

BEER FOR MEDICINE

Treasury Department Seeks to Nullify Constitution.

REGULATIONS FOR SALE OF LIQUOR

Drinkers Who Are Able to Pay Can Have Beer by the Crate, a Pint of Whisky Every Ten Days and Wine by the Half Gallon.

Washington Herald, Tuesday.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon lifted the lid yesterday on the manufacture and sale of beer for medicinal purposes.

Deciding not to await longer the passage of the pending anti-beer bill by congress, Mr. Mellon issued rigid regulations for the manufacture of beer by authorized breweries and its sale by druggists upon an authorized physician's prescription. Not more than two and one-half gallons of beer may be prescribed at one time for use by the same person.

The revised regulations limit the prescription of whisky and brandy to one pint for the same person within ten days of wine to two quarts and of alcohol for external use to one pint at a time. Druggists are directed to refuse to fill prescriptions if convinced that they are issued for other than medicinal purposes.

Can't Delay Longer.

"The issuance of the beer regulations," Mr. Mellon explained, "was delayed originally because it seemed probable that legislation would be enacted whereby the action of the department would be of no practical advantage to those interested; and this view appeared to be acquiesced in by them, since there was at that time no urgent demand for the issuance of the regulations. However, for some time past it has been strongly urged by those interested that this department had no right longer to withhold these regulations and that in so doing the department was denying to those interested their clear legal right and thereby imposing serious loss upon them.

"The legal rights of the parties concerned being plain, the department is unable longer to delay the issuance of these regulations."

Bill Now In Senate.

In some quarters it is predicted that the action of the administration will strengthen the opposition to the anti-beer bill and cause its eventual defeat. The bill is pending in the senate in the form of a conference report, but has been laid aside until the tax bill is passed when, its backers assert, it will be brought forward again.

Representative Volstead, when he heard Mr. Mellon had tilted the lid on medicinal beer, gasped, "I don't believe it," and would say no more.

"The same reasons for withholding the regulations now exist as have existed for several weeks past," was all that could be elicited from Wayne E. Wheeler, counsel for the Anti-Saloon League.

"For Medicine Only."

The regulations require the sale of beer in bottles only which shall be labeled with the name of the manufacturer, and the legend "For medicinal purposes only. Sale or use for other purposes will cause heavy penalties to be inflicted."

Other regulations follow:

"Any malt extract containing one-half of 1 per cent or more of alcohol by volume, regardless of the quantity of extractive matter therein derived from malt, are held to be intoxicating liquors within the purview of the national prohibition act and regulations issued pursuant thereto. Any malt extract intended to be sold to the general public without prescription must contain less than one-half of 1 per cent of alcohol by volume, and must be manufactured, tax paid and sold in the same manner as other cereal beverages.

Doctor Goes Dry.

"No prescription shall be filled calling for a greater quantity of liquor than that authorized by these regulations, and a pharmacist should refuse to fill any such prescription. Physicians may not prescribe liquor for their own personal use.

"Every pharmacist filling a prescription for intoxicating liquor must, at the time of filling same, endorse thereon over his signature the word 'cancelled,' together with the date the liquor was delivered. A retail druggist must preserve in a separate carefully-guarded file each prescription so filled.

Pint Every Ten Days.

"No prescription may be issued for a greater quantity of intoxicating liquor than is necessary for use as a medicine by the person for whom prescribed in the treatment of an ailment from which such patient is known by the physician to be suffering. Not more than a pint of spirituous (distilled) liquor to be taken internally shall be prescribed for use by the same person within any period of ten days by one or more physicians. When spirituous (distilled) liquor is administered to any person by any physician or physicians, as provided in section 71, the aggregate quantity so administered and the quantity prescribed for such person may not exceed one pint within any period of ten days.

"Not more than a pint of alcohol for external use may be prescribed for the same patient at one time. Not more than two quarts of wine or two and one-half gallons of intoxicating malt liquors to be taken internally shall be prescribed at one time for use by the same person. "Prescriptions for intoxicating liquor may only be filled by a licensed pharmacist, who is also a retail druggist, or by a licensed pharmacist in the employ of a retail druggist. A pharmacist employed by any other person than a retail druggist may not fill prescriptions for intoxicating liquors."

TO WITHDRAW TROOPS

Half the Soldiers on the Rhine Are Coming Home.

The gradual withdrawal of American troops from Germany expected to start within two weeks, will involve a reduction of the American forces there to about one half of the present strength of 13,500 officers and men. The reduction will be accomplished by the middle of next March.

Details of plans for the withdrawal were made public after a conference between Secretaries Weeks and Hughes. The forces to be withdrawn consist of 126 officers and 7,873 men of the total of 498 officers and 13,190 men. Two army transports, the Caningny and the Cambrai will be the first troops starting from this country about the middle of November. Men whose enlistments in the army are nearing expiration will be the first returned.

The fiftieth infantry has been placed on the inactive list and will be disbanded with all provisional organizations expect the headquarters, troops and the headquarters staff of the army of occupation. The organizations which remain will be reduced to a status sufficiently only to impose a headquarters, or brigade of infantry and necessary auxiliary troops.

Self-Help.—Voic: "Is this the weather bureau? How about a shower tonight?"

The Boaster.—"George said if I refused to marry him he would take to drink."

"Well?" "I told him if he was wealthy enough or that I might reconsider my refusal."—The American Legion Weekly.

PAY-UP WEEK OCTOBER 31st - NOVEMBER 5th

BE PREPARED FOR IT

Get your money together and help the Merchants, the Professional men, the Banks and other interests out. Catch up with your old balances and pay your bills promptly. Help business get back to normal. It's a real burden for the Merchant and others to carry your bill. It hinders them from getting discounts that are due them, hurts credit with manufacturers and others without which they could not remain in business. They favor you by extending credit. Play fair, and pay when your account is due.

Wipe the Slate Clean of the Old Debts PAY-UP WEEK OCT. 31st-NOV. 5th Many Blessings Will Follow in the Trail

Many are going to extend the spirit of the pay up movement. They have had their eyes opened to the handicap of being in debt and have resolved to liquidate little by little until they are free again. That is a blessing worth striving for. If this movement will be the means—and we believe it will—of getting a lot of York and York County people out of debt and keeping them out of debt, then we will have much to be thankful for.

Let's all Observe "Pay-Up Week" October 31st-November 5th

Get it somewhere. IF YOU CANNOT SQUARE YOUR ACCOUNT DO THE BEST YOU CAN. PAY SOMETHING TO EVERY ONE. Make a beginning. You will find the rest of the road easier traveling. This movement is in the interest of both the creditors and debtors of York and York County. While you are getting out of debt you are helping the merchants and others you owe, they have been good to you, you will lose nothing by being good to them.
