Fort Mill Times, Nov. 27: A parade of the pupils and the faculty of the Fort Mill graded school took place Friday afternoon through the streets of the town, after which field sports were engaged in on the campus, discus throwing, caterpillar and wheelbarrow races, and basket ball. In the high school, the ninth and tenth grades were awarded the prize for the best showing in marching; the fifth grade in the junior high school, and the second grade in the primary department. Murphy Cook was especially commended as a discus thrower. The enrollment of the school is nearly 500 and, as the population of the town in 1919 was only 1,169, many are interested in the showing the coming census will make. The Literary Digest in its issue of November 8, contains an article showing the final figures of American aces and air casualties and includes the names of 56 American aviators who won the coveted title of "ace" during the war. The seventh name on the list is that of Capt. Elliott White Springs, now a resident of Lancaster, but who is considered a Fort Mill boy since his ancestors on both sides were Fort Mill people and much of his youth was spent here in the home of his grandfather, the late Capt. Samuel Elliott White. Captain Springs holds large and valuable estates in this community, including the ancestral home of the White family just outside the corporate limits of Fort Mill which was built in 1831. He is credited with eleven enemy planes downed and his record in the service has been a source of much pride to his numerous friends in this community. Ralph W. Hood who had been in the service of the United States army and stationed at New Haven, Conn., has received an honorable discharge and returned to his home here during the last week. S. L. Meacham and family on Monday moved from Confederate street to their handsome new home on Hall street. The Meacham house on Confederate street is to be occupied by W. M. Culp and family, who will move there during the present week. Fort Mill people who are without coal are beginning to wonder where they are to secure fuel for the winter. The farmers in the surrounding country who have wood claim they are unable to get it out even at fancy prices, and, with the coal situation as it is, things are beginning to look rather serious. W. R. Ware, a horse dealer of Lexington, Ky., sold about 25 head of horses at auction on the streets of Fort Mill Saturday afternoon. The animals were about the nicest lot ever shipped here and sold at prices ranging for $125 to $250 each.

Chester Reporter, Nov. 27: Little Joe W. Wilson, Jr., son of J. W. Wilson and the late Mrs. Ida Causley Wilson, died at his father's home in the Cooper's Chapel neighborhood last night of membranous croup, aged one year and eight months. Wm. C. Wishert, aged twelve, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Wishert, died here today, and will be buried tomorrow at Cool Branch church graveyard. Mrs. T. M. Douglas, Mrs. Mary Sledge, and Miss M. J. McDonald, County Red Cross Nurses, and a committee from the Chester county Grand Jury went to York this morning to inspect the York county poor house plant, with a view to certain much-needed improvements that are projected at the Chester county poor-house. Messrs. Sims & Carter and R. R. Hafner sold the Rev. J. P. Marion land near Orr's Station yesterday at prices ranging from $25 to $40 per acre, Major M. L. Marion and others being the purchasers. The sale of 60 acres for Mr. Davis Hamilton near the County Farm this morning was also very successful, the land averaging $80 an acre. While in that neighborhood Christer's alert real estate dealers sold old Bethany church, lot and building, Will Gill, bidding for a colored congregation, being the purchaser for $1,150. Mrs. H. S. Heychaser accepted a position as teacher at the Baldwin Mills school and will take up her new duties within a few days. The teaching staff at the Baldwin Mills school is now composed of Misses McKinnell Strong, Green and Tarkington and Mrs. Heyman.

Gaffney Ledger, Nov. 29: "Guilty of manslaughter" was the verdict of the jury in the case of W. J. Hardin, charged with the murder of Myrtle Folsom, which was concluded here late Wednesday night. The minimum sentence under this verdict is two years and the maximum 30. When State Constable C. Y. Allison fired his pistol in the air Thursday night, John Blanton, who was running in front of Allison and his assistant, Charles Byers, through a patch of woods in the Gowdysville section of the county, dropped some very damning evidence which he was trying to make away with. The evidence consisted of a 15 or 20 gallon capacity distillery, which the officers were searching for. It had been located in a gully about a hundred yards from Blanton's house. Blanton made his escape Thursday night, but he will probably receive another visit from the officers at an early date. State Constable Chas. Byers, Policeina Arthur Hopper and Jake Kline, discovered a copper illicit distillery hidden in the barn at the home of Sid Reynolds, who lives in the Goucher section of the county, this week. Reynolds was not at home at the time the officers found the still, but he came to the city the next morning and surrendered to Sheriff W. W. Thomas.

Lancaster News, Nov. 23: The Masquerade skating carnival held on Main street from 8 to 10 o'clock Thursday night by the Equal Suffrage League, was a fitting climax in a day of sport and was a success from every standpoint. Main street from Dunlap to Gay was roped off and was given over to the skaters and spectators. Much amusement was furnished the crowd by the antics and costumes of some of the skaters. Miss Hortense Landrum, Miss Laura G. Williams and T. M. Hughes were the judges and awarded the prizes to the following skaters: Young Men—Best skater, Pierce Horton; best costume, Mr. Jennings. Young Ladies—Best skater, Miss Ruth Mackey; best costume, Miss Eliza Moore. Young Girls—Best skater, Elizabeth Murchison; best costume, Margaret Thomason. Boys—Best skater, Tom McDow; best costume, James Reed. Rev. E. F. Corson of the Antioch community, has resigned the pastorate of the churches he was serving in Lancaster county and will move to Hartsville about Dec. 1st, where he has been called to preach. Ed Craig, a negro paralytic, living on the plantation of Joseph W. Knight, was burned to death Tuesday night. He was lying in bed smoking a pipe when the bed clothes became ignited. Being unable to help himself, before

FURNITURE
WE HAVE A MOST EXCELLENT STOCK OF FURNITURE, and we are going to sell it. We have had it for quite a while, having bought it or most of it, long before the prices began to sky-rocket, and it is not hurting us at all. We could sell it wholesale at a fair profit, without having to do a thing to it further than name a price, because dealers everywhere are anxious to get hold of such goods as we have.
IF IT HAD NOT BEEN FOR THE FACT that our Furniture was up-stairs where people could not see it, it would have sold itself long ago. We knew that and we know it. We were content to show the Furniture only to people who asked for it, and as people generally did not know we had it, inquiries were only occasional.
AMONG OTHER THINGS we have more than a hundred IRON BEDS that are wonderfully good and wonderfully cheap.
NOW, WE DO NOT WANT TO MAKE THE IMPRESSION that we are thinking of going out of the Furniture business or anything of that kind, for we have no such notion; but we want to sell what we have at a reasonable profit, and even at a reasonable price to us, you will think you have a great bargain, which you will have.
IF PEOPLE IN THE LARGER TOWNS where Furniture has gone out of sight, could not be made to realize what we have, and the prices at which we are selling it, they would flock here to buy Furniture.
AND NOW THAT WE HAVE TOLD THE WORLD, we do not expect to keep this Furniture long. Folks who want good stuff at bargain prices, are going to see us without delay.

The sensation of the year in the drug trade is Aspironal, the two-minute cold and cough reliever, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories; tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the common people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.
All drug stores are now supplied with the wonderful new elixir, so all you have to do to get rid of that cold is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspironal and tell him to serve you two teaspoonfuls with four teaspoonfuls of water in a glass. With your watch in your hand, take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel your cold fading away like a dream within the time limit. Don't be bashful, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.
When your cold or cough is relieved, take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and babies, for Aspironal is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest to take and the most agreeable cold and cough remedy for infants and children.—Adv.
