BE ON YOUR GUARD !

Stealing corn from the fields has commenced in good earnest, in some localities on this side the District, and we fear will become general, before the crop is gathered. In some instances the freedmen have been found guilty. Our farmers need to be watchful and vigilant.

CORN.

Have our people ever reflected upon the power of corn ? We do not mean its elevating power when used in the shape of mountain dew, but as a feeding power and a source of agricultural wealth .--'The crop of 1866 is estimated at 1,039,000,000 bushels. How many people would that number of bushels feed, and what would be their value at sixty cents per bushel ? No danger of starvation.

WHERE IS IT?

Since the Atlantic Cable has been laid, and put to work, our readers have read many despatches Trom Valentia and Heart's Content, and we have often heard the inquiry made, where are those places. In latitude, forty degrees, fifty minutes, longitude, fifty-two degrees, twenty minutes, is a umall bay, projecting from the east side of Trinity Bay, on the Island of Newfoundland, are three small collections of fishing huts, one of which is Heart's Content, the American terminus of the Atlantic Cable. Valentia, the Irish terminus of the Cable, is an Island of the coast of Ireland, and is about six thousand acres in extent, with a population of about two thousand souls, who are principally devoted to stock raising.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

others. Some are indifferent whether they are called SMITH, BROWN, or JONES, while others in-ANDREW JACKSON. The negroes are to be classed and record the names by which they wish to be known. One couple give in that of Mr. and Mrs. Gen. BEAUREGAED; Mr. and Mrs. Gen. LEE, Mr. and Mrs. Gen. STONEWALL Jackson, and so on through the catalogue of distinguished names .-Two worthy Ministers organized the colored members into a separate Church, in a neighborhood not far from here. Having completed the organization satisfactorily, it became necessary to give the Church a name. One of the brothers proposed that it be known as "Mt. Zion." The negroes tooked at each other, said nothing, and hung down their heads. Seeing that the name did not please them, the other brother arose, and proposed, inasmuch as they were free, that the Church be called Liberty. He struck the key note then; in an instant every one raised their head, displayed their ivory, and cried out, "yes, Massa, dat's de name ! We call him Liberty."

A DUTY PERFORMED.

The State of North Carolina has discharged a debt due to her limbless herees,-she made an appropriation to supply with artificial limbs all the soldiers who need them, and numbers of them are daily seen in Raleigh, availing themselves of tie merited munificence. We take pleasure in record ing an act, that will reflect credit upon the State for all time.

What has our Legislature done for the South Carolina soldiers, who sacrificed their limbs in defence of their State ? It should repair the disgraceful omission, by making an ample appropriation, as soon as the number, whe need limbs, can be ascertained, and it should at once devise a plan to ascertain the number. This practical benefit, should, at least, be conferred upon the impoverished soldiers of this State.

One word more. The wives and children of those South Carolina, whose blood min gle with the dust of every hattle-field of the lost, but historic Confederacy, are to be found all over the State, poor, forsaken, and nearly hopeless .-Legislation cannot, we suppose, be invoked in their behalf, but we do invoke an organized private charity to give them relief. They are the wards of society, and should be properly cared for.

AFFAIRS IN EAST TENNESSEE. We have had a goodly number of refugees from East Tennessee in our midst, during and since the war, who are no doubt anxions to return, but we advise them not to do so yet. By private letter from a reliable gentleman, who resides in Greenville, we learn that that portion of the State is the theatre of a fierce political contest, between the Radicals and the friends of the Administration, and that it would not be safe fer a Southern man to return thither just now. BROWNLOW and his Secretary of State, have been going through it, making violent and incendiary speeches, and party feeling runs so high, that a civil war is imminent. This is BROWNLOW's intent, for upon his return to Knoxville, he issued a manifesto, in which he substantially declared, that there could be no reconstruction until the Confederate element was killed out, the lands re-surveyed and re-settled. Like JOHN BROWN, BROWNLOW is in carnest : like him, he is playing a role gotten up for him by the Radical leaders, who will abandon him to his fate (the gallows, we trust,) when he has served their purposes. The letter referred to expresses the utmost confidence In the triumph of the Jounson party, and the early restoration of peace. It also informs us that East Tennessee is blessed with abundant crops. Can't the President give BROWNLOW a mission to Hayti, or to the Feejee Islands ?

THE FRIENDS OF "MY POLICY."

President Jounson, attended by Secretary SE-WARD, Gen. GRANT, Admiral FARRAGUT and other notables, is on an extensive tour through the North Western States; and so far, his progress is marked with demonstrations of popular regard, unprecedented in the history of Executive tours. The President goes on his way to the tomb of the DougLAS, waking enthusiasm by his presence and winning votes for the Conservatives by his able and vigorous speeches. This event will arouse men from their lethargy and indifference, cause them to Not much to some people, and a great deal to think, and the effect will be felt in the impending elections. The effect of the Philadelphia Convention is already visible at the North. The New sist upon being called GEOBGE WASHINGTON, or York correspondent of the Charleston Courier, speaking of HENRY WARD BEECHER'S unanswerawith the latter. Since they have become free, the ble defence of the President's policy, says : "With Churches have found it necessary to call them up the religious part of the Republican party, no man in the North can vie in influence with Mr. Beecher. The moral effects of his course, so admirably expressed in his letter, will be worth thousands of votes to the President. One by one the great guns claimed by the opposition are being wheeled into conservative ramparts. The defection of the Evening Post from the Radicals, the adhesion given in by Gen. Grant and Admiral Farrogut to the President, and now the sudden appearance of Henry Ward Beecher in the arena, as a friend of 'my policy,' are some of the signs of the melting away of the Radical faction."

GOOD ADVICE.

The Hon. LANGDON C. HAYNES, who was an ornament to the Confederate States Senate, and a gentleman of spotless integrity, has settled in Memphis, having been driven from his home in East Tennessee, by Radical persecution. We had lost sight of him, until we read an account of the Conservative meeting in Memphis, over which General FORREST presided. On that occasion, Mr. HAYNES was prevailed on to speak, and among the many sensible thoughts uttered by him, we invite the attention of our readers to the following: "I now hink that after all that has transpired in the late struggle, for the late Confederates of the South, private stations are the posts of honor. Deprived of the rights of suffrage, and interdicted the privilege of holding official stations, by test oaths framed by those whom they have no power to challenge as jurors, or except to as judges; let them devote their powers to the industrial and professional pursuits; their reason to the study of philosophy their intellects to the acquisition of learning and the cultivation of literature ; their industry to the adornment of their beautiful and sunny homes; their solicitude to the education of their lovely children ; their decency and dignity to the refine-

NOTICE TO DEBTORS.

BEING fully conscious of the impoverished condibest citizens are unable to meet their liabilities, if forced to do so, without an entire sacrifice of everything left them out of the vortex through which they had passed, I desire to make the most liberal arrangements within my power, with all who are indebted to me. I therefore propose, to allow all persons indebted to me, (and disposed to accept the proposition) four years to pay their indebicdness to me, by paying me regularly, in four equal, annual instalments. This arrangement will give ample time, and afford every opportunity to those indebted to me, to make the means necessary for the liquidation of their debts. All those indebted to me, will find it greatly to their interest, to call and settle with me, as I promise I will not sue any parties who accept of the above proposition, and enter into a settlement on the terms proposed.

IMMIGRATION.

Mr. WAUNER, of Charleston, during last year, addressed a letter to Gov. Onn, on the subject of The matter, we trust, has not been lost sight of, and we hope to learn, at no distant day, that the to promote immigration to her borders. Beside be worthlees and unreliable, it must be remembered, that population is power and wealth, at one, and the same time. South Carolina has been losing this power and wealth at' a fearful rate, since the collapse of the Confederacy, and her population continues, and will continue to flow West, to an alarming extent, and our authorities should at once secure a tide of immigration from Germany, as a compensation. The subject is elicting much attention in the State of Virginia, and gentlemen of foresight and ability are urging the Legislature to act in the matter. We endorse the following paragraph as applicable to South Carolina : "The State of Virginia must have German labor ; It is upon this she must depend, and whatever steps she takes in the future, must be entirely with an eye to this class of labor. They are industrious and more settled in their habits than any other people, and, when once pleased, will hardly shift under any temptation.'

TAX ON COTTON.

By the provisions of the new Internal Revenue Law, "there shall be paid by the producer, owner. or holder, upon all cotton produced within the United States, since the first day of August, 1866. a tax of three cents per pound." The said tax shall be levied by the Assessor, and paid to the Collector of Internal Revenue, within, and for the collection district in which such cotton shall have been produced, by the producer, owner or holder thereof, and before the same shall have been removed therefrom. The cotton to be brought to one or more places in the collection district, designated by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, weighed, marked, and the tax paid; the owner to pay the travelling expenses of the Collector to and from such designated place, where he attends at the owner's house, to assess and collect the tax. Neither the owner, agent, railroad company, or other common carrier, is permitted to remove any cotton from the district, in which it shall have been produced, unless each bale bears the proper marks of the payment of the revenue tax, and is accompanied by a permit of the Collector, for such removal. Any person who shall violate the provisions of this Act, in this respect, "shall be liable to a fine of one hundred dollars on each bale of cotton," and to imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, and the cotton forfeited to the Uniped States.

ment of social life; their hearts to the silent graces of the unobstrusive virtues; their splendid benevolence to the grand purposes of Christian charity ; and their allegiance to their country and their God," Sound advice, if our people will receive it.

WHAT WE PAY.

Among all the blessings "so called" bestowed upon us by the "Rump Congress," we have to thank them for a tariff, which almost amounts to a prohibition. Whenever we step into a store and purchase an article, we pay two hundred per cent. on account of the tariff. A correspondent says : "The Northern manufacturers and importers were never making larger profits than at present. The South has to pay two hundred per cent. advance upon everything they purchase, on account of the tariff '
