

HEADQUARTERS,
Military District Western S. Carolina,
FOURTH SEPARATE BRIGADE,
COLUMBIA, S. C., Feb. 16, 1866.
GENERAL ORDER NO. 9.

1. Before a Military Commission, which convened at Headquarters, Military District of Western South Carolina, Fourth Separate Brigade, Columbia, South Carolina, pursuant to Special Order No. 48, dated Headquarters, Military District of Western South Carolina, Fourth Separate Brigade, Columbia, South Carolina, November 30, 1865, and of which Lieutenant-Colonel C. S. Brown, 1st Maine Battalion, is President, was arraigned and tried:

Biggs Mobley, citizen of Chester District, State of South Carolina.

Charge: Assault and Battery, with Intent to Kill.

Specification: In this, that Biggs Mobley, a citizen of Chester District, State of South Carolina, did, on or about the 19th day of November, 1865, on his plantation, in the District of South Carolina, aforesaid, shoot, with a pistol, a colored freedman, by the name of Lizzie Mobley, thereby inflicting a severe wound, from the effects of which the said Lizzie Mobley, still lingers in a critical condition.

To which Charge and Specification the accused pleaded as follows:

To the Specification of the Charge, "Not Guilty." To the Charge, "Not Guilty."

FINDINGS.

The Commission having maturely considered the evidence adduced, finds the accused, Biggs Mobley, citizen of Chester District, State of South Carolina, as follows:

Of the Specification, "Guilty." Of the Charge, "Guilty."

SENTENCE.

And the Commission do, therefore, sentence him, the said Biggs Mobley, citizen of Chester District, State of South Carolina, to be confined at hard labor for the period of Three Years, at the Albany Penitentiary, Albany, New York, and to forfeit a fine of One Thousand ($1,000) Dollars.

If the proceedings and findings in the foregoing case of Biggs Mobley, a citizen of Chester District, in the State of South Carolina, are approved.

The sentence is confirmed, and will be carried into execution at the Albany Penitentiary, State of New York. The District Provost Marshal will turn the prisoner over, with a copy of this order, to the Provost Marshal General of the Department.

The Quartermaster's Department will furnish the necessary transportation.

By order: Brevet Major-General A. AMES, J. A. CLARK, A. A. D. C. and Act. Ass't Adj't Gen'l.

HEADQUARTERS,
THIRD SUB-DISTRICT,
Military District Western South Carolina,
ANDERSON C. H., S. C., March 6, 1866.
GENERAL ORDER NO. 4.

It having been ascertained upon reliable authority that certain persons in different parts of this Sub-District have advised the planters, in some instances, not to have their contracts with freedmen approved; and in other instances not to have them made in writing; it is hereby Ordered,

1. That all Contracts made with freedmen for more than one month, must be reduced to writing in triplicate, and approved at the Headquarters of the nearest Post.

2. Any person who shall advise, either planter or freedman, not to have their contracts reduced to writing and approved, will be liable to a fine of not less than Twenty-five, and not more than One Hundred Dollars, or imprisonment for a term of not less than ten and not more than thirty days, or both fine and imprisonment, as the Provost Court may decide.

3. All freedmen and women now employed must be contracted with on or before the 25th day of March. All persons who may have freedmen in their employ after the Twenty-fifth, and have not had their contracts reduced to writing and approved, will be liable to a fine of not less than Twenty-five, and not more than One Hundred Dollars, and not more than One Hundred Dollars per month.

4. Any person who may have freedmen in their employ at this time, under verbal contracts, and desiring the same to avoid a written contract, shall pay to each such as employed at the rates of Three Dollars per month, for all time so employed, since the First day of January, 1866; and all females so employed at the rate of Eight Dollars per month.

5. After a Contract has been approved by the proper authority, it cannot be annulled except by mutual consent of the contracting parties. Any person or persons who may or shall induce any freedman so employed to leave their employer, or violate their contract, or give employment to any such freedman without the consent of their employer, shall be liable to a fine of One Hundred Dollars, and be imprisoned at the discretion of the Provost Court.

By command of Lieut.-Col. C. S. BROWN, H. A. JOHNSON, Lieut. & A. A. Gen'l.

HEADQUARTERS,
Military District Western So. Ca.,
FOURTH SEPARATE BRIGADE,
COLUMBIA, S. C. Feb. 10, 1866.

It is reported that lawless men in this District, who have been and are committing the grossest outrages upon whites and blacks, and who have, in some instances, fired upon United States soldiers; and who, in violation of property, &c., are harbored and aided by the citizens of the Districts in which they operate. All those persons who aid and harbor such lawless men, will be arrested and held in close confinement as accomplices, to be tried by Military Courts. This will not be considered as applying to the future only but to the past. The authority of the Government must prevail.

By order of Brevet Major-General AMES, J. A. CLARK, A. A. D. C. and Act. Ass't Adj't Gen'l.

LANDRETH'S
GENUINE
GARDEN SEEDS,
OF THE GROWTH OF 1865.

The subscriber has just received, and is now opening, a very large stock of LANDRETH'S GENUINE GARDEN SEEDS, of last year's crop, embracing all the varieties usually cultivated in this climate; together with several rare kinds not hitherto known here.

As heretofore, he is prepared to supply country dealers with any quantity of these well-known and highly-approved seeds, neatly put up in convenient-sized packages, and at such prices as will insure satisfactory profits. A supply of ONION SEEDS, produced from the seed, which will give the grower the largest, smoothest, and, in every respect, the finest Onions; and that in a very few weeks. Also, BIRD SEEDS of every kind, very carefully cleaned.

EDWARD SILL, South side Plain street, midway between Baptist Church and Nickerson's Hotel.

The Newberry Herald, Spartanburg Spartan, Anderson Intelligencer, Winnsboro Register, will please give the above two insertions and send bills to this office.—Columbia Phoenix.
