

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

There are a number of gentlemen, both in the town and country, who subscribed to the Intelligencer in person, assuring us they would promptly hand over the small amount in a very few days; and it is for the purpose of reminding such as have not complied with our terms, that we are anxious to regard them in a favorable light and trust they will not longer undermine our confidence by withholding that which is our due.

LATE FILES

Of Charleston and New York papers have been kindly furnished us this week, for which our thanks are due to Messrs. E. M. MORELAND, M. JESSER and G. N. LEITCH.

GRAPES.

We don't mean "sour grapes"—such as we've read of—but fresh, luscious and tempting Grapes, sent to our sanctum by a fair demoiselle, who will accept our kindest compliments for the acceptable favor.

S. H. OWEN.

Our friend OWEN has lately returned to his former home, and is prepared to execute all work in his line with promptness and dispatch, and at living prices. He occupies a portion of the Post Office, in Masonic Building.

TO "ALIEL"

The charming plea of our fair correspondent almost persuaded us to become lenient for once, and remove the restriction in regard to anonymous articles. But upon second thought, curiosity was excited to know who could pen such lines—sweet and plaintive—and we must adhere to the letter of the law, in this instance. We trust, therefore, "Aliel" will send in her real name—editors keep the secrets of their sanctum inviolable, if necessary.

NEW STORE.

An advertisement, or rather a series of advertisements, in another column, announces to the people of this District the opening of another establishment, where may be found an excellent assortment of goods suited to the wants of this section. Mr. C. C. MILLER is the proprietor, but he is assisted by one of our old and favorite merchants, Mr. A. B. TOWERS, who will be pleased to wait on his friends and former customers. We bespeak for these gentlemen a liberal share of patronage.

THE ELECTION.

The town was thronged on Monday with our country friends, in attendance upon the election for members of the Convention. We are happy to state that everything passed off quietly and with the utmost good order prevailing. The officer commanding at that time, Lt. Col. TROWBRIDGE, removed the usual guard from the customary quarters, and deputized Sheriff McGEE and a posse of citizens to become the conservators of the peace. This insured the excellent decorum which prevailed, and removed the semblance even of military interference with the exercise of the right of suffrage. The returns of the election will be found in another column.

EXCHANGES.

The Abbeville Bulletin has been changed to the Abbeville Press, and will in future be conducted by LEE & WILSON. The Editor, W. A. LEE, Esq., is a gentleman of ability and finished scholarship, and will make the Press an intelligent exponent of public opinion. Mr. WILSON is a practical printer, and will devote his time to the mechanical execution, which will insure a creditable appearance. We wish these gentlemen abundant success.

The Newberry Herald comes to us considerably enlarged and improved. Increased business and prosperity are the causes of this change for the better, and we congratulate the energetic and worthy proprietors upon their wholesome condition.

It is a noticeable fact, that the advantages of newspapers are better appreciated in this section than at any time during our long experience in the business, and with our brethren of the press, we may felicitate each other upon the auspicious omen. A reading people are necessarily intelligent, and if the war brought no other blessing with its catalogue of woes, the desire for light and information, through the medium of newspapers, counterbalances some of its minor hardships, and assures us that the masses are eager for knowledge and thirst for correct versions of current events. In no other way can this be so thoroughly accomplished than by the local organs scattered over the land, and we hail it as a healthy and invigorating sign that the people everywhere sustain their District papers.

THE SOUTHERN EXPORT AND IMPORT COMPANY.

We invite the attention of farmers in this section to the advertisement of the above named Company, which offers superior facilities for the shipment of Cotton directly to the manufacturer, avoiding all intermediate profits. One-half of the value in Liverpool is advanced immediately upon the receipt of shipment in Charleston—at present rates, from 17 to 20 cents in gold. The Company assumes responsibility on delivery of Cotton to the Agent, and makes the advance of all necessary expenses. Mr. PERONNEAU, the Agent at Anderson, or his representative, may be found at the Store of A. B. TOWERS, No. 4 Granite Row.

THE SOUTHERN BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

We are glad to learn that this institution will be opened for students of Theology on the first of November next. It was located at Greenville, S. C., some years before the war, and had reached a prosperous state when forced to suspend on account of the conscription. It will be opened with its former corps of instructors, all present. We learn that information has already been received of some students who will attend.

ELECTION RETURNS.

The following is the official return of the election held on Monday last in this District for members to the Convention: Hon. JAMES L. ORR received 623 votes; JOHN WILSON, 607; Dr. A. EVINS, 451; W. S. PICKENS, 403; Rev. J. S. MURRAY, 347; O. H. P. FANT, 326; W. D. WILKES, 306; W. S. MOORE, 260; N. MCALISTER, 187; ISHAM W. TAYLOR, 100. Messrs. ORR, WILSON, EVINS and PICKENS are elected. There were a number of scattering votes. Owing to the pressure upon our columns, it is impossible to give full returns this week.

FRESH STOCK.

One of our nearest neighbors, M. LESSER, has just returned from market with a well selected stock of Staple and Fancy Goods, and makes known by advertising that customers may be supplied at the lowest market prices. Don't forget to call at No. 9 Granite Row, when you are inspecting the varied assortments to be found in the village.

Salt for Sale

AT $3.50 PER BUSHEL, BY C. MATHEWES. Aug. 31, 1865

SOUTHERN EXPORT AND

Import Company. Capital $100,000.

THIS Company is now organized, and is prepared to do business. It has been established by Planters to enable them to ship their Cotton direct to the manufacturers, and purchase the supplies direct from the manufacturer.

There will be an Agent in England, France and Germany, which will enable you to order your goods from either of those countries. To the Long Cotton Planter, this Company is particularly advantageous—for as there is no market in this country for Long Cotton, and it varies so much in quality, and each of those countries requiring a particular class of Long Cotton, we will send forward samples of their Cotton by steamers, which will be exhibited in each of those markets, thereby enabling us to send it to that market which the quality best suits, and where it will bring the highest price, without any extra charge to the planter. Bagging and Rope will be furnished when desired.

Advances will be made on Cotton, Naval Stores, Lumber, &c., consigned to our Agents. Middling to Fair Short Cotton was worth, by last quotations, 35 to 40 cents per pound, in gold, in Liverpool, and Long Cotton from 50 to 90 cents per pound in gold. We will advance one-half its value when delivered at a seaport town, which will be 17 to 20 cents in gold, or 25 to 30 cents per pound in currency, on Short Cotton, or on Long Cotton 20 to 45 cents in gold, or 35 to 65 cents per pound in currency. Our Agents will receive it at any Depot on the Railroad, and take charge of it, and pay all expenses to the point of shipment, and the Government tax of 2 cents per pound. We would advise the planter to draw for as small an amount as possible, as the discount on drafts are heavy—they will save from one to two per cent. by having the gold remitted to them, and also save the interest. Planters who desire it can have their money deposited in Bank in London, subject to their drafts, and drawing five cent. per annum interest. Your Cotton can be held as long as desired in Europe, at a very small expense, and being covered by insurance, renders it safe from loss.

Also,

STRENGTHENED attention paid to the purchase of every article ordered from a paper of necessities to a steam engine. Machinery, Engines, Sugar Mills, Boilers, Hardware, Cutlery, Crockery, China, Glass, Groceries, Tens, Wines, Liqueurs, Dry Goods, Linens, Carpets, Ladies and Gentlemen's Wearing Apparel, Dresses, Bonnets, Boots, Cloves, Under Clothing, &c. Furniture, Musical Instruments, Garden Seeds, Paintings, &c., also Cattle, Sheep, Hogs, &c., selected with care. Experienced Gardener, Laborers and Servants chosen and hired from England and Germany.

It is not necessary to ship Cotton to order any of these articles. It is only necessary to place our Agents in funds to procure the same, and have it delivered at the point ordered. Every article placed in our charge will be covered by Insurance. EDUCATORS. Youngs sent to our care will be placed at schools, carefully selected, in either England, France or Germany, and we will make no charge for our services. The cost will be from $200 to $300 per annum, including clothing, board, tuition, books, washing, &c. There are now a number of youths who will leave Charleston in October, by sailing vessels, for Liverpool, which will afford a good opportunity.

Every article ordered will be purchased direct from the manufacturer, when possible, at the lowest price, and as our orders will be very large, the manufacturers will put their goods at the wholesale price to induce direct trade. This is an opportunity seldom offered to Merchants, Railroad Superintendents, Mechanics and Planters to order European Goods, which can now be laid down at very low prices. We will furnish prices current each month to those who desire them. Samples of goods will be sent to those who wish to make large purchases. At present our vessels will sail from Charleston and Savannah.

Our Agents are all Southern men, who understand the wants of the Planters. A Lady from Charleston will go over to superintend the purchases of all articles desired by the Ladies. Of an commission for selling Cotton is 2 1/2 per cent., and there is no charge by our Agents for forwarding. Our commissions for purchasing depends upon the amounts ordered. For further particulars apply to any of our Agents. RICHARD F. FLOYD, President, Jacksonville, Fla. E. T. PAINE, Agent, Liverpool, England. R. E. SENEVANT, Agent, Charleston, S. C. Wm. H.
