

FOR GOD AND COUNTRY.

(Continued from Page One.)

tic adherence to the things which...

Rests on Popular Will. The success of our popular government...

America is ready to encourage, eager to initiate, anxious to participate...

Mankind needs a worldwide benediction of understanding. It is needed among individuals, among peoples...

Trade Ties Bind Closely. We must understand that ties of trade bind nations in closest intimacy...

From Destruction to Production. The forward course of the business cycle is unmistakable. People are tuning from destruction to production...

Amid it all we have riveted the gaze of all civilization to the selfishness and the righteousness of representative democracy...

The Supreme Task. Our supreme task is the resumption of our onward normal way. Reconstruction, readjustment, restoration...

Prayer for Industrial Peace. I wish for an America no less alert in guarding against dangers from within than it is watchful against enemies from without...

With the nationwide induction of womanhood into our political life, we may count upon her intuitions, her refinement, her intelligence and her influence to exalt the social order...

Unity of Spirit and Purpose. Out of much universal service will come a new unity of spirit and purpose, a new confidence and consecration...

Our supreme task is the resumption of our onward normal way. Reconstruction, readjustment, restoration...

Our supreme task is the resumption of our onward normal way. Reconstruction, readjustment, restoration...

war debts, no swollen fortunes to flout the sacrifices of our soldiers...

We can reduce the abnormal expenditures and we will. We can strike at war taxation and we must.

We contemplate the immediate task of putting our public household in order. We need a rigid and yet sane economy...

Reflection of War's Reaction. The business world reflects the disturbances of war's reaction. Herein flows the life blood of material existence...

An America of Homes. We would not have an America living within and for herself alone, but we would have self-reliant, independent and ever nobler, stronger and richer...

There is no way of making them so. There is no instant step from disorder to order. We must face a condition of grim reality...

Not altered system will work a miracle. Any wild experiment will only add to the confusion, our best assurance lies in efficient administration of our proven system...

From Destruction to Production. The forward course of the business cycle is unmistakable. People are tuning from destruction to production...

Amid it all we have riveted the gaze of all civilization to the selfishness and the righteousness of representative democracy...

The Supreme Task. Our supreme task is the resumption of our onward normal way. Reconstruction, readjustment, restoration...

Prayer for Industrial Peace. I wish for an America no less alert in guarding against dangers from within than it is watchful against enemies from without...

With the nationwide induction of womanhood into our political life, we may count upon her intuitions, her refinement, her intelligence and her influence to exalt the social order...

Unity of Spirit and Purpose. Out of much universal service will come a new unity of spirit and purpose, a new confidence and consecration...

Our supreme task is the resumption of our onward normal way. Reconstruction, readjustment, restoration...

Our supreme task is the resumption of our onward normal way. Reconstruction, readjustment, restoration...

er conflict and suffering. The earth is thirsting for the cup of good will. Understanding is its fountain source.

It has been proved again and again that we cannot while throwing our markets open to the world maintain American standards of living...

The sixty-sixth congress passed peacefully into history last Friday with little of the hurry usually attendant on the hurry-bury of an inauguration.

The final sessions were virtually devoid of legislation. The principal bills which failed were the army and navy appropriation budgets and the immigration restriction bill.

Republican leaders plan to draft substitutes for the army and navy bills as soon as the extra session is convened by President Harding.

Swearing in 32 new senators was the first business of the new senate, which is expected to continue its sessions through next week and then adjourn until the extra session of the Sixty-seventh congress is called.

There is no short cut to the making of these ideals into glad realities. The world has witnessed again and again the futility and the mischief of ill-considered remedies for social and economic disorders.

Not altered system will work a miracle. Any wild experiment will only add to the confusion, our best assurance lies in efficient administration of our proven system...

From Destruction to Production. The forward course of the business cycle is unmistakable. People are tuning from destruction to production...

Amid it all we have riveted the gaze of all civilization to the selfishness and the righteousness of representative democracy...

The Supreme Task. Our supreme task is the resumption of our onward normal way. Reconstruction, readjustment, restoration...

Prayer for Industrial Peace. I wish for an America no less alert in guarding against dangers from within than it is watchful against enemies from without...

With the nationwide induction of womanhood into our political life, we may count upon her intuitions, her refinement, her intelligence and her influence to exalt the social order...

Unity of Spirit and Purpose. Out of much universal service will come a new unity of spirit and purpose, a new confidence and consecration...

Our supreme task is the resumption of our onward normal way. Reconstruction, readjustment, restoration...

Our supreme task is the resumption of our onward normal way. Reconstruction, readjustment, restoration...

SIXTY-SIXTH CONGRESS

Eventful Record Came to a Close Last Friday.

WORK OF THREE SESSIONS IN REVIEW

Great Debates On Subjects Affecting the Future of Civilization—Several Important Bills Lost in the Shuffle—Many Nominations Remain Unconfirmed.

The sixty-sixth congress passed peacefully into history last Friday with little of the hurry usually attendant on the hurry-bury of an inauguration.

The final sessions were virtually devoid of legislation. The principal bills which failed were the army and navy appropriation budgets and the immigration restriction bill.

Republican leaders plan to draft substitutes for the army and navy bills as soon as the extra session is convened by President Harding.

Swearing in 32 new senators was the first business of the new senate, which is expected to continue its sessions through next week and then adjourn until the extra session of the Sixty-seventh congress is called.

There is no short cut to the making of these ideals into glad realities. The world has witnessed again and again the futility and the mischief of ill-considered remedies for social and economic disorders.

Not altered system will work a miracle. Any wild experiment will only add to the confusion, our best assurance lies in efficient administration of our proven system...

From Destruction to Production. The forward course of the business cycle is unmistakable. People are tuning from destruction to production...

Amid it all we have riveted the gaze of all civilization to the selfishness and the righteousness of representative democracy...

The Supreme Task. Our supreme task is the resumption of our onward normal way. Reconstruction, readjustment, restoration...

Prayer for Industrial Peace. I wish for an America no less alert in guarding against dangers from within than it is watchful against enemies from without...

With the nationwide induction of womanhood into our political life, we may count upon her intuitions, her refinement, her intelligence and her influence to exalt the social order...

Unity of Spirit and Purpose. Out of much universal service will come a new unity of spirit and purpose, a new confidence and consecration...

Our supreme task is the resumption of our onward normal way. Reconstruction, readjustment, restoration...

Our supreme task is the resumption of our onward normal way. Reconstruction, readjustment, restoration...

congress in order to reach the statutory goal.

Several treaties, including the Colombia and French defense conventions, remain alive, unaffected by the congress ending.

Reorganization of the new senate was begun last Friday by a caucus of Democratic senators. Republicans were expected to caucus Saturday.

The programme for the senate's extra session calls for little other than consideration of President Harding's nominations. The plan of taking up the Colombian treaty at the present session immediately met with strong opposition Friday and it was predicted that the treaty would go over until the fall session.

Swapped into control of both the senate and house near the end of the war, President Wilson had appealed to the country in 1918 to return a Democratic majority to congress.

Other acts of the administration which came in for criticism included the sending of troops to Russia, the handling of deportation cases and the winding up of war contracts.

Four voices of important measures by the senate also were overridden by the Sixty-sixth congress. The measures repassed after their disapproval by Mr. Wilson included the prohibition enforcement act and joint resolutions reducing the size of the regular army to 175,000 men.

Little speech making marked today's final proceedings, and it was a time of final comparison with past congresses. Worn by many, tired, night sessions, the customary turbulence of adjournment was absent in both senate and house.

Swearing in 32 new senators was the first business of the new senate, which is expected to continue its sessions through next week and then adjourn until the extra session of the Sixty-seventh congress is called.

There is no short cut to the making of these ideals into glad realities. The world has witnessed again and again the futility and the mischief of ill-considered remedies for social and economic disorders.

Not altered system will work a miracle. Any wild experiment will only add to the confusion, our best assurance lies in efficient administration of our proven system...

From Destruction to Production. The forward course of the business cycle is unmistakable. People are tuning from destruction to production...

Amid it all we have riveted the gaze of all civilization to the selfishness and the righteousness of representative democracy...

The Supreme Task. Our supreme task is the resumption of our onward normal way. Reconstruction, readjustment, restoration...

Prayer for Industrial Peace. I wish for an America no less alert in guarding against dangers from within than it is watchful against enemies from without...

With the nationwide induction of womanhood into our political life, we may count upon her intuitions, her refinement, her intelligence and her influence to exalt the social order...

Unity of Spirit and Purpose. Out of much universal service will come a new unity of spirit and purpose, a new confidence and consecration...

Our supreme task is the resumption of our onward normal way. Reconstruction, readjustment, restoration...

declined to pass bills giving Major General March, chief of staff, and Crowder, former provost marshal general, the rank of lieutenant general.

Also during the first session Victor Berger, the Wisconsin Socialist, was unseated by the house and during the second session he again was defeated a year after his re-election at a special election.

At the second session the house passed bills to provide a bonus for war veterans and to amend the tariff and internal revenue laws to abolish luxury and other taxes.

The programme for the senate's extra session calls for little other than consideration of President Harding's nominations. The plan of taking up the Colombian treaty at the present session immediately met with strong opposition Friday and it was predicted that the treaty would go over until the fall session.

Swapped into control of both the senate and house near the end of the war, President Wilson had appealed to the country in 1918 to return a Democratic majority to congress.

Other acts of the administration which came in for criticism included the sending of troops to Russia, the handling of deportation cases and the winding up of war contracts.

Four voices of important measures by the senate also were overridden by the Sixty-sixth congress. The measures repassed after their disapproval by Mr. Wilson included the prohibition enforcement act and joint resolutions reducing the size of the regular army to 175,000 men.

Little speech making marked today's final proceedings, and it was a time of final comparison with past congresses. Worn by many, tired, night sessions, the customary turbulence of adjournment was absent in both senate and house.

Swearing in 32 new senators was the first business of the new senate, which is expected to continue its sessions through next week and then adjourn until the extra session of the Sixty-seventh congress is called.

There is no short cut to the making of these ideals into glad realities. The world has witnessed again and again the futility and the mischief of ill-considered remedies for social and economic disorders.

Not altered system will work a miracle. Any wild experiment will only add to the confusion, our best assurance lies in efficient administration of our proven system...

From Destruction to Production. The forward course of the business cycle is unmistakable. People are tuning from destruction to production...

Amid it all we have riveted the gaze of all civilization to the selfishness and the righteousness of representative democracy...

The Supreme Task. Our supreme task is the resumption of our onward normal way. Reconstruction, readjustment, restoration...

Prayer for Industrial Peace. I wish for an America no less alert in guarding against dangers from within than it is watchful against enemies from without...

With the nationwide induction of womanhood into our political life, we may count upon her intuitions, her refinement, her intelligence and her influence to exalt the social order...

Unity of Spirit and Purpose. Out of much universal service will come a new unity of spirit and purpose, a new confidence and consecration...

Our supreme task is the resumption of our onward normal way. Reconstruction, readjustment, restoration...

TO FILL MANY JOBS

Harding Finds Endless and Varied Assignments of 60,000 appointments to public offices carrying salaries aggregating more than $100,000,000 a year are to be made by President Harding.

The first appointments were made by the official program, and were made by the president's cabinet. The first appointments were made by the president's cabinet.

As the usual custom, ambassadors and ministers now serving are expected to present their resignations to President Harding immediately.

In appearing before the senate in executive session, the new chief executive revived a custom inaugurated by George Washington but in disuse since the day of Thomas Jefferson.

White a quorum was being obtained Mr. Harding walked in his room off the senate chamber. During the wait he came to the door for a minute to smile greetings to newspaper correspondents in the corridor.

Mr. Harding said he desired to present his message in person and they were escorted into the chamber, the doors to which previously had been closed with all spectators and newspaper men excluded.

Facing his former colleagues, the president spoke for perhaps five minutes in happy, cordial vein and then read the nominations from a card which he held in his hand.

Starting with Senator A. B. Fall of New Mexico, a courtesy because of his senate membership, the senate went through the list and confirmed all, one by one. No objection was raised.

The cabinet officers as confirmed were: Secretary of state, Charles Evans Hughes, New York; Secretary of treasury, Andrew W. Mellon, Pennsylvania.

Secretary of war, John W. Weeks, Massachusetts; Secretary of navy, Edwin Denby, Michigan; Secretary of interior, Albert B. Fall, New Mexico.

Secretary of agriculture, Henry C. Wallace, Iowa; Secretary of commerce, Herbert Hoover, California; Attorney general, Harry M. Daugherty, Ohio.

Postmaster general, Will H. Hays, Indiana; Secretary of labor, James J. Davis, Pennsylvania.

Charges Against United States Senator Elect Withdrawn. Indictments against Senator-elect Thomas E. Watson, growing out of the incident in Miss S. E. Wiley's hotel at Buford, Ga., on April 15, last, during the senatorial primary campaign, have been settled out of court.

At the second session bi-partisan conferences of senate leaders failed to bring an agreement on reservations and, with debate renewed in February, 1920, the final vote on ratification March 19 was 45 to 35, less than the two-thirds majority.

National forests in the eastern part of the United States are yielding a rapidly increasing revenue to the government.

National forests in the eastern part of the United States are yielding a rapidly increasing revenue to the government.

RAT-SMAD. Better Than Traps For Rats. Watson's Rat-Smud. It is the best rat poison ever made. It is safe for all other animals. It is easy to use. It is effective. It is the best rat poison ever made.