DESERT GOLD

was clear.

"Malo," he said, and his Spanish

"Shore, Yaqui, about eight bad men,

"I think he means my herder," add-

The Yaqui spread wide his hands,

ed Belding. "If he does, that settles any doubt it might be decent to have

Then he bent over the tracks in the road. They led everywhither, but gradually he worked out of the thick

net to take the trail that the cowboys had followed down to the river. Belding and the rangers kept close at his heels. He found a trampled spot where this point a deeply defined narrow

The trail of the raiders took a

"Think he means slow march," said

Belding. "Laddy, from the looks of that trail the Greasers are having

"Tom, shore a boy could see that."

replied Laddy. "Ask Yaqui to tell us where the raiders are headin', an' if

It was wonderful to see the Yaqui point. With a stick he traced a line in the sand, and then at the end of that another line at right angles. Ae made crosses and marks and holes, and as he drew the rude map he talked in railroad that ran from Nogales down

The men returned to the ranch.

whites. He was quick and cold.

"Get me a long-range rifle an' lots

Remington. An' don't forget your

They rode in single file with Ladd

for the white escarpment pointed out

At noon the rangers got out of the thick cactus. The desert floor inclined a long, faint moving streak of black-pass," said Ladd, pointing to a break in the eastern end of the escarpment.

the Yaqui spoke of lays in the pass," hele? Looks rough to me.".

"When they get out of sight we'll

The rangers traveled swiftly over the remaining miles of level desert

"They're headin' for that yellow southeasterly course over untrodden desert. The Yaqui spoke in his own trail led across the dry river bed.

tongue, then in Spanish.

trouble with the horses."

there's water."

an' a traitor Indian." said Ladd.

-Yaqui-malo Papago-Si?"

COPYRIGHT TOWN HARPER AND BROTHERS.

The probability of a visit from the with its broken fastenings, the tracks raiders, and a dash holder then usual in the road, and then rested upon Belding. on the outskirts of a ranch, led Belding to build a new corral. It was not sightly to the eye, but it was high and Yaqui, in Spanish; with a word here exceedingly strong. The gate was a and there in English. Belding transmassive affair, swinging on huge lated as best he could. The raiders hinges and fastening with heavy were heading southeast toward the chains and padlocks.

Her Color Fled. He Saw Her Lips Part.

At night Belding locked his white Into Sonora, It was four days' travel, horses in this corral. The Papage bad trail, good sure waterhole one herdsmen slept in the adobe shed ad- day out; then water not sure for two joining. Belding did not imagine that days. Raiders, not looking for purany wooden fence, however substan- suit, could be headed and ambushed tially built, could keep determined that night at the first waterhole, a raiders from breaking it down. They natural trap in a valley. would have to take time, however, and mak, considerable noise; and Belding The rangers are and drank while makrelied on these facts. Belding did not lag laurried preparations for travel. believe a band of night raiders would Blanco Sol and the cowboys' horses hold out against a hot rifle fire. Ladd were fed, watered, and saddled. Ladd did not share Belding's sanguine refused to ride one of Belding's hopes. One January morning Dick Gale was awakened by a shrill, menacing of shells. Rustle, now," he said. "I cry. He leaped up bewildered and want a gun that'll outshoot the dinky He heard Belding's booming voice answering shouts, and rapid the rebels. Trot one out an' be quick: steps on flagstones. But these had not "I've got a .405, a long-barreled awakened him. Heavy breaths, almost heavy rifle that'll shoot a mile. I use sobs, seemed at his very door. In it for mountain sheep. But Laddy, the cold and gray dawn Dick saw it'll break that brench's back." something white. Gun in hand, he to "Ilis back won't break so easy, . . bounded across the room. Just out- Dick, take plenty of shells for your side his door stood Blanco Sol.

It was not unusual for Sol to come | field glass." poking his head in at Dick's door dur- In less than an hour after the time ing daylight. But now in the early of the raid the three rangers, heavily dawn, when he had been locked in armed and superbly mounted on fresh the corral, it meant raiders-no less, horses, rode out on the trail. As Gale Dick called sofily to the snorting turned to look back from the far bank horse; and, hurriedly getting into of Forlorn river, he saw Nell waving clothes and boots, he went out with a a white scarf. He stood high in his gun in each hand. Sol was quivering in stirrups and waved his sombrero. every muscle. Like a dog he followed | Then the mesquite hid the girl's slight Dick around the house. Hearing figure, and Gale wheeled grim-faced shouts in the direction of the corrals, to follow the rangers. Gale bent swift steps that way.

He caught up with Jim Lash, who in the lead. He took a bee-line course was also leading a white horse,

They reached the corral to find by the Yaqui; and nothing save deep Belding shaking, rearing like a mad- washes and impassable patches of man. The gate was open, the corral cactus or rocks made him swerve "Tom, where's the Papa- from it. was empty. go?" said Ladd.

"He's gone, Laddy-gone!"

"Double-crossed us, ch? I see here's | perceptibly upward, When Gale got a crowbar lyin' by the gatepost. That an unobstructed view of the slope of Indian fetched it from the forge. It | the escarpment he located the raiders was used to pry out the bolts an' and horses. In another hour's travel steeples. Tom I reckon there wasn't | the rangers could see with naked eyes much time lost forcin' that gate."

Daylight made clear some details of and-white dots. the raid. The cowbeys found tracks of eight raiders coming up from the river bed where their horses had been left. Evidently the Papago had been false to his trust. His few per- rustle. I'm thinkin' that waterhole sonal belongings were gone. More horses were found loose in the fields. The men soon rounded up eleven of the whites, all more or less fright-cursed and railed, and finally declared the west. Ladd gave the word to Agricultural college, declared a few he was going to trail the raiders. "Tom, you just ain't again' to do nothin' of the kind," said Laddy, and descended into a valley half a mile "The American farmer has been accoulty.

presently. "I've got to stand it. I | walls can't leave the women and my property. But it's sure tough, I'm sore way down deep, and nothin' but blood would ever satisfy me."

"Leave that to me an' Jim," said like for a trap."

"Shore I don't know yet . . . Give | amid the mesquites.

me a light for my pipe. An' Dick, go fetch aut your Yaqui."

SET CHAPTER VIII

The Running of Blanco Sol. . A service of the second of that end than here," he replied.

"Shore that's hard enough. Let me have a look. . . . Well, boys, it don't take no figgerin' for this job. Jim, I'll want you at the other end blockin' the pass when we're ready to start," "When 'll that be?" inquired Jim.

"Soon as it's light enough in the till tomorrow. There's no sure water ahead for two days, you remember." The rangers stole back from the vantage point and returned to their horses, which they untied and left farther round among broken sections of cliff. For the horses it was a dry, hungry camp, but the rangers built a fire and had their short though strengthening meal.

Jim Lash rolled in his saddle blanket, his feet near the fire, and went to sleep. Ladd told Gale to do likewise while he kept the fire up and waited until it was late enough for Jim to undertake circling round the raiders. When Gale awakened, Jim was up saddling his horse, and Ladd was talking low.

With Ladd leading, they moved away into the gloom. Advance was exceedingly slow, careful, silent, Finally the trail showed pale in the gloom, and eastern stars twinkled between the lofty ramparts of the pass.

Ladd halted and stood silent a moment. "Luck again!" he whispered. "The wind's in your face, Jim. The horses won't scent you. Try to get up as high as this at the other end. Wait till daylight before riskin' a loose slope. 'I'll be ridin' the job early. That's all."

Ladd's cool, easy speech was scarcey significant of the perilous underthe raiders had left their horses. From taking. Lash moved very slowly away, leading his horse. Then Ladd touched Dick's arm, and turned back up the trail.

Together they picked a way back through the winding recesses of cliff. The campfire was smoldering. Ladd replenished it and lay down to get a few hours' sleep, while Gale kept watch. The after part of the night wore on till the paling of stars, the thickening of gloom indicated the dark hour before dawn. Ladd awoke before the faintest gray appeared. The rangers ate and drank. When the black did lighten to gray they saddled the horses and led them out to the pass and down to the point where they had parted with Lash. Here they awaited daylight.

The valley grew clear of gray shadow except under leaning walls on the eastern side. Then a straight column of smoke rose from among the mesquites. Manifestly this was what Ladd had been awaiting. He took the long .405 from its sheath and tried the lever. Then he lifted a cartridge belt from the pommel of his saddle. Every ring held a shell and these shells were four inches long. He buckled the belt round him.

"Come on, Dick," Ladd led the way down the slope until he reached a position that commanded the rising of the trail from a level. It was the only place a man or horse could leave the valley for "Dick, here's your stand. If any raider rides in range take a crack at him. ..... Now I want the lend of little carbines an' muskets used by (To Be Continued).

HAMBONE'S MEDITATIONS

DE NEW PAHSON STAHTED OUT T' CREASE DE MEMBUHSHIP O' NEW ZION CHUCH EN HE SHO STAHTED RIGHT-HE MADE DEM LEBEN HAID O' CHILLUN O' HIS'N JINE DE FUS' THING!

Copyright, 1921 by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

FARMER AND BUSINESS.

Same Day Superior Products Will Be Advertised.

The day when American farm products will be as extensively advertised throughout the country as the auleading to the ascent of the escarp- tomobile and other manufactured artiment. When they achieved the gate- cles will soon arrive, Dr. W. M. Jar-Belding was unconsolable. He way of the pass the sun was low in dine, president of the Kansas State tie up herses and go forward on foot, days ago before the Washington Ad The narrow neck of the pass opened club.

wide, perhaps twice that in length, quainted with only one side of the ad-Belding grouned and bowed his head. It had apparently unscalable slopes of vertising business," he said. "In the "Laddy, you're right," he replied, weathered rock leading up to beetling main he thinks of advertising as a are to blame in part, he is to blame in more or less tricky device employed by part and business men are to blame in "Keep down, boys," said Ladd, middlemen to separate him from his part. In a certain sense, advertising "There's the waterbole, an hosses money. He probably has somewhat men are much to blame. Problems in have sharp eyes. Shore the Yaqui the same opinion of advertising as a marketing, advertising and selling that figurered this place. I never seen its target has of rifle practice.

Both white and black herses showed are pointing in another direction, lected. "What do you mean to do?" demand. against the green, and a thin curling Bankers and members of chambers of column of blue smoke rose lazily from commerce have begun to take the far- begun to concern themselves with the mer in as a business partner. They selling end of their business. They "I recken we'd better wait till dark, are seeing that they must help him bave begun to learn to sell cooperator mebby daylight," said Jim Lash. | earn more money, and they are begin- | ively, to organize and to respect their "Let me figger some. Dick, what ming to see that he needs help princi- organization. The next generation of do you make of the outlet to this pally with his marketing and selling farmers is going to grow up already problems.

With his glass Gale studied the nar- "The selling end of the farmer's The Yaqui's strange glance roved row construction of walls and rough business has been badly and most unover the corrat, the swinging gate ened rising floor. The Votican has issued a warning foctunately neglected. Circumstances to prelates not to take part in polities.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL

Junday Jchoo esson

mornin'. That Greaser outfit will hang the REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.) Copyright, 1922, Western Newspaper Union.

> LESSON FOR DECEMBER 3 JESUS SENDING DUT MISSION-ARIES

> LESSON TEXT-Luke 10:1-24. GOLDEN TEXT-The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few; pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest that He would send forth laborers into the harvest .- Luke 10:2. REFERENCE MATERIAL - Matthew PRIMARY TOPIC-Jesus Sends Out Seventy Helpers, JUNIOR TOPIC-Jesus Sends Forth Seventy Missionaries.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC

-Heralds of the Kingdom. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC -Our Home Mission Work,

I. The Seventy Sent Forth (vv. 1, 2). 1. Appointed by the Lord (v. 1). Only those should go forth who are appointed by the Lord.

2. Sent Forth Two by Two (v. 1).

The purpose of this was that they might mutually help, counsel and support each other. 3. Reason for Their Appointment (v. 2). The harvest was great, but the laborers were few. The task before the Christian church after nearly 1900 years is still great. 4. Pray the Lord to Send Forth Laborers (v. 2). The realization of the prodigious task before us will cause us to pray to the Lord to send forth more laborers. II. Instructions Given (vy. 3-16).

1. He Reveals the Dangers Confronting Them (v. 3). They were thrust forth by the Lord to proclaim His name, though so doing would expose them to deadly peril, even as lambs surrounded by hungry wolves. It maters not what the dangers are if the Lord sends forth.

2. Free From All Incumbrance (v. 4). The mission was urgert, so all that would in any way hinder the speedy execution of the task was to be left behind. 3. Distraction of Social Intercourse to Be Omitted (v. 41). Eastern salutations were long-drawn affairs. To go into such formalities would delay Christ's messengers.

4. Behavior in the Homes Where Received (vv. 5-9). (1) Offer the peace of the gospel (vv. 5, 6). This is to be done regardless as to whether it will be received or not. There is a reflex blessedness in preaching the gospel. Even when the message is rejected the effort is not wasted, but comes back to the one who has made the effort. (2) Do not shift quarters, (vv. 7, 8). Misslonaries should remain in the home where they have been received, content with what is given them. They should not demand better food and more comfortable quarters than what is commonly provided. However, that which is given should be gratefully received, for the laborer is worthy of his hire. (3) Healed the sick (v. 9). These disciples were given power to beal the sick. The ministers of Christ should seek to give relief to those in distress and use every opportunity to proclaim the gospel message.

5. The Awful Fate of Those Who Reject Christ's Message (vv. 10-16). Their case is more hopeless than that of Sodom. Those who reject Christ's messengers reject Christ.

III. The Return of the Seventy (vv. 17-24).

1. Their Report (v. 17). They were highly elated. They seemed to be agreeably surprised. They not only found that they could heal the sfck, but cast out demons also. They seemed to be filled with self-satisfaction. It is easy even in Christian service to be spoiled by our successes.

2. Jesus' Answer (vv. 18-24). (1) He told them it was no surprise to Him-(vv. 18, 19). With prophetic eye He saw their success as indicating that time when the prince of this world would be overthrown (John 12:31). By virtue of His mighty triumph over Satan He assures them that they need have no fear of what should befall them. Nothing could harm them; nothing could prosper which opposed them. Indeed, nothing can harm the servant who goes about His Master's business. (2) Real cause for rejoicing (v. 20). He promptly rebuked them, telling them that their chief joy should be because of their heavenly relation, not because of these miraculous gifts. That above all which should provoke gratitude is the fact that God has chosen in Christ and saved us, inscribing our names in heaven. (3) Jesus' exultation (vv. 21, 22). The consciousness that soon the victory would be won because God had committed all things unto Him, and that only as men received Him could they know the Father, caused Him to rejoice in what was being accomplished. (4) Congratulates the disciples. (vv. 23, 24).

need solution much more than money "The signs of the times, however, which have been solved, have been neg-

Agricultural men of America have 'sold' to the idea of organization." -

GIRL MAKES SACRIFICE. Women of Japan Protest Against Slavery of Sax In That Country.

One of the most sensational and unmese girl, well known as one of the leaders of "New Japan's New Wodeath would startle the country, cause party which recently made an expedipublic opinion to be concentrated on tion to the crater. They estimated that he reason why she took the tragic sicp and thus promote the cause for which she had made the supreme sacrifice.

On a summer evening in early August, as hundreds of persons gather-ed at Omori railway station, a few DO YOU WANT A HOME niles from Tokio and a popular resiiential suborb of the Japanese capital, eard a treble voice call "Sayonara" (Goodbye), saw a girl wave her slim ands, and throw herself in front of ah on-rushing express train. The iron nonster sped on, the driver totally unconscious of the tragedy. At the next station the slim body, dressed in a rich kimeno, was extricated from under the wheels. Death must have teen instantaneous.

At the inquest it was revealed that the girl. Yac-ko Miyata, had gone to Omori station with the fixed resolve of taking her life in the presence of as nany persons as possible. Two letters had been written by her announcing her intention. In her handbag was ound another statement in which she declared that she had determined to take her life and that no one except the 'system that makes slaves of women in Japan" was to blame for her action. It is also declared that she had "decided to take the long journey in order that the Japanese nation wake to the gross injustices that are being inflicted on the women of this country who can hardly call their souls heir own."

When a Japanese feels that there is need for laying special stress or emphasis on matters affecting the welfare turns in the direction of suicide. In Japan the suicide if he has sacrificed nimself or herself for what is thought worthy cause, is often honored in leath and even deified. The Japanese, ike many other Oriental nations, have haughty contempt of death. Their eligion teaches them that their life s their own and that they should not hesitate to lose even this if thereby some good can be wrought.

Japanese women are today as never pefore, hungering for the right to live their own lives, to choose their own mates, to throw off the fetters of old convention and to plan their own des-

The women of Japan have thrown lown the gage to the men who made zinc, costing you only $2.75 or less per the old conventions and insist on their gallon. Liberal Terms. Ask for them. bservance. On a hillock by the side of the home of Miss Mivata's parents here was erected two weeks later a modest shrine, where Japanese lasses casings and TWO-TON TESTED to to pay their respects to the spirit TUBES. None better. of the dead girl. Of an evening many kneel on the hard gravel and with dead companion. Flowers are placed built for service and at reasonable before the shrine, and in silence the prices. worshippers withdraw.

UNTOUCHED EDEN.

Game Sanctuary May Shelter Prehistoric Animals.

An untouched Eden in the mouth of burned-out volcano in the heart of Africa, providing a place of refuge for thousands of animals, many of them possibly extinct in other parts of the WAS THE OWNER'S VERDICT world, is to be explored by scientists. The land forming the mouth of the velcano has been purchased by an Englishman who will organize an exaddition to probe the secrets of the mater, relates a London dispatch. The volcano is the giant Ngoro-Ngoo, the largest crater on this planet. The mouth is ten miles across and a veritable paradise for wild animals, centuries, safe from attack. The steep The Germans knew of it before the sides of the volcano make a natural war, but kept its existence a sccret.

RESENTS CHARGE.

Marshal Foch is exceedingly angry because of attacks which have been ma'e on him charging him with being a political back. He is alleged to have given an intorview ontaining a violent attack on Clemenceau's trip to America to appeal to the United Lates for help for France. Marshal Foch says the "Tiger" was tricked on Rhine guaranties, and France was tricked in turn.

ic attention in Japan on the fight that toric animals, believed to have perish- disc for animals. being waged by Japanese women for ed from the earth thousands of years he right to live their own lives, says ago, may inhabit its caves, and scien-Tokio dispatch, was recently reveal- tists hope to find live creatures of d here when a handsome young Jap- which only the skeletons have been discovered in other parts of the world. The explorer photographer, T. A. men," threw berself in front of a pass- Burnes, and Mrs. Frederick Dalziel, ng express train in the hope that her both of New York, were members of a 75,000 animals inhabit this strange land. The crater, in fact, is a city of pels respect. animals which have lived there for

OF YOUR OWN? Build

LOGAN LUMBER YARD

Now

"We Strive to Serve and Satisfy." F. E. MOORE, Proprietor

YOUR EGGS AND COUNTRY PRO-DUCE. WE'LL PAY YOU THE HIGHEST MARKET PRICES.

JUST REMEMBER-YOU GET QUALITY GROCERIES AT RIGHT PPICES WHEN YOU

TRADE WITH US. family, Japanese mentality generally NIVENS BROS Near Hawthorn Mill

B. R. NIVENS, Manager CLOVER, S. C. YORK, S. C.

On Charlotte Street

B. M. NIVENS, Manager DO IT NOW

PAINT YOUR HOME and SAVE IT,

GLIDDEN'S

EQUIP YOUR FORD WITH Pennsylvania Vacuum Cup

Heating Stoves, Ranges,

PEOPLES FURNITURE ___ COMPANY -

when he first looked at his newly painted car. SINCE THEN we have done many good jobs and are hoping to do more. We use the BEST and most enduring Paints, Oils, Varnishes, applied by Skilled Painters who are masters of their craft, and return your old car looking like a NEW ONE.

JOHNSON'S PAINT

JAS. A. JOHNSON, Manager ROCK HILL, S. C.

barrier against the outside world and There is a wide range of possibilities there are few men, white or black, who as to what a thorough exploration of have dared to penetrate the surrrounderreccuented methods of focusing pub- the crater may bring forth. Prehis- ing forests even to look into this part of

YORK EVIDENCE FOR YORK PEOPLE

The statements of York residents are surely more reliable than those of utter strangers-

Home testimony is real proof. Public statements of York people carry real weight.

What a friend or neighbor says combant The word of one whose home is fan away invites doubts. Here's a York man's statement.

And it's for York people's benefit. That's the kind of proof that backs WILBO-LAX. J. M. Latham, York, says: I had am long spell of indigestion and suffered with gas and constipation, and also

As Wilbo-Lax was highly recommended to me I bought a bottle at the York Drug Store, and I can trutbfally say that Wilbo-Lax has done me more good than any other medicine of its kind that I have ever tried.

Price 50 Cents a Bottle at the YORK DRUG STORE

Typewriter papers in one pound lots at The Enquirer Office.

CATHOLIC BOOKS

SENT FREE ON APPLICATION GET YOUR INFORMATION FIRST HAND.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY

WRITA TO

REV. W. A. TOBIN Saint Anne's Church ROCK HILL, S. C.

Thumanini in manamana and a fall and a fall

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

Dr. C. L. WOOTEN assets - DENTIST -OFFICE OVER THE POSTOFFICE Telephones: Office, 128; Residence, 93 CLOVER, - S. C.

Ver were trouble trouble 15 hewing 17 DR. WM. M. KENNEDY - DENTAL SURGEON -

Building. Telephones: Office, 99; Residence, 168. YORK, S. C. Single adt

edf se

W. G. Finley

Office on Second Floor of the Wylie

J. S. BRICE Attorney At Law

Prompt Attention to all Legal Business of Whatever Nature.
Office on Main Street in the Moore Building, First Floor, formerly occupied by S. E. Spencer.

J. A. Marion MARION AND FINLEY ATTORNEYS AT LAW Office opposite the Courthouse, 280 Prone 126, YORK,S. C.

YORK FURNITURE CO. Undertakers — Embalmers

YORK, - . S. C. In All Its Branches-Motor Equipment, Prompt Service Day or Night In-Town or Country.

JNO. R. HART SHOP ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR

AT LAW. Auto Painters, Body and Top Builders, Prompt and Careful Attention to Affine Business Undertakon-Tolophone No. 69. YORK. 8. C.

YORKVILLE COTTON OIL COMPANY

THE TAXABLE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF THE PAR

FIRST CLASS FLOUR

OUR ROLLER MILL, always kept in good condition and in charge of a Miller who knows his business, has been through a complete overhauling, and we are GIVING A SATISFACTORY YIELD OF FIRST-CLASS FLOUR FROM GOOD WHEAT.

OUR PATRONS testify that they are unable to get better satisfaction than we give them anywhere. Bring us your wheat.

YORKVILLE COTTON OIL COMPANY