LESSON FOR JANUARY 8

ELIJAH THE TISHBITE.

LESSON TEXT-I Kings 17:1-24. GOLDEN TEXT-But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto You.-Matt. 6:33.
REFERENCE MATERIAL-Ex. 16: 1

Kings 16:29-33; Matt. 6:19-34. PRIMARY TOPIC-God Cares for Elli-VUNIOR TOPIC - Elliah, the Brave

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC -Jehovah's Champion Preserved. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC Obeying the Word of Jehovah.

I. Elijah's Message to Ahab (v. 1). This was a startling message, for Ahab had not only led Israel into idelatry, but into a repudiation of the living God. 1. "As the Lord God of Israel liveth." Elljah knew the source of his message. He knew that he represented the living God, therefore had no fear to come into the presence of the king in His name.

2. "Before whom I stand." Because Elijah stood before God, he could stand before Ahab. His "standing" before God indicates his constant readiness to go on His errands.

3. "There shall not be dew nor rain these years but according to my word." This suspension of moisture continued for three and a half years (Jas. 5:17). and was given in answer to Elijah's prayer (Jas. 5:17). Drouth was predicted as the punishment for idolatry (Deut, 11:16, 17), and the prophet was now applying the divine judgment. II. Elijah's Retirement (vv. 2-16).

As soon as he had delivered his message he retired from the king's sight, while the penalty of the king's sin should be visited upon the land. When the famine was sore in the land, the king sought east and west, north and south for Elijah, but God had concealed him. Those who speak God's message frequently seek solitude when the message is delivered.

1. By the brook Cherith (vv. 2-7). (1) Drinking of the brook (vv. 4-6). While drinking of the literal waters of the brook, he was being nourished by the Living Waters from the throne of God. From day to day Elijah's faith was tested as he saw the stream run lower and lower as the drouth continued. (2) Fed by the ravens 4vy 4-6). The ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning and bread and flesh in the evening. Elliah thus enjoyed two meals each day, with water to drink. The same God who sustained Elliah, still lives, and we should trust Him for our daily bread. At last the brook dried up because there was no rain in the land. The Lord then instructed him to move.

2. At Zarephath (vv. 8-16). (1) place (v. 9). Zprephath was at the west side of Palestine, near the Mediterranean sea, in Gentile territory. In to cross the country from the Jordan few miles from the home of Jezebel's father. This, no doubt, was a trial to Elijah. (2) Sustained by a widow (vv. 10-12). "Bring a little water and which he made of the widow. This, no doubt, was a great trial to her, but God had touched her heart and stirred up faith in her. Her reply reveals her deep distress. (3) Elijah's reply (v. 13). This made plain to her that it was a case of mutual interest to do as the Prophet said. "The barrel of meal shall not waste; neither shall the cruse of oil fail." (4) The widow's obedience (v. 15). "She did according to the sayings of Elijah, and she and her house did eat many days." (5) God keeps His word (v. 16). May we learn from this lesson:

1. The particularity of God's providence. Truly a sparrow shall not fall to the ground without our Father. By the prearrangements of God all our needs are daily met. There is no happen so in God's providence. The woman of Zarephath, going out to gather sticks to prepare the last meal, Sir Henry Cole. The drawing was met Elijah, and is helped for two years.

2. No matter how small our resources, we can do something for God if we will. The lad with the five barley loaves and the two small fishes, with the blessing of the Lord, did a great work.

3. Our concern should be to work for others and for God before ourselves. We should give our all to God and trust Him for further supply.

4. God often allows us to get down to our very last in order to teach us that all is from Him. 5. God's dealing with this Gentile woman is a foregleam of His dealing with the Gentile nations.

The Cheerful Worker. Do all things without murmurings and disputings; that ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shall shine as lights in the world.-Philippians 2:14 to 16.

A Great Reward. I have fought a good fight; I have finished my course; I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness .- II Timothy 4:7 and 8.

ROYAL COURTING HUMAN

Something About Princess Mary of Viscount Lascelles, the 39-year-old fiance of Princess Mary, is tall and slim, with a blonde mustache, relates a London Dispatch. He has a soldierly bearing; is always well-dressed; a sportsman and a good after-dinner speaker. Consequently, his contemplated entry into the royal family of England is regarded with popular favor.

courtship of the betrothed The couple, according to accounts, has been real love making. They have idden together in Rotten-Row, and have walked together through London streets. Country house parties at which the princess has visited have included Lord Lascelles among the ruests. He was a guest at Sandringham during the recent stay of the royal family there. He went shooting with the king and the princess accompanied the guns. It was here that the neetings ripened into something more. consent to Lascelles paying his formal suit to the princess.

The viscount won golden opinions when fighting in France with his regiment, the Grenadier Guards. One of second and third class, under the direchis fellow officers says that Lascelles never lost his cheerful smile even in the hottest fighting; the only exception being when tobacco ren short. 'A baby millionaire and not a cigarette to bless myself with," he grumbled.

He had successfully circumvented many attempts made upon his single estate by matchmaking mothers and had come to be regarded as a confirmed bachelor. He was not supposed to be a "ladies' man" and his tastes ran more in the direction of sport. He is a hard rider to hounds and has latey established a pack in Yorkshire, of which he is the master.

Lord Clanricarde, from which Lord Lascelles in 1916 inherited nearly £2,500,000, was supposed to be the worst dressed man in the House of The rent roll from his Irish estates ran into £30,000 a year.

The Lascelles' London residence Chesterfield House, a famous Mayfair mansion fronted with tall columns and facing Hyde Park, was used as the headquarters of the League of Nations, until the League moved to its permanent offices at Geneva.

Harewood House, the Lascelles ancestral seat near Leeds, is remarkable for its 76 doors made of solid mahogany which were made on the family's estate in Barbados. Most of the wealth of the Earl of Harewood, the prospective bridegroom's father, is derived from sugar plantations in the West Indies.

Harewood House has a wonderful collection of china, valued at $1,000, 000 and surpassed in this country only by the Windsor collection. The family arms are two bears supporting a shield with a golden cross, with the motto "In sclo Deo salus" (Salvation in God alone.)

Christmas Cards .- It is estimated that order to reach this place Elijah had 25,000,000 Christmas greetings were sent through the United States mails to the sea. Zarephath was only a this year. The average cost for cards was probably about two and a half cents, and the average postage on each one and a half cents; and this, on 25,-000,000 will bring the bill up to around a morsel of bread," was the request $1,000,000. Emmett Cambell Hall, writing in the New York Post, gives the following account of the origin of the custom of sending Christmas greetings by cards:

"The Christmas card, the first form of greeting card, was undoubtedly developed from the school "Christmas pieces" which were bopular, particularly in England, in the early part of the nineteenth century. These were sheets of writing paper, decorated by the writing masters, or even having a colored picture printed at the top, on which schoolboys wrote carefully 300 feet. composed letters as the Christmas period approached setting forth their scholarly attainments and modestly intimating that suitable rewards would be entirely acceptable. "The first Christmas card proper appears to have been issued in London in the year 1846, and was the idea of made by J. C. Horsley of the Royal Academy, and it was printed in lithography and colored by hand. The card was about the size of a lady's calling card and possibly a thousand copies were sold.

publishers issuing Christmas cards, usually in editions of about 500, the subjects being invariably of a Biblical nature and the drawings of genuine merit. These cards were all hand-colored and retailed as a rule for six-

It was not until about 1862, however that the Christmas card custom obtained any notable foothold. Then publishers began experimenting with cards inscribed merely "A Merry Christmas" or "A Happy New Year," and their success was so great that they began eldborating them pictorfally, adding robins, holly branches and typical Christmas landscapes."

SURE, WE THANK YOU

THE YEAR 1922 has been quite good to us for which we thank our scores of customers. We began the closing year with a heavy load of goods, and troubles of our own. Thanks to our customers we have disposed of the larger part of the carried over goods as well as other goods that were not carried over. We haven't made a killing for our stockholders, but they are quite well satisfied to break more evenly than looked possible a year ago. Yes, to be sure, we thank you.

AND HERE'S OUR BEST WISHES to you and yours and your neighbors and friends, that the year 1922 will bring to you every possible joy and happiness, good health and prosperity.

We cordially solicit your patronage during the coming of 1922.

PROFIT IN SUGAR CANE

In short time there were several Timmonsville Farmer Makes Splendid Crop.

According to J. Ed Anderson, a well known member of the state legislature and a progressive farmer of this county, the sugar cane crop may become a rival of "King Cotton," says a Timnonsville dispatch. Mr. Anderson made his first market experiment with this crop the past season by planting five acres of ribbon cane on his farm near here. One acre of the crop he decided to save for seed: the other four acres' production when ground, cooked and canned amounted to 900 gallons. Mr. Anderson says that for this syrup he purchased gallon airtight containers in which he poured and sealed the liquid while still boiling, thus canning the flavor of new syrup to be retained as long as the seal remains unbroken. The market price of the syrup is one dollar per gallon. This after the expenses of Beginning with the new year, under $325 for the fertilizer, cans and cook-
