is authorized to issue regulations governing industrial alcohol plants, to prevent illegal use of alcohol and develop the non-beverage alcohol industry.

Penalties are Varied. Penalties under the dry law are varied, ranging from prison sentences to fines, according to what section of the law is violated.

When the eighteenth amendment to the constitution goes into effect next January many more provisions of the law become operative.

These include the regulation of physicians, who cannot prescribe liquor unless they are in active practice and licensed, and the physician must believe that liquor will afford relief to the patient.

Not more than one pint may be prescribed within ten days. Prescriptions must be made out on a form supplied by the internal revenue commissioner, with stubs, like a check book—the book to be turned in after all blanks are used, for the official records. No prescription may be filled more than once, and druggists must keep a record, similar to a poison record, of each sale and the time, place, &c.

Advertising, manufacture and sale of tablets or formulas for making liquor at home are prohibited.

Advertising of liquor in any way is made illegal. Even the giving of information as to where it may be obtained is lawbreaking. Vehicles used for transporting it shall be seized.

Search of Private Dwellings. With regard to possession of alcoholic drinks, the act says that possession after Feb. 1, 1920, shall be prima facie evidence of intent to violate the law except in the case of liquor in private homes, legitimately purchased before the law went into effect.

This liquor may be used only for personal consumption by the owner, his family and guests. Private dwellings cannot be searched unless it is suspected illegal beverages are being sold in them or part of the house is used for business purposes.

Hotels and lodging house rooms which are transiently used may be searched. Those permanently occupied by the same persons are regarded as private dwellings.

Buildings used for selling liquor may be closed for a year, at the option of the court.

If any one is injured by a drunken person the one who sold the liquor or the one who told the drinker where to get it may be sued.

There are many other sections regulating the business of analyzing suspected drinks, &c., and setting up the legal machinery to enforce the law.

Democratic Leader Champ Clark was given an ovation in the house in Washington, Tuesday by both Republicans and Democrats after Representative Hulings, Republican of Pennsylvania, had stated that the Democratic party was looking forward to putting in a 69 year old youth for the presidency.

Count V. Machi di Cellere, Italian ambassador to the United States since 1913, died in the emergency hospital in Washington, Monday night just as he was about to undergo an operation. He was 53 years of age and in point of service one of the oldest diplomats in Washington.

The 18th biennial convention of the Congregational Church, was held in Grand Rapids, Mich., this week. Clerical and lay delegates from every part of the United States attended.

Other hay crops 150.00
Total income $4,470.00
65 acres in cultivation, 38 1-2 acres in timber. This land lies perfectly level. It is one of the most beautiful farms in the county, and makes a bale to the acre under favorable circumstances. It is all fresh land and a man buying it gets a good start with land to make his crops. There is not a waste acre on this farm. I often wonder why people would prefer to buy two or three hundred acres of waste land. Paying $50 to $80 in preference to buying a farm like this. The price is $100 per acre.
67 1-2 Acres—More or less, joins the land of Mr. Tumbling, Revela and others. One good residence, one story, six rooms. Forty-five (45) acres under cultivation; balance in timber. Two miles of Bethesda church, of Guthrieville. All necessary out-houses. This is an ideal farm, and can be bought right. See me at once, for I have a short option on this place.
75 Acres—One and one-half miles of Guthrieville school, and depot. Fine level land. A part of the beautiful farm of Amos Revel's estate lands. Price $85 per acre.
119 1-2 Acres—One and one-half miles of Beersheba; seven and one-half miles of York. One good dwelling house, two stories, seven rooms. Price $65 per acre.
50 Acres—Near the farm of John S. Feemster. R. B. Hartman and C. M. Inman. One good four-room dwelling house; good barn. Thirty-five acres in cultivation. Price $30 per acre.
124 Acres—More or less. Property of Mrs. S. J. Barry. 100 acres in cultivation; balance in timber. Has large barn, six stalls and two sheds; tin laundry fine productive land. Two miles of school.
Beautiful nine room residence formerly known as the Scott Wilson place, now the property of J. P. Barnes: nine miles of Chester; 3 1-2 miles of McConellsville. 150 acres in fine cultivation. A big paying proposition. Plenty of tenant houses and plenty of wood to do the farm. Price, $65 per acre.
90 Acres—Joins the land of R. T. Sandifer, C. B. Conrad, J. A. Conrad. This is a very fine farm, much of this land makes a bale of cotton to the acre. Has from 40 to 45 acres in bottom land. Fine state of cultivation. Fifty acres in timber. One of the best pastures in York County. Two miles of McConellsville. Dwelling house has four rooms. Price $60 per acre.
228 Acres—More or less, joins the lands of W. H. Beard and others. The property of Fred G. Cook, one dwelling house, two stories, eight rooms and seven acres in cultivation. Fifty (50) acres in timber. One orchard, three miles of Bethel Church, seven miles of Clover, on the fine sand and clay road, one and one fourth mile from school. It has three other houses, two of these houses are two stories high, both have five rooms in it. The tenant house in the yard has four good rooms, has good big barn, double crib, turber and wheat house two stories high, cotton house shodded in October. Price $50 per acre, said price subject to advances.
101 Acres—Joins the land of Sidney Hogue, W. O. Youngblood's estate land, one dwelling four rooms. Sixty acres under cultivation, forty acres in saw timber and woods, forty acres in bottom land. One school at Guthrieville. One of the best farms in York County. This is a good purchase at $55 per acre. Option expires September 12th.
The beautiful home of P. Gorfath at Bethany; including saw mill, roller mill, cotton gin and all attachments. One dwelling, ten rooms, tin roof, also has a nice farm near this home. See me at once for quick sale. This is one of the finest propositions in York County.
406 Acres—Known as the Saunders place, three hundred and fifty-six acres in timber and wood; has eighty-eight acres of bottom land, is six miles of McConellsville, has only about three horse farm open on this splendid land. For a man that is willing to work and clean up a farm, there is not a better chance in York County than this. I will accept $7,000 for this farm if bought before the first day of January. Terms: One-fourth cash, balance three to seven years to pay. Possession given immediately if the tenants are not interferred with by this year's crop.
61 Acres—A fine residence and farm of George Revels, half a mile of Bethesda Church. The Rock Hill and Guthrieville road divides this place. Forty (40) acres under cultivation, twenty acres in timber and wood, one mile of depot and school at Guthrieville, has a good barn. This is perhaps the best small cotton farm in York County. It is a "jim dandy."
87 Acres—The property of J. F. A. Smith, Cotton Belt section. A six room residence in very fine condition, has three acres of orchard, four of bottom land, half a mile of Cotton Belt School, has two tenant houses, five rooms each; option expires in October. This is one of the finest residences on a farm in York County.
I have the R. M. Anderson's farm 4 miles of Rock Hill, sand and clay road splitting it. This farm contains 600 acres with five buildings and barn; there is not a better cotton, corn and timber farm in York County, and none better located than this farm.
97 Acres—W. E. Wallace, near Meek Williams. Price $4,800.00.
150 Acres—Residence and farm of Andrew J. Parrott, Filbert. Located on the Filbert-Clover road. Will sell as a whole or in sections. Look it over and make me an offer.
