Rock Hill Record, Nov. 10: In the prizes at the state fair last week, we find the names of James Draffin, Pock Hill, fourth prize on corn, Hugh Campbell of Tizah, fifth, in the best ten ear exhibit, and Roy Maloney of Sharon fifth for the best single ear exhibit. York county and Newberry boys tied for second lead, each taking three prizes. Rock Hill singers are responding enthusiastically to the call for a large chorus to participate in the Community Thanksgiving service. The Y. M. C. A. Drum and Bugle corps is getting ready to make a good showing at the Older Boys Conference in Spartanburg next month. Shirts and caps a brilliant red have been ordered to supplement the noise produced by the drums and bugles. Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Schwarz returned this morning from a visit to relatives in Virginia and West Virginia.

Lancaster News, Nov. 11: The death of Rev. D. P. Boyd, for many years a Methodist minister and for the past year a resident of this city, occurred at his home Sunday night, November 2. He was about 70 years of age and is survived by his wife and one son, D. A. Boyd, of this city. Funeral services were conducted the following day, Rev. E. R. Mason, pastor of the Methodist church officiating. Burial was at Westside cemetery. A marriage of widespread interest was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Sarah Drennan Kirkpatrick, near Bascomville when her daughter, Miss Margaret Louis McKeown became the bride of Charles Samuel Caskey of near Lancaster. The Presbyterian Synod of South Carolina met last week at Anderson and Rev. Hugh R. Murchison of this city was elected moderator for the coming year. Captain Elliott W. Springs received several days ago a telegram from the British Embassy requesting him to be in Washington on November 13, to meet the Prince of Wales and be decorated by him and to receive the British cross awarded him by the British government for special distinguished service while fighting with the British Royal Air Force on the Belgian front.

Chester Reporter, Nov. 10: It is stated at Blackstock that the boll weevil has appeared on at least two plantations in that vicinity, and that a report from Clemson College as to the identity of insects sent there for examination leaves absolutely no doubt as to the presence of the pest. Mrs. Ella K. Stone, one of Bascomville's most lovable women, died in this city Saturday afternoon, following an operation for appendicitis a few days previously, and buried at Union cemetery at Richburg yesterday afternoon. The Chester County colored fair will be held on the grounds of the Chester county fair association tomorrow, Wednesday and Thursday. The management say that a fine line of exhibits will be on hand, and also expect some unusually good racing. The annual County fair came to a close Friday afternoon with the final races, the Chester-Rock Hill football game, and the airship flights. The fair was pronounced as decidedly the best ever staged in Chester county, and capable judges declared that in many respects the exhibition equaled the average state fair. The attendance was good throughout, and it is probable that a considerably larger profit was realized than ever before in the fair's history. A trunk said to have contained $450 or more in money, besides clothing, fur, jewelry, etc., the aggregate value being something like $1,000 was stolen early Friday evening from the Gladden lodging house on Valley street. The trunk was the property of a man named Davis, who is connected with the Ziedman & Pollie Shows that were at the fair last week. A colored automobile driver, Tony Mobley by name, says he brought two white men from the fair grounds late Friday afternoon, and on the way up town they asked him if he could take them and a trunk to the Southern depot. He had no other engagement and agreed to do so; and the trunk was brought down stairs by the pair and placed in the automobile, in which it was transported to the station. The baggage-master's records show that it was checked to Columbia. Saturday morning the theft was reported to Chief of Police Grant, who took the case up at once with the Columbia authorities; but recovery of the trunk and valuables is hardly to be expected as the thieves had ample time to go into the trunk and divide the loot before the authorities were put on the trail.

As soon as one person moved out of the way another would take his place. However Mr. Jenkins made progress despite the many obstacles in his way. Two sales have recently been completed by J. tion. The second sale was seven acres near the overhead bridge at the Cash mills known as L. Hamrick property to J. E. Byers, for $300. J. W. Waters, one of the supervisors of registration, Saturday afternoon checked over the petition asking for an election upon the question of school district No. 10 issuing $200,000 worth of bonds for school purposes, and certified that more than one-third of the resident electors names were signed to it. Wolfson's Department store, on Limestone street was Sunday night entered and robbed of three or more suits of clothing, a number of silk handkerchiefs, several small pieces of jewelry, and other small articles. The robbers changed clothing in the store leaving "three pair of overall pants, one coat and other articles of apparel. Shoes and other articles were scattered about the store as if they had been tried on and discarded. The cash drawer was not molested. Lonnie Hopper and Gilbert Webb, two white boys were tried by Magistrate W. W. Daniels recently on charges of taking $5.25 out of the Victor Cotton Oil company's cash register. They were sentenced to pay fines of $20 each or to serve 20 days on the county chain-gang. Hopper paid the fine while Webb took the days.

John W. Suttle, officiating. Governor Bicket has pardoned Chivus and Clarence Bostic of No 2 township who submitted week before last to retailing and were sentenced to six months each on the roads. November 11th It is said that President Grover Cleveland designated the last Thursday in November as Thanksgiving Day. Before the Cleveland administration various dates for the day of Thanksgiving were designated, especially during the administration of Abraham Lincoln. Why President Cleveland designated the last Thursday in November, we do not know; but how appropriate it would be if November 11th The anniversary of the signing of the Armistice could be set aside as a day of Thanksgiving. When the United States Senate ratifies the Peace Treaty, which in our opinion, ought to have been done long ago, and gets down to business, and looks after the interests of the people, it may be that some one will introduce a bill making November 11th a National holiday--possibly Thanksgiving Day. BY THE WAY, it will doubtless be of interest to our hundreds of patrons and friends to know that the TOTAL RESOURCES OF THIS INSTITUTION EXCEED ONE-HALF MILLION DOLLARS, although we are just NINE MONTHS OLD. To say that we appreciate the patronage and loyalty of our friends who have made it possible for us to announce these figures is expressing it far too mildly. If you feel that the establishment of this Bank has been of benefit to you or to your neighbors and you have not already joined the hundreds who bank with us, we extend you a cordial invitation to come and place at least a part of your account with this bank.
