Public Taken in Confidence.-The Rock Hill school board has taken the penses of the farm demonstration public into its confidence by publishing agent. in one of the newspapers of that city a statement of its receipts and disbursements for the last year. The action of the board seems to have been of Rock Hill's schools. It would not be NI a later time. but because in every community there are people who like to know just how the support of the farm workers. the public money is being spent .-Fort Mill Times.

Thought He Was Seeing Double .-A college professor who prided himself on his self-control, and who never drank anything, was invited to a dinner party by a society woman whose dinners were known to be rather gay, although she was a mother. As the professor expected, however, there was champaigne, and, keeping himself well in hand, he drank a couple of glasses. Just at this point in the dinner, somebody suggested that the hostess should exhibit her children. She rang the bell, and the nurse appeared with a dainty pink basket in which reposed twins. When the nurse got around to the professor he rose, steadying himself and exclaimed:

"What a beautiful baby!"-Success.

Born Salesman .- A small boy was complaining to a sympathetic neighbor of his father's suddenly acquired penuriousness. He wasn't giving his off-spring money for ice cream and soda water as before and the latter was greatly stirred over the change in his parent's nature.

"Papa's saving his money, but I tell him it's foolish," he observed. "Saving, eh?" commented the neigh-

"Yes. Papa says he's saving to buy a baby, but I think I'll be able to talk him out of it."

Tactics .- The war brought a number of military phrases into civiljan usage, as everybody knows,

In a newspaper office recently the city editor looked wearily at the bright young reporter who had submitted a big bundle of copy in a description of some trival incident.

"Deploy that!" he snapped. "Deploy it?" repeated the new man. "I don't understand." "Turn that column into a line."
