

Look to the Senate.

The St. Louis Bulletin says: The present Democratic majority in the Senate of the United States is so large, that the unreflecting may be disposed to underrate the importance of the late loss of two Senators from the State of Oregon...

After the admission of Kansas, there will be sixty-eight Senators, of which thirty-five is a majority. At the beginning of the next Administration the Democrats will have thirty Senators from the Southern States...

We have classed among the Democratic Senators, Mr. Kennedy, of Maryland, who is not a Democrat, but who will always be found voting with the South against the Black Republicans...

Not long since there was an overwhelming majority in the House of Representatives, which was swept away at the next election by the treachery of Stephen A. Douglas...

That last bulwark is about to be swept away by the action of the Douglasites, and should Lincoln be elected, he will have both branches of Congress favorable to him before his term is half finished...

These things call for serious reflection on the part of those who would preserve the equal rights of the States. What protection can there be for our rights, with every branch of the government in the hands of the enemies of the Constitution...

DISUNION.—Gen. L. P. Walker, of Alabama, we note, does not attempt to conceal his disunionism. In a speech made recently at Cowpen Springs, in Lauderdale County, he is reported in a letter to the Montgomery Advertiser as follows:

In reply to the question, "what would he do if Lincoln was elected?" Gen. W. said, drawing himself up to his full height, and in the sublimest strain of eloquence, "I would fight and die with you."

LOUISIANA MOVING.—The New Orleans Delta says that a number of the citizens of Louisiana, including many of the most prominent merchants of New Orleans, without regard to party, have addressed to Governor Moore a petition...

The District of Columbia has now a population of 75,000, having increased about one-third part in the last ten years.

MINUTE MEN IN FLORIDA.—The Fernandina East Floridian says: We are pleased to learn that a company of "Minute Men" has recently been organized in Fernandina...

ST. BARTHOLOMEW'S PARISH.—A corps of mounted riflemen, sixty-three rank and file, have been formed in this Parish, and are known as "Marion Men of Combahee."

ELECTED.—Among the Democratic members of Congress, just elected in Indiana, is the Hon. D. W. Voorhees, whose great speech in behalf of Cook, condemned and executed at Charlestown, Va., gave him a national reputation...

ABBEVILLE.—Senator.—J. Foster Marshall. Representatives.—W. C. Davis, J. N. Cochran, S. McGowan, W. J. Lomax, H. H. Harper.

Our Delegation. The Yorkville Enquirer, in an editorial glance at the members of the Legislature recently chosen, speaks in the following complimentary terms of the Anderson delegation:

Mr. Hayne is a son of the Hon. Robert Y. Hayne, a name very familiar to the heart of South Carolina. Hitherto a quiet, unpretending planter, he nevertheless has the olden time "fire in his eye," and Anderson District should be congratulated upon his entrance into public life.

Hon. W. L. Yancey. We publish on the fourth page an interesting sketch of this gentleman, who has occupied so prominent a place in the important political movements during the past few months.

"Young Men! Your Country Calls You!" There has originated in the past few weeks an organization all over the Southern States under the style of "Minute Men," having for its object the maintenance of Southern equality and the defence of Southern rights.

Gen. Duff Green has written a long appeal to the people of the slaveholding States, in the course of which he says: "As to the institution of slavery, the march of science and the progress of events are rapidly demonstrating that it is a necessity resulting from the nature and condition of man, and to the whole people of this country one of the chief sources of their welfare and prosperity."

Mr. Blackstock, a Baptist preacher in Buchanan, Harlan county, Ga., was killed by a man named Philpot on the 1st inst.

Maj. J. F. Perry's Speech.

We have in several articles heretofore reviewed the policy of the distinguished gentleman whose late speech appeared in our last issue. His views contained in this last effort do not differ from those promulgated by him in letter form...

The first few paragraphs of his speech contain a statement of the political excitement which the agitated and threatened disunion in times past, we pass from these statements, allowing them all the weight necessary to give his coloring force, and come to his enumeration of policy in regard to the Presidential election.

He differs with those who say that Lincoln will be elected, and that disunion must follow. He does not "believe a word of it," and states that the fusion in New York will prevent the success of Lincoln.

He denies the avowed and settled policy set forth by Lincoln himself and all the Black Republican leaders. Their purpose in regard to slavery in the States is distinct and abundantly explicit.

But says Maj. Perry, the Black Republicans are widely separated from the abolitionists. They are distinct and different parties. The Lincoln crew are not in favor of interfering with slavery where it exists...

He is further asserted that the bare election of a Black Republican is not sufficient cause to break up the government. In one sense, we admit the statement as true.

Then remark, Luke and John in the same manner, say all treat upon the same subject. After having read them in succession the third time, you will no doubt be able to cancel many of your man.

Now read the Acts of the Apostles, which is the key to all Epistles; then the Epistles in a similar manner. Always before reading an Epistle, read everything said about the people addressed in it, which you find in the Acts of the Apostles.

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA.—Up to Tuesday evening five hundred students had obtained from the firm of the Faculty permission to matriculate the University of Virginia.

The Abbeville District Fair is said by the Banner to have been a great success. The exhibitors were 432 in number.

For the Intelligencer.

Secession.—Co-operation.—State Action. Messrs. Editors: Perhaps no period of the world's existence has there been such a diversity of matter for reflection and discussion as now, and never was there such an array of disputants...

I well remember the time when the action of the abolitionists of the North, and the consequent talk of secession at the South, would both have been pronounced treason towards each other, treason to the whole country; ay, and treason against the God who had so signally assisted to establish this government...

Severely had the idea of secession taken root upon Southern soil in 1850 and '51, when some unbounded genius discovered that it had to be effected by co-operation; that is, by a union of several or all of the slave States; and strange as it may appear, this absurd idea has held its sway over the South for ten years.

But says Maj. Perry, the Black Republicans are widely separated from the abolitionists. They are distinct and different parties. The Lincoln crew are not in favor of interfering with slavery where it exists...
