NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

EXCHANGES.

Lauraville Herald.—The once familiar face which has long been hid behind the clouds of adversity which have swept over the land, again appears to our editorial visage, and we greet the Herald with a warmth and sincerity wholly unaffected.

The Daily South Carolinian.—This excellent and time-honored journal has re-appeared in Charleston. Its long and useful career is too well known for us to recapitulate now.

A DISUNION PARTY.

When the armies of the South were surrendered, and all attempts at armed resistance had subsided, it was not thought that within the same year which marked the close of the gigantic struggle, there would arise another party or section to essay what had met with so signal a failure.

The friends of MANSON S. JOLLY nominate him for Sheriff of Anderson District at the next election.

The friends of JOHN D. M. DOBBINS respectfully nominate him as a candidate for Sheriff of Anderson District at the next election.

elections has been taken. The first Monday in December the regular session of Congress begins, and according to the teachings of this Pharisaical sect of politicians, the admission of our members depends solely upon the capricious action of a single individual—the Clerk of the House of Representatives.

GEN. LEE.—Some Northern correspondent in Virginia has actually procured a copy of the amnesty oath subscribed to by Gen. Lee. And the most remarkable thing about it is, that the noble and venerated hero has actually taken the same oath that every other Southern man has subscribed to.

The people of Connecticut rejected the amendment to the State Constitution conferring suffrage on the negro by a majority of 6,700 votes.

Hymenial.
