

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL Sunday School Lesson

By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 6

PAUL'S EXPERIENCES AT JERUSALEM.

LESSON TEXT—Acts 21:15-23:11. GOLDEN TEXT—God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

I. Paul's Arrest (21:15-40). The immediate occasion of this was his effort to remove the prejudice which certain ones held against him.

II. Paul's Defense (22:1-27). 1. His claim for a rightful hearing (vv. 1-3). (1) His birth (v. 3). He was a Jew born in Tarsus, a city of no mean reputation.

III. Paul Before the Sanhedrin (23:1-10). The Roman officer, in order to learn why Paul was arrested, commanded the chief council to assemble, and brought Paul before them.

IV. The Lord Stood by Paul (vv. 11). Paul was in great need of grace to sustain him. He may have begun to question the wisdom of his course in going to Jerusalem, but this assured him that his course was right, and thus comfort was brought to him.

V. The Conspiracy to Kill Paul (vv. 12-22). More than forty men banded together for the purpose of getting Paul out of the way. They placed themselves under a curse to abstain from eating and drinking until they had murdered him.

Bad Goffer.—Undoubtedly the best caddies in the world are the Scottish. You see, golf is their game and they watch every stroke that the man they are carrying for makes; they thrill with pride when he makes a good one, and they are very outspoken when it is their lot to caddy for a poor player.

—An old custom which is still adhered to, is the sending of "first night" floral tributes to hospitals, by Broadway actresses.

—The light scout cruiser Richmond, with 33 knots speed, recently launched at Philadelphia, Pa., is designed to be one of the swiftest ships in any navy.

PAY-UP WEEK

AT CLOVER, S. C.

NOVEMBER 7 to 12, 1921

THE SHEEP AND THE GOATS

"Times like these," said a Clover man yesterday, "separate the SHEEP from the GOATS. When business is good, money plentiful, most every one pays promptly, but when a smash comes I need to collect quickly and closely, then I know who is entitled to credit in the FUTURE, and who is not, and I will remember, you bet.

"A fellow came in my place early this week; he owed me quite a bill, and said: 'Brother, I know how you feel and yet I'm in as bad shape as you.' He and I went over his affairs, we found a way out that helped us both. Another customer refused to pay even a part, made a lot of useless excuses and finally ended by laying it at the Door of Hard Times. That fellow is on a salary and his boss told me his salary had not been cut. And I'll remember that man, too."

The merchant needs his money—this month—and he needs it badly. His creditors, in most instances are charging him heavy interest on his accounts. You owe him, and YOU should pay, if it is in the bounds of possibility. In the long-run of life YOUR neglect will come back to you. "So w the winds and as surely as the sun rises, you'll reap the whirl-wind." Business is the greatest "evening" factor on earth. Play the game fair and you win. Otherwise, you'll lose in the end.

Today YOUR creditor is thumbing his ledgers, separating the SHEEP from the GOATS. In which column will your name go? Don't put off seeing him longer. If you cannot pay all, pay what you can. Don't destroy your most valuable asset—Your CREDIT. No human can tell what the future holds for him. The day is bound to come when you will need that credit—the day when CREDIT will mean more than all else. Preserve it.
