Some Items of Fact, Some of Comment and All Helping to Give an Idea of What Our Neighbors Are Saying and Doing.

Fort Mill Times, Oct. 20: Osmond Barber, Fort Mill citizen whose farm is a few miles from town in the upper section of Lancaster county, reports to The Times that he has had unusual success this year in raising sweet potatoes. From seven-eighths of an acre Mr. Barber has just gathered 350 bushels of potatoes, according to the measurements of the crates, 1-1-4 bushels each which were secured from the Sweet Potato Growers' association of South Carolina. At the rate of yield indicated by the crates, a full acre would have produced 400 bushels. If the crates hold only one bushel each, which Mr. Barber thinks is perhaps their correct capacity, the yield of the seven-eighths acre was 286 bushels. Col. T. E. Spratt and C. S. Link have returned from a trip they recently made to Americus, Ga., with the view of securing a pastor for the Fort Mill Presbyterian church. Two young white men from Chester who accompanied the Chester high school football team to Fort Mill for the game which was played here Friday afternoon with the local high school boys forfeited cash bonds of $10 each to the town of Fort Mill on the charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. They were arrested at the football game. Saturday one of the young men phoned the mayor of Fort Mill, F. E. Ardrey, from Chester that upon arrival at his home the evening before he was examined by three physicians who declared him absolutely sober, and that if the town of Fort Mill did not refund the $10 he had been required to put up for appearance to be tried on an "unreasonable and false" charge he would forthwith bring an action for $10,000 damages against the town. Under special order No. 9 of T. E. Marchant, colonel commanding the First regiment, S. C. N. G., Arthur C. Lytle, first lieutenant, recently has been appointed summary court officer of the regiment. The appointment carries with it an unusual compliment for Mr. Lytle, as officers below the rank of major are seldom appointed summary court officers. In connection with the duties of his new office Mr. Lytle may find it necessary to visit from time to time the various towns of the south in which companies belonging to the First regiment are located.

Chester Reporter, Oct. 20: After a delightful supper at the Myers Hotel Tuesday evening former Furman University students from the counties of Chester, York, Fairfield, Lancaster and Kershaw organized a club that will be known as the Furman Club of the Catawba section of South Carolina. The officers are as follows: Samuel E. McFadden, Esq., of Chester, president; Prof. R. C. Burts, of Rock Hill, vice president; and E. B. Bagby, of Chester, secretary and treasurer. The executive committee is composed of the following: E. B. Bagby, Chester; Dr. L. D. Wells, Winnsboro; J. T. Gregory, Jr., Lancaster; L. D. Pitts, Rock Hill, and John E. Nunery, Chester. Plans are being perfected for a very appropriate celebration of Armistice Day in Chester Friday, November 11th. All ex-service men are asked to assemble at one p. m. and march to the Fair Grounds for the football game. Mrs. Ethel Bankhead Williams, wife of J. E. Williams of Hamlet, N. C., and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bankhead, of Chester, died Monday evening in Chester after an illness of several weeks. She was 27 years of age. The funeral services were conducted yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Bethel M. E. church by Rev. Henry Stokes and Rev. D. G. Phillips, D. D. The marriage of Miss Sara Cole White, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. White, to Mr. Randolph M. Noyment, of Darlington, S. C., was solemnized in the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church Wednesday evening at 6:30, October 19, Rev. D. G. Phillips, D. D., pastor of the bride, officiating. Walker Rice, colored, who was shot near Sharon Tuesday by Myers Allison, a well-known white farmer who is at the Chester Sanatorium, suffering with a bad wound through the bowels.

Lancaster News, October 21: Carl H. Yarbrough and Miss Jane Patterson both of Osceola, were married October 11, by Clerk of the Court Paul Moore, Joseph F. Easley, of Concord, N. C., and Miss Fannie M. Wallace, of Matthews, N. C., were married October 17, both marriages taking place in the clerk's office in the courthouse. The official canvass of the votes cast in the special election last week for probate judge of Lancaster county shows the following: H. H. Horton, 282; J. A. Stewman, 245; S. H. Plyler, 162; L. J. Funderburk, 78. The bridge over Waxhaw Creek on the Curleton ferry road has been closed by the county engineer and will be rebuilt. It will be closed for a week or more. Traffic should detour by Van Wyck. Ambrose Watson Wallace, alleged safecracker and bank-robber, who has been confined in the Lancaster county jail since June 16, facing four charges of house-breaking and larceny and one of entering a bank with intent to steal, was released this morning on bond in the amount of $2,500. The June term of court was in session when Wallace was brought to Lancaster and his attorneys asked for a continuance on the ground that they had not had time to prepare a case. At the October term last week, the case was carried over to the March term at the request of the state's attorney, the reason being given that a material witness was at that time in Canada and could not get here to testify. Judge Moore fixed Wallace's bond at the June term at $9,000, and Judge Rice last week reduced it to $3,500, which was given today, the bondsmen being W. E. Evans of Columbia, and C. R. Simmons of Lancaster. Wallace has been held in connection with the robbery of the Bank of Heath Springs, on the night of September 13, 1920, when the door of the vault was blown off and securities to the amount of approximately $6,000 was taken. These later were found near Twelve Mile Creek bridge on the Charlotte road and returned to the bank. He is also charged with entering four stores at Heath Springs on the same night. Wallace's sister has been here on several occasions to see her brother and was here today when Wallace was released.

Gastonia Gazette, Oct. 21: Planning to back up the American Legion in its endeavor to hold a proper celebration of Armistice Day, giving consideration to making Gastonia a better cotton market and taking up various other matters of importance, the board of directors of the Gaston Chamber of Commerce held the regular October meeting at the offices Thursday afternoon. Present were Vice President S. A. Robinson, Treasurer S. N. Boyce, Directors W. E. Haynes, Chas. Ford, Hugh A. Query, E. G. McLoud and J. Lander Gray. W. N. Davis, proprietor of the Gastonia Poultry Farms, returned this morning from Raleigh, bringing back with him a lot of blue and red ribbons won in the poultry department of the state fair. Mr. Davis made 780 points, leading the next highest exhibitor by more than 300 points. The barn of Mr. Dock Falls in the Fishgill section was burned Wednesday afternoon about 3 o'clock, entailing a loss of $1,000 in hay and roughness. No livestock was burned. The loss is partially covered by insurance. There are no indications as to how the fire originated, the only plausible explanation being that it started from overheated hay. Mr. Falls' insurance amounted to about $200. Relatives of Rev. W. W. Hatchford, of Waxhaw, have received word this week that his condition remains practically unchanged. While he is a little better up a part of the time, he is not improving. Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Gardner, who have been living in Watertown, N. Y., have returned to Gastonia, to make their home. Mr. Gardner has accepted a position with Mr. Ben Lever at the Lory. Secretary Allen, of the Chamber of Commerce, leaves tomorrow for New Orleans to attend the national meeting of the organization of commercial secretaries. The convention begins Monday, October 24. The many friends of Mr. Crown W. Wilson, who managed the Bonnie Crest Hotel at Black Mountain, during the past season, will be interested to learn that he has leased the Hotel Parrish at Benson, N. C.

Cleveland Star, (Shelby), Oct. 21: A marriage which will be learned with keen interest by their host of friends throughout the county and state, owing to the prominence of both families, is that of Mrs. Dora Serugas Beam of Mooresboro and Mr. A. H. Martin now of Zebulon, Wake county, but formerly of Cleveland, which event took place in rest room at the Shelby court-house Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Squire T. C. Eskridge performing the ceremony. A large truck loaded with 16 bales of long staple cotton passed the Star office Tuesday of this week en route to Gastonia with "Webber 82" that was sold for 33 cents per pound. The market was down when this cotton was sold. It has been as high as 40 cents per pound. This cotton was grown by Mr. Will Crowder of Lattimore who will make this year about 40 bales of this long staple variety. He and Dr. Hunt and Prof. Ivey Willis will make 60 bales of long staple. They declare that this variety is easy to pick, matures early and produces well. The people are foolish not to raise some long staple, says Mr. Crowder. He and the others above mentioned will plant more next year. The cotton sold this week on the Gaston market will be compressed and sent to Norfolk. They expect to market about 15 bales more next week. Mr. W. L. Fanning has returned from Rutherfordton, where he attended the opening of the Harrelson-Fanning Company general store which was opened at that place Saturday of last week. Mr. Fanning has an interest in the new store which occupies a handsome building in the heart of the business district of that place. Mr. James Tiddy who underwent a serious operation for appendicitis has returned from Asheville, where he spent a few days recuperating with his brother, Mr. Frank Tiddy. A public hospital movement for Cleveland was again launched Tuesday night in the courthouse and this time the attendance was so good, the co-operation was so manifest and the desire for a hospital so enthusiastic that it seems the hospital will this time become a reality. Dr. Marvin Serugas, noted surgeon of Charlotte came up on invitation to attend the meeting and advise with them on the plan of financing, method of operation, etc. It pleased the audience to hear Dr. Serugas say that he came up expecting to subscribe to stock. This was taken by the audience to mean that he would locate in Shelby if a hospital is built.

ROCK HILL NEWS BUDGET (Continued From Page One.)

Workers with headquarters in Charlotte. The union heads expect to spend several days in Rock Hill working out of Charlotte, their general headquarters, and they were busy today arranging for a monster public labor meeting to be held here Wednesday night. Speakers at Wednesday night's meeting will probably include Jerome Jones of Atlanta, Ga., personal representative of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor; James E. Barrett of Asheville, N. C., president of the North Carolina Federation of Labor; John Dean and Miss Annie Neary of Charlotte and many other prominent labor leaders.

"We are in Rock Hill," said Vice President McKosky, "not to stir up strike and trouble between employers and employees, but to build up the membership of the Rock Hill union in the interests of more satisfactory relations between capital and labor and to bring about a better understanding between the two. This campaign is a part of the campaign now being waged in the interests of textile unionism in the two Carolinas. We will soon have thirty organizers in the field in this territory and we expect to organize every town where there is felt a need for organization and where we are invited to come. We will also hold rally meetings in towns already organized. The general campaign is in charge of Jerome Jones of Atlanta, the personal representative in the south of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor."

UNGENTLEMANLY CONDUCT

Charged to Chester Football Players in Fort Mill. In a letter which he is today mailing to Prof. R. C. Burts of Rock Hill, president of the Catawba Athletic association, composed of high schools in the Fifth congressional district, Capt. F. M. Mack, superintendent of the Fort Mill schools, protests strongly against the conduct in Fort Mill last Friday afternoon of members of the Chester high school team in the football game with the local school team and says "we have decided to sever athletic relations with the Chester high school."

In his letter to Prof. Burts Capt. Mack says that "many ladies who went out expecting to see a clean game, such as were all the other games we have played, were disgusted at the conduct of certain Chester players, one of whom in particular used very vile language which a majority of these present could not help but hear. This has given football an ignominious name in our town; to use a slang expression, it has killed football in Fort Mill."

After praising the strong, aggressive Chester team, which says is one of the best high school teams he has seen lately and that it outclassed Fort Mill and deserved the victory over the local eleven, Capt. Mack adds: "As to their being unnecessarily rough, engaging in slugging, illegal use of hands, feet, etc., I have nothing to say, as that was a matter for referee and umpire who officiated at the game, and has nothing to do with our decision to sever athletic relations with the Chester high school."—Fort Mill Times.

Cotton Picking Records.—September 21 seemed to be an ideal day for picking cotton in Robeson county. Four Indians on Mr. Carl Edens' place near Rowland, N. C., picked 2,006 pounds. Cleo Mitchell picked 699 lbs. Reddin Locklear picked 697 lbs. Porter Locklear picked 446 lbs. and William Locklear picked 344 pounds. The latter two merely boys being 13 and 15 years old, respectively. This cotton was weighed by Mr. Edens and witnessed by disinterested parties.—Rockingham, (N. C.) Post.

$60,000 FOR CATS Fool Woman Provides for Animals While Human Beings Starve. Cats all over the world will benefit from the $50,000 obtained by the sale of the Ewen Homestead in New York city. Miss Caroline Ewen, who occupied the property for years with her two sisters, had a passion for caring for cats. It was her dream that every cat should have plenty of catnip, milk and a comfortable backyard fence to play on during every one of its nine lives. She devoted her life to establishing sanatoriums and relief organizations for stray cats and when she died, left all her estate save $500 for carrying on the work. She cut off her two sisters in her will because they were not sufficiently enthusiastic about cats. The money for rescuing the cat population of the world became available when her nephew recently settled his contest of her will out of court. —Women as a whole are now 'politically better off than at any time in the history of the German people.
